PLAINTIFFS' MOTION IN LIMINE
SEEKING JUDICIAL NOTICE OF
STATE GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS

Plaintiffs Lourdes Matsumoto, Northwest Abortion Access Fund, and Indigenous Idaho Alliance, by and through their counsel of record, and pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201, hereby request that the Court take judicial notice of Idaho state legislative history documents relevant to the determination of Plaintiffs' constitutional claims in this case.

The basis for this Motion is that the contents of these documents are not subject to reasonable dispute because they can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned. This motion is further based upon and supported by the Memorandum in Support filed concurrently herewith, and the declaration of Jamila Johnson. It is raised at this juncture to limit discovery in which Plaintiffs must engage.

Case No. 1:23-cv-00323-DKG

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS' MOTION IN LIMINE
SEEKING JUDICIAL NOTICE OF
STATE GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court enter an order on this Motion in Limine stating that it will take judicial notice at trial of the state legislative history materials set forth herein. These materials reflect statements made by, and before, Idaho state officials during the enactment of the law challenged in this litigation. These materials are directly relevant to Plaintiffs’ constitutional right-to-travel claim and are proper subjects of judicial notice, as they are government records obtained from the Idaho State Legislature’s website, whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.

While Plaintiffs and Defendant agree upon the authenticity of the records, Defendant is unwilling to stipulate that judicial notice—rather than entry into evidence through testifying witnesses—is the proper mechanism for legislative history to come before this Court. Plaintiffs, however, believe judicial notice is the appropriate mechanism to admit legislative history documentation. Resolving this issue now will allow Plaintiffs to appropriately tailor their discovery related to record custodians and legislative witnesses. Therefore, Plaintiffs respectfully request the Court’s consideration of this motion at this juncture of the case.

BACKGROUND

This is a case about an Idaho law that seeks to prevent trusted adults from assisting young people seeking lawful abortion care. Plaintiffs are litigating three claims challenging the constitutionality of Idaho Code § 18-623, which the Idaho Legislature introduced and passed as H.B. 242, 67th Leg., Reg. Sess. (2023). See Compl. 27–32; Mem. Decision & Order 18, Nov. 8, 2023 [hereinafter MTD Order]. Plaintiffs claim, inter alia, that the statute infringes on their fundamental right to interstate travel. Compl. 22–26, 29–30; MTD Order at 10–13. To demonstrate that the statute implicates the right to travel, Plaintiffs will show that “impeding travel is its primary objective.” Att’y Gen. of New York v. Soto-Lopez, 476 U.S. 898, 903 (1986); see Yellowhammer Fund v. Marshall, Nos. 2:23cv450, 2:23cv451 (MHT), 2025 WL 959948, at *16 (M.D. Ala. Mar. 31, 2025); see also MTD Order at 11.

This Court has already determined that the “legislative materials quoted in [Plaintiffs’] Complaint are evidence going to show that Idaho Code Section 18-623 was enacted for the purpose of prohibiting and deterring interstate travel.” MTD Order at 12; see id. (“[T]he statements quite clearly demonstrate that the statute’s intended purpose is to impede interstate travel...”). Moreover, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals cited such materials sua sponte in reviewing the Preliminary Injunction. See Matsumoto v. Labrador, 122 F.4th 787, 795–96 & nn.4–5, 801 n.10, 804 n.13, 812 n.23, 815 n.24 (9th Cir. 2024) (citing recordings of Senate and House committee debates, some of which were not cited in the complaint). Plaintiffs now request that this Court formally grant a motion in limine to judicially notice several of those materials.

Specifically, Plaintiffs are requesting the Court take judicial notice of the following:

- 1.) The minutes of the March 27, 2023, Idaho Senate State Affairs Committee meeting, which contain statements by Representative Barbara Ehardt and Senators Todd Lakey and James Ruchti;
- 2.) The 2023 Idaho Journal of the House of Representatives for the First Regular Session of the State of Idaho’s Sixty-Seventh Legislature, which contains Governor Brad Little’s transmittal letter to the House that accompanied his signing of H.B. 242;
- 3.) The video recording of the March 27, 2023, Idaho Senate State Affairs Committee meeting, which contains statements by Representative Barbara Ehardt and Senators Todd Lakey and James Ruchti;
- 4.) The video recording of the March 7, 2023, Idaho House Chambers floor debate, which contains statements by Representative Barbara Ehardt;

- 5.) The video recording of the March 30, 2023, Idaho Senate Chambers floor debate, which contains statements by Senator Todd Lakey; and
- 6.) The video recording of the March 30, 2023, Idaho House Chambers floor debate, which contains statements by Representative Barbara Ehardt.

For purposes of this motion, these items will be referred to as “the Legislative History.”

ARGUMENT

I. State Legislative History Is a Proper Subject for Judicial Notice.

Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits courts to judicially notice facts “not subject to reasonable dispute because [they] can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(b). The court “may take judicial notice on its own,” but it “must” do so “if a party requests it and the court is supplied with the necessary information.” Id. at 201(c).

Courts routinely take judicial notice of legislative documents such as committee minutes, floor statements, and official reports. See, e.g., Arce v. Douglas, 793 F.3d 968, 978 & n.4 (9th Cir. 2015); Battle v. Taylor James, LLC, 607 F. Supp. 3d 1025, 1040 (C.D. Cal. 2022) (“Courts regularly take judicial notice of legislative history and materials prepared by government agencies.”). Moreover, the Ninth Circuit has expressly held that “[l]egislative history is properly a subject of judicial notice.” Montera v. Premier Nutrition Corp., 111 F.4th 1018, 1040, n. 11 (9th Cir. 2024) (quoting Anderson v. Holder, 673 F.3d 1089, 1094 n.1 (9th Cir. 2012)). So have other circuits. See, e.g., Miller v. McDonald, 130 F.4th 258, 264 (2d Cir. 2025) (affirming that, “as a fundamental matter, courts may take judicial notice of legislative history” (citation omitted)).

Further, the Ninth Circuit has regularly taken judicial notice of state legislative history, including hearing transcripts and video recordings reflecting the statements of individual legislators. See, e.g., Arce, 793 F.3d at 978; see also Hinkson v. United States, No. 19-71881, 2021 WL 5299165, at *1 n.2 (9th Cir. Nov. 15, 2021) (“Respondent’s motion for judicial notice is granted as to ... the 2018 legislative history of Idaho House Bill No. 446.”); Matsumoto, 122 F.4th at 795–96 & nn.4–5, 801 n.10, 804 n.13, 812 n.23, 815 n.24 (9th Cir. 2024) (citing recordings of certain Idaho Senate and House hearings that were not included in the complaint). More broadly, this Court has regularly taken judicial notice of public records, including publications by the Idaho Legislative Services Office, because those materials were “not subject to reasonable dispute” and bore directly on a matter alleged in the complaint. Jun Yu v. Idaho State University, No. 4:15-cv-00430 (REB), 2019 WL 346392, at *2 (D. Idaho Jan. 28, 2019).

Indeed, matters of public record, including material that is publicly available on government websites, are not subject to reasonable dispute because they can be “accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(b). This Court, as well as the Ninth Circuit, has judicially noticed such materials as a matter of course. See, e.g., Bonner Cnty. v. Little, No. 1:20-cv-00350 (REB), 2020 WL 8225362, at *2 (D. Idaho Dec. 9, 2020) (granting a request for judicial notice of various documents “published online as a public record” by “public officers or officials of the State of Idaho” because their “accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.”). Because the legislative history documents Plaintiffs seek judicial notice of are matters of public record available on government websites this Court should grant Plaintiffs’ request.

II. This Court Should Judicially Notice the Enclosed Idaho Legislative History Documents.

Plaintiffs request that this Court judicially notice the Legislative History. Plaintiffs do not seek judicial notice of these documents to prove the truth of the speakers' statements, but rather the fact that the statements were made and by whom. These statements are an important component of understanding the intent and context surrounding the statute's enactment, and, in turn, whether impeding travel was the statute's primary objective. See MTD Order at 12.

Electronic reproductions of the Legislative History are available on the Idaho State Legislature's website, and thus their accuracy is not subject to reasonable dispute. See Jun Yu, 2019 WL 346392, at *2. Moreover, the Idaho state legislative committees regularly vote to approve the minutes from prior meetings¹, and they are not posted online without committee approval.² See Bonner, 2020 WL 8225362, at *5 (judicially noticing minutes of an Idaho coronavirus financial advisory committee meeting because they were "publicly posted on the State's ... website" and thus were "public records whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned"). Defendant also does not dispute the authenticity of these documents. See Declaration of Jamila Johnson at Exhibit 3.

The House Journal, for its part, carries the "Great Seal of the State of Idaho," which indicates its reliability as a "public record whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned." Bonner, 2020 WL 8225362, at *2. Both the Journal and the meeting minutes are also recognized by the Idaho Legislative Services Office, which "tracks and publishes records of all action taken on introduced bills,” as part of their online legislative history collection.³ Thus, because these documents are part of H.B. 242’s legislative history and appear as public records on the Idaho State Legislature’s website, they are proper subjects of judicial notice. See Montera, 111 F.4th at 1040; Bonner, 2020 WL 8225362, at *2; Jun Yu, 2019 WL 346392, at *2.

Similarly, the video recordings of the Senate and House committee and floor debates are publicly available on the Idaho Legislature’s website, which is itself an indicium of reliability, and this Court can easily establish that the “videos are what they are represented to be”: recordings of Idaho legislative debates at which individual legislators spoke. Bonner, 2020 WL 8225362, at *6 (taking judicial notice of “two Zoom videos posted on YouTube by user ‘Bonner County’ that purport to be recordings of two sessions of a public budget meeting held by the Bonner County Commissioners,” and noting that while “the audio quality of the videos is not ideal, it is clear enough to establish that the videos are what they are represented to be”). Indeed, this Court has repeatedly recognized that whether material is hosted on a government website is significant when assessing the appropriateness of judicial notice.⁴

And, notably, this Court has previously explained that it may take judicial notice of certain public documents “even if [they] are not cited in the complaint.” JH Kelly, LLC v. Tianwei New Energy Holdings Co., Ltd., No. 4:13-368 (BLW), 2014 WL 12599629, at *3 n.2 (D. Idaho Mar. 17, 2014) (quoting In re Atlas Mining Co. Sec. Litig., 670 F. Supp. 2d 1128, 1139 (D.

⁴ Id. at *4; see Digital Media Archive, Idaho Legislature, <https://lso.legislature.idaho.gov/MediaArchiveShowCommitteeOrMedia.do>; see also Wilson v. Amneal Pharmaceuticals, L.L.C., No. 1:13-cv-00333 (CWD), 2013 WL 6909930, at *4 (D. Idaho Dec. 31, 2013) (“[I]t is appropriate to take judicial notice of information if it is made publicly available by government entities on the internet”).

Idaho 2009)) (discussing SEC filings). Thus, the fact that Plaintiffs did not cite all of the Legislative History included herein in their complaint is of no matter. See also Matsumoto, 22 F.4th at 795–96 & nn.4–5, 801 n.10, 804 n.13, 812 n.23, 815 n.24 (referencing recordings that were not cited in Plaintiffs’ complaint).

Moreover, Plaintiffs seek judicial notice of these documents for a proper purpose: not for “the truth of the statements within them,” but to demonstrate that the state officials “spoke on [their] own behalf.” Barich v. City of Cotati, No. 21-cv-00034 (EMC), 2021 WL 3053204, at *6 (N.D. Cal. July 20, 2021). Judicial notice in this context does not serve to prove the truth of any legislative or gubernatorial statement, but rather the fact that the statements were made. And this Court has already recognized that these statements “quite clearly demonstrate that the statute’s intended purpose is to impede interstate travel,” making them directly relevant to Plaintiffs’ right-to-travel claim. MTD Order at 12. In any case, courts have found judicial notice appropriate even when the interpretive significance of the statements is contested. See, e.g., Battle, 607 F. Supp. 3d at 1040.

Indeed, when the Ninth Circuit endorsed judicially noticing state legislative history materials, see supra at 5, that material has included hearing transcripts, recordings, and statements by individual legislators, to examine legislative intent. See, e.g., Arce, 793 F.3d at 978 (relying on legislative history to assess discriminatory intent); Id. at 978 n.4 (“We take judicial notice of legislative history materials pursuant to Federal Rules of Evidence Rule 201(b).”); see also Brown v. City of Pittsburgh, 586 F.3d 263, 267 n.2 (3d Cir. 2009) (“We refer to the minutes here as part of the familiar process of consulting legislative history in order to illuminate legislative intent. We do not draw any conclusions about the truth of the testimony heard by the City Council, but note only that certain testimony asserting the need to protect public safety and preserve policing resources is consistent with the purposes stated in the text of the Ordinance itself.”). Thus, these legislative history materials are not only proper subjects of judicial notice but would also serve a proper purpose: to help “satisfy[] one element of the proof needed to establish” that the intended objective of H.B. 242 was to impede interstate travel. Jun Yu, 2019 WL 346392, at *3.

Finally, this motion is timely. Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(d), the court “may take judicial notice at any stage of the proceeding,” including as part of a motion in limine. See, e.g., Jun Yu, 2019 WL 346392, at *2; Adams v. United States, No. 03-0049 (E-BLW), 2009 WL 2032378, at *1-2 (D. Idaho July 6, 2009) (conditionally granting a motion in limine giving notice of intent to ask the Court to take judicial notice of public documents). In sum, because Plaintiffs have supplied the Court with the “necessary information,”⁵ this Court should grant this Motion in Limine and order that it will take judicial notice of the referenced legislative history documents to reflect statements made by, and before, Idaho state officials during the enactment of the law challenged in this litigation.

Attached hereto as the Appendix is a table containing these publicly available state government documents. True and correct copies of all documents listed in the table that Plaintiffs seek to have judicially noticed are attached to the Declaration of Jamila Johnson as Exhibits 1–2 and/or available at the links provided.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court take judicial notice of the documents described in the Appendix and attached as Exhibits 1–2 to the ⁵ Fed. R. Evid. 201(c)(2).

Declaration of Jamila Johnson filed herewith. Judicial notice is both warranted under Federal Rule of Evidence 201 and essential to the determination of Plaintiffs' constitutional claims.

MINUTES
SENATE STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

DATE: Monday, March 27, 2023

TIME: 8:00 A.M.

PLACE: Room WW55

MEMBERS PRESENT: Chairman Guthrie, Vice Chairman Bernt, Senators Winder, Anthon, Harris, Lee, Toews, Wintrow, and Ruchti

ABSENT/ EXCUSED: None

NOTE: The sign-in sheet, testimonies and other related materials will be retained with the minutes in the committee's office until the end of the session and will then be located on file with the minutes in the Legislative Services Library.

CONVENED: Chairman Guthrie called the meeting of the Senate State Affairs Committee (Committee) to order at 8:01 a.m.

MINUTES APPROVAL: Senator Wintrow moved to approve the minutes of March 13, 2023. Senator Toews seconded the motion. The motion carried by voice vote.

H 242 ABORTION - Amends and adds to existing law to provide for the crime of abortion trafficking, to provide certain requirements and restrictions on a civil action, and to provide prosecution authority for the attorney general. Representative Ehardt described this as a parental rights bill. She provided transporting a minor, without parental consent, from Idaho to another state for the purpose of an abortion was trafficking. She clarified this bill did not prohibit the parent's right to do so, or to cede their right to someone else to do so. The bill emphasized transporting without parental permission. She relinquished time to Megan Wold.

Megan Wold, Right to Life of Idaho, spoke in support of H 242. She talked about amendment language to accomplish five things: 1) An insurance provider would not be captured by this bill for telling someone what their benefits covered related to abortion; 2) removal of the authority for the Attorney General to prosecute (reference Idaho Code § 18-622, Trigger Law); 3) removal of the existing provision that applied to rape and incest and added a broader provision that applied to rape, incest, sexual assault, or other criminal conduct to assure civil remedies could not be received by a defendant; 4) removal of duplicate limitations; and 5) removal of the provisions that allowed a physician to use his/her insurance policy to cover civil penalties.

Senator Bernt asked for clarification of the rape and incest language. Ms. Wold said, on page 1, lines 16-18, which was currently part of Idaho law, said "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a civil cause of action under this section may not be brought by a person who impregnated the mother through an act of rape or incest." On page 3, lines 1-4, "Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, a civil action may not be brought under this section who, through an act of rape, sexual assault, incest, or other criminal conduct impregnated the woman." Ms. Wold explained the broader explanation amended the language. Senator Bernt asked, why the civil cause of action, which he did not like. He asked why a regular prosecutorial approach would not suffice. Ms. Wold stated the civil remedy provision already existed in Idaho Code and did not apply to the trafficking offense, it was part of the heartbeat legislation.

Senator Wintrow said that with the civil cause of action, it sounded like the rapist could not sue but his family members could pursue lawsuits. Ms. Wold stated that was how Idaho Code was currently drafted and it was not being changed by this bill. Senator Wintrow referred to page 1, Affirmative Defense, line 24, that read, "It shall not be an affirmative defense to a prosecution under subsection 1 of the subsection Abortion Provider..." Ms. Wold described the bill as creating a criminal abortion trafficking offense for someone who recruited, harbored, or transported an underage girl within Idaho no matter where the abortion would ultimately take place with the intent of concealing the abortion from her parents. A real life example was the parents of a boyfriend taking an underage girl to Oregon or Washington to obtain an abortion. Their acts of recruiting, harboring, and transporting her within Idaho without parental consent were a criminal offense. Senator Wintrow said the parent still had to prove that they gave consent so she wondered why the affirmative defense was still in the bill. Ms. Wold said the bill was structured as an affirmative defense. Any prosecutor would know their case before filing it and they would not bring the action knowing a parent consented to the abortion.

TESTIMONY:

The following five individuals electronically registered in opposition to H 242: Emilie Jackson-Edney, Peg Dougherty, Nissa Nagel, Lourdes Matsumoto, and Dylan Goldade. The following four individuals electronically registered in support of H 242: Samantha Doty, Dr. Katherine Aberle, Linda Thomas, and Melissa Blevins. Over 400 emails were submitted in opposition to H 242, most of which appeared to have scripted verbiage. The majority of them contained the phrases, "HB 242, the bill criminalizing helping minors get an abortion, is dangerous and irresponsible. I am writing to encourage you to OPPOSE this bill. This bill would discourage young people in potentially risky situations from talking to trusted adults and seeking the help they need. I urge you to please vote NO on this terrible legislation." (Attachment 1).

Samantha Doty, a Physician Assistant and Director of Clinical Services at Stanton Healthcare (Stanton), urged a yes vote on H 242. She promoted actions to protect vulnerable young woman who might be coerced by adults to get an abortion. She claimed about five percent of the clients at Stanton were under the age of 18. Many had not yet shared the news of a pregnancy with their parents and they were vulnerable as they sought direction for the next steps. Depending on who they turn to, the women could be convinced or coerced into procuring an abortion across state lines, versus giving life-affirming care and support provided at Stanton and other pregnancy clinics in the state. Ms. Doty believed this law was designed to protect young women who were being abused or trafficked. Abortion added to the trauma some of these women endured and Idaho needed to protect them. She felt this law would encourage conversations between young women and their parents, and protect women in cases of human trafficking.

Dr. Katherine Aberle said she supported women in crisis for over 20 years. As a surgeon, it was illegal for her to provide medical care to a minor without written or verbal consent from a parent. In her practice, documentation from a parent or guardian was necessary prior to seeing the patient in office. Additionally, parents or guardians were always present during pre-surgical, consultation visits. It was imperative to Dr. Aberle that parents be present during discussions of surgical risk, including life threatening complications that can occur even during routine surgeries. Parental consent was required for all surgical procedures as minors were not considered able to provide their own consent until the age of 18. Dr. Aberle stated the surgical risks of abortion were rarely discussed in the abortion debate. She cited life threatening bleeding and infection, in addition to the significant emotional toll carried by women the rest of their lives. Human trafficking, as well as statutory rape victims were also left out of the abortion discussion. The women were sometimes coerced into obtaining abortions to protect the trafficker and rapist. Dr. Aberle said H 242 supported parental consent and protected vulnerable minors.

Peg Dougherty, Deputy General Counsel for St. Luke's Regional Medical Center, said she preferred to withhold her comments until she had a chance to review the amendments proposed to H 242. Senator Wintrow asked what Ms. Dougherty thought was problematic. Ms. Dougherty responded that she was not in support of the bill, but as a health system she was concerned about additions to Idaho Code § 18-8807, subsection 10, page 2, lines 45-50. She said it prohibited the use of standard insurance coverage provided for and relied upon by health care providers and civil actions that may be brought against health care professionals. She was concerned about the prohibition on retaining and recruiting providers like family practice and other physicians at a time when the state suffered from health care staffing shortages and losing services.

Senator Wintrow understood the sponsors of the bill wanted to allow the doctors to be able to use their insurance if they were sued, but they were not eliminating the lawsuit. Ms. Dougherty agreed and said as a health care system it was preferred that section 18-8807 of the Idaho Code be deleted. If subsection 10 was deleted, she would support the deletion, but would not support the bill in its entirety.

Christian Welp, represented the Catholic church in Idaho. He stated the Catholic church supported the bill. He agreed that it should be illegal for an adult to traffic a minor for an abortion without parental consent.

Misty DelliCarpini-Tolman, State Director for Planned Parenthood, opposed H 242. She stated the bill was designed to inhibit young people from seeking abortion care and punish those who offer to help people in need. The policy would discourage young people from asking trusted adults for help and thus put them at risk. Ms. Tolman claimed a majority of young people facing an unexpected pregnancy involved their parents in decision making. For those who lived in an abusive household, disclosing sexual activity or pregnancy could trigger physical or emotional abuse, including direct physical or sexual violence, or being thrown out of their home. She cited a study of young people who could not seek advice from parents, nearly half experienced negative consequences when a parent learned of the pregnancy. This bill would put vulnerable young people at risk by discouraging them from talking to trusted adults. Ms. Tolman denied that H 242 included an exception in circumstances where a minor's parent consented to the abortion care. Instead, it provided an affirmative defense to prosecution when a parent consented to their child obtaining an abortion, leaving those open to supporting minors open to criminal prosecution. She argued people could face prosecution for helping someone access legal health care in another state. She characterized this bill as restrictive, dangerous, and an over extension of the powers of the legislature.

Blaine Konzatti, President of Idaho Family Policy Center, informed that on August 12, 2023 the Idaho Supreme Court vacated the stay on the civil cause of action in the heartbeat law. With that, abortions ended in the state. The heartbeat law codified in law that abortion caused harm and created victims. He reported harm from abortion was done to the mother and father, and extended family members. He stressed the importance of parental involvement in the abortion discussion with minors. He clarified that the civil enforcement mechanism of the heartbeat law, 8807 of Idaho Code, was in effect as it required doctors to comply with the trigger law and the heartbeat law, and exceptions for rape and incest. He said if an abortion was performed on a women in the case of rape/incest, the family members could not sue the abortionist.

Senator Lakey closed requesting the bill be sent to the 14th Order of Business for possible amendments.

Senator Wintrow was uncomfortable with the title and the characterization of trafficking. She believed exploiting human beings should be in a human trafficking section, rather than potentially labeling a neighbor or family member for helping a young person. She cautioned setting up some harmful things for everyday citizens who were trying to be helpful versus people who captured, sold, and marketed other human beings. Senator Lakey acknowledged nuances and differences between human trafficking as described, but in this context the bill talked about abortion. The trafficking section in the bill only applied to those who intentionally tried to conceal their efforts from the minor's parents. Senator Wintrow said minors had rights to reproductive health care. She did not want help shrouded as maniacal. Senator Lakey repeated this dealt with intent to conceal actions from the parents for the purpose of getting an abortion for a minor. This did not apply to health care, it applied to abortion.

Senator Harris moved to send H 242 to the 14th Order of Business for possible amendments. Senator Toews seconded the motion.

DISCUSSION:

Senator Ruchti addressed the concept of making it unlawful to travel across state lines. He asked if the prohibition on travel across state lines to obtain services that were illegal in Idaho but legal in the travel to state be used in areas like the purchase of marijuana. Senator Lakey referred to lines 19-20 that talked about recruiting, harboring, or transporting for procurement of an abortion, which was unlawful in Idaho. He stated it referred to the activity that occurred within the state, not the transport across state lines, "...transporting the pregnant minor within the state..." commits the crime. The bill said abortion was illegal in Idaho and if someone furthered that without the knowledge of the parents, that conduct was illegal. Senator Ruchti said putting a pregnant person in your car and traveling to the border was not criminal. How was it made illegal for purposes of this legislation. Senator Lakey replied that legislators defined crimes in Idaho. In that case, the conduct constituted a crime. Senator Ruchti suggested putting someone in your car and driving to Oregon to purchase marijuana, under this reasoning the state legislature could make traveling from Boise to the border illegal. Senator Lakey agreed, if the legislature decided to go down that road.

Senator Wintrow asked how a parent could consent to an illegal activity if he already said it was illegal. And she did not understand what it meant to recruit or harbor. Senator Lakey explained the bill was not talking about the parent, it was about the person attempting to procure an abortion for a minor without the knowledge of the parent. Recruiting, harboring, and transporting were descriptive words and the courts would have to decide if the conduct constituted one of those three things.

VOICE VOTE: The motion carried by voice vote. Senators Ruchti and Wintrow requested to be recorded as voting no.

ADJOURNED: There being no further business at this time, Chairman Guthrie adjourned the meeting at 8:40 a.m.

OF THE

IDAHO LEGISLATURE

FIRST EXTRAORDINARY SESSION
SIXTY-SIXTH LEGISLATURE

FIRST LEGISLATIVE DAY
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 2022

House of Representatives

At the hour of 8 a.m., Thursday, September 1, 2022, the day and hour fixed by Proclamation of the Governor of the State of Idaho for the convening of the First Extraordinary Session of the Sixty-Sixth Idaho Legislature, the members of the House of Representatives convened in the House Chamber of the Capitol Building in the City of Boise, with Scott Bedke, Speaker, presiding, assisted by Erica McGinnis, Chief Clerk.

STATE OF IDAHO
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

CERTIFICATION

I, LAWRENCE DENNEY, Secretary of State of the State of Idaho and legal custodian of the Seal of said State and all Proclamations of the Governor of the State of Idaho pursuant to 67-903, Idaho Code, do hereby certify that the annexed is a full, true and complete copy of the Proclamation of the Governor of the State of Idaho concerning the convening of the Sixty-Sixth Idaho Legislature in an Extraordinary Session, received and filed in this office on the Thirty-First day of August, 2022, and that the same appears of record in this office.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho. Done at Boise, Idaho, this Thirty-First Day of August 2022.

/s/ LAWRENCE DENNEY
Secretary of State

The certification was ordered filed in the office of the Chief Clerk.

THE OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
STATE OF IDAHO
BOISE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Article 4, Section 9 of the Constitution of the State of Idaho empowers the Governor, on extraordinary occasions, to convene the Legislature by proclamation; and

WHEREAS, inflation is at a 40-year high, putting gas, groceries, and other necessities out of reach for many Idahoans. Idaho taxpayers and the education system are especially imperiled by the consequences of historic inflation; and

WHEREAS, the State of Idaho's responsible, prudent budgeting has resulted in a record-breaking fiscal surplus, which equips the state to take action now to mitigate the harmful impacts of inflation; and

WHEREAS, by acting now, the state can return a portion of the surplus to Idaho taxpayers and make needed investments in education to counter rising costs and the likely increase in post-secondary enrollment that occurs during times of economic instability; and

WHEREAS, the need to respond to the effects of inflation on taxpayers and the education system constitutes an extraordinary occasion. The state cannot risk inaction in the face of sustained, intransigent inflation;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Brad Little, Governor of the State of Idaho, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim that the 66th Idaho Legislature shall convene in an extraordinary session in the legislative chambers of the Idaho State Capitol in Boise City, Ada County, beginning at the hour of 8:00 a.m. on the 1st day of September 2022, for the following enumerated purpose and no other:

To consider the passage and enactment of the attached RS29902C1, which shall (1) provide a one-time tax rebate of no more than $500 million, (2) establish a corporate and individual flat tax rate no lower than 5.8%, and (3) dedicate no less than $410 million to public education.

The Idaho Legislature convened by this Proclamation shall have no power to legislate on any other subjects during the extraordinary session.

I HEREBY DIRECT AND REQUIRE that a copy of this Proclamation be delivered to the presiding officers of the Idaho Senate and House of Representatives, to each of the members of the 66th Idaho Legislature, and to the Constitutional Officers of Idaho at the earliest practicable time.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this 31st day of August, in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred forty-seventh, and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred thirty-third.

/s/ Brad Little
Governor

/s/ LAWRENCE DENNEY
Secretary of State

At this time the Speaker put the House at ease for the Flag Ceremony.

Prayer was offered by Chaplain Tom Dougherty.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Jameson Harper, Page.

3RD ORDER Approval of Journal

January 9, 2023

Mr. Speaker:

We, your COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY, RULES, AND ADMINISTRATION, report that we have read and approved the House Journal of the First and Second days of the Organizational Session and recommend that same be adopted as corrected.

SKAUG, Chairman

Mr. Skaug moved that the report be adopted. Seconded by Mr. Gannon. Report adopted.

There being no objection, the House advanced to the Seventh Order of Business.

7TH ORDER Motions, Memorials, and Resolutions

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 1 BY BLANKSMA AND RUBEL A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

PROVIDING FOR A JOINT SESSION OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND THE SENATE OF THE FIRST REGULAR SESSION OF THE SIXTY-SEVENTH IDAHO LEGISLATURE FOR THE PURPOSE OF HEARING A MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, the Governor has informed the House of Representatives and the Senate that he desires to deliver a message to a Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature in the Chamber of the House of Representatives at 1 p.m. on Monday, January 9, 2023.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that the House of Representatives and the Senate meet in Joint Session on Monday, January 9, 2023, at 1 p.m. for the purpose of hearing the message from the Governor.

HCR 1 was introduced, read the first time by title, and referred to the Judiciary, Rules, and Administration Committee for printing.

Mrs. Blanksma asked unanimous consent that two committees be appointed by the Speaker; one to notify the Governor, and one to notify the Senate that the House is organized and ready to do business. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The Speaker appointed the following committees to notify the Governor and the Senate.

Representatives Palmer, Wisniewski, and Nash were appointed as the committee to notify the Governor and Representatives Yamamoto, Weber, and Mathias were appointed as the committee to notify the Senate. The committees were excused.

There being no objection, the House returned to the Fifth Order of Business.

5TH ORDER Report of Standing Committees

January 9, 2023

Mr. Speaker:

We, your COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY, RULES AND ADMINISTRATION, report that we have printed HCR 1.

SKAUG, Chairman

HCR 1 was ordered held at the Desk.

There being no objection, the House advanced to the Seventh Order of Business.

7TH ORDER Motions, Memorials, and Resolutions

HCR 1 - GOVERNOR'S ADDRESS

Mrs. Blanksma moved that all rules of the House interfering with the immediate consideration of HCR 1 be suspended; that the portions of Section 15, Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Idaho, requiring all bills to be read on three several days be dispensed with, this being a case of urgency; and that HCR 1 be read the second time by title and third time at length, and placed before the House for final consideration. Seconded by Ms. Rubel.

The question being, "Shall the rules be suspended?"

Roll call resulted as follows:

AYES—Alfieri, Allgood, Andrus, Barbieri, Berch, Blanksma, Boyle, Bundy, Burns, Cannon, Cheatum, Chew, Clow, Cornilles, Crane(12), Crane(13), Dixon(1), Dixon(24), Durrant, Ehardt, Ehlers, Erickson, Furniss, Galaviz, Gallagher, Gannon, Garner, Green, Handy, Hawkins, Healey, Hill, Holtzclaw, Horman, Lambert, Lanting, Manwaring, McCann, Mendive, Mickelsen,

His Excellency, the Governor of the State of Idaho, Brad Little, was introduced by the Speaker and the following State of the State Message and Budget Address was delivered by Governor Little.

* * * * *

Mr. Speaker, Mr. Pro Tem, Mr. President, honored legislators, my fellow constitutional officers, Mr. Chief Justice and members of the judiciary, my family, friends, and my fellow Idahoans.

Only one word captures what we have accomplished for Idahoans over the past few years - historic.

Our state's success is nothing short of extraordinary.

Less than three years ago, an unpredictable storm arose, threatening to weaken us and make us lose sight of our destination. Thankfully, we stayed on course.

Throughout these turbulent few years, we never lost our direction because we always put IDAHO FIRST.

[January 9, 2023]

HOUSE JOURNAL

39

And now, Idaho IS first (or near first) in just about every national ranking of economic strength, budget stability, and good government.

We didn't just weather the storm, we thrived.

Folks, our success did not happen by accident.

What we're doing is working, and I am prepared to work with all of you to accelerate our pace, continue leading the country, and keep putting IDAHO FIRST.

The People's House today is full of energy, enthusiasm, and sincere motivation to get things done. I want to congratulate you, our legislators, those new to this process and those who have been around for awhile. I am very excited to work with all of you, and I thank you for your genuine desire to serve the people of Idaho.

I also want to congratulate all the legislators in leadership, especially my good friend and colleague for many years, our new House Speaker, Mike Moyle. I know that by working together, with Speaker Moyle, Pro Tem Chuck Winder, and all of you - my legislative partners - we will do more historic things for the State of Idaho.

We also have some new constitutional officers - Superintendent of Public Instruction Debbie Critchfield, Attorney General Raul Labrador, Secretary of State Phil McGrane, and our new Lt. Governor Scott Bedke.

Please join me in congratulating them, and everyone who earned the confidence of the voters in November!

I also want to acknowledge the person in my life who grounds me and reinforces family values every day - our First Lady, Teresa. Teresa, you have always prioritized the things that matter most in life. Thank you. I love you.

And to the people of Idaho, I am so humbled and grateful that you trust me to be your Governor for the next four years. It has been the greatest honor of my life to serve you and help chart a course for our state. Thank you.

After any election, the political wonks (including myself) dive deep into the results. And one thing on the ballot was more popular than any contested candidate.

What was it? The people's vote on education and tax relief.

80-percent - four out of five Idaho voters - approve of what we achieved during the 2022 extraordinary session last September.

We recognized the financial emergency facing Idaho families and schools as they grapple with the impacts of 40-year high inflation. We used our projected budget surplus to provide every Idahoan an immediate tax rebate and passed a new, lower flat income tax so Idahoans can keep more of their hard-earned money moving forward.

We also put the single largest ongoing investment ever into Idaho education - $330 million for public schools and $80 million for in-demand career training.

The people's vote affirming tax relief and our education investments passed in every single county, every single city, and every single legislative district.

The overwhelming support of our plan means, unmistakably, Idahoans expect us to support public schools.

Idahoans spoke loud and clear with their votes.

And... I will sheepishly admit, I checked the ballot results in Emmett. Would you believe, funding education and cutting taxes was more popular than their hometown governor?

It's one of those healthy reminders that WHAT we do here is far more important than any one of us, and the work we do will outlive all of us.

Let's focus on the big things. Let's spend our time and energy to improve the lives of Idahoans for generations to come.

With the winds at our back and a strong mandate from every corner of Idaho, let's work together to translate the people's vote into action by making - dare I say historic - investments in education, a reality.

Here's what else I took from the election. Idahoans like being first in economic momentum, revenue growth, job growth, responsible government, and cutting red tape. Idahoans like being a top ten state for economic outlook and strong fiscal policy. Idahoans like a flourishing economy, historic tax relief, and record education investments.

Plain and simple, the people of Idaho have given us a mandate: to stay on course, put IDAHO FIRST, continue down this path of prosperity, and keep investing in education.

To the people of Idaho: we are listening, and we will continue to deliver. We are not backing down on education; we are doubling down on education.

The budget and policy recommendations I am mapping out today deliver on the mandate given to us by the people of Idaho.

My plan is called IDAHO FIRST.

And first in the plan is education.

Four years ago, I stated my goal: to make Idaho the place where we ALL can have the opportunity to thrive, where our children and grandchildren choose to stay, and for the ones who have left to choose to return.

Expanded economic opportunities are providing the jobs for our kids, and now we need to foster better jobs, higher incomes, and a better quality of life that we all can be proud of.

I'm a businessman and a family man. I look at every issue through the lens of what our businesses and families need to prosper. We all benefit from a strong economy, one where businesses can offer rewarding careers and opportunities that lead to strong families and strong communities.

As I travel the state and listen to employers about their challenges, workforce tops the list.

We've made huge progress in connecting employers with resources to train employees, and my IDAHO FIRST plan helps get even more skilled workers through their doors.

I am very proud to announce my budget provides access to a scholarship of $8,500 starting next year to graduating high school students in Idaho to attend an Idaho university, community college, career technical or workforce training program of their choice.

Never have we provided a catalyst of this magnitude for students to "go on," in whatever way suits them. There are many pathways to success in today's economy and all pathways deserve our support. For some students, it means getting their CDL, becoming a lineman, or pursuing welding. For others, it is engineering, teaching, healthcare, or business. No matter what path a student chooses we are making it easier for them to get the advanced training they need to propel themselves and Idaho's economy forward.

The "Idaho Launch" scholarship will be the single largest investment in career technical and workforce education in state history.

We want Idaho students brought up in Idaho schools working in Idaho jobs.

This past fall, the student body presidents at College of Western Idaho, Boise State University, Lewis-Clark State College, and University of Idaho wrote an article on the need to invest directly in our students - our future workforce.

The students, Adam Jones from Emmett, Tanner McClain from Middleton, Caden Massey from Kamiah, and Flora Koenig from Boise said, "...Now more than ever we can't afford for our students to leave Idaho... A statewide scholarship program will not only benefit Idaho students but will help to keep our economy growing and competitive for the next generation... It is time to keep Idaho's future in Idaho."

I don't know about you, but I think these students nailed it. We have them here with us today. Adam, Tanner, Caden, and Flora, please stand so we can recognize you.

A person's foundation for success in life starts very young, and it starts in the home. The education of our children will always rest first and foremost with the family. Schools are partners with parents, and that is why we are making historic investments in both families and schools.

Where parents are heavily involved in their child's school and education, we see better academic performance.

In fact, Idaho is first in the nation for overall return on investment for education spending, which speaks to the dedication of Idaho families to prepare their children for productive learning every single day.

We are also third in the nation for education freedom - measures that include spending, school choice, transparency, and regulations.

Whether it is traditional public schools, public charter schools, public magnet schools, private schools, online academies, or homeschooling, hundreds of schooling options are available to Idaho families.

In fact, Idaho is one of only a handful of states with the fewest restrictions on allowing parents to send their child to any public school they wish, and we are a top ten state for the number of students enrolled in public charter schools.

To further reinforce parents' role as the primary decision makers in their children's education, my IDAHO FIRST plan makes permanent the Empowering Parents grant program. The grants help families take charge of tools for their children's education - things like computers and software, instructional materials, and tutoring. These resources help children progress outside of the classroom. To date, we have served tens of thousands of students with these grants.

The Empowering Parents grants are effective, popular, and worthy of continued investment. Most importantly, they keep parents in the driver's seat of their children's education, as it should be.

The Idaho Constitution recognizes the endurance of our republican form of government depends upon an educated, intelligent people. As such, the founders spelled out the duty to "establish and maintain a general uniform and thorough system of public free common schools."

As elected leaders, we promise to uphold this contract with the people when we take the oath of office.

Our commitment to public schools is both our constitutional obligation and it is our moral obligation.

My IDAHO FIRST plan delivers on both the constitutional mandate and the mandate from the voters of Idaho by investing in our public schools.

Here with us today, we have some fourth graders and fifth graders from Centennial Elementary School in Nampa, and their teacher, Jaimee Hoesing. Thank you for being here.

What better way to strengthen our schools than to invest in the people on the frontlines of education - our teachers.

Teachers get to work early so they are prepared when their students arrive. Teachers are adapting all day long to a variety of learning styles and individual needs. Teachers spend their evenings and weekends grading papers and replying to parents and students. Best of all, teachers are passionate about preparing students for eventual careers and making them feel safe and supported.

Our students and their families deserve quality teachers who are respected and compensated competitively. Great teachers can motivate and change the trajectory of a student's life.

That is why my plan boosts starting teacher pay yet again - finally targeting Idaho in the top 10 states for starting teacher pay.

When I started this job four years ago, Idaho was 41st in the country for starting teacher pay. In four short years, we will have catapulted starting teacher pay in Idaho from the bottom 10 to the top 10.

We're also going to grow the salaries of all teachers, including the most experienced ones, to ensure students have the classroom support they need.

What does that mean for the average Idaho teacher? A $6,300 pay raise.

When we show teachers we support them, we're showing families their child's education is our priority.

I am also proud that we have made great advances in my top education priority over the past four years - literacy.

Learning to read from a young age is the best foundation for learning later on and makes our investments worthwhile. Since I took office, we have increased literacy funding five-fold. Local school districts determine how best to deploy the resources, everything from expanded Kindergarten, reading coaches, reduced class sizes, or summer reading programs.

This past fall, reading scores for all Kindergarten-through-third grade students are the highest in years, with impressive gains among our youngest learners. The scores are steadily increasing, and while have more work to do, the results are encouraging and they show we are headed in the right direction.

HOUSE JOURNAL

We must continue to prepare our younger generation with the education, skills, and lifelong passion for learning - and that's why we are putting IDAHO FIRST and education first.

You know, most people want the same things - health, safety, high quality of life, freedom to choose their own path, strong schools, an abundance of rewarding, reliable career opportunities, and to keep more of their hard-earned money.

Our ability to deliver on those things - or at least not stand in the way of them - determines our fate. We've all seen states that continually fail. As a result, people don't want to live there.

But in Idaho, we are striking the right balance between investing in key critical areas like our schools and giving back more of Idahoans' money. In just three years, we have given back more than ever before in Idaho history - a whopping $2.7 billion to Idaho citizens and businesses.

No other state in the country has given more tax relief per capita than Idaho. And we're not done yet!

We deployed $2.7 billion in immediate tax relief in four ways: slashing payroll taxes for small businesses, increasing the grocery tax credit, giving Idahoans the largest-ever reimbursement of their property taxes in 2020, and of course, back-to-back-to-back income tax rebates and back-to-back-to-back tax cuts for both personal income and corporate income.

The tax rebates helped thousands of small businesses across our state as well as senior citizens on fixed income, providing relief from crushing inflation where everything from food to fuel has skyrocketed.

Our commitment to cutting taxes doesn't just start and end with one-time relief. We also cut back Idahoans' ongoing tax burden by more than $650 million. We took the income tax from six brackets down to one and created a fair, predictable, and lower flat income tax once and for all.

Folks, what we're doing is working.

Consider this: the Tax Foundation ranks states on their business tax climate. It is a useful barometer of a state's competitiveness to attract and retain businesses. In just four years we've risen six spots, and that's even before accounting for the income tax reductions adopted during last year's special session.

Cutting taxes keeps our business climate competitive, allows Idahoans to keep more of what they earn, and it is just the right thing to do.

One area where we really shine may surprise you. The Tax Foundation ranks Idaho as having the third lowest PROPERTY TAXES in the country.

So why does that feel surprising to so many?

When your property tax bill arrives, you see it at once. It's not hidden in each paycheck. It's not pennies on the dollar on every purchase you make.

You get a bill for the full amount, and I understand why many Idahoans struggling under the weight of record inflation get sticker shock when the bill from local government arrives.

The reality is, no property taxes are paid to state government. No state official in this room can decide what local property taxes will be. Local governments alone set their budgets.

However, some of the parameters around local property tax are set in state law, like the circuit breaker, so people turn to the state leaders in this room for an answer.

Idahoans want relief from rising property taxes, and we hear them. My IDAHO FIRST plan puts another $120 million toward property tax relief to answer the call for help from Idahoans.

There is no doubt Idaho's tremendous pace of growth is putting a strain on services at the local level, which increases the potential to drive up your local property taxes. But too often, we are simply shifting burdens across taxpayers when we should be addressing the needs head-on.

Let us work on better ways to facilitate growth paying for growth and give local governments the tools they need to keep taxes low.

How? By continuing to make long-range strategic investments in roads, water, and other key areas to maintain our high quality of life.

The fact is, investing in local infrastructure IS property tax relief. Over the past two years, we made the biggest investments ever in our most precious resource - water. When we invested in drinking water and wastewater infrastructure, we saved Idaho citizens the local taxes or fees they would otherwise pay to cover those improvements. Now I am proposing more investments in water quantity and water quality infrastructure to not only reduce the burden on local property taxpayers but also to secure abundant clean water for years to come.

Investing in local roads and bridges IS property tax relief. Last year, we put nearly half a billion dollars into local roads, bridges, and airports. We took a major bite out of the backlog of deficient bridges that local governments have struggled for years to repair. And we did it without raising taxes or fees. That buys us not just property tax relief but safer roads, less drive time, and less congestion. Now I am proposing even more for local bridges and new, ongoing funding for transportation safety and capacity to build on our success.

We will continue to help keep taxes low, but we must do so responsibly.

We all see the flashing red lights in the economy. Washington, D.C., is driving America toward an economic cliff and seemingly pushing down on the gas.

Perhaps never have Lt. Governor Bedke's grandfather's words rung more true: "It won't be the bad years that put you out of business; it's what you did in the good years that sets you up for failure or success."

We must be prudent. We must prepare for the impending economic downturn, and now more than ever we must make wise decisions that stand the test of time. We can't cut beyond the level of service Idahoans demand, and we must not use our one-time surplus for wasteful spending.

Given the economic volatility on the near horizon, this may be our one last shot in the near future to make strategic tax cuts that will sustain a balanced budget over time.

Let's work together and unlock our creativity to put these $120 million of property tax relief to the highest and best use.

We're also making a difference with our investments in safe and healthy communities.

We're on track to advance all of the recommendations from our historic three-branch Behavioral Health Council, and this year my IDAHO FIRST plan does even more to improve resources for troubled youth in mental health crises. We are also going to make behavioral health services more accessible for the neediest of our neighbors and add more doctors for rural Idaho and more healthcare workers overall.

And my IDAHO FIRST plan Backs the Blue again, adding 10-percent pay raises for our brave and dedicated law enforcement officers. What does this mean for your average state police trooper? It means a $6,000 raise.

I've said it before and I'll say it again, while other places seek to defund the police, here in Idaho we DEFEND the police!

Our men and women in law enforcement work tirelessly to keep us safe, many times confronting the most heinous side of humanity. This past fall, four young lives were ended in one of the worst crimes our state and our nation has seen. Ethan, Kaylee, Xana, and Maddie were brutally murdered in a home near the University of Idaho campus. The loss of these incredible people is felt exponentially, and we will never forget them. We will vigorously seek justice for the victims and the many loved ones they leave behind, and I ask everyone now to please pause in a moment of silence and prayer for them.

Our law enforcement heroes handled this loss with professionalism, and they routinely encounter dangerous and difficult situations to keep us safe, especially when it comes to fentanyl.

We are losing more and more young lives to the most potent and deadliest drug our society has faced. Fentanyl is 50 times more potent than heroin, 100 hundred times more potent than morphine, and hard to detect. Fentanyl is now the leading cause of death for American adults under 50.

Michael Stabile, a 15-year-old from Coeur d'Alene, was another young Idahoan with a bright future whose promising life was cut short. Michael tragically lost his life when he took a pill he thought was a pain reliever but came from an unknown source. The pill contained a lethal trace of fentanyl - as small as a grain of salt - killing him almost instantly.

Michael's mom and dad, Jennifer and Frank Stabile, are here with us today. Jennifer and Frank, we are so sorry for your loss. Thank you for being here. They described their only child as their "miracle baby," a boy who loved the outdoors and his family dearly.

We are taking steps now to protect our youth from fentanyl, and all of these steps grew out of our Operation Esto Perpetua initiative last year.

To root out this growing problem, I am calling for the development of a new statewide drug interdiction team at the Idaho State Police. In addition, enhanced testing and training and a new educational awareness campaign we just launched will help.

Our campaign is called "All it Takes," and it launched last week at FentanylTakesAll.org. It will feature Michael's story and the stories of many other young Idahoans who lost their lives to accidental fentanyl poisoning.

We aim to inform our youth about the dangers of fentanyl - its accessibility, its potency, and its ability to take everything from you and your loved ones, as it did to the Stabiles.

I have seen for myself how Mexico drug cartels control access into our country under the current administration. The vast majority of illicit drugs in Idaho, including fentanyl, are sourced in Mexico. We will not relent in our efforts to end the supply of fentanyl by continuing to work with our states to the south and helping to secure our border.

In 2021, the State of Arizona called for support in controlling the chaos at the border. I sent a team of drug interdiction specialists with ISP to help. I'm pleased to announce that I am sending a team BACK to the border. They will hone their skills and return with even better knowledge to train police in our state on the best ways to get fentanyl off our streets.

Colonel Ked Wills and a few of our state police are here with us today, including Sergeant Darren Gilbertson, Sergeant Chris Cottrell, and Trooper Mitch Howard.

Our law enforcement, active military, and veterans ALL deserve our gratitude for their service and commitment to Idaho. Thank you.

It's easy to be cynical about government when you see what's happening in Washington, D.C., and other dysfunctional states around the country.

But it's also easy to be inspired by the real difference we are making in Idaho when we put IDAHO FIRST - focusing on schools, tax relief, safe communities, strategic investments, and good government.

Folks, after years of being around the political process, I have learned that politics can complicate otherwise pretty simple concepts.

There is nothing complicated about our state's success.

And there is nothing complicated about how to keep our success going.

IDAHO FIRST: Listen to the people. Stay on course. Keep the big picture in focus. Don't lose our direction. Concentrate on what matters well beyond our time here. Double down on our support of schools and tax relief and continue key investments to keep up with growth and make our communities safe.

It's that simple.

I know you are motivated to get things done, and I am, too. I am grateful for our partnership.

We will put our trust in God, and together we will get our work done efficiently and transparently, focusing on the things that matter.

The people we serve expect us to work together and working together has always been the only way to get HISTORIC things done.

Thank you, and God bless.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 1 BY STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

A HOUSE RESOLUTION
STATING FINDINGS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND PROVIDING FOR THE AMENDMENT OF RULES 6, 8, 10, AND 17 OF THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, the House of Representatives deems it necessary and desirable that Rule 6, Rule 8, Rule 10, and Rule 17 of the Rules of the House of Representatives be amended.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the House of Representatives, assembled in the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, that Rule 6, Rule 8, Rule 10, and Rule 17 of the Rules of the House of Representatives shall be amended to read as follows:

RULE 6

Bills – Introduction. – (1) After the 20th day of any session, no bill shall be introduced except by committees and after the 36th day no bill shall be introduced except by the State Affairs Committee, the Appropriations Committee, the Education Committee, the Revenue and Taxation Committee, the Health and Welfare Committee, and the Ways and Means Committee. When essential to expedite the work of the House, the Speaker may designate any standing committee to serve as a privileged committee temporarily or during the remainder of the session.

(2) Any bill presented to the Chief Clerk for introduction instead of to a committee shall be designated as an informational bill. Once assigned a bill number, it will be returned to and maintained in the office of the Chief Clerk.

(3) No member of the House may introduce more than three informational bills in a legislative session.

RULE 8

Bills, Endorsements of, Entered on the Journal. – Every bill before being introduced shall have endorsed thereon the title of the same, and every bill, joint resolution, joint memorial or concurrent resolution shall have thereon the name or names of the members introducing it and shall bear the designation of an informational bill, and when introduced by the committee, the name of such committee shall be endorsed thereon. The number, author and title of all bills, joint resolutions, joint memorials and concurrent resolutions, shall be entered on the Journal.

RULE 10

Reference of Bills. – (1) All House bills, memorials and resolutions shall upon their introduction and first reading, be ordered printed by the Judiciary, Rules and Administration Committee. ~~When~~ Except for informational bills as provided in Rule 6, when reported printed by the Chief Clerk, the Speaker shall refer the instrument to a standing committee, or shall order the instrument filed for second reading. All Senate bills, memorials and resolutions shall be referred directly by the Speaker to a standing committee or to the second reading calendar.

(2) If a bill, memorial or resolution is reported by the standing committee to which it has been referred without amendment, it shall be placed upon the second reading calendar, but if such committee report a bill, memorial or resolution with amendments, the same with the amendments shall be placed upon the general orders calendar for consideration by the Committee of the Whole House.

RULE 17

Call for Bills or Memorials or Resolutions. – When any bill, memorial or resolution has been in the hands of any committee for five days, any member of the House may, at the fifth or seventh order of business, upon the floor of the House, call for the same; whereupon it shall be the duty of said committee to report said bill, memorial or resolution to the House under the order of business of committee reports, not later than the following morning session. The House may, however, upon motion approved by a majority of the members present, grant said committee further time; provided, that after the thirtieth day of the session any bill, memorial or resolution must be reported forthwith out of the committee to which it has been referred, with or without recommendations, upon the request of any member, unless otherwise ordered by the House by a vote of a majority of the members present. The provisions of this rule do not apply to an informational bill.

HR 1 was introduced, read the first time by title, and referred to the Judiciary, Rules, and Administration Committee for printing.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 3

BY STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

A HOUSE RESOLUTION
STATING FINDINGS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND PROVIDING FOR THE AMENDMENT OF RULE 6 AND RULE 10 OF THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, the House of Representatives deems it necessary and desirable that Rule 6 and Rule 10 of the Rules of the House of Representatives be amended.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the House of Representatives, assembled in the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, that Rule 6 and Rule 10 of the Rules of the House of Representatives shall be amended to read as follows:

RULE 6

Bills – Introduction. – (1) ~~After the 20th day of any session~~ Except as provided in subsection (2) of this rule, no bill shall be introduced except by committees and after the 36th day no bill shall be introduced except by the State Affairs Committee, the Appropriations Committee, the Education Committee, the Revenue and Taxation Committee, the Health and Welfare Committee, and the Ways and Means Committee. When essential to expedite the work of the House, the Speaker may designate any standing committee to serve as a privileged committee temporarily or during the remainder of the session.

(2) A bill may be introduced by submission thereof to the Chief Clerk, and such bill shall, after it is assigned a bill number, be maintained in the office of the Chief Clerk. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to a concurrent resolution enabling a joint session of the House of Representatives and the Senate at the commencement of the legislative session.

RULE 10

Reference of Bills. – (1) All House bills, memorials and resolutions shall upon their introduction and first reading, be ordered printed by the Judiciary, Rules and Administration Committee. ~~When~~ Except for any bill submitted to the Chief Clerk pursuant to Rule 6(2), when reported printed by the Chief Clerk, the Speaker shall refer the instrument to a standing committee, or shall order the instrument filed for second reading. All Senate bills, memorials and resolutions shall be referred directly by the Speaker to a standing committee or to the second reading calendar.

(2) If a bill, memorial or resolution is reported by the standing committee to which it has been referred without amendment, it shall be placed upon the second reading calendar, but if such committee report a bill, memorial or resolution with amendments, the same with the amendments shall be placed upon the general orders calendar for consideration by the Committee of the Whole House.

14TH ORDER
Presentation of Petitions and Communications

House of Representatives
State of Idaho

January 31, 2023

Mike Moyle, Speaker
House of Representatives

Mr. Speaker,

Pursuant to §56-267, subsection 7 of Idaho Code, we your Health and Welfare committee are required to make a recommendation to the legislature as to whether Medicaid Expansion should remain in effect.

Although the committee has serious concerns regarding the unsustainability of the current increased budget request, we concluded Medicaid Expansion should remain in effect and make the following recommendations:

1. The notification and removal of previously protected participants must be entirely completed by July 1, 2023.

2. Health and Welfare must submit a 1332 waiver to allow individuals with a household income from 100% to 138% FPL the option of utilizing either the insurance exchange or Medicaid.

3. Health and Welfare must submit a waiver, if necessary, to place the Medicaid Expansion population on managed care.

4. In 2024 Health and Welfare must report to this committee on the implementation of these recommendations.

5. The continuation of Medicaid Expansion must be re-evaluated by this committee in 2025.

6. Health and Welfare must submit a revised budget request incorporating the removal of the previously protected Medicaid Expansion participants.

/s/ Representative John Vander Woude
Chairman, Health and Welfare
Committee

The letter was ordered filed in the office of the Chief Clerk.

7TH ORDER

Motions, Memorials, and Resolutions

HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 1 BY STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

A JOINT MEMORIAL

TO THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE OREGON STATE LEGISLATURE, AND TO THE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATIONS REPRESENTING THE STATE OF IDAHO AND THE STATE OF OREGON IN THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

We, your Memorialists, the House of Representatives and the Senate of the State of Idaho assembled in the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, do hereby respectfully represent that:

WHEREAS, the Portland metro area is home to approximately 47% of Oregon's voters, while accounting for less than 4% of the state's land mass; and

WHEREAS, this small urban area is setting policy for the entire State of Oregon and is determining how all people in the State of Oregon, both urban and rural, are governed; and

WHEREAS, rural Oregonians are becoming increasingly frustrated with their state government and the trampling of their values and are seeking a state government that is more in line with their rural values and resource-based economy; and

WHEREAS, governance by the State of Idaho would align much more closely with the values and interests of eastern

Oregonians, as indicated by eastern Oregon's history of voting in favor of Idaho's majority political party at least as strongly as Idaho does; and

WHEREAS, much of eastern Oregon has voted against the legalization of marijuana and the decriminalization of hard drugs; and

WHEREAS, historically, state boundaries have been relocated by interstate compacts approved by the states affected and by Congress; and

WHEREAS, a November 2021 poll found strong support among Idaho voters for relocating the Oregon/Idaho border; and

WHEREAS, the residents of eastern Oregon currently have the same average income as residents of Idaho; and under Idaho's lower tax rates and regulation, the economy of eastern Oregon would surge, benefiting the State of Idaho; and

WHEREAS, eastern Oregon has many resources that would be highly beneficial to Idaho, some of which include water, timber, and minerals, making the area a tremendous addition to Idaho's tax base; and

WHEREAS, as of January 2023, eleven eastern Oregon counties have approved ballot measures that indicate their desire to become counties of Idaho; and

WHEREAS, citizens of eastern Oregon have requested that the government of the State of Idaho engage in discussions with the government of the State of Oregon to craft an interstate compact that would relocate the Oregon/Idaho border.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that the Idaho Legislature stands ready to begin discussions with the Oregon Legislature regarding the potential to relocate the Oregon/Idaho state boundary, in accordance with the will of the citizens of eastern Oregon, and we invite the Oregon Legislature to begin talks on this topic with the Idaho Legislature.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be, and she is hereby authorized and directed to forward a copy of this Memorial to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Oregon Legislature and to the congressional delegations representing the State of Idaho and the State of Oregon in the Congress of the United States.

HJM 1 was introduced, read the first time by title, and referred to the Judiciary, Rules, and Administration Committee for printing.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 2

BY STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

STATING FINDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE IN SUPPORT OF THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE AND URGING THE GOVERNOR, ATTORNEY GENERAL, AND SECRETARY OF STATE TO JOIN THE LEGISLATURE IN OPPOSING ANY EFFORT TO REPEAL OR NULLIFY THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, the founding fathers, through deliberation and compromise, devised the Electoral College to ensure each and every state is heard in the presidential election process and keep the president independent of Congress; and

WHEREAS, the Electoral College is part of the United States Constitution's system of checks and balances, necessary to ensure that the people and interests of smaller states are not disregarded; and

WHEREAS, the Electoral College, as provided for in the Constitution of the United States, provides a balance between rural and urban interests by ensuring that winning candidates must reach beyond their own base of support and have support from multiple regions of the country; and

WHEREAS, all states currently allocate their electoral votes based on the vote of citizens within their state, which is an appropriate exercise of state legislative authority pursuant to Section 1, Article II of the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the founding fathers explicitly rejected a national popular vote for president and instead created the Electoral College, strengthening federalism by making states the constituency responsible for selecting the president; and

WHEREAS, the National Popular Vote Interstate Compact would effectively amend the Constitution without the appropriate Constitutional process for amendment or building national support and consensus for the proposed change; and

WHEREAS, the election practices of some states are incompatible with the National Popular Vote Interstate Compact and such incompatibility may make it impossible to conclusively determine a winner; and

WHEREAS, the National Popular Vote Interstate Compact gives extraordinary power to the chief election official of member states to judge the election results of other states and determine whether and how they are to be included in the national vote tabulation; and

WHEREAS, the National Popular Vote Interstate Compact would diminish the importance of individual states in presidential elections and create the potential for federal intervention in the states' election processes; and

WHEREAS, under the National Popular Vote Interstate Compact, a state's electoral votes could be given away to a candidate who is opposed by the majority of the state's citizens; and

WHEREAS, any attempt to modify the current Electoral College would jeopardize a system that has been an effective check and balance for over two centuries in providing a conclusive outcome.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that the members of the Idaho Legislature support the Electoral College system and are steadfastly against the adoption of the National Popular Vote Interstate Compact.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of the Legislature encourage the Governor, Attorney General, and Secretary of State to join the Legislature in opposing any effort to repeal or nullify the Electoral College system and to examine policies that would prevent the National Popular Vote Interstate Compact from being adopted.

HCR 2 was introduced, read the first time by title, and referred to the Judiciary, Rules, and Administration Committee for printing.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4
BY JUDICIARY, RULES AND ADMINISTRATION
COMMITTEE

A HOUSE RESOLUTION

STATING FINDINGS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND PROVIDING FOR THE AMENDMENT OF RULES 6, 10, AND 17 OF THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, the House of Representatives deems it necessary and desirable that Rule 6, Rule 10, and Rule 17 of the Rules of the House of Representatives be amended.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the House of Representatives, assembled in the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, that Rule 6, Rule 10, and Rule 17 of the Rules of the House of Representatives shall be amended to read as follows:

RULE 6

~~Bills – Introduction. – After the 20th day of any session,~~
~~no~~ No bill shall be introduced except by committees and after the 36th day no bill shall be introduced except by the State Affairs Committee, the Appropriations Committee, the Education Committee, the Revenue and Taxation Committee, the Health and Welfare Committee, and the Ways and Means Committee. When essential to expedite the work of the House, the Speaker may designate any standing committee to serve as a privileged committee temporarily or during the remainder of the session.

RULE 10

Reference of Bills. – (1) All House bills, memorials and resolutions shall upon their introduction and first reading, be ordered printed by the Judiciary, Rules and Administration Committee. When reported printed by the Chief Clerk, the Speaker shall refer the instrument to a standing committee, or shall order the instrument filed for second reading; provided, however, that no such instrument shall be referred to the Ways and Means Committee until after the 36th day of session. All Senate bills, memorials and resolutions shall be referred directly by the Speaker to a standing committee or to the second reading calendar.

(2) If a bill, memorial or resolution is reported by the standing committee to which it has been referred without amendment, it shall be placed upon the second reading calendar, but if such committee report a bill, memorial or resolution with amendments, the same with the amendments shall be placed upon the general orders calendar for consideration by the Committee of the Whole House.

RULE 17

~~Call for an RS or Bills or, Memorials, or Resolutions. – When any bill, memorial or resolution has been in the hands of any committee for five days, any member of the House may, at the fifth or seventh order of business, upon the floor of the House, call for the same; whereupon it shall be the duty of said committee to report said bill, memorial or resolution to the House under the order of business of committee reports, not later than the following morning session. The House may, however, upon motion approved by a majority of the members~~

~~present, grant said committee further time; provided, that after the thirtieth day of the session any bill, memorial or resolution must be reported forthwith out of the committee to which it has been referred, with or without recommendations, upon the request of any member, unless otherwise ordered by the House by a vote of a majority of the members present.~~

(1) Upon a motion approved by at least half of all of the committee members, a committee shall, within three legislative working days and subject to the provisions of Rule 6, hold an introductory hearing on any routing slip (RS) that has been presented to a chairman and whose subject matter is germane to the committee.

(2) When any House bill, memorial, or resolution has been in the hands of a committee for five legislative working days, any member of the committee may call for a hearing. Upon approval of such motion by at least seventy percent (70%) of all of the committee members, the chairman shall hold a hearing on the bill, memorial, or resolution within a reasonable time.

(3) The provisions of this rule shall not apply to any agency bill or RS.

HR 4 was introduced, read the first time by title, and referred to the Judiciary, Rules, and Administration Committee for printing.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 3 BY RESOURCES AND CONSERVATION COMMITTEE A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

STATING FINDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE AND AUTHORIZING THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL TO APPOINT A COMMITTEE TO UNDERTAKE AND COMPLETE A STUDY OF NATURAL RESOURCE ISSUES.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, the First Regular Session of the Sixty-sixth Idaho Legislature adopted House Concurrent Resolution No. 7, which authorized the appointment of a committee to undertake and complete a two-year study of natural resource issues, including issues relating to water, throughout the State of Idaho; and

WHEREAS, the committee's official term expired on November 30, 2022, and numerous natural resource-related issues continue to be of importance for the future of Idaho and the quality of life our citizens enjoy; and

WHEREAS, natural resource issues of continued interest include but are not limited to stabilization of the water distribution system, the status of aquifers throughout the state, and wildlife.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that the Legislative Council is authorized to appoint a two-year committee to undertake and complete a study of natural resource issues of importance to the State of Idaho. The committee shall consist of ten legislators, with five from the Senate and five from the House of Representatives. The Legislative Council shall authorize the committee to receive input, advice, and assistance from interested and affected parties who are not members of the Legislature.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislative Council is authorized to also appoint ad hoc legislative members to serve on the committee.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the cochairs of the committee are authorized to appoint advisors with technical expertise in regard to water issues and are expected to receive input from stakeholders.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that any advisors to the committee who are not legislative members shall not be reimbursed from legislative funds for per diem, mileage, or other expenses and shall not have voting privileges regarding the committee's recommendations and proposed legislation.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the committee shall make a progress report to the Second Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature and shall make a report detailing its findings, recommendations, and proposed legislation, if any, to the First Regular Session of the Sixty-eighth Idaho Legislature.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4
BY RESOURCES AND CONSERVATION COMMITTEE

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

STATING FINDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE EXPRESSING CONCERN OVER THE PROPOSED LAVA RIDGE PROJECT AND SUPPORTING A NO-BUILD OPTION.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, the United States Bureau of Land Management has under consideration an application from LS Energy to lease an extensive amount of acres of public land, Lava Ridge, in Jerome, Lincoln, and Minidoka Counties; and

WHEREAS, LS Energy plans to construct 400 wind turbines, with a maximum height of up to 740 feet, 381 miles of access roads, and the infrastructure to support their construction and maintenance; and

WHEREAS, the height of the turbines will impact civil, military, and agricultural flight operations; and

WHEREAS, the energy created by the Lava Ridge Project is designed and planned to provide energy to Southern Nevada and California; and

WHEREAS, the States of Nevada and California have tremendous open space that could accommodate this project and more directly move the impacts to the beneficiaries; and

WHEREAS, the Magic Valley economy currently has a shortage of housing, available workforce, and construction capacity, stressing the local markets needed to support the build out of Lava Ridge; and

WHEREAS, local citizens and businesses are concerned about the impact of a boom-and-bust economy over a two-year period; and

WHEREAS, Idaho is required by law to protect all wildlife. This project area will severely impact the migration and habitat of local wildlife; and

WHEREAS, these lands have been utilized by agriculture, public recreation, hunting, and fishing by the citizens of Idaho and specifically the Magic Valley; and

WHEREAS, the Lava Ridge Project encroaches upon the historical significance of the Minidoka National Historic site of the Hunt Japanese Relocation Camp from World War II; and

WHEREAS, tremendous public opinion is not favorable to the Lava Ridge Project; and

WHEREAS, the legislative complexity of the federal, state, and local laws and regulations associated with the project cause concern for citizens and local governments.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that Idaho Attorney General Raúl Labrador and Governor Brad Little review the Lava Ridge Project to assure that the interests of Idaho are foremost in the final decision.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature considers the concerns of Idaho and the Magic Valley justification to support a no-build option.

7TH ORDER Motions, Memorials, and Resolutions

HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 2 BY STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

A JOINT MEMORIAL

TO THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED AND TO THE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION REPRESENTING THE STATE OF IDAHO IN THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

We, your Memorialists, the House of Representatives and the Senate of the State of Idaho assembled in the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, do hereby respectfully represent that:

WHEREAS, in 1973 the United States Supreme Court decided the case Roe v. Wade, 410 U.S. 113 (1973), wherein the United States Supreme Court found in the Constitution a "right to privacy" that the Court alleged gave women a constitutional right to abortion; and

WHEREAS, since the Roe v. Wade decision of 1973, "Roe certainly did not succeed in ending the division on the issue of abortion. On the contrary, Roe 'inflamed' a national issue that has remained bitterly divisive for the past half century." Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, 597 U.S. ____, 68 (2022); and

WHEREAS, the Roe v. Wade decision "short-circuited the democratic process by closing it to the large number of Americans who dissented in any respect from Roe. 'Roe fanned into life an issue that has inflamed our national politics...' Together, Roe and Casey represent an error that cannot be allowed to stand." Dobbs, at 44; and

WHEREAS, on June 24, 2022, the United States Supreme Court decided the case of Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization where the Court said in part that "procuring an abortion is not a fundamental constitutional right because such a right has no basis in the Constitution's text or in our Nation's history. It follows that the States may regulate abortion for legitimate reasons, and when such regulations are challenged under the Constitution, courts cannot 'substitute their social and economic beliefs for the judgment of legislative bodies.'" Dobbs, at 77; and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court also found in Dobbs, "The Constitution does not prohibit the citizens of each State from regulating or prohibiting abortion. Roe and Casey arrogated that authority. We now overrule those decisions and return that authority of the people and their elected Representatives." Dobbs, at 79; and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court also stated in Dobbs, "Our decision returns the issue of abortion to those legislative bodies, and it allows women on both sides of the abortion issue to seek to affect the legislative process by influencing public opinion, lobbying legislators, voting, and running for office." Dobbs, at 65; and

WHEREAS, the inferior federal courts are the creation of Congress, and the Constitution gives Congress the power to limit the jurisdiction of the lower federal courts. "Congress may confer jurisdiction upon such courts as it creates. Only the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court is derived directly from the Constitution. Every other court created by the general government derives its jurisdiction wholly from the authority of Congress. That body may give, withhold or restrict such jurisdiction at its discretion." Kline v. Burke Construction Co., 260 U.S. 226, 234 (1922); and

WHEREAS, there have been cases filed, and there are expected to be additional cases filed, in federal courts concerning the Dobbs decision that have the effect of delaying the implementation of the Supreme Court's Dobbs ruling. Post Dobbs, abortion is now a state matter for the states to decide and regulate.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that the Legislature of the State of Idaho, both the House of Representatives and the Senate, call on Congress to restrict the jurisdiction of the federal courts from hearing cases regarding state legislative authority to legislate on the abortion issue.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Dobbs decision settled the issue that abortion cases appropriately belong in the courts of the several states.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be, and she is hereby authorized and directed to forward a copy of this Memorial to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of Congress and to the congressional delegation representing the State of Idaho in the Congress of the United States.

HJM 2 was introduced, read the first time by title, and referred to the Judiciary, Rules, and Administration Committee for printing.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 5

BY HEALTH AND WELFARE COMMITTEE

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

STATING FINDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE AND REJECTING CERTAIN RULES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND WELFARE RELATING TO RESIDENTIAL ASSISTED LIVING FACILITIES.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, the Legislature is vested with authority to reject executive agency rules under the provisions of Section 67-5291, Idaho Code, in the event that the Legislature finds that the rules are not consistent with legislative intent; and

WHEREAS, it is the finding of the Legislature that certain rules of the Department of Health and Welfare relating to Residential Assisted Living Facilities are not consistent with legislative intent and should be rejected.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that final rule contained in IDAPA 16.03.22, Section 152., Subsection 03.viii.; IDAPA 16.03.22, Section 152., Subsection 03.ix.; and IDAPA 16.03.22, Section 152., Subsection 03.x., relating to Residential Assisted Living Facilities, Rules of the Department of Health and Welfare, only, be, and the same are hereby rejected and declared null, void, and of no force and effect.

Motions, Memorials, and Resolutions

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 6

BY STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

STATING FINDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE, RECOGNIZING THE IMPORTANCE OF A STRONG AND ENDURING PARTNERSHIP WITH TAIWAN, AND SUPPORTING TAIWAN'S MEANINGFUL PARTICIPATION IN IMPORTANT INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS, INCLUDING ORGANIZATIONS THAT ADDRESS GLOBAL HEALTH, CIVILIAN AIR SAFETY, AND TRANSNATIONAL CRIME, AND TAIWAN'S PARTICIPATION IN BILATERAL AND MULTILATERAL SECURITY SUMMITS, MILITARY EXERCISES, AND ECONOMIC DIALOGUES AND FORUMS.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, the United States and Taiwan are bonded by their shared commitment to democracy, freedom, human rights, the rule of law, and the market economy; and

WHEREAS, trade between the United States and Taiwan contributes meaningfully to our mutual economic growth. Taiwan is the eighth largest trading partner of the United States, with bilateral trade totaling $113.9 billion in 2021, while both sides welcomed the launch of the U.S.-Taiwan Initiative on 21st-Century Trade to further develop economic ties and facilitate trade; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan is the seventh largest export market overall for United States agricultural products, valued at more than $3.8 billion in 2021, a 17.5 percent increase from 2020($3.3 billion), and sixth largest export market for United States beef and beef products in 2021, with a record $667 million going to Taiwan, according to the United States International Trade Commission and the United States Foreign Agricultural Service; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan and Idaho maintain and cherish a longstanding friendship since the Sister State relationship was established in 1984. The establishment of the Idaho-Asia Trade Office in Taiwan in 1988 also marked successful expansion of bilateral trade and promotion of the partnerships between private and public sectors from both sides, thus creating mutual economic opportunities and prosperity for both states; and

WHEREAS, in 2022, Taiwan became Idaho's top import source for the second time and second largest export destination for a sixth time since 2017, remaining the overall second largest trading partner of Idaho, with a total trade value of $3.15 billion covering commodity goods from electrical equipment and machinery, chemicals, optical and medical equipment, and agricultural products; and

WHEREAS, there have been several memoranda of understandings signed between Taiwan and Idaho, such as the Memorandum of Education Cooperation in 2018, a Letter of Intent in 2022 promising that Taiwan millers purchase $576 million worth of United States wheat from 2022 through 2023, and the Memorandum of Understanding on Industrial Cooperation signed during Governor Brad Little's trade mission to Taiwan in December 2022, showing that both Taiwan and Idaho are dedicated to fortifying bilateral ties by cooperating and exploring opportunities on educational, technological, cultural, and economic exchanges; and

WHEREAS, The People's Liberation Army of China has engaged in deeply concerning military activities in Taiwanese waters and airspace that threaten regional and global stability and security; and

WHEREAS, Chinese President Xi Jinping is leading the People's Republic of China toward aggressive totalitarian rule, and has indicated through his rhetoric and actions his openness to forceful reunification of Taiwan with mainland China, which contravenes the Chinese government's obligations under international law and a rule-based order; and

WHEREAS, the United States has supported Taiwan's participation in the World Health Organization, the International Civil Aviation Organization, and the International Criminal Police Organization, and will continue to support Taiwan's meaningful participation in these and other international organizations; and

WHEREAS, Idaho welcomes all opportunities for an even closer economic, educational, and cultural relationship with Taiwan, including through increased trade and investment through bilateral free and fair trade agreements, Taiwan's participation in the Indo-Pacific Economic Framework for Prosperity, more cooperation under the Global Cooperation and Training Framework, and capacity-building programs for regional experts in the areas of public health, empowerment of women, energy efficiency, and e-commerce.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that the State of Idaho recognizes the importance of a strong and enduring partnership with Taiwan. Idaho condemns the Chinese government's military escalations toward Taiwan and reaffirms the United States government's commitment to a strong and deepening relationship with the people of Taiwan. Idaho welcomes periodic trade talks under the U.S.-Taiwan Initiative on 21st-Century Trade or related agreements in the interest of free and fair trade. Idaho supports Taiwan's meaningful participation in important international organizations, including organizations that address global health, civilian air safety, and transnational crime, and Taiwan's participation in bilateral and multilateral security summits, military exercises, and economic dialogues and forums.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 7 BY WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

STATING FINDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE AND ENCOURAGING THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, THE IDAHO WATER RESOURCE BOARD, AND THE IDAHO DEPARTMENT OF WATER RESOURCES TO CONTINUE, IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE LEGISLATURE, PURSUING ONGOING INVESTMENTS IN THE STATE'S WATER INFRASTRUCTURE AND TO ESTABLISH A LONG-TERM PLAN THAT IDENTIFIES FUTURE PROJECTS INTENDED TO PROTECT, IMPROVE, AND SECURE THE STATE'S WATER RESOURCES FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE CITIZENS OF THE STATE AND FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, the entire State of Idaho is reliant on its water resources; and

WHEREAS, Idaho's water resources include rivers, streams, lakes, reservoirs, and aquifers; and

WHEREAS, water within Idaho's borders is owned by the state as a public trust resource; and

WHEREAS, Idaho's water resources are vital to support its cities, agriculture, industry, and overall economy throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, currently there are water-related projects ongoing throughout the state with regional, basinwide, and statewide benefits, including but not limited to the Anderson Ranch Reservoir enlargement project, the Mountain Home Air Force Base sustainable water project, the Northern Idaho adjudication, the Priest Lake water management project, the Bear River Basin adjudication, and the Lemhi River Basin project; and

WHEREAS, a commitment to ongoing planning and investment in water infrastructure in every region of the state is critical to protect the use of this valuable resource; and

WHEREAS, ongoing investment in aquifer recharge, sustainable water supplies, increased water supply through storage, cloud seeding, and other efforts, and meeting or improving water quality is necessary for long-term stability and economic success; and

WHEREAS, a healthy and sustainable water supply is necessary for all Idahoans and for future generations.

[March 2, 2023]

HOUSE JOURNAL

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that we encourage the Governor of the State of Idaho, the Idaho Water Resource Board, and the Idaho Department of Water Resources to continue, in conjunction with the Legislature, pursuing ongoing investments in the state's water infrastructure and to establish a long-term plan that identifies future projects intended to protect, improve, and secure the state's water resources for the benefit of the citizens of the state and for future generations.

HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 3
BY WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

A JOINT MEMORIAL

TO THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED AND TO THE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION REPRESENTING THE STATE OF IDAHO IN THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

We, your Memorialists, the House of Representatives and the Senate of the State of Idaho assembled in the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, do hereby respectfully represent that:

WHEREAS, on June 2, 2022, the United States Department of Justice sued the State of Idaho in United States v. Idaho, case no. 1:22-cv-00236-DKG, on behalf of the United States Bureau of Land Management and the United States Forest Service. The complaint contends that Idaho's stockwater forfeiture procedure violates the United States Constitution's supremacy clause. The suit claims that federal law takes precedence over state law; and

WHEREAS, if the Department of Justice succeeds in setting precedence establishing United States supremacy over governance of Idaho's water, Idaho's sovereignty, the livelihood of Idaho ranchers, and Idaho's right to govern ourselves is in jeopardy; and

WHEREAS, congress passed the Desert Land Act of 1877, 43 U.S.C. 321, as amended, which, according to the court "effected a severance of all waters upon the public domain, not heretofore appropriated, from the land itself." In California Oregon Power Co. v. Beaver Portland Cement Co., 295 U.S. 142, 55 S.Ct. 725, 79 L.Ed. 1356 (1935), the court held that following the Desert Land Act of 1877, if not before, all non-navigable waters then a part of the public domain became publici juris, subject to the plenary control of the designated states, with the rights in each state to determine for itself to what extent the rule of appropriation or the common law rule in respect to riparian rights should obtain. For since "Congress cannot enforce either rule upon any state, Kansas v. Colorado, 206 U.S. 46, 94, the full power of choice must remain with the state"; and

WHEREAS, the court in Ickes v. Fox, 300 U.S. 82 (1937), stated, "While the basics of the doctrine of prior appropriation is the same from state to state, the doctrine has evolved to meet the specific needs of each state and thus differs among the western states." Congress understood this fact and that is why the laws concerning appropriation were left up to each individual state, as provided in Idaho Department of Water Resources v. United States, 122 Idaho 116, 832 P.2d 289 (1992); and

WHEREAS, in 1978, the Supreme Court of the United States ruled that Congress did not reserve stockwater rights to the federal government on national forests. Instead, those rights are subject to state law, even if the water is on land allotments on which the federal government has issued grazing permits. The case of United States v. New Mexico, 438 U.S. 696 (1978), confirmed the supremacy of state water laws, including stockwater allocations; and

WHEREAS, twenty years ago, in a technical process, the State of Idaho determined that the federal government had thousands of rights to stockwater on federal land in Idaho. The federal government received many of these stockwater rights because those who would be affected by such a decree did not know how the federal government's claims over water would affect them and their grazing allotments, or did not understand the need to have legal representation to object; and

WHEREAS, in 2007, Joyce v. United States, 44 Idaho 1, 156 P. 3d 502, and the companion case of LU Ranching Company v. United States, were successful in winning against the federal government, upholding the ranchers' claims to instream water rights on federal range land for watering livestock. Affirming Idaho's law, which states stockwater rights must be put to "beneficial use" or forfeited. The ruling further affirmed that the federal government is not exempt from Idaho's beneficial use law. The Idaho Supreme Court also ruled that in order for anyone to put the stockwater to beneficial use, including the federal government, they must water their own livestock or that of their "agents"; and

WHEREAS, under the United States Supreme Court's 1978 ruling in United States v. New Mexico and the Idaho Supreme Court's decisions in Joyce v. United States and LU Ranching Co. v. United States, Idaho is within authority to declare the federal government's water rights forfeited under state law; and

WHEREAS, we believe Idahoans must protect the principles and values that have made us strong, we believe that our founding fathers gave us a government that is a servant of the people, not our master, and we believe the most effective, responsible, responsive government is government closest to the people, that sovereignty of the state must be protected, and that government is best that governs least; and

WHEREAS, we believe a strong and viable agricultural industry is one of the most important cornerstones in the foundation of our state and is vital for national and global economic security. We recognize that water is vital to Idaho agriculture and other industries. We believe modification of Idaho's historic water laws must be considered with extreme caution. The federal government shall not infringe upon state jurisdiction over Idaho water; and

WHEREAS, we recognize the critical importance of water to this state. We will aggressively defend Idaho's right to appropriate and manage water within its own borders without interference from the federal government. We encourage policies that will more fully use and develop our water while supporting the Idaho state law of prior appropriation, based on the principle of "first in time is first in right" for the benefit of all Idahoans. We support all legal opposition to any and all efforts to usurp Idaho's sovereignty over water within Idaho borders. Further, we support the Attorney General in defending the state's position on these and all other water issues, and support the continued funding of the Idaho Constitutional Defense Fund.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that the governor enlist every resource and means available to thwart this lawsuit and the attempt to usurp Idaho's sovereign water rights.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we call upon Senator Mike Crapo, Senator James Risch, Congressman Mike Simpson, and Congressman Russ Fulcher to request the United States Department of Justice to withdraw its lawsuit against Idaho and to take any legislative actions available to them to protect the state of Idaho's sovereignty, Idaho's water rights, and the principle of "first in time is first in right" for the benefit of all Idahoans.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be, and she is hereby authorized and directed to forward a copy of this Memorial to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of Congress and to the congressional delegation representing the State of Idaho in the Congress of the United States.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 8
BY WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

STATING FINDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE AND APPROVING FEE AND NON-FEE RULES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE REVIEWED BY THE HOUSE BUSINESS COMMITTEE AND SENATE COMMERCE AND HUMAN RESOURCES COMMITTEE.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, The Legislature is vested with authority to reject executive agency rules that are not consistent with legislative intent and to approve executive agency rules under the provisions of Section 67-5291, Idaho Code; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature, pursuant to Section 67-5224, Idaho Code, must approve certain administrative rules that impose a fee or charge by adoption of a concurrent resolution before the rules become effective; and

WHEREAS, the House Business Committee and the Senate Commerce and Human Resources Committee reviewed fee and non-fee rules adopted by the Department of Insurance; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature finds that it is in the public interest to adopt this resolution.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that all fee and non-fee rules adopted by the Department of Insurance, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act and submitted through the Office of Rules Coordinator to the Legislature for review during the 2023 legislative session and reviewed by the House Business Committee and Senate Commerce and Human Resources Committee, be, and the same are approved.

HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 4
BY WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

A JOINT MEMORIAL

TO THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED, TO THE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION REPRESENTING THE STATE OF IDAHO IN THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES, TO THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, AND TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE STATE OF IDAHO.

We, your Memorialists, the House of Representatives and the Senate of the State of Idaho assembled in the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, do hereby respectfully represent that:

WHEREAS, Idaho submitted new and revised Human Health Water Quality Criteria (HHWQC) rules (docket number 58-0102-1201) to the United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) on December 16, 2016, after years of extensive engagement with stakeholders, data collection, and final approval of the Idaho Legislature; and

WHEREAS, on April 4, 2019, the EPA approved Idaho's new HHWQC for toxics and other water quality standards criteria; and

WHEREAS, Idaho is the only state in the union to complete a comprehensive longitudinal study funded by the state to determine the actual fish consumption rate (FCR) of its citizens, which was conducted by Boise State University; and

WHEREAS, Idaho acted in accordance with the United States Clean Water Act in utilizing the best available scientific data to apply a FCR within the water quality formula to establish its HHWQC as part of its overall water quality standards (WQS); and

WHEREAS, the EPA recently published new proposed nationwide regulations (at 87 Fed Reg. 74361 (December 5, 2022)) that would effectively establish an unrealistic and unattainable WQS for state waters that are not based on actual FCR but on Indian treaties approved in the 19th century; and

WHEREAS, the federal regulation notice completely ignores the requirement of Executive Order 13132 for Federalism implications, instead stating that the rule will not have substantial direct effects on the states, on the relationship between the federal government and the states, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among levels of government; and

WHEREAS, the federal regulation notice economic analysis states that there will potentially be only incremental administrative burdens and costs, but it does not establish any requirements for regulated entities. However, it could lead to additional compliance costs with new permit limits, which the EPA is unable to provide cost estimates for; and

WHEREAS, it is clear that the EPA-proposed rules will circumvent and undo the scientifically established WQS in Idaho, require the establishment of unattainable standards in an effort to take control of Idaho's waters in violation of the Clean Water Act's directive that states retain primary responsibility to control pollution and develop land and water resources for state waters, and violate the long-established principle of federalism.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that the people of the State of Idaho oppose the EPA-proposed rules that circumvent science and invalidate Idaho's WQS based on the flawed and elusive premise of 19th century water quality standards for Idaho waters in 2023. Idaho will defend its scientifically based standards in court if necessary.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be, and she is hereby authorized and directed to forward a copy of this Memorial to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of Congress, to the congressional delegation representing the State of Idaho in the Congress of the United States, to the Governor of the State of Idaho, and to the Attorney General of the State of Idaho.

HCR 8 and HJM 4 were introduced, read the first time by title, and referred to the Judiciary, Rules, and Administration Committee for printing.

7TH ORDERMotions, Memorials, and Resolutions

HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 5
BY WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE
A JOINT MEMORIAL

TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, THE UNITED STATES FISH AND WILDLIFE SERVICE, AND THE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATIONS REPRESENTING THE STATES OF IDAHO, MONTANA, AND WYOMING IN THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

We, your Memorialists, the House of Representatives and the Senate of the State of Idaho assembled in the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, do hereby respectfully represent that:

WHEREAS, the provisions of this Joint Memorial reflect declarations provided in the March 9, 2022, petition to delist grizzly bear submitted by the Honorable Brad Little, Governor of the State of Idaho, as well as those declarations asserted in a letter to the United States Fish and Wildlife Service submitted by Idaho's congressional delegation on November 17, 2022; and

WHEREAS, grizzly bears number approximately 60,000, with approximately 2,000 in Idaho, Montana, Washington, and Wyoming; and

WHEREAS, grizzly bear (Ursus arctos horribilis) is a subspecies of the brown bear species (Ursus arctos), and both the species and subspecies are secure and do not warrant protection under the federal Endangered Species Act (ESA); and

WHEREAS, grizzly bears in the lower 48 states are not a species as defined by the ESA; and

WHEREAS, grizzly bears in Idaho and adjacent states form the southern extension of grizzly bears ranging northward across western Canada to Alaska, with bears in northern Idaho being a portion of a population crossing international and state boundaries; and

WHEREAS, grizzly bears in Idaho and adjacent states have rebounded and recovered from their historically low numbers and limited distribution in northern Idaho and the Greater Yellowstone area; and

WHEREAS, grizzly bear population recovery and conservation success can be directly attributed to the support and efforts of the State of Idaho and its citizens; and

WHEREAS, grizzly bears in Idaho and adjacent states are protected by state and local regulatory and conservation measures, and suitable grizzly bear habitat is protected by regulatory and conservation measures on federal, state, and private lands; and

WHEREAS, grizzly bear distribution has expanded such that they now occur regularly in unsuitable habitats in rural agricultural lands and communities, where they pose risks to public safety, livestock and other domestic animals, and property; and

WHEREAS, successful conflict management is paramount to maintaining public support in Idaho for grizzly bear conservation; and

WHEREAS, a recent and significant increase in human-bear conflicts has caused serious public safety issues for Idaho citizens; and

WHEREAS, each year people are injured or killed by grizzly bear attacks in Idaho and adjacent states and provinces; and

WHEREAS, each year grizzly bears cause significant property damage, with residents in four Idaho counties losing more than 60 head of livestock to grizzly bear depredations in 2022 alone; and

WHEREAS, continued grizzly bear conservation, including conflict management and prevention, is best accomplished outside of the ESA framework under state management; and

WHEREAS, the United States Fish and Wildlife Service has ignored federal legal standards and best available science to find that Idaho's March 9, 2022, petition to delist grizzly bear in the lower 48 states does not warrant further action; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature finds that it is in the public interest to adopt this resolution.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that the Legislature calls upon Congress to act promptly to delist grizzly bear (Ursus arctos horribilis) in the lower 48 states from the list of endangered and threatened wildlife, including where listed as an experimental population.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature calls upon the United States Department of the Interior and the United States Fish and Wildlife Service to, consistent with federal law, policy, and science, reverse the United States Fish and Wildlife Service's determination on Idaho's delisting petition and to proceed with delisting grizzly bear in the lower 48 states.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature will continue to support proactive state and local actions to: manage grizzly bears as a species in need of management and to prioritize and ensure public safety; manage grizzly bear populations at levels to maintain their recovered status, to include the management of mortalities from all sources; prevent and promptly respond to grizzly bear conflict and nuisance situations, through the use of all available tools and methods, including but not limited to public education, aversive bear conditioning, and lethal removal of bears; and bring or otherwise participate in litigation to protect Idaho's sovereign interests regarding the appropriate delisting and management of grizzly bears.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be, and she is hereby authorized and directed to forward a copy of this Memorial to the President of the United States, the United States Department of the Interior, the United States Fish and Wildlife Service, and the congressional delegations representing the states of Idaho, Montana, and Wyoming in the Congress of the United States.

HJM 5 was introduced, read the first time by title, and referred to the Judiciary, Rules, and Administration Committee for printing.

7TH ORDERMotions, Memorials, and Resolutions*HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 9*BY HEALTH AND WELFARE COMMITTEE*A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

STATING FINDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE AND ESTABLISHING A TASK FORCE TO STUDY MEDICAID MANAGED CARE AND TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE LEGISLATURE.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, costs associated with Idaho's Medicaid program have risen significantly in recent years; and

WHEREAS, it would be in the interest of the state's fiscal health to contain Medicaid costs, ensuring more budget predictability and program sustainability; and

WHEREAS, attempting to contain Medicaid costs without careful study and consideration could have counterproductive effects, including loss of access to health care and adverse health impacts for Medicaid participants; and

WHEREAS, at least 40 states use Medicaid managed care to deliver Medicaid services; and

WHEREAS, successful implementation of managed care has been associated with reduced costs and improved health care access and quality of care for Medicaid participants; and

WHEREAS, prior to implementing a comprehensive managed care program, the Legislature requires a thorough study of existing Medicaid managed care programs in Idaho and other states to determine the most successful and cost-effective means of implementing managed care; and

WHEREAS, in considering whether to implement a comprehensive managed care program, the Legislature would benefit from a detailed comparison between managed care services and value-based services, including a cost-benefit analysis of both.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that the Legislative Council is authorized to establish a task force to undertake and complete a study of Medicaid managed care programs, including a comparison of the costs and benefits of Medicaid managed care services and value-based services, and to make recommendations regarding a comprehensive Medicaid managed care program in Idaho, with the goal of reducing costs, achieving a predictable and transparent Medicaid budget, improving health care access and outcomes, and ensuring network adequacy for Medicaid participants. The Legislative Council shall determine the number of legislators and membership from each house appointed to the task force and shall authorize the task force to receive input, advice, and assistance from interested and affected parties who are not members of the Legislature.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the task force shall include, as nonvoting members of the task force, the Director of the Department of Health and Welfare or the Director's designee, and a designee of the Governor.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the cochairs of the task force who are appointed by the Legislative Council may appoint additional nonvoting members of the task force to represent stakeholders, including hospitals, Medicaid providers, and insurance providers.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that nonlegislative members of the task force shall not be reimbursed from legislative funds for per diem, mileage, or other expenses.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislative Services Office shall provide staff support to the task force.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the task force shall, by January 31, 2024, report its findings, recommendations, and proposed legislation, if any, to the Second Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Idaho Legislature.

7TH ORDERMotions, Memorials, and Resolutions*HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 5
BY STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE*A HOUSE RESOLUTION

STATING FINDINGS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND COMMEMORATING THE CELEBRATION OF THE FEAST OF SAINT PATRICK, THE PATRON SAINT OF IRELAND.

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, on Saint Patrick's Day, all who wear the green live for a day in the spirit of Ireland; and

WHEREAS, the songs of Ireland are the joyous and tragic songs of love; the nostalgic reveries of the sorrows and the glories that are the Emerald Isle; and the lamentations of life's myriad travails and the odes to joy and the life eternal; and

WHEREAS, Irish immigrants to the United States, and all other immigrants, have helped form the cultural foundation of the nation, and those of Irish lineage today proudly sing support for America and Ireland; and

WHEREAS, Idaho and Ireland have a strong business and tourism relationship that is important to our state and Ireland; and

WHEREAS, we celebrate the establishment of the American Irish State Legislators Caucus with its aim of fostering and strengthening the longstanding relationship that exists between the United States of America and Ireland to the mutual benefit of both countries with leadership in all 50 states.

4TH ORDERConsideration of Messages from the Governor and the Senate

THE OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
Boise

March 21, 2023

The Honorable Mike Moyle
Speaker of the House

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I have the honor to advise you that I am returning herewith, without my approval, disapproved and vetoed:

H 133

within the time limited by law, the same having arrived in the Office of the Governor at the hour of 12:25 p.m. on March 15, 2023.

Driver's education training teaches students the skills and awareness they need to be responsible drivers. This training is necessary to ensure safety.

Currently, Class D drivers training permits are provided for students through public schools or private driving businesses. Both entities adhere to the same guidelines for course training. This creates a fair and thorough system to ensure students are prepared for the responsibility of driving.

House Bill 133 allows parents to be private educators for Class D drivers training permits. This change creates inconsistencies in training guidelines between parental and traditional training, such as class instruction time and the observation time in a driver training car.

I appreciate and understand the intent behind this piece of legislation. That said, I cannot support allowing different requirements for drivers training. Safety must be the utmost priority when preparing students for the responsibility of driving and there needs to be clear, consistent, and fair guidelines.

/s/ Sincerely,
Brad Little
Governor

As required by Article 4, Section 10 of the Idaho Constitution, H 133 was before the House for reconsideration.

The question being, "Shall H 133 pass, the veto of the Governor notwithstanding?"

March 24, 2023

The Honorable Mike Moyle
Speaker of the House

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I have the honor to advise you that I have signed on March 24, 2023 and am transmitting to the Secretary of State the following House bill, to wit:

H 186

within the time prescribed by law, the same having arrived in the Office of the Governor at the hour of 1:15 p.m. on March 22, 2023.

Throughout my life in public service, I have supported capital punishment when our justice system determines death is the only appropriate sentence for a person who committed a heinous crime. The families of the victims deserve justice for their loved ones and the death penalty is a way to bring them peace.

I am signing House Bill 186 because I support policies that enable the State of Idaho to successfully carry out the death penalty. It is the same reason I signed House Bill 658 in 2022, legislation to help the state acquire the chemicals necessary to perform lethal injection. I have not given up on the state's ability to acquire the chemicals, and I believe the bill I signed into law last year helped expand options that would not have been available without it.

While I am signing this bill, it is important to point out that fulfilling justice can and must be done while minimizing stress on corrections personnel.

For the people on death row, a jury convicted them of their crimes, and they were lawfully sentenced to death. It is the responsibility of the State of Idaho to follow the law and ensure that lawful criminal sentences are carried out.

Sincerely,
/s/ Brad Little
Governor

THE OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

March 27, 2023

The Honorable Mike Moyle
Speaker of the House

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I have the honor to advise you that I am returning herewith, without my approval, disapproved and vetoed:

within the time limited by law, the same having arrived in the Office of the Governor at the hour of 2:35 p.m. on March 22, 2023.

No other state has accomplished more tax relief per capita than Idaho in the past four years. Together, we have delivered $2.7 billion in relief to Idahoans by reducing and flattening the income tax, raising the grocery tax credit, providing rebates, providing some property tax relief, and lowering payroll taxes for Idaho businesses:

2020: $325 million in tax relief

2021: $383 million in tax relief

2022: $1.331 billion in tax relief

2023: $682.8 million in tax relief

Idaho stands apart from every other state because we focus on making taxes fair, simple, predictable, and competitive.

House Bill 292 is not a simple bill.

House Bill 292 is a hodgepodge of policy items intermingled with property tax relief. House Bill 292 presents significant impacts on election dates, public defense funding, online sales tax collections, local government sales tax distributions, and funding for transportation, and it jeopardizes bonding for critical infrastructure projects.

By re-ordering the priority of statutory claims on sales taxes prior to the payment of TECM bonds and by removing minimum guarantees for TECM debt service, this bill forces a pause of the TECM bonds that were scheduled for sale this week due to consternation in the bond market. A full list of transportation projects impacted by House Bill 292 is attached.

In short, House Bill 292 has functionally halted major transportation projects across the State of Idaho. These transportation projects were advanced without raising taxes or fees. These transportation projects help keep up with record growth, keep Idahoans safe, and promote commerce.

In addition, House Bill 292 removes the very election most used by school districts that rely on supplemental levies to keep up with record growth and maintain schools for Idaho families, thereby removing local control. Inclusion of this provision will have a major adverse impact on our ability to serve Idaho families with quality public schools because the sales tax earmarked for public schools did not include an inflator like there is for property tax relief in this bill. I do not find it reasonable to permanently eliminate an election date that has become important to so many families and local schools.

Let's get property tax relief done right this session. The simplest solutions are usually the best solutions, and I believe we can extract the property tax portions of House Bill 292 and deliver a true property tax relief bill this session. A property tax relief bill this session needs to be simple and carried out in a way that does not harm public schools, does not hold up needed transportation projects, and does not reveal more unintended consequences.

The people of Idaho deserve simple property tax relief that will endure over time!

4TH ORDER

Consideration of Messages from the Governor and the Senate

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
Boise

March 30, 2023

The Honorable Mike Moyle
Speaker of the House

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I have the honor to advise you that I have signed on March 30, 2023 and am transmitting to the Secretary of State the following House bill, to wit:

H 333

within the time prescribed by law, the same having arrived in the Office of the Governor at the hour of 9:40 a.m. on March 29, 2023.

Although signing this bill, I disagree with the Transfer of Appropriations language in this appropriation bill - and all of the FY 2024 appropriations bills for the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare (IDHW) - that restricts the transfer of personnel costs to other expense classes. This transmittal letter applies to all IDHW appropriations bills this session that include that language.

The state struggles to recruit and retain an adequate workforce, particularly IDHW positions such as social workers and medical professionals. Consequently, the IDHW relies on transfers at times from personnel costs to operating expenditures to hire contract physicians or nurses to adequately staff state-operated medical facilities that house some of Idaho's most vulnerable citizens who, without proper care, are a danger to themselves or others. To fulfill its core mission, the IDHW must transfer appropriations between expense classes when both minor and routine disruptions, such as these employment vacancies, occur. Accordingly, the inclusion of this restrictive language ties the hands of the IDHW to act effectively and efficiently when necessary. It is short-sighted and impedes the agency from responsibly managing its operations.

I look forward to working with you next session to understand the issue this is intended to resolve and find a more tenable long-term solution.

Sincerely,
/s/ Brad Little
Governor

Mrs. Blanksma asked unanimous consent that further reading of the Governor's letters cease. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Dear Mr. Speaker:

H 343

within the time prescribed by law, the same having arrived in the Office of the Governor at the hour of 9:40 a.m. on March 29, 2023.

I am supportive of this budget as it is our constitutional duty to pass a balanced budget for each state agency under my purview. The Idaho Public Charter School Commission serves an important function within our public school system and is required in section 33-5209c(1), Idaho Code, to "continually monitor the performance and legal compliance of the public charter schools it oversees, including collecting and analyzing data to support ongoing evaluation according to the performance certificate. Every authorized chartering entity shall have the authority to conduct or require oversight activities that enable the authorized chartering entity to fulfill its responsibilities pursuant to the provisions of this chapter." Under the Code, the Idaho Public Charter School Commission is charged with ensuring the academic and financial success of our state's charter schools, as taxpayer funds are on the line.

Under my recommended budget, I proposed to bolster our Idaho Public Charter School Commission to give them the tools they need to fulfill this statutory obligation. Without these

I have signed this legislation as a full supporter of employment and training requirements for benefit recipients. Idaho has operated a successful employment and training program for many years. I appreciate the spirit of this legislation to fully and appropriately apply work and training opportunities to help benefit recipients enter or advance in the workforce. However, the implementation of this legislation and balancing it with federal regulations and timelines presents risk. I caution future policy makers to closely monitor the impacts of this legislation to ensure it does not result in federal non-compliance and even jeopardize the federal funds available for our employment and training programs.

Education investments, school choice, and a thriving public charter school community are key factors to a healthy education system, and all have been top priorities of my administration. Our commitment is evident in our record education investments. Just this year, we increased starting teacher pay again, targeting Idaho for a top 10 spot nationally, we increased classified pay by nearly $100 million, and we continued funding for the Empowering

HOUSE JOURNAL

Parents grant program. My administration is dedicated to the success of our Idaho students and families.

With these record investments and major policy advancements, Idaho taxpayers expect both financial accountability and academic results. Idaho's public charter school system is well known for both aspects, but without proper safeguards and checks in place, some charter schools can operate in financial or academic doubt without any consequences. Codifying a school's ability to have a negative budget balance at the end of the school year be reset to zero raises questions of unity across the system and fiscal soundness of schools. Furthermore, allowing charter school parent companies to carry this balance on a debt sheet and requiring it to be paid back if the school ever begins to operate in the black forces the schools to be tied and indebted to the service provider. Holding public charter schools in Idaho to the same standards we hold our traditional public schools is a top priority and should also be a top goal for public charter schools and their managers. This will be something I continue to watch for while monitoring the effects of this bill.

As we move forward with our Idaho Public Charter School Commission, I remain committed to both investments in our schools and ensuring we have a return on that investment, with each dollar being spent in our K-12 system going toward benefiting Idaho students.

Dear Mr. Speaker:

H 348

within the time prescribed by law, the same having arrived in the Office of the Governor at the hour of 10:35 a.m. on March 30, 2023.

Over the last two years attorney wages at the Office of the State Appellate Public Defender and the Office of the Attorney General have risen a staggering 18.5%. This is a rate of wage increase that far outpaces what other state employees have received. Likewise, Idaho taxpayers, who must pay for these increases, have also not seen wage increases this generous.

However, what concerns me more than the increase is that our judicial salaries continue to fall behind. We have known for years that Idaho ranks at the bottom—49th according to the National Center for State Courts—in judicial salaries at every level compared to other states. More troubling is that attorney positions in state and local government are quickly outpacing judicial salaries. This could have serious consequences for recruiting judicial candidates to serve on the bench.

I believe we should want to attract the best attorneys from both the public sector and the private sector to serve on the bench as a capstone of their legal career. Furthermore, beginning in FY25, the state will have even more attorneys in its employ when the State Public Defender Act takes effect. As the state plays a greater role in establishing the public sector attorney wage in the future, my hope is attorney wages are considered wholistically with judicial salaries so that they move together.

In signing this bill, I recognize our society plays a role in protecting minors from surgeries or treatments that can irreversibly damage their healthy bodies. However, as policymakers we should take great caution whenever we consider allowing the government to interfere with loving parents and their decisions about what is best for their children.

This bill is aptly named the Vulnerable Child Protection Act because it seeks to protect children with gender dysphoria from medical and surgical interventions that can cause permanent damage to their bodies before they are mature enough to make such serious health decisions.

HOUSE JOURNAL

While I signed this bill, I did so with reservation. Given the growing threat of fentanyl in our state, it is counter-productive to erect barriers to accessing one of the primary lifesaving tools to reverse opioid overdoses: naloxone. Naloxone is safe, effective, and has limited side effects.

Section 16 adds red tape to the distribution of naloxone that runs counter to Idaho's all-hands-on-deck approach to the fentanyl crisis. This section limits distribution only to first responders. We know that most naloxone administrations in Idaho are by people other than first responders and thus distribution to community partners is critical. In fact, of the 1,238 reversals reported to the Department of Health and Welfare, 94% were not administered by first responders. We have also heard from organizations representing first responders that they do not have sufficient capacity and bandwidth to distribute naloxone to community partners. This is unsurprising given the known shortage of first responders in Idaho.

Imposing a new distribution strategy for naloxone on first responders without seemingly working with the associations representing first responders shows the danger of setting policy through intent language in a budget committee. This significant policy change may result in fewer naloxone doses available to administer in Idaho and, tragically, fewer lives saved.

Finally, just last week the U.S. Food and Drug Administration announced the approval of over-the-counter sales of naloxone without a prescription. Having the least regulated state in the nation bind itself in needless red tape at the same time our usual regulators-in-chief in Washington, D.C., are deregulating this lifesaving tool is a mistake I do not want to repeat next year.

With the U.S. Supreme Court's reversal of Roe v. Wade last summer, the right and duty to establish legal policy on abortion was finally returned to our state democratic process.

Section 1 of House Bill 242 does not criminalize, preclude, or otherwise impair interstate travel, nor does it limit an adult woman from obtaining an abortion in another state. Rather, the "abortion trafficking" provision in the bill seeks only to prevent unemancipated minor girls from being taken across state lines for an abortion without the knowledge and consent of her parent or guardian.

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I have the honor to advise you that I am transmitting today to the Secretary of State the following House bill which will be allowed to become law without my signature within the time limited by law:

H 206, as amended in the Senate, as amended in the Senate

Cutting red tape and making Idaho the least regulated state in the country has been and continues to be one of my administration's major priorities. Through executive orders and other targeted actions, we have eliminated or simplified 95-percent of all administrative rules to ensure Idaho's regulations are streamlined, user-friendly, and easy to understand. I appreciate my legislative colleagues' support of our efforts.

In recent years, unfortunately, misguided provisions in the Idaho Administrative Procedures Act have brought chaos and uncertainty to the rule making process that has caused unnecessary costs to taxpayers and undermined the hard work the public and regulated community have dedicated toward negotiating better rules. I welcome legislative efforts to address these concerns; however, my support of House Bill 206aaSaaS is mixed.

I applaud the Legislature's action in Section 8 of the bill. Repealing the need for a "going home bill" each year will save taxpayers money and provide Idahoans with the level of certainty they deserve. I also support the Legislature's commitment to review all administrative rules every eight years, codifying the requirement I imposed on all executive agencies in Executive Order No. 2020-01, Zero-Based Regulation.

On the other hand, I cannot support various amendments in Sections 1, 4, and 7 that interject the Legislature into the executive rulemaking process by requiring legislative pre-approval of rules before they take effect. By way of Article III, Section 29, of the Idaho Constitution, the Legislature has constitutional authority to review administrative rules that carry the force and effect of law to ensure those rules are consistent with legislative intent.

Conditioning the enforceability of rules on legislative action runs afoul of constitutional separation of powers and threatens to undermine the negotiated rule making process.

During my time as Governor, Idaho has led the nation in cutting red tape. Our track record in reducing regulatory burden is second to none. In 2016, Idahoans voted to protect our regulatory process, known as rulemaking, by putting it in our Idaho Constitution and preserving Legislative review of final rules that agencies have put into effect. I find provisions in House Bill 206aaSaaS to run counter to what Idahoans voted for while adding friction to a process that has allowed us to become the least regulated state in the country.

THE OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

April 5, 2023

The Honorable Mike Moyle
Speaker of the House

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I have the honor to advise you that I am returning herewith, without my approval, disapproved and vetoed:

H 314, as amended in the Senate

within the time limited by law, the same having arrived in the Office of the Governor at the hour of 2:05 p.m. on March 31, 2023.

The ability to read is fundamental to a child's success. Many of our fondest memories as children are venturing down to our local library and immersing ourselves in the sea of books and knowledge. As Governor, I have made investing in literacy a priority, and our local and school libraries are a critical component of ensuring our Idaho kids have the resources they need to be successful readers and lifelong learners.

My main concern is that the bill's ambiguity will have unintended consequences for Idaho libraries and their patrons. This legislation makes sweeping, blanket assumptions on materials that could be determined as "harmful to minors" in a local library, and it will force one interpretation of that phrase onto all the patrons of the library. Allowing any parent, regardless of intention, to collect $2,500 in automatic fines creates a library bounty system that will only increase the costs local libraries incur, particularly rural libraries. These costs will be forced onto property taxpayers of Idaho or cause the libraries to close to minors altogether.

I support the sponsors' intent of this bill to keep truly inappropriate materials out of the hands of minors. This is an effort I know everyone in the Idaho Legislature supports. However, I am also concerned that harmful content can be much more easily accessible to youth on their phones and the internet, not at their libraries. I encourage all Idahoans who have questions about any library materials to become familiar with the local policies of their duly elected library or school trustee board and engage directly with the officials who oversee them.

/s/ Sincerely,
Brad Little
Governor

As required by Article 4, Section 10 of the Idaho Constitution, H 314, as amended in the Senate, was before the House for reconsideration.

The question being, "Shall H 314, as amended in the Senate, pass, the veto of the Governor notwithstanding?"

Roll call resulted as follows:

AYES—Alfieri, Allgood, Andrus, Barbieri, Blanksma, Boyle, Cannon, Clow, Cornilles, Crane(12), Crane(13), Dixon(1), Durrant, Ehardt, Ehlers, Erickson, Gallagher, Green, Handy, Hawkins, Healey, Hill, Holtzclaw, Horman, Kingsley, Lambert, Manwaring, Mendive, Miller, Mitchell, Monks, Palmer, Pickett, Price, Raybould, Redman, Scott, Shepherd, Skaug, Tanner, Vander Woude, Weber, Wheeler, Wisniewski, Young(Cannon), Mr. Speaker. Total - 70.

Whereupon the Speaker declared that less than two-thirds of the members present having voted in the affirmative, H 314, as amended in the Senate, failed to pass the House, the veto of the Governor sustained. H 314, as amended in the Senate, and the Governor's veto message were ordered filed in the Office of the Chief Clerk.

Whereupon the Speaker ruled the motion out of order because the House had moved out of the pertinent order of business.

Mrs. Blanksma asked unanimous consent that committees be appointed by the Speaker to notify the Governor and the Senate that the House is ready to adjourn Sine Die. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The Speaker appointed Representatives Palmer, Pickett, and Burns to notify the Governor and Representatives Skaug, Ehlers, and Gannon to notify the Senate. The committees were excused.

The committee appointed to notify the Governor reported that it had delivered the message to the Governor. The committee was thanked and discharged by the Speaker.

The committee appointed to notify the Senate reported that they had delivered the message to the Senate. The committee was thanked and discharged by the Speaker.

16TH ORDER
Adjournment

Mrs. Blanksma moved that the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Legislature adjourn Sine Die. Seconded by Ms. Rubel.

Whereupon the Speaker declared the motion carried and the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Legislature adjourned Sine Die at 12:37 p.m., Thursday, April 6, 2023.

MIKE MOYLE, Speaker

ATTEST:

ERICA MCGINNIS, Chief Clerk

The following actions were recorded after House Sine Die:

CERTIFICATE

WE, MIKE MOYLE, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and ERICA MCGINNIS, Chief Clerk, do hereby certify and attest as follows:

That we have carefully compiled in the House Journal of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-seventh Legislature all of the proceedings of the Eighty-eighth Legislative Day, and that the said Journal contains a full, true, and correct record of all of the proceedings of said House of Representatives for said day and final action upon all legislation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands, this April 17, 2023.

MIKE MOYLE, Speaker

ATTEST:

ERICA MCGINNIS, Chief Clerk

APPENDIX

RULES OF THE HOUSE AND JOINT RULES OF THE HOUSE AND SENATE

Adopted by the House of Representatives
During the 2nd Regular Session of the 64th Idaho Legislature
January 8, 2018

RULE 1Amended Bills. –

When a bill, resolution, or memorial passed by the House of Representatives has been amended in the Senate, upon its return to the House, the House shall concur or not concur, or may order the bill referred to a standing committee which shall on that day or the next succeeding day return it to the desk with a committee recommendation for concurrence in such amendment or rejection thereof. If the House does not concur, a conference committee may be appointed to confer with a similar committee from the Senate, pursuant to the Joint Rule on Conference Committees.

[1967 Adopted (HJ 1967 pg 148 HR 3) unchanged 2019 went from rule no. 73 to 1 HR 5]

RULE 2Amendments must be Germane. –

No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

[1891 Rule 29 - two sections to rule at this time. 1985 - 2nd part dropped (HJ 1985 - pg 3) 2019 went from rule no. 31 to 2 HR 5]

RULE 3Amendments; Correction of Typographical Error. –

No amendment of any Bill or Joint Memorial or Joint or Concurrent Resolution shall be considered by the House except the same shall have been first considered by the Committee of the Whole House but all Bills, Joint Memorials or Joint or Concurrent Resolutions may be recommitted at any time previous to their passage; provided, however, that a typographical or clerical error in any Bill, or Joint Memorial or Joint or Concurrent Resolution, which does not affect the general context thereof, may be corrected and amended by a motion considered by the House without prior consideration by the Committee of the Whole House.

[1891 similar to rule 28. Prior to 1937 rule is: "No Amendments on third reading" limits amendments to bills on third reading. After this time the rule is referencing non-content changes to amendments (HJ 1935 pg 83 - rule 29) 1937 Rule 5 "Amendments" 1967 first portion of rule - ends with the word "passage" and only titled "Amendments" 1969 Adopted (HJ1969 pg 83) Current language. 2019 went from rule no. 46 to 3 HR 5]

RULE 4Attaches, Duties. –

All attaches of the House shall be required to be on duty during the sessions of the House and during such other hours as they may be needed for the business of the House, unless excused by the Speaker.

[1921 Adopted (HJ 1921 pg 32) Rule 69. language went from "a person of authority" to "excused by Speaker" 2019 went from rule no. 65 to 4 HR 5]

RULE 5Attaches, Lobbying. –

Attaches of the House shall not be permitted to lobby for or against any bill or measure pending. It shall be the duty of the Speaker of the House of Representatives to summarily discharge any attache of the House violating this rule.

[1899 Adopted - (HJ 1899 pg 14 Rule 65) unchanged - first part. 1951 Amended (HJ 1951 Rule 6 pg 52) 2019 went from rule no. 66 to 5 HR 5]

RULE 6Bills – Introduction. –

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this rule, no bill shall be introduced except by committees and after the 36th day no bill shall be introduced except by the State Affairs Committee, the Appropriations Committee, the Education Committee, the Revenue and Taxation Committee, the Health and Welfare Committee, and the Ways and Means Committee. When essential to expedite the work of the House, the Speaker may designate any standing committee to serve as a privileged committee temporarily or during the remainder of the session.

(2) A bill may be introduced by submission thereof to the Chief Clerk, and such bill shall, after it is assigned a bill number, be maintained in the office of the Chief Clerk. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to a concurrent resolution enabling a joint session of the House of Representatives and the Senate at the commencement of the legislative session.

[1911 Adopted 1971 amended HJ 1971 pg 368 HR4) 1977 Amended (HJ 1977 pg 252 - HR3) , 1983 amended (HJ 1983 pg 47 HR2) 1987 Amended to "Education Committee" to list of committee exceptions (HJ 1987 pg 59 HR 4) 1989 Amended to allow the prefiling of legislation prior to session (HJ 1989 pg 172 HR4) 1993 changes committee deadline for introduction of legislation (HJ 1993 pg 2 HR 2) 1994 Amended to change committee deadline for introduction of legislation (HJ 1994 pg 95 HR 7) amended in 2002 to delete provisions for prefiled bills (HJ 2003 pg 154 - HR2) 2018 org session floor motion (2019 HJ pg 2-3) amended to add Health and Welfare to list of privileged committees. 2019 went from rule no. 24 to 6 HR 5. 2023 amended to send personal bills to the Chief Clerk's Office and to eliminate the time constraint on introduction (2023 HJ pg ? HR 3); am. 2023, adopted HR003.]

RULE 7

Bills, Copies for Introduction. –

All House bills, memorials, resolutions and proclamations introduced shall have one printed copy which shall be endorsed with the word "Original." Additional copies of bills may be typewritten or printed as needed, and shall also be available through electronic means on the legislative website.

[1909 Adopted - bills printed in duplicate. Numerous amendments to change number of printed copies of bills. 1951 - 7 copies required, 1957 - 10 copies needed Amended in 1985 (HJ 1985 pg 2-5) Eliminates specific # of copies of bills, memorials and resolutions that must be printed and leaves it to the discretion of the JRA to print "appropriate # of copies" (rule 11 in 1985) Also "press and radio" was changed to the more generic term "news media" 1994 (HJ 1994, pg 46 HR4) to delete receipt requirement 2018 org session floor motion (2019 HJ pg 2-3) added legislative website and singular original copy to be printed 2019 went from rule no. 25 to 7 HR 5.]

RULE 8

Bills, Endorsements of, Entered on the Journal. –

Every bill before being introduced shall have endorsed thereon the title of the same, and every bill, joint resolution, joint memorial or concurrent resolution shall have thereon the name or names of the members introducing it, and when introduced by the committee, the name of such committee shall be endorsed thereon. The number, author and title of all bills, joint resolutions, joint memorials and concurrent resolutions, shall be entered on the Journal.

[1891 (HJ 1891-Rule 23, pg 11) Same basic verbiage - last sentence added after 1905 (HJ 1905 pg 6, Rule 23) 2019 went from rule no. 27 to 8 HR 5.]

RULE 9

Amendatory Bills. –

All bills introduced which are intended to amend existing statutes, shall have the words, letters, figures, and punctuation which are added to such statute underscored; when the amendment is to strike out or repeal any part of an existing statute, the letter, figure, word, and punctuation shall be printed with a line through such letter, figure, word, and punctuation in the printed bill to indicate the part stricken or repealed. Provided, however, that when a bill includes, or consists of, the repeal of an entire section or chapter, it shall not be necessary to print such repealed section or chapter.

[1905 changes indicated by using "stars" - which was the standard device. Amended in 1976 (HJ 1976 pg 13, HR 7) 2019 went from rule no. 28 to 9 HR 5.]

RULE 10Reference of Bills. –

(1) All House bills, memorials and resolutions shall upon their introduction and first reading, be ordered printed by the Judiciary, Rules and Administration Committee. Except for any bill submitted to the Chief Clerk pursuant to Rule 6(2), when reported printed by the Chief Clerk, the Speaker shall refer the instrument to a standing committee, or shall order the instrument filed for second reading. All Senate bills, memorials and resolutions shall be referred directly by the Speaker to a standing committee or to the second reading calendar.

(2) If a bill, memorial or resolution is reported by the standing committee to which it has been referred without amendment, it shall be placed upon the second reading calendar, but if such committee report a bill, memorial or resolution with amendments, the same with the amendments shall be placed upon the general orders calendar for consideration by the Committee of the Whole House.

[1891 - Adopted Rule 25, 1967 adopted 4 subsections. 1971 (HJ 1971 pg 368) Amended - 5 subsections - References Printing & Legislative Expense Committee, 1985 (HJ 1985 pg 2-5) Amended and rewritten, major changes to all sections of rule. Creates the Judiciary Rules & Administration Committee - shortens the entire rule. 2019 went from rule no. 43 to 10 HR 5. 2023 amended to reflect that personal bills will no longer be referred to a standing committee (2023 HJ pg ? HR 3); am. 2023, adopted HR003.]

RULE 11Bills, Manner of Passing. –

No law shall be passed except by bill, nor shall any bill be put upon its final passage, until the same, with the amendments thereto, shall have been printed for the use of the members; nor shall any bill become a law unless the same shall have been read on three several days in each house previous to the final vote thereon; provided, in case of urgency, two-thirds of the membership of the House where such a bill may be pending may, upon a vote of the ayes and nays, dispense with this provision. On the final passage of all bills they shall be read at length, section by section, and the vote shall be by yeas and nays upon each bill separately, and shall be entered upon the Journal; and no bill shall become a law without the concurrence of a majority of the members present.

[1891 - Rule 24. Amended in 1985 (HJ 1985, pg 2-5 Org Session) 2018 Amended and corrected by floor motion (2018 HJ, pg 2) 2019 went from rule no. 29 to 11 HR 5]

RULE 12Petitions, Memorials, Etc. –

Petitions, memorials, and other papers addressed to the House shall be presented by the Speaker.

[1891 "or by a member in his place" dropped from rule in 1909 (HJ 1909 pg 10, rule 17) 2019 went from rule no. 8 to 12 HR 5]

RULE 13Memorials and Resolutions. –

House memorials and resolutions shall be acted upon in the same manner as bills; provided, however, that on final passage, joint resolutions must have the approval of two-thirds of the entire membership of the House.

[1965 Adopted (HJ 1965 pg 63 - Rule 30) 1985 current language - drops the terms "Joint" and "concurrent" from 1st sentence (HJ 1985 pg 3 Org Session) 2019 went from rule no. 30 to 13 HR 5]

RULE 14Withdrawal of Bills and Joint Resolutions. –

When a bill or joint resolution is asked by a member of the House to be withdrawn it shall be stated the number, the author, and in a few words the reason for withdrawing and only by unanimous consent or a two-thirds vote of the members of the House present shall it be granted.

[1937 Adopted, Rule 71 (HJ 1937 pg 224) Included the term "Joint memorials". 1957 Rule 72 (HJ 1957 pg 115) drops the term "joint memorials" but otherwise current language. 2019 went from rule no. 32 to 14 HR 5.]

RULE 15

Bills Changed by Senate. –

Any House bill which is amended and passed by the Senate must go through the same procedure as to reading and final vote as if it were an original bill, after the House has concurred in the Senate amendments.

[1891 - Rule 33, 1965 Amended to add "and passed". 2019 went from rule no 26 to 15 HR 3]

RULE 16

Senate Bills. –

A similar code of procedure shall be observed with bills which have originated in and passed the Senate as with bills originated in the House, except they shall not be printed.

[1891 Rule 33 only minor language changes since then. 2019 went from rule no. 33 to 16 HR 5]

RULE 17

Call for Bills or Memorials or Resolutions. –

When any bill, memorial or resolution has been in the hands of any committee for five days, any member of the House may, at the fifth or seventh order of business, upon the floor of the House, call for the same; whereupon it shall be the duty of said committee to report said bill, memorial or resolution to the House under the order of business of committee reports, not later than the following morning session. The House may, however, upon motion approved by a majority of the members present, grant said committee further time; provided, that after the thirtieth day of the session any bill, memorial or resolution must be reported forthwith out of the committee to which it has been referred, with or without recommendations, upon the request of any member, unless otherwise ordered by the House by a vote of a majority of the members present.

[1909 Adopted (HJ pg 10 18) 1947 version largely the same but without the time frame markers & the last part of last sentence - "by a majority of the members present" 1951 - "Bills, Resolutions & Memorials" 1957- "Call for Bill or Joint Resolutions" 1965 "Call for Bills, or Joint Memorials, or Joint or Concurrent Resolutions" 1985 - Amended current language. 2019 went from rule no. 45 to 17 HR 5]

RULE 18

Call of the House. –

One-third of the members present may order a call of the House in the following manner:

A call being moved and seconded, the Speaker shall require those desiring a call to rise, and if one-third of the members present shall rise, there shall be a call of the House. A call of the House being ordered, the Sergeant at Arms shall close and lock the doors and no member shall be allowed to leave the Chamber. The Speaker shall immediately cause the roll of the members to be taken and note the absentees whose names shall be read and entered upon the Journal in such manner as to show who are absent with leave and who are absent without leave, and the Sergeant at Arms shall proceed to bring in such absentees; but arrest of members of absence shall not be made unless ordered by a majority of members present.

While the House is under call, no business shall be transacted except to receive and act on the report of the Sergeant at Arms, and no other motion shall be in order except a motion to suspend further proceedings under the call or to excuse absentees, which motion shall be determined by ayes and nays; and the motion to suspend further proceedings under the call or to excuse members shall not be adopted unless a majority of the entire membership vote in favor thereof.

When the Sergeant at Arms will make a report showing that all who were absent without leave are present, the call of the House may be dispensed with or the House may proceed under the call on a majority vote of the entire membership, with its regular business.

No motion for call of the House shall be entered after the House has commenced voting by ayes and nays.

The form of warrant for the arrest of absent members shall be as follows:

____ Session
IDAHO LEGISLATURE
In the House of Representatives
To the Sergeant at Arms or his Deputies:

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives has adopted the following order: That the Sergeant at Arms take into custody and bring to the bar of the House such of its members as are found absent without leave of the House; and

WHEREAS, The following named members of the House are absent without leave, to-wit:

(Names of Members)

Now, Therefore, I _____, Speaker of the _____ Session of the House of Representatives of the Idaho State Legislature, by virtue of the power vested in me by the House, hereby command you to execute the said order of the House, by taking into custody and bringing to the bar of the House said above named members who are absent without leave; hereof fail not, and make due return in what manner you executed the same.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this ____ day of _____, 20 ____.

Speaker

Attest:

Chief Clerk

RULE 25Chairman of the Committee. –

The first-named member of each committee shall be the chairman, and in his absence, or having been excused by the House, the next-named member and so on, as often as the case may happen, shall act as chairman.

[1891 - Rule 39 unchanged 2019 went from rule no. 56 to 25 HR 5]

RULE 26Committee Meetings to be Open, Executive Sessions Limited, Disruption of Meetings. –

(1) All regular meetings of any standing, special or select committee of the House of Representatives shall be open to the public at all times. Any person may attend any meeting of any standing or select or special committee, but may participate in said committee only with the approval of the committee itself.

(2) Executive sessions of a standing, special or select committee of the House of Representatives shall be limited and undertaken only when necessitated by extraordinary circumstances as provided in this rule. Except in an emergency involving security or threats against state citizens, resources or facilities, an executive session may be considered by a committee only after the committee has given public notice at least twenty-four hours in advance of the meeting that the committee will have before it a request to meet in executive session, has listed the person(s) or agency that has requested the executive session, and has described the reason(s) for which an executive session has been requested. Only after the committee chairman has identified the reason(s) for holding the executive session and only upon a two-thirds vote recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the committee, shall a committee be allowed to hold an executive session during any meeting, at which time persons who are not members of the legislature may be excluded. Executive sessions shall be held only when and to the extent necessary to: discuss records that are exempt from public disclosure by statute, court decision or court rule; consider pending litigation, mediation or arbitration; consider personnel decisions involving a legislative employee; conduct a preliminary investigation of an ethics complaint against a member under Rule 45; consider charges brought against or the discipline or dismissal of a member when public disclosure would harm an innocent third party; discuss the security of or threats against state citizens, resources or facilities; or discuss acquiring an interest in real property which is not owned by a public agency. Under no circumstances, however, shall an executive session be authorized or held for the purpose of taking any final action or making any final decision, and during such executive session, no votes or official action may be taken.

(3) Nothing in this rule shall prohibit the removal of any person who willfully disrupts a meeting to the extent that orderly conduct is seriously compromised.

RULE 27Reports of Committees. –

In case all the members of any committee are required or entitled to report on any subject referred to them, and cannot agree upon any report, the majority and minority may each make a special report, and any member dissenting in whole or in part from the reasoning and conclusions of both majority and minority may also present to the House a statement of his reasonings and conclusions, and all reports, if decorous in language and respectful to the House, shall be entered at length on the Journal.

[1891 Rule 53 unchanged. 2019 went from rule no. 59 to 27 HR 5]

RULE 28

Appointment – Powers and Duties of Subcommittees. –

(1) Any committee of the House of Representatives, except the committee of the whole, may appoint a subcommittee. The subcommittee can make such investigation or exercise such authority of the committee as delegated to it by the committee. The subcommittee shall report to the committee from which it was appointed and not to the House. A subcommittee may consist only of members of the committee from which appointed. A subcommittee shall issue a report within twenty-eight calendar days after being appointed by the committee unless the subcommittee requests additional time to meet and confer and the committee grants that request.

(2) In cases or with legislation demanding special investigation or inquiry, it is proper for a committee to appoint subcommittees, referring certain matters to their particular consideration, and to receive and consider the reports of subcommittees. All subcommittee meetings shall be held in conformity with state law.

(3) At the request of any member of the committee, a subcommittee shall have membership from the minority parties in proportion to the minority parties' representation in the House.

[1994 Adopted (HJ 1994 pg 178 HR 8) rule regarding the appointment of subcommittees. 2019 went from rule no. 77 to 28 HR 5]

RULE 29

General Orders – Consideration of. –

When the House has arrived at the general order of the day, it shall resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole House, and shall consider, act upon, or pass all matters referred to it in the order of their reference, unless the committee shall sooner rise.

RULE 31

Committee of the Whole House – Procedure in. –

(1) Bills committed to the Committee of the Whole House shall not be read and there shall be no general debate unless a motion to allow general debate is approved by members of the Committee of the Whole House. The mover of an amendment shall be allowed five minutes to explain the amendment and debate in favor thereof. The mover may yield all or any portion of his time to other members for debate in favor of the amendment. Thereafter, five minutes shall be allowed for debate in opposition to the amendment. Time consumed by questions and answers shall not be deducted from the five minutes allotted to each side for debate. The mover of the amendment shall have the privilege of closing debate on the amendment. Closing debate shall be limited to two minutes. No amendment shall be withdrawn by the mover thereof unless by majority consent of the Committee. Each proposed amendment shall be in writing, shall be reported to the House by the Chairman and shall contain, either on the face of the amendment, or on a sheet attached to the front page thereof, the following:

- (a) A concise statement of purpose.
- (b) Names of the mover and the seconder in the upper right hand corner.

No amendment shall be considered by the Committee of the Whole House until written copies thereof with the above information included, have been delivered to each member of the House.

(2) The simple motion that the committee shall rise shall always be in order, except when a member has the floor, and shall be decided, by a majority vote of the members present, without debate.

(3) The motion to strike out the enacting clause shall not be made until after the first section or clause of the bill has been read for amendment, and is debatable five minutes on either side.

(4) All business of the House and Committee of the Whole House shall be transacted openly.

RULE 33

Rules of House Apply in Committee of the Whole House, Exception. –

The rules of the House shall be observed in Committee of the Whole House, so far as the same may be applicable, except that the ayes and nays shall not be called, nor the previous question enforced. The Committee of the Whole House shall not consider any appeal from a decision of its Chairman, but in case a member is dissatisfied with any such decision, the committee shall at once rise and report the question to the House for determination, when the Speaker shall rule upon the point, subject to appeal to the House as in other cases.

[1891 - Rule 36 - First part of sentence remains the same but ended at the word "enforced" 1907 Rule 35 current language. 2019 went from rule no. 49 to 33 HR 5]

RULE 34

Contest of Election – Procedures.

This Rule governs procedures leading up to and including a hearing on the contest of election. It should be read in conjunction with Chapter 21, Title 34, Idaho Code. For purposes of this Rule, the term "Party" means either the CONTESTEE or the CONTESTOR; the term "Parties" means both.

(1) Any proof of the CONTESTEE's or CONTESTOR's legal arguments, including depositions, affidavits, production of papers, and examination of poll books and ballots (herein "Record") that either CONTESTEE or CONTESTOR desires the House of Representatives to consider in adjudication of a Contest must be completed on or before December 29. CONTESTEE and CONTESTOR's Record must be delivered to the Office of the Secretary of State no later than the close of business on the next business day. Any Record or evidence from the CONTESTEE or CONTESTOR not delivered to the Office of the Secretary of State by that day and time will not be considered by the House of Representatives.

(2) The Parties must file a Memorandum that outlines their claims, defenses, legal authority, legislative precedent, proposed form of relief, and a description of witness fees and discovery costs that are incurred. The Memorandum must be filed with the Office of the Secretary of State no later than the close of business four (4) business days following delivery of the Record to the Office of the Secretary of State as provided in paragraph (1). However, CONTESTEE is not required to file a responsive pleading to the Contest.

(3) Any Party may file a Responsive Memorandum. If a Party chooses to file a Responsive Memorandum, it must be filed with the Office of the Secretary of State no later than the close of business on the first day of the next Regular Session.

(4) If an unresolved discovery or Record dispute exists and continues between the CONTESTEE and the CONTESTOR, and on motion duly made, the presiding officer or his designee may rule on the dispute. Neither the CONTESTEE nor the CONTESTOR will be granted any additional time beyond December 29 to develop or deliver his Record.

(5) Committee hearing procedures. If the House of Representatives refers the Contest of Election to a Standing or Special Committee, the Committee Chairman will notify the Parties of the Committee hearing procedures. The following procedures, subject to the discretion of the Committee Chairman, will govern the hearing:

(a) No additional testimony or Record may be presented, taken, or allowed by the Parties beyond the Record delivered to the Office of the Secretary of State as provided in paragraph (1) of this Rule.

(b) Neither CONTESTEE nor CONTESTOR may examine or cross-examine any witness that testifies before the Committee. All examination will be performed by Committee members.

(c) Pursuant to Section 34-2104, Idaho Code, only the named points in the Notice of Contest of Elections may be argued.

(d) The Committee may send for and receive persons, papers, and records, whether written or oral, including from the Office of the Attorney General, other State Elected Officers, State officials, County Elected Officers, County officials, or other witnesses that the Committee determines will reasonably assist the Committee in the performance of its constitutional duty as a "judge of the election, qualifications and returns of its own members," Section 9, Article III, Idaho Constitution.

(e) In all other respects, the Committee will be governed by the rules of the House of Representatives.

(6) The Committee may adopt any of the following as part of the hearing procedures:

(a) Permit the Parties to have counsel present at Committee meeting(s); and

(b) Establish a time limit for the CONTESTEE and CONTESTOR to argue their positions to the Committee.

(7) Neither CONTESTEE nor CONTESTOR, nor their counsel, may participate in ex parte communication with any member of the Idaho House of Representatives regarding the merits of the Contest of Election prior to final House of Representatives determination.

(8) Service of all Record, Memorandum, Responsive Memorandum, motions, or objections must be made on the other Party as provided in Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure 5(b), excepting subpart 5(b)(2)(D). The Parties must also provide a proof of service as provided by Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure 5(e). The Parties must work in good faith to ensure reasonable and timely service, considering the limited time periods.

(9) Nothing in this Rule limits or restricts the House of Representatives in the performance of its duties as the judge of the election, qualifications and returns of its members.

[2017 Adopted (HJ 2017 pg 240 HR 3) rule regarding contested elections 2019 went from rule no. 78 to 34 HR 5]

RULE 35

Opening Hour. –

The hour of the daily meeting of the House shall be 11:00 o'clock in the forenoon, unless the House directs otherwise.

[1891 - Start time was originally set at 10:00 am. 2019 went from rule no. 1 to 35. HR 5]

RULE 36

Call to Order. –

The Speaker shall take the Chair at the time to which the House stands adjourned, and after the call to order, the roll of members shall be taken and the names of absentees entered on the Journal of the House, after which there shall be prayer by the Chaplain.

[1891 - although minor tweaks to language, intent remains the same 2019 went from rule no. 2 to 36 HR 5]

RULE 37

Seating. –

Upon the organization of the House of Representatives and the adoption of temporary rules, the House shall be declared "at ease," and the members shall retire to the sides of the House and proceed to select their seats in the following manner:

(1) The Majority and Assistant Majority Leader, Minority and Assistant Minority Leader, the Majority Caucus Chairman and the Minority Caucus Chairman shall first select their seats.

(2) Such members of the House as may have a physical impairment that requires an accommodation shall next select their seats.

(3) Former members of the House shall next select their seats, with priority determined on the basis of the total number of terms served in the House. Those with consecutive terms immediately prior to the present session shall have priority over those with the same or a greater number of nonconsecutive terms, and of those not having served immediately prior to the present session. In the event two or more Representatives, not having served a term immediately prior to the present session, shall have served an equal number of past terms, service in the Senate shall be computed to determine priority as between them.

(4) Former members of the Senate shall next select their seats, and those having served the greatest number of terms in the Senate shall have priority.

(5) The names of all remaining members shall be placed in a hat by the Chief Clerk, the names drawn by him, and as each member selects his seat, he shall proceed to the seat selected by him and remain therein until the business of selecting seats shall be completed.

(6) In all cases in which two or more Representatives have the same priority, the order of seating shall be determined by lottery as provided in subsection (5) above.

(7) The seating arrangements set forth in the preceding paragraphs shall be subject to the provision that the members of each party shall be seated as nearly as possible in adjacent seats, and in the event one party has a majority which requires seating of its members on the side of the chamber occupied by the members of the minority party, such majority party shall have the right to select as many seats as are necessary to accommodate its membership on the side closest to the regular seats of the majority party, subject only to Paragraph 1 of this Rule, and the minority party shall be required to make such seats available to the members of the majority party.

Debate, Right to Open and Close. –

When two or more members shall rise at once, the Chair shall designate the member who is first to speak, but in all cases the member making the motion or sponsoring the bill or the chairman of the committee making the report which is under consideration, shall have the privilege of opening and closing the debate thereon. During closing debate no new material shall be interjected that was not referred to during previous debate. No member shall conclude debate with a nondebatable motion. After the closing debater has been recognized, no other member shall obtain the floor for any purpose other than to ask for a roll call vote.

[1891 Adopted shortened verbiage 1981 revised to current language (HJ 1981 pg 243, HR 3) 2019 went from rule no. 21 to 38 HR 5]

RULE 39

Limitation on Debate. –

No member shall speak more than twice on the same subject, nor shall any member occupy the floor longer than one hour at a time, without leave of the House by majority vote of the members present; nor shall any member speak more than once until every member choosing to speak on the subject shall have spoken.

Debate shall be limited to the question before the House. Discussion of other bills or resolutions pending, or in committee in either the House or Senate shall be prohibited except upon majority consent of the House. Reference to committee action on a question under debate is permitted but restricted to testimony given before the committee and the final vote of the committee. Reference to statements made by members in committee is prohibited except with permission of the member being quoted and only if the member being quoted is previously tendered a copy of the reference statement.

[1891 - Rule 9 - with shortened verbiage 1985 adds phrase "by majority of the members present" to first section - to be current version of rule. 1979 - major additions to the rule - 2nd paragraph added at this time (HJ 1979 pg 243) 2019 went from rule no. 22 to 39 HR 5]

RULE 40

Session Decorum. –

(1) Smoking and the consumption of food and beverage will not be allowed in the Representative Chamber or gallery while the House is in Session.

(2) Persons in the Chamber shall wear proper attire to maintain decorum of the House.

[1891 Adopted - as a ban on smoking. 1931 - Rule 55 - No Smoking. 1963 Amended to include prohibition of food and drink on the House floor. 1985 Amended in to "Session Decorum" 2019 went from rule no. 70 to 40 HR 5]

Courtesy. –

When the Speaker is putting the question no member shall walk out or across the hall, nor leave during the roll call; nor when a member is speaking shall any person entertain any private discourse or pass between him and the Chair; nor shall a member, at any time during the time the House is in session, pass between the members of the House and the Speaker's Chair.

[1891 - Adopted Rule 19. 2019 went from rule no. 42 to 42 HR 5]

RULE 42

Floor, to Obtain. –

Every member desiring to state or second a motion, or to address the House, shall rise from his seat and respectfully address the Chair, and remain standing in his place before proceeding to speak until he is recognized by the Chair.

[1891 Adopted - 1915 "to second a motion" added in rules (HJ 1915 pg 13, rule 7) 2019 went from rule no 12 to 42 HR 5]

RULE 43

Question of Order. –

A member called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain, and the House, if appealed to, shall decide the case. If there be no appeal, the decision of the Chair shall prevail. On an appeal no member shall speak more than twice without leave of the House, nor more than ten minutes at a time. When a member is called to order for offensive language there shall be no debate.

[1891 (HJ 1891 pg 11 - rule 21) 2019 went from rule no. 19 to 43 HR 5]

RULE 44

Adjournment, Decorum at. –

When the House adjourns, the members shall keep their seats until the Speaker announces the adjournment.

[1891 Rule 6 - unchanged 2019 went from rule no. 52 to 44 HR 5]

RULE 45

Committee on Ethics and House Policy.

– (1)(a) Within twelve days of the convening of the first regular session of each Legislature, an Ethics and House Policy Committee shall be organized and its membership shall be determined. The Ethics and House Policy Committee shall consist of five members of the House, three of whom shall be selected by members of the majority party and two of whom shall be selected by members of the minority party. Committee members must have served at least one full term in the Legislature and may have served previously on the committee. House members who have been sanctioned by the House for an ethics violation pursuant to this rule or who hold leadership positions shall not serve on the Ethics and House Policy Committee. Committee Chairmen may serve on the Ethics and House Policy Committee.

(b) Each party shall select a first and second committee alternate for its respective party, ranked according to the number of votes each alternate received. In the event of a tie, the ranking shall be determined by a coin toss. The committee alternates shall sit and have voting rights when the committee is sitting to review House policy. When the committee is sitting to consider an ethics matter, the committee alternates shall serve only in the event of a vacancy, for the duration of the vacancy, as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection.

(c) A vacancy on the committee shall be filled by the first, followed by the second, alternate for the respective party for the duration of the vacancy. When no alternates are available to fill a vacancy, such vacancy shall be filled by majority vote of the House members of the party entitled to fill the vacancy. A member filling a permanent vacancy shall serve for the remainder of the unexpired term. If a complaint concerns misconduct of a member of the Ethics and House Policy Committee, that member shall not serve on the committee for any purpose relating to such complaint.

(d) The committee shall elect one of the majority party members of the committee as chairman of the committee by a four-fifths majority vote. Alternates shall not be entitled to vote for chairman or to serve as chairman unless filling a vacancy.

(2)(a) The chairman of the Ethics and House Policy Committee shall receive complaints from any member of the House and shall be solely responsible for the security and retention of all committee records relating to a complaint, which shall be maintained in a locked box in the office of the chief clerk for the duration of the respondent's service in the Idaho Legislature, regardless of the ultimate disposition of the complaint.

(b) A complaint shall be in writing and contain one or more allegations that may constitute:

- (i) Conduct unbecoming a Representative which is detrimental to the integrity of the House as a legislative body;
- (ii) Disclosure of information that is confidential as provided in House rules;
- (iii) Conduct constituting a felony under any state law, or which violates any state law relating to the use of public office for private pecuniary gain;
- (iv) A violation of any state law or House rule relating to conflicts of interest involving legislative duties; or
- (v) A violation of any state law or House rule that brings discredit to the House of Representatives or that constitutes a breach of public trust.

- (c) The complaint shall be specific and provide:
 - (i) The name of the member of the House of Representatives alleged to be in violation (the "respondent");
 - (ii) Identification of any third parties involved;
 - (iii) Reference to the House rule and/or applicable state law supporting the alleged violation;
 - (iv) A description of the facts and circumstances supporting each alleged violation; and
 - (v) The evidence the complainant has at the time of making the complaint supporting the facts and violation alleged in the complaint.
- (3) The committee may, in its discretion and upon an affirmative vote by four-fifths of the committee, resolve and dismiss a complaint at any time. It shall maintain a confidential record of the committee review and dismissal of the complaint, as provided in subsection (2)(a) of this rule. The dismissal may be in the form of a letter to the respondent and the complainant, in that order.
- (4) Subject to the provisions of this rule, the committee shall conduct a preliminary investigation of the complaint, beginning with an initial review, as follows:
 - (a) The committee shall conduct an initial review of the written complaint and, by a four-fifths vote, shall dismiss any ethics complaint that:
 - (i) Lacks sufficient evidence of conduct described by subsection (2)(b) of this rule;
 - (ii) Does not comply with subsection (2)(c) of this rule; or
 - (iii) Alleges violations that occurred either before the accused member was first elected to the House of Representatives or for which an applicable statute of limitation has run.
 - (b) If a complaint is not dismissed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection following the initial review, the committee shall notify the respondent and shall provide the respondent with a copy of the complaint and all evidence submitted supporting the complaint.
 - (c) During the initial review and preliminary investigation phase of the process, all proceedings shall be held in executive session and all information regarding the complaint shall remain confidential.
 - (d) The respondent may submit a written answer to the chairman of the committee no later than fourteen days following the date that the copy of the complaint was provided to the respondent.
 - (e) Following receipt of the answer from the respondent, or if no answer to the complaint is provided to the chairman within fourteen days, the committee shall meet and continue the preliminary investigation of the complaint.
 - (f) Following consideration of the evidence presented, if a complaint is not resolved and dismissed pursuant to this rule, the committee may determine, by a four-fifths vote, that the evidence substantiates the alleged facts such that probable cause exists that misconduct may have occurred. At such time, the committee shall notify the respondent, followed by the complainant, that the committee will proceed to a public hearing. The committee shall, within seventy-two hours following such notification, redact the names and other personal identifying information of third parties, when deemed appropriate, from copies of the complaint and response, including any evidence attached to each, redacted as necessary, and such renditions of the written complaint and response shall no longer be confidential but shall become public documents. After such time, the chairman shall notify the body that a public hearing shall be held. The complainant and the respondent are entitled to unredacted copies of the complaint and response and all of the evidence in support of each, which must be held confidential by the complainant and respondent and their representatives.
- (5)(a) Following a finding of probable cause and in a timely fashion, the committee shall conduct a public hearing before which the respondent shall be entitled to appear, present evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and be represented by counsel. The complainant or authorized agent of the complainant shall first present the complaint and supporting evidence and testimony to the committee. The committee shall have the power to take testimony under oath and to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum in the manner provided in Section 67-407, Idaho Code, and make inquiry and discover evidence relevant to the allegation. Formal rules of evidence are not applicable; however, evidence shall be weighed according to its reliability, and the respondent may raise objection to any evidence. The respondent may defer presentation of any defense until all of the evidence has been presented in support of the complaint.

(b) The committee may take appropriate measures to protect the identity and privacy of third party witnesses who testify at the public hearing.

(c) If evidence previously unknown to the respondent is presented during the public hearing, the committee chairman may, at the request of the respondent, recess the hearing while the respondent prepares a response.

(d) During the public hearing, the committee may deliberate in executive session.

(e) The committee may consult with and be assisted by the attorney general's office or another attorney or other experts of their choosing.

(f) The respondent shall have access to an attorney or other representative for advice and consultation. The committee may also vote to provide the respondent with financial assistance to employ an attorney to represent the respondent in any proceeding under this rule.

(6) If, after investigation and hearings held pursuant to this rule, the committee finds by clear and convincing evidence that the respondent's conduct alleged in the complaint did in fact occur and that such conduct constitutes a violation of one or more of the standards contained in subsection (2)(b) of this rule, the committee may recommend dismissal of the complaint, or reprimand, censure, or expulsion of the respondent. A reprimand shall carry no sanctions other than the reading of the reprimand into the Journal of the House of Representatives. Censure of a member may include conditions or restrictions placed upon the member, but may not have the effect of expulsion, such as terminating salary or benefits or denying a legislative district representation via floor votes. The committee recommendation must be approved by a four-fifths vote of the committee, except in the case of a recommendation for expulsion, which must be approved by a unanimous vote of the committee.

(7) The committee shall prepare a report listing the complaint that was filed, the committee findings in relation to the facts and evidence relevant to that complaint, the committee's recommendation and the reasons for such recommendation. If the committee does not issue a recommendation within thirty days of the conclusion of the public hearing, the complaint shall be deemed dismissed.

(8) The House of Representatives shall vote on the recommendation of the committee, as set forth in the report, during the regular session of the Legislature in which the committee reports. If the committee meets and reports during the interim when the Legislature is not in session, then the House of Representatives shall vote on the committee recommendation during the next regular session of the Legislature. Expulsion of a House member shall require the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of the House, as provided by Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution. Reprimand or censure of a member shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the House. Action of the House pursuant to this rule is final and not subject to court review.

(9) All expenditures incurred pursuant to subsection (5) of this rule shall be approved by the Chairman and paid by vouchers and warrants drawn as provided by law from appropriations made to the Legislative Account.

(10) The committee may adopt rules of procedure for the orderly conduct of committee meetings, investigations and hearings, which rules shall be consistent with this rule and other applicable rules and statutes.

[1891 Rule 12, 1893 Present in Rules as written 2019 went from rule no. 18 to 53]

RULE 54Division of Question. –

(1) Any member may call for the division of a question if it comprehends propositions so distinct, that one or more being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain; but no bill, resolution, memorial, or Senate amendment to any House bill or proposition shall be divisible. If a question be divided, each portion thereof shall be voted on separately, the same as if it had been offered alone.

Strike Out and Insert. –

(2) A motion to strike out and insert shall not be divisible but motions to strike out or to insert shall not preclude a motion to amend or to strike out and insert. A motion to strike out and insert or to strike or to insert shall be considered an amendment of bills and joint resolutions and not permitted other than in the Committee of the Whole except as provided in Rule 3.

[1891 Rule 46 is closest in intent to this rule - First part of subsection (1) is the same in 1967, Additions to verbiage came in 2001 (HJ 2001 pgs 1 & 2 Org Session) to create sections 1 & 2. 2019 went from rule 15 to 54 HR 5]

RULE 55

Previous Question. –

Upon the previous question being ordered by a two-thirds majority of the members present, if a quorum, the effect shall be to cut off debate and bring the House to a direct vote upon the pending question. When the previous question is decided in the negative, it shall leave the main question under debate for the residue of the sitting, unless sooner disposed of.

[1891 Rules 14, 15 (1891 rule 14 section 2 has verbiage on "call of the house") Section 2 of rule 14 in 1891 dropped by 1911 (HJ 1911 pg 10) 1957 - Two separate 1967 Adopted combined into one rule. 2019 went from rule no. 34 to 55 HR 5.]

RULE 56

No person except those on official business of the House shall be allowed inside the House Chambers from 30 minutes prior to the convening of the House and until 10 minutes after the House is adjourned; or at any time when the House is in recess, except as provided in Rule 70. Provided, however, that no one lobbying for or against any measure shall be permitted on the floor of the House except by invitation of a member.

[1935 Adopted. 1939 -Rule 53 specifically cites "wives" as being allowed into the House Chamber during the session. 1971 HR 4 Amended 2019 went from rule no. 69 to 71 HR 5]

RULE 72

Recording, Filming or Transmission. –

(a) The public may use audio or video recording devices or nonflash photography to record proceedings of the House of Representatives or committees thereof, provided that such does not interfere with or disturb the proceedings of those present. The determination of whether use of a recording device interferes with or disturbs the proceedings or those present rests with the presiding officer. Unless otherwise determined by the presiding officer or provided by this rule, recording of the House floor shall be from the gallery and recording of committee proceedings shall be from or behind the area for public seating.

(b) Media accredited as provided in Joint Rule 14 may sit, stand, unobtrusively move about or use tripods or monopods to record the proceedings as long as such recording is conducted in an orderly manner and does not impede the proceedings or disturb those in attendance. Unless otherwise allowed by the presiding officer, recording by accredited media shall be conducted from either side behind the podium and presenter area. The presiding officer may designate separate seating for accredited news media to use.

(c) Persons not accredited under Joint Rule 14 desiring to record the proceedings beyond that allowed under subsection (a) of this rule shall seek permission from the presiding officer before being granted the privileges associated with media under subsection (b) of this rule.

(d) Recording under this rule means audio, video or photographic recording and transmission of such recordings. The presiding officer may set additional limitations on recording as necessary in the discretion of the presiding officer to preserve the decorum of the business being conducted.

[1973 Adopted (HJ 1973 pg 106 HR 3) 2018 Amended (2018 HJ, pg 114, HR 6) 2019 went from rule no 75 to 72 HR 5]

RULE 73

Reconsideration. –

When a motion has been made and carried, or lost, it shall be in order for any member who voted on the prevailing side to give notice on the day the said motion was carried, or lost, during and at order of business then prevailing or at the first call of the next succeeding order of business that he may on the same or succeeding day move to reconsider such motion, and thereupon if the subject of such motion to reconsider affects a bill, memorial, or resolution, the same shall be held upon the Clerk's desk until such motion to reconsider be disposed of. When such notice has been given, only such member giving said notice may on the same day make such motion to reconsider, or any member voting on the prevailing side may on the succeeding day, at the first call of the seventh order of business make said motion to reconsider, or it may not thereafter be heard; provided, that on and after the thirty-fifth day of the session and on the fifteenth day of any special session, the motion to reconsider may be made only on the same day the vote to be considered is taken, under the thirteenth order of business and may be made by any member voting on the prevailing side. Reconsideration shall be decided by a majority vote of the members present.

[1891 - Rules 34 and 35, 1985 (HJ 1985 pg 2-5) Amended to have additional verbiage to 2nd paragraph about requiring 2/3's majority for the motion to rescind. 1967 Rule 40/40A = one rule 40. 1979 - Amended - added to first sentence "on the prevailing side" also split into two rules (40 & 40A) at approx this time frame (HJ 1979) 2019 went from rule no. 40 to 73 HR 5]

RULE 74

Rescind or Repeal. –

A motion to rescind may be used to reverse a previous action after the time for reconsideration has passed. It may not be used in any case when an action has previously been reconsidered, or when vested rights have accrued or after a bill has passed the legislative body and has become law or when an act or resolution has been carried out.

The motion to rescind may be made by any member whether he voted with the prevailing side or not. The motion is debatable and opens the entire question to debate. A motion to rescind shall require a two-thirds majority of the members present to pass; except that, if the action which is proposed to be rescinded required a two-thirds majority of the total membership of the House, the motion to rescind shall require a two-thirds majority of the total membership of the House to pass.

[1891 - Rules 34 and 35, 1979 - Amended - through a motion and added the word "not" to second sentence - i.e. "It may not be used. 1985 Amended -paragraph 2 to require 2/3'd majority to pass. 2019 went from rule no. 40A to 74 HR 5.]

RULE 75Standard Rules. –

The rules of parliamentary practice set forth in Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedures shall govern the House in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the Standard Rules and Orders of the House and the Joint Rules and Orders of the Senate and House of Representatives.

[1891 until 1967 - used parliamentary practices adopted by HOR in US Congress as guidelines. Changed in 1969 - Rules to use for parliamentary practices set forth in Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedures (HJ 1969 pg 80) 2019 went from rule no. 10 to 75 HR 5]

RULE 76Committee on Rules. – (A)

It shall be the duty of the standing committee on Judiciary, Rules and Administration to report and recommend the adoption of any special rule when the business of the House seems to the committee to require it.

Committee on Ethics and House Policy. – (B) It shall be the duty of the standing committee on Ethics and House Policy to report and recommend to the House, for formal affirmation, current and proposed policies governing House members.

[1893 Adopted rule 63. 1909 "Standing Committee on Rules Rule 66 (HJ 1909 pg 17) 1917 - called "Committee on Rules" 1957 - Rule 26 (same as today HJ 1957 pg 108) 1963 Amended (floor motion HJ pg 54) - change cmte to Judiciary, Rules and Administration. 1965 present as written. 2020 Amended and Adopted to add paragraph (B) - House policies for members to be reviewed by the Committee on Ethics and House Policy. (HJ pgs 284-286, HR 11) 2019 went from rule no. 63 to 76 HR 5]

RULE 77Adoption and Amendment of Rules. –

Adoption of the rules of the House, whether temporary or permanent, will be by a majority vote of the entire membership of the House. No rules of the House, temporary or permanent, shall be suspended, altered, or amended without the concurrence of two-thirds of the entire membership of the House.

[1891 - adopted 2019 went from rule no. 11 to 77 HR 5]

RULE 78Veto – Procedure After Governor's Action.

When a bill has been vetoed by the Governor and his objections entered upon the Journal, the vetoed bill is before the House for reconsideration in accordance with Section 10, Article IV, Idaho Constitution; the question put forth by the Chair is, "Shall House Bill ____ pass, the Governor's veto notwithstanding?" When the question of reconsideration has been stated, only the following motions shall be in order, in the order named:

1. To adjourn.
2. To recess.
3. To lay on the table.
4. To postpone to a time certain.
5. To hold at the desk.

[2019 Adopted (HJ 2019 pg 147 HR 4) 2019 went from rule no 79 to 78 HR 5]

RULE 79Roll Call. –

(a) The ayes and nays shall be ordered and recorded without request upon the final passage of bills, joint resolutions, motions or resolutions for the expenditure of public moneys, and for suspension of the reading of bills on three several days as provided in Rule 11. The ayes and nays shall not be ordered on other matters unless requested by three members.

(b) On third reading, the question shall be stated as follows: "The question is: Shall House (or Senate) Bill Number _____ pass?"

(c) If an electrical voting machine is used, the presiding officer shall use a warning device after stating the question and then state: "The Clerk will unlock the machine and members will record their vote." After a reasonable pause, the presiding officer will ask: "Has every member voted?" (Reasonable Pause) "Does any member wish to change his vote?" (Reasonable Pause) "The Clerk will lock the machine and record the vote."

(d) Any member may explain his vote after the vote is announced, and before the next item of business is taken up, but no member will be allowed to change his vote after the vote is announced by the chair.

(e) Whenever necessary for the purpose of interpreting these rules, aye shall be the same as "yes" and nay shall be the same as "no."

[1891 - rule 52 "Ayes and Nays". 1945 Used Yea's and Nays. 1957 - Rule 60 - still only one paragraph - same verbiage until 1965. 1971 (HJ 1971 pg 368) Adopted current language. 2019 went from rule no. 36 to 79 HR 5]

RULE 80

Members must Vote. –

(1) Except as provided in subsection (3), every member present within the bar of the House shall vote on any question put, unless excused by the House by majority vote of the members present.

(2) When a member casts his vote, unless he is paired pursuant to Rule 81, he must be in his seat on the floor of the House and remain seated until the roll call is announced.

(3) A member has the right to vote upon all questions before the House and to participate in the business of the House and its committees and, in so doing, the member is presumed to act in good faith and in the public interest. If a member's personal interest in the issue under consideration conflicts with the public's interest, the member's legislative activities can be subject to limitations, unless such conflicts are disclosed to the presiding officer or to the body. Upon disclosure of any such conflict, the member may vote upon any question or issue to which the conflict relates, unless the member requests to be excused.

[1891 - Rule 18 largely the same as present day subsection 1 verbiage. 1985 Amended - subsections 1 and 2 amended to current language (HJ 1985 pg 3) 1990 - Amended (HJ 1990 pg 150, HR 6) added section 3 to rule about law makers conflict of interest. 2019 went from rule no. 38 to 80 HR 5.]

RULE 81

Pairing on Roll Call. –

(1) Pairing - Pairing shall be permitted upon the absence of one, both, or all pairing members for good cause shown, shall be in writing, shall specifically state the bill or proposition, upon which pairs are arranged, and shall be signed by all parties involved in the pair.

(2) Who may pair - Two members may pair upon a roll call vote to be determined by a simple majority. On any bill or proposition requiring a vote of two-thirds of the entire membership for adoption, a pair shall require three members, two affirmative and one negative. Pairs shall not be permitted on a veto override.

(3) Voting or debate while paired - If only one of a pair be absent, none of the others shall debate, ask or reply to inquiries or vote on the roll call for any measure.

(4) Broken pairs - Pairs shall be broken if all members of the pair are present in their seats or any member pairing debates, asks, or replies to inquiries or answers a roll call for the paired bill or proposition.

(5) Announcing and recording pairs - Each pair slip must be in the possession of the Chief Clerk before voting on any measure has begun. Each pair shall be announced by the Chief Clerk, after the completion of the roll call, from the completed pair slip furnished to the Chief Clerk. The pairs shall be recorded in the total vote and published in the Journal as a part of the proceedings.

JOINT RULE 1

These Joint Rules, upon adoption by both the Senate and House of Representatives, shall be the permanent Joint Rules of the Legislature.

These Joint Rules shall take precedence over special rules of either the Senate or House which may be in conflict therewith and may be amended only by the concurrence of two-thirds of the members voting of both houses.

[J Rule 1, (Definitions) - passed 1951, SCR 3, SL pg. 662-665; passed 1953, SCR 9, SL pg. 565-568; passed 1955, SCR 5, SL pg. 675-679; passed 1957, HCR 5, SL pg. 731-734; passed 1959, HCR 14, SL pg. 691-694; passed 1961, HCR 10, SL pg. 1098; passed 1963, HCR 3, SL pg. 1119; passed 1965, SCR 1, SL pg. 916; added and passed (Adoption clause), 1969, HCR 21, SL pg. 1401-1408; adopted 1972, SCR 122, SL pg. 1207-1212; 1973, SCR 125, SL pg. 738-743;]

JOINT RULE 2

Definitions. –

As used in these Joint Rules, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following terms shall have the meanings hereinafter respectively ascribed to them.

Resolution. –

This term denotes the adoption of a motion, the subject matter of which would not properly constitute a statute. EXAMPLES: An alteration of the rules, a vote of thanks, a vote of censure, etc.

Concurrent Resolution. –

This term denotes a resolution that originates in one house of the legislature where it is passed and is then sent to the other house for passage. It is signed by the presiding officers of both houses.

Joint Resolution. –

A joint resolution is a resolution passed by both houses of the legislature proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Idaho.

Proclamation. –

A proclamation is an instrument, the subject matter of which does not constitute a statute, which after being introduced in the proper committee shall be sent immediately to the floor for action without being referred back to committee. A proclamation may be passed by voice vote. If a proclamation is passed by the house of origin it shall be sent to the other house for passage where it shall be placed on the floor for action without being referred to a committee. An example of a proclamation shall include but not be limited to a vote of thanks, praise or honor for a special achievement, accomplishment, anniversary or birthday. For purposes of the calendars of the Senate and House of Representatives a proclamation shall be considered a petition.

Bill. –

This term denotes the draft of a law or amendment thereto submitted to the legislature for its approval or rejection. Bills may be originated in either house and may be amended or rejected in the other, except that bills for raising revenue must originate in the House of Representatives and a bill originating in one house and amended in the other may not again be amended in the house of origin except pursuant to report of a conference committee.

The enacting clause of every bill must read "Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Idaho." All bills must be signed by the presiding officers of the respective houses. Every act or joint resolution shall be plainly worded avoiding as far as practicable the use of technical terms.

Joint Memorial. –

A petition or representation made by the House of Representatives and concurred in by the Senate, or vice versa, addressed to whoever can effectuate the request of the memorial.

Engrossed Bill. –

An amended bill with the amendments correctly drafted and before the house of origin for further action.

Enrolled Bill. –

A bill that has passed both houses and awaits only the signatures of the presiding officers thereof.

JOINT RULE 4

Enrolling and Engrossing. –

After a bill shall have passed both houses, it shall be enrolled by the enrolling clerk of the house from which it originated not later than 48 hours after the time of passage. All bills, memorials, and resolutions shall be engrossed only in the house in which they originated.

[J Rule 4, (Messages to be signed by Secretary or Chief Clerk) - passed 1951, SCR 3, SL pg. 662-665; passed 1953, SCR 9, SL pg. 565-568; passed 1955, SCR 5, SL pg. 675-679; passed 1957, HCR 5, SL pg. 731-734; passed 1959, HCR 14, SL pg. 691-694; passed 1961, HCR 10, SL pg. 1098; passed 1963, HCR 3, SL pg. 1119; passed 1965, SCR 1, SL pg. 916; redesignated from J Rule 5, (Enrolling and Engrossing), passed, 1969, HCR 21, SL pg. 1401-1408; adopted 1972, SCR 122, SL pg. 1207-1212; adopted 1973, SCR 125, SL pg. 738-743; amended and adopted 2018, SCR125, SL pg. 856;]

JOINT RULE 5Procedure After Enrollment. –

After being enrolled each bill shall be examined by the committee on enrolling of the house in which it originated, and after being reported, shall be signed first by the presiding officer of the house in which it originated, then by the presiding officer of the other house, and lastly be submitted to the governor for his consideration. All bills shall be so signed and delivered to the governor for his consideration within 72 hours after enrollment. The date and hour of submission of a bill to the governor shall be entered on the journal of the house in which it originated. There shall be endorsed on each bill, memorial, or resolution the certificate of the secretary or chief clerk, as the case may be, as to the house of its origin. The date and hour of passage in the respective houses shall also be shown.

[J Rule 5, (Enrolling and Engrossing) - passed 1951, SCR 3, SL pg. 662-665; passed 1953, SCR 9, SL pg. 565-568; passed 1955, SCR 5, SL pg. 675-679; passed 1957, HCR 5, SL pg. 731-734; passed 1959, HCR 14, SL pg. 691-694; passed 1961, HCR 10, SL pg. 1098; passed 1963, HCR 3, SL pg. 1119; passed 1965, SCR 1, SL pg. 916; redesignated from J Rule 6, (Procedure after Enrollment), passed, 1969, HCR 21, SL pg. 1401-1408; adopted 1972, SCR 122, SL pg. 1207-1212; adopted 1973, SCR 125, SL pg. 738-743; amended and adopted 1980, SCR 141, SL pg. 1009-1010;]

JOINT RULE 6Proclamations, Resolutions and Memorials. –

Joint resolutions shall be treated in every respect as are bills except that they shall be passed only by 2/3 majority of the membership of each house.

Concurrent resolutions and memorials shall be printed as are bills and concurrent resolutions, proclamations and memorials shall also be printed in full in the journal of the house of origin and by number and author only in the journal of the other house. When passed in one house and transmitted to the other, they shall be accepted or rejected only and shall not be subject to amendment. Joint resolutions, concurrent resolutions and memorials shall, after being passed, be filed with the Secretary of State, rather than being submitted to the Governor for consideration.

A proclamation shall not be printed in the same manner as bills, resolutions or memorials but enough copies shall be reproduced so that each member of both houses shall be entitled to a copy and, if the proclamation is passed by both houses, copies shall be sent to the person, persons or entity being addressed by the proclamation. When a proclamation is passed in one house and transmitted to the other, it shall be accepted or rejected only and shall not be subject to amendment.

JOINT RULE 17NUMBERING. –

(a) All bills, joint resolutions, joint memorials and concurrent resolutions in the Senate and House of Representatives shall be numbered consecutively, commencing with numbers as follows:

Bills introduced in the Senate shall commence with the number 1001.

Bills introduced in the House shall commence with the number 1.

Senate joint resolutions, joint memorials and concurrent resolutions respectively, shall commence with the number 101.

House joint resolutions, joint memorials and concurrent resolutions, respectively, shall commence with the number 1.

(b) With the exception of extraordinary sessions, bills, resolutions and memorials shall be numbered consecutively from the first through the second regular sessions of the legislature. Bills, resolutions and memorials introduced during any extraordinary session shall be numbered without regard to the numbering system used in any regular session.

[J Rule 17, (Continuation of Rules) - added and passed, 1969reg, HCR 21, SL pg. 1401-1408; redesignated from J Rule 18, (Numbering), passed, 1970 HCR 42, SL pg. 722-727, adopted 1972, SCR 122, SL pg. 1207-1212; adopted 1973, SCR 125, SL pg. 738-743; amended and adopted 1985, HCR 7, SL pg. 743; amended and adopted 2018, HCR 40, SL pg. 879;]

JOINT RULE 18Statement of Purpose and Fiscal Notes – General Provisions. –

No bill shall be introduced in either house unless it shall have attached thereto a concise statement of purpose and fiscal note. The contact person for the statement of purpose and fiscal note shall be identified on the document. Statements of purpose and fiscal notes may be combined in the same statement.

Statement of Purpose. – (a)

The statement of purpose applies only to a bill as introduced, and does not necessarily reflect any amendment to the bill that may be adopted. All statements of purpose shall be reviewed for compliance with this rule by the committee to which the bill is assigned, excepting that any review is subject to Joint Rule 18(e).

Fiscal Notes. – (b)

The fiscal note applies only to a bill as introduced, and does not necessarily reflect any amendment to the bill that may be adopted. The fiscal note shall reasonably contain the proponent's full fiscal year projected increase or decrease in existing or future appropriations, and/or the increase or decrease in revenues by the state or unit(s) of local government. The bill's proponent bears the responsibility to provide a reasonably accurate fiscal note. If the fiscal note states there is no projected fiscal impact, then the fiscal note must contain a statement of the reasons that no fiscal impact is projected. All fiscal notes shall be reviewed for compliance with this rule by the committee to which the bill is assigned, excepting that any compliance review is subject to Joint Rule 18(e). A member of the committee may challenge the sufficiency of a fiscal note at any time prior to the committee's final action on the bill.

Debate. – (c)

Any member of either house may debate the sufficiency of a statement of purpose or fiscal note at the time of consideration of the bill.

May be Revised. – (d)

Either house may revise the statement of purpose or fiscal note at any time before that house's final action on the bill; however, the revision to the statement of purpose or fiscal note is ministerial only and shall not be done by action of the house.

Not a Statement of Legislative Intent. – (e)

Statements of purpose and fiscal notes are mere attachments to the bill and are not voted on. The statement of purpose and fiscal note are not expressions or statements of legislative intent, and are not intended for any use outside of the legislative process, including judicial review.

Notice to Others. – (f)

Each statement of purpose and fiscal note shall contain this notice: "This statement of purpose and fiscal note are a mere attachment to this bill and prepared by a proponent of the bill. It is neither intended as an expression of legislative intent nor intended for any use outside of the legislative process, including judicial review (Joint Rule 18)."

JOINT RULE 19

Minutes of Standing Committee Meetings. –

Minutes of standing committee meetings shall be prepared in summary fashion, in the discretion of the individual committee chair. Any tape recordings of committee meetings shall be made only for the purpose of assisting the committee secretary, and thereafter any such tapes shall be recycled at the discretion of the committee chair. Minutes of standing committee meetings shall include at least the following information:

- (1) All members of the governing body present;
- (2) All motions, resolutions, orders, or ordinances proposed and their disposition; and
- (3) The results of all votes, and upon the request of a member, the vote of each member by name.

[J Rule 19, (Recommitment of Bills, Resolutions, and Memorials) - added and passed, 1969reg, HCR 21, SL pg. 1401-1408; adopted, (New Sections added to Code}, 1974, SCR 139, SL pg. 1855; adopted, 1975, HCR 42 SL pg. 769; repealed, 1976, HCR 50, SL pg. 1248; added and adopted, (Minutes of Standing Committee Meetings), 1995 SCR 101, SL pg. 1293;]

JOINT RULE 20

Constitutional Amendments. –

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Idaho must be introduced on or before the thirty-sixth day of the Regular Legislative Session and must be transmitted from the house of origin to the other house prior to the fifty-fifth day of the Regular Legislative Session; provided however, in the event the fifty-fifth day of the Regular Legislative Session falls on a Saturday or Sunday, such transmittal must be made on or prior to the fifty-seventh day of the Regular Legislative Session. The provisions of this rule may be waived by the presiding officer of either house upon presentment of a signed petition by the majority or minority leadership of the house. Requests for a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Idaho shall be in the Office of Legislative Services for drafting at least seven calendar days prior to its intended introduction date.

[J Rule 20, (Constitutional Amendments) - added and adopted, 1997, SCR 101, SL pg. 1310; amended and adopted, 2016, SCR 143, SL pg. 1123;]

JOINT RULE 21

Recording of Proceedings of the Chambers. –

The proceedings of each house shall be recorded and live streamed by an authorized designee, provided that either house may suspend or end recording and/or live streaming of its proceedings upon a two-thirds vote of the chamber wherein the proceeding takes place. A statement made during floor or committee proceedings is indicative only of the individual speaker and is not an expression of legislative intent by the body as a whole. No recording shall substitute for the Journal of either house as required by Section 13, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Idaho. All recordings shall be maintained by the Director of Legislative Services or his designee. A copy of any recorded proceedings more than two years old will be provided to the state archivist. No member of the Legislature, its employees, or designees shall be permitted to certify or authenticate any recording made under this rule.

[J Rule 21, (Recording of Proceedings of the Chambers) - added and adopted, 2013, SCR 131 SL pg. 993; amended and adopted, 2016, SCR 144, SL pg. 1123-1124;]

JOINT RULE 22

Contest of Election for Executive Offices – Procedures.

This Rule governs procedures leading up to and including a hearing on the contest of election for executive offices. It should be read in conjunction with Chapter 21, Title 34, Idaho Code. For purposes of this Rule, the term "Party" means either the CONTESTEE or the CONTESTOR; the term "Parties" means both.

- (1) Any proof of the CONTESTEE's or CONTESTOR's legal arguments, including depositions, affidavits, production of papers, and examination of poll books and ballots (herein "Record") that either CONTESTEE or CONTESTOR desires the Senate and the House of Representatives to consider in adjudication of a Contest must be completed on or before December 29. CONTESTEE and CONTESTOR's Record must be delivered to the Office of the Secretary of State no later than the close of business on the next business day. Any Record or evidence from the CONTESTEE or CONTESTOR not delivered to the Office of the Secretary of State by that day and time will not be considered by the Senate and the House of Representatives.
- (2) The Parties must file a Memorandum that outlines their claims, defenses, legal authority, legislative precedent, proposed form of relief, and a description of witness fees and discovery costs that are incurred. The Memorandum must be filed with the Office of the Secretary of State no later than the close of business four (4) business days following delivery of the Record to the Office of the Secretary of State as provided in paragraph (1). However, CONTESTEE is not required to file a responsive pleading to the Contest.
- (3) Any Party may file a Responsive Memorandum. If a Party chooses to file a Responsive Memorandum, it must be filed with the Office of the Secretary of State no later than the close of business on the first day of the next Regular Session.
- (4) If an unresolved discovery or Record dispute exists and continues between the CONTESTEE and the CONTESTOR, and on motion duly made, the presiding officer or his designee may rule on the dispute. Neither the CONTESTEE nor the CONTESTOR will be granted any additional time beyond December 29 to develop or deliver his Record.

(5) Committee hearing procedures. If the Legislature refers the Contest of Election to a Committee, the Committee Chairmen will notify the Parties of the Committee hearing procedures. The following procedures, subject to the discretion of the Committee Chairmen, will govern the hearing:

- (a) No additional testimony or Record may be presented, taken, or allowed by the Parties beyond the Record delivered to the Office of the Secretary of State as provided in paragraph (1) of this Rule.
- (b) Neither CONTESTEE nor CONTESTOR may examine or cross-examine any witness that testifies before the Committee. All examination will be performed by Committee members.
- (c) Pursuant to Section 34-2104, Idaho Code, only the named points in the Notice of Contest of Elections may be argued.
- (d) The Committee may send for and receive persons, papers, and records, whether written or oral, including from the Office of the Attorney General, other State Elected Officers, State officials, County Elected Officers, County officials, or other witnesses that the Committee determines will reasonably assist the Committee in the performance of its constitutional duty as a "judge of the election, qualifications and returns of its own members," Section 9, Article III, Idaho Constitution.
- (e) In all other respects, the Committee will be governed by the rules of the legislature.

(6) The Committee may adopt any of the following as part of the hearing procedures:

- (a) Permit the Parties to have counsel present at Committee meeting(s); and
- (b) Establish a time limit for the CONTESTEE and CONTESTOR to argue their positions to the Committee.

(7) Neither CONTESTEE nor CONTESTOR, nor their counsel, may participate in ex parte communication with any member of the Idaho Legislature regarding the merits of the Contest of Election prior to final determination.

(8) Service of all Record, Memorandum, Responsive Memorandum, motions, or objections must be made on the other Party as provided in Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure 5(b), excepting subpart 5(b)(2)(D). The Parties must also provide a proof of service as provided by Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure 5(e). The Parties must work in good faith to ensure reasonable and timely service, considering the limited time periods.

(9) Nothing in this rule limits or restricts the Legislature in the performance of its duties as the judge of the election.

[J Rule 22, (Contest of Election for Executive Offices) - added and adopted, 2017, SCR 124, SL pg. 906-907;]

JOINT RULE 23

Public Display of "In God We Trust." –

The words "In God We Trust" shall appear in the Chambers of the Senate and of the House of Representatives above the chairs of the presiding officers.
