

10/26/2022

ECF FILER: SUMMARY OF ORAL ARGUMENT submitted by Attorney Daniel J. Aguilar, Esq. for Appellees Administrator of the Health Resources Services Administration, General Counsel United States Department of Health Human Services, Health Resources Services Administration, Secretary United States Department of Health and Human Services and HHS in 21-3168, Attorney Daniel J. Aguilar, Esq. for Appellees HHS, Secretary United States Department of Health and Human Services, General Counsel United States Department of Health Human Services, Health Resources Services Administration and Administrator of the Health Resources Services Administration in 21-3167, Attorney Daniel J. Aguilar, Esq. for Appellants HHS, Secretary United States Department of Health and Human Services, General Counsel United States Department of Health Human Services, Health Resources Services Administration and Administrator of the Health Resources Services Administration in 21-3379, 21-3380, Attorney Daniel J. Aguilar, Esq. for Appellants Secretary United States Department of Health and Human Services, General Counsel United States Department of Health Human Services, Administrator Health Resources and Services Administration, HHS and Health Resources and Services Administration in 22-1676. Case Summary: Whether the district court correctly held that drug manufacturers may not to refuse to offer the 340B statute's discounted drug price to a covered entity (e.g., a clinic or hospital) that uses one or more contract pharmacies to dispense those drugs.. Post Video: YES. [21-3168, 21-3167, 21-3379, 21-3380, 22-1676] (DJA)