

SCHEDULING ORDER: Following a Scheduling Conference the Court sets the following deadlines: Depositions will conclude by 10/11/2023; Non-expert depositions will begin on 1/16/2023 and conclude by 4/11/2023; Plaintiff will designate all trial experts and provide their reports to defendant by 5/11/2023; Defendant will designate all trial experts and provide their reports to plaintiff by 7/18/2023; Plaintiff's reply expert reports must be provided to defendants' counsel by 9/11/2023; Depositions of all experts are to be concluded by 10/11/2023; Discovery will be completed (not propounded) by 10/11/2023; and Dispositive Motions, if any are filed, are due by 11/13/2023. The Joint Trial Memorandum will be filed within 60 days of a decision on any dispositive motion. This case will be trial ready 60 days after the submission of the Joint Trial Memorandum. The Court has permitted the parties to exceed the number and time limitations typically followed for depositions. Each party will be permitted to take up to 30 depositions for a total of 130 hours. Signed by Judge Robert A. Richardson on 5/23/2022. (Fries, J.) (Entered: 05/23/2022)