Pursuant to Local Rules 7(a)(2) and 37(b)(1), Defendants Hartford HealthCare Corporation, Hartford Hospital, Hartford HealthCare Medical Group, Inc., and Integrated Care Partners, LLC (collectively, "Hartford HealthCare") respectfully submit this Memorandum in Opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel Production of 182 Documents Withheld for Privilege (ECF 154) (the "Motion"). In the Motion, Plaintiffs have moved for an order compelling to produce 182 documents that Hartford HealthCare has withheld or redacted on the basis of privilege.[1] In the alternative, Plaintiffs seek in camera review of these documents or a sample thereof.

Plaintiffs' Motion and accompanying Memorandum in Support (ECF No. 153), however, provide only generalized allegations of deficiencies in Hartford HealthCare's privilege log supported by speculation, conjecture, and conclusory statements. Plaintiffs do not even specify which of the deficiencies they allege are applicable to the vast majority of log entries they challenge. In actuality, Hartford HealthCare's privilege log more than satisfies the requirements of Federal and Local Rule 26 and, while Hartford HealthCare does not object to in camera review, in camera review is an unnecessary burden on the Court's resources, and Plaintiffs' Motion should be denied.

I. BACKGROUND

Plaintiffs' Motion relates to 182 documents. Hartford HealthCare has produced over 1,350,000 documents to Plaintiffs in this case.[2] Declaration of Leo Caseria in Support of [1] Plaintiffs' Memorandum of Law in Support of their Motion to Compel repeatedly references an "Appendix A" identifying the 182 privilege log entries that Plaintiffs are challenging. No such appendix was filed with their Motion or Memorandum in Support. For purposes of this Opposition, Hartford HealthCare, therefore, assumes that the 182 documents Plaintiffs are seeking to compel production of are those listed in Exhibit C of Plaintiffs' April 16, 2026 letter. Aff. of Matthew W. Ruan ISO Mot. to Compel Prod. of 182 Documents Withheld for Privilege ("Ruan. Aff.") Ex. 31.

[2] This total includes documents withheld for privilege.

Defendant's Opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel ("Caseria Decl.") ¶ 2. Hartford HealthCare substantially completed its document productions to Plaintiffs on April 30, 2025 and provided its final privilege log to Plaintiffs on June 16, 2025. Caseria Decl. ¶¶ 2-3. At that time, the log contained entries for 77,827 documents (including documents that were logged and produced in redacted form)—or fewer than 6% of all of the documents produced in this case.[3] Caseria Decl. ¶ 3. Since that time, Plaintiffs have sent Hartford HealthCare multiple letters, raising speculative, generalized concerns with various categories of entries on Hartford HealthCare's privilege log. See, e.g., Ruan Aff. Ex. 9 (August 26, 2025 letter from M. Ruan to counsel for Hartford HealthCare broadly challenging approximately 27,732 of Hartford HealthCare's privilege log entries because, for example, an attorney was copied rather than appearing in the to or from field or based on unsubstantiated claims that entries were "conclusory"); Ruan Aff. Ex. 13 (September 25, 2025 letter from M. Ruan to counsel for Hartford HealthCare challenging approximately 32,293 of Hartford HealthCare's privilege log entries for similar reasons).

Nonetheless, in response to each letter, Hartford HealthCare engaged constructively with Plaintiffs, re-reviewing documents as requested and, where appropriate, revising its privilege log and producing downgrading documents from its privilege log to Plaintiffs. See, e.g., Ruan Aff. Exs. 6, 11, 17, and 22; Caseria Decl. Ex. 2 (Letters from L. Caseria to Plaintiffs' counsel dated June 9, 2025, August 29, 2025, January 30, 2026, February 13, 2026 and October 20, 2025

[3] This number is reasonable in light of the fact that this case involves a highly regulated industry and "complex commercial transactions" which necessarily implicate substantial legal discussion and advice. Gen. Elec. Co. v. United States, No. 14-CV-190 (JAM), 2015 WL 5443479, at *2 (D. Conn. Sept. 15, 2015) ("[I]n view of the kinds of complex commercial transactions at issue in this case and with their substantial legal regulatory overtones, it is far from surprising that GE would validly claim privilege to a large proportion of responsive documents.").

downgrading documents). As a result of this process, the Parties narrowed all of their disputes regarding Hartford HealthCare's privilege log to just 182 entries—or approximately 0.2% of entries on Hartford HealthCare's original privilege log and 0.013% of documents produced in this case. Despite Hartford HealthCare's repeated efforts to resolve the Parties' privilege dispute without judicial intervention, on April 25, 2026, six months after the October 26, 2025 party-affiliated fact discovery cutoff,[4] Plaintiffs filed their Motion to Compel.[5]

On May 18, 2026, Hartford HealthCare downgraded an additional 5 of the 182 documents challenged by plaintiffs, along with their attachments.[6] Caseria Decl. ¶ 4. For ease of review, Hartford HealthCare has provided a list of the 177 privilege log entries that it understands are still the subject of this dispute as Caseria Decl. Ex. 1.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

The attorney-client privilege protects confidential communications between client and counsel made for the purpose of obtaining or providing legal assistance. To invoke the privilege, the party asserting it must demonstrate: (1) a communication between client and counsel that (2) was intended to be and was in fact kept confidential, and (3) was made for the purpose of obtaining or providing legal advice. In re County of Erie, 473 F.3d 413, 419 (2d Cir. 2007). In this framework, "legal advice involves the interpretation and application of legal principles to [4] While Hartford HealthCare acknowledges that the parties were in active discussions regarding privilege issues as of Hartford HealthCare's October 20, 2025 letter to Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs did not respond or raise further issues until three months later on January 20, 2026. Ruan Aff. ¶¶ 13, 14.

[5] Plaintiffs note that Hartford HealthCare did not respond to is final correspondence prior to filing their Motion to Compel. Hartford HealthCare's failure was inadvertent. A change in Plaintiffs' counsel's email address caused their emails to be sent to Hartford HealthCare's counsels' email "spam" or "junk" folders. This issue has been corrected on a going-forward basis.
[6] The privilege log identification numbers corresponding to the documents Hartford HealthCare downgraded and produced are PLHHC-BROWN-0009797, PLHHC-BROWN-0011149, PLHHC-BROWN-0018174, PLHHC-BROWN-0022376, and PLHHC-BROWN-0022663.

guide future conduct or to assess past conduct" and "requires a lawyer to rely on legal education and experience to inform judgment." Id. at 419.

Where a communication involves both legal and non-legal considerations, the governing inquiry in this circuit is whether the communication's "predominant purpose" was to render or solicit legal advice. Id. at 419. Critically, "[t]he purpose of a communication . . . need not be exclusively legal in order for the privilege to attach." Barbini v. First Niagara Bank, N.A., No. 16-CV-0999, 2018 WL 11430863, at *3 (W.D.N.Y. July 16, 2018) (internal quotation marks omitted); see also In re County of Erie, 473 F.3d at 420 ("[T]he privilege of nondisclosure is not lost merely because relevant nonlegal considerations are expressly stated in a communication which also includes legal advice.") (citations omitted).

An email attachment that is not, standing alone, privileged is properly subject to a claim of privilege if it was attached to a privileged parent email in connection with obtaining or rendering legal advice. Gen. Elec. Co. v. United States, 2015 WL 5443479, *1 (D. Conn. Sept. 15, 2015) ("information communicated to an attorney in connection with obtaining or rendering legal advice is properly subject to a claim of privilege, even if the information standing alone would not otherwise be subject to a claim of privilege"). This is true even if the parent email is not to or from an attorney or does not directly involve an attorney. See, e.g., People's United Bank v. PeoplesBank, No. 3:08CV01858 (PCD), 2009 WL 10689492, at *2 (D. Conn. Dec. 28, 2009) (acknowledging that "numerous courts have held that corporate communications among non lawyers to provide information to counsel or otherwise aid counsel in providing legal advice are eligible for the privilege. . ."); In re Rivastigmine Pat. Litig., 237 F.R.D. 69, 80 (S.D.N.Y. 2006) ("Communications among non-attorneys in a corporation may be privileged if made at the direction of counsel, to gather information to aid counsel in providing legal services."); SCM

Corp. v. Xerox Corp., 70 F.R.D. 508, 518 (D. Conn. 1976) (holding that "[i]t would be an unnecessary restriction of the privilege to consider it lost when top management personnel discuss legal advice" and that "[a] discussion between executives of legal advice should be privileged.").

Further, Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 26 of the District of Connecticut Local Rules of Civil Procedure govern privilege log requirements in the District of Connecticut. Wanzer v. Town of Plainville, No. 3:15CV00016 (AWT), 2016 WL 1258456, at *2 (D. Conn. Mar. 30, 2016). Local Rule 26 specifically provides:

> "[T]he party asserting the privilege or protection shall serve on all parties a privilege log containing the following information: (1) The type of document or electronically stored information; (2) The general subject matter of the document or electronically stored information; (3) The date of the document or electronically stored information; (4) The author of the document or electronically stored information; and (5) Each recipient of the document or electronically stored information."

Federal Rule 26 additionally requires the party asserting privilege to "describe the nature of the document . . . . and do so in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable other parties to assess the claim."

III. ARGUMENT

A. Plaintiffs' Motion Should be Dismissed as Plaintiffs Fail to Allege Specific Deficiencies for the Majority of the Challenged Privilege Log Entries

As noted above, Plaintiffs have not provided a comprehensive list of the 182 documents they are challenging and Hartford HealthCare can only assume it has identified the documents at issue. But, even if Plaintiffs had provided such a list, with the exception of a few cherry-picked examples, their Memorandum in Support of their Motion does not provide any explanation as to why most of the entries they are challenging are supposedly problematic. In fact, Plaintiffs' memorandum only cites to 34 unique privilege log identification numbers—fewer than 20% of the 182 log entries they have challenged.

Consider, for example, Hartford HealthCare's description of the document corresponding to log entry PLHHC-BROWN-0014937. Caseria Decl. Ex. 1 at 19-20. The privilege log description reads "Draft agreement reflecting and relaying legal advice of counsel in redline regarding contract language and provisions," the document's filename as it appears in the log entry is "HHC-Anthem Working Document_Contract Language0820-Legal Revisions and Comments 08252020.docx," the document's author is listed as Kyle Lanning, in-house counsel for Hartford HealthCare, and the privilege log identifies the lawyer involved as Dan Kalosieh, a former in-house counsel for Hartford HealthCare. What is deficient about this privilege log entry and what is the basis for compelling production? Plaintiffs do not say. Rather, for this and the vast majority of the entries they challenge, Plaintiffs ask the Court (and Hartford HealthCare) to attempt to divine which, if any, of the alleged deficiencies they raise in their Memorandum apply.

Such generalized allegations are not a sufficient basis to grant Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel and the Motion should be dismissed for this reason alone. NovaFund Advisors, LLC v. Capitala Grp., LLC, No. 3:18-CV-01023 (MPS), 2021 WL 2109112, at *4 (D. Conn. May 25, 2021) (Farrish, J.) (denying relief when plaintiffs provided an exhibit of examples, rather than a complete list, of allegedly deficient privilege log descriptions and where each example was "supported by a privilege log entry that contains the information required by D. Conn. L. Civ. R. 26(e)"); see also United States v. Louisiana, No. CIV.A. 11-470-JWD-RL, 2015 WL 2453719, at *2 (M.D. La. May 22, 2015) (denying motion to compel production of a revised privilege log, reasoning that "While the United States suggests that each entry in the privilege log is insufficient, it only provides 13 examples of 'insufficient descriptions' . . . . There are no actual citations to these other voluminous 'insufficient' entries in the Motion to Compel.").

B. Hartford HealthCare's Privilege Review Was Not Deficient

Instead of alleging deficiencies as to specific entries on Hartford HealthCare's privilege log, Plaintiffs rely on generalized allegations to support their Motion. In doing so, Plaintiffs seek to mischaracterize Hartford HealthCare's willingness to re-review and downgrade documents as evidence of deficiencies in Hartford HealthCare's privilege review process rather than what it is: part of a reasonable good-faith effort by Hartford HealthCare to timely comply with its discovery obligations in a litigation that has required the review of millions of pages of documents and production of more than a million documents.

