ORDER

The court, on its own initiative, CONSOLIDATES these appeals for purposes of briefing and disposition.

Further, a preliminary review of the short record indicates that the order appealed from may not be a final appealable judgment within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 1291, or at the very least may not be ready for appellate review. See Court's order of November 16, 2021, which issued in 21-3128. Accordingly,

Briefing is SUSPENDED pending further court order.
