<sup>1</sup> (1) This deadline applies to document requests that a party has already served. If a party chooses to propound additional document requests, they must do so by this deadline without waiver of the opposing party's right to object to any such requests, including to the extent that it believes that any new requests are impractical and/or overly burdensome in light of the time left for discovery; (2) The Parties agree that nonparty discovery is exempt from this deadline, as are documents a party agrees to produce pursuant to any ongoing or future meet and confer negotiations; (3) Documents ordered to be produced as the result of a motion to compel or a motion challenging privilege designation are exempted from this deadline, although any discovery disputes should be brought to the Court within 45 days before the close of fact discovery.