Indeed, it is the case that every large, complex litigation involves revisiting certain privilege calls, and this litigation is no exception. See, e.g., In re Teleglobe Commc'ns Corp., 392 B.R. 561, 584 (Bankr. D. Del. 2008) ("Defendants originally designated 33,000 documents [of a production of 900,000 pages] as privileged which on further review . . . were produced. In complex litigation it is not unusual for counsel to claim privilege initially as to many documents which on further review are not covered and have to be produced.") And, as a result of what even Plaintiffs describe as the Parties' "good-faith efforts," the Parties have narrowed the privilege disputes in this case to 177 documents—approximately 0.013% of all documents produced in this litigation. The limited scope of this dispute demonstrates that Hartford HealthCare has undertaken a large, robust privilege review and has been willing to engage constructively with Plaintiffs to ensure the accuracy of its privilege log and completeness of its productions, not, as Plaintiffs allege, the reverse.

C. Hartford HealthCare has Met Its Burden of Establishing Privilege as to the Remaining 177 Documents Challenged by Plaintiffs Plaintiffs allege that the remaining 177 documents in question are not privileged because they are either documents involving activities that are predominantly business, rather than legal, in nature or are attachments for which Hartford HealthCare has not provided an adequate basis for asserting privilege. Plaintiffs are wrong. The challenged documents are privileged because they are either: (1) confidential communications with an attorney, or a legal professional directly supervised by an attorney, in which legal advice is being directly requested or provided; or (2) communications with an attorney, or on the behalf of an attorney, collecting information for the express purpose of providing legal advice and the relevant information contained within or attached to those communications.

1. The Challenged Documents Are for the Predominant or Sole Purpose of Obtaining or Providing Legal Advice

Relying on pure speculation, Plaintiffs contend that "most, if not all," of the 182 documents they challenge are predominantly business, rather than legal, in nature. Plaintiffs do not dispute that Hartford HealthCare has satisfied the other elements of its privilege claim regarding these documents, namely that they are confidential communications between a client and their counsel. See In re Cnty. of Erie, 473 F.3d 413, 419 (2d Cir. 2007) (citing United States v. Constr. Prods. Research, Inc., 73 F.3d 464, 473 (2d Cir. 1996)). It is the case that, in order for a communication to be privileged, the predominant purpose of that communication must be legal advice. In re Cnty. of Erie, 473 F.3d at 419.

Here, as a factual matter, the challenged documents satisfy this test as they are predominantly, if not in many cases exclusively, legal in nature. This much is clear from a review of Hartford HealthCare's privilege log. Take for example, the privilege log entry for PLHHC-BROWN-0014937, described above. Caseria Decl. Ex. 1 at 19-20. Or, as another example, consider the description for log entry PLHHC-BROWN-0023154:"Email requesting and providing legal advice of counsel regarding draft objection letter to Aetna, as well as requesting and furnishing additional information to assist counsel with providing the requested legal advice." The subject line of the corresponding email is "RE: Aetna Consult Code Objection Draft [Attorney-Client Privilege]" and was also sent by attorney Kyle Lanning to relevant Hartford HealthCare employees, copying John D'Ambrosio, in-house counsel for Hartford HealthCare. Caseria Decl. Ex. 1 at 63-64.

A draft contract with a commercial payer containing a redline from an attorney and an email providing advice from a lawyer regarding a formal policy objection letter to be sent pursuant to a contract with a commercial payer are undoubtedly the sort of communications or documents that are protected from disclosure under the attorney-client privilege. Each involves the "interpretation and application of legal principles to guide future conduct or to assess past conduct" and require "a lawyer to rely on legal education and experience to inform judgment." In re Cnty. of Erie, 473 F.3d at 419. These representative examples illustrate that these documents, and others challenged by the Plaintiffs, are predominantly or entirely legal in nature, and thus were properly withheld as privileged—a fact that is no less true because legal advice is being provided to in-house counsel as opposed to outside counsel.

2. Hartford HealthCare's Privilege Log Entries Provide a Sufficient Basis to Evaluate Hartford HealthCare's Privilege Claims

Plaintiffs also challenge a number of unspecified entries on the basis that Hartford HealthCare has allegedly failed to justify why the attachment, as opposed to the parent email, is privileged. As even Plaintiffs concede, in this District, an email attachment need not itself contain or refer to legal advice in order to be privileged. Rather, an attachment that is not otherwise privileged may be properly subject to a claim of privilege if it was attached to a privileged parent email[7] in connection with obtaining or rendering legal advice. Gen. Elec. Co. v. United States, 2015 WL 5443479, *1 (D. Conn. Sept. 15, 2015).

Instead, Plaintiffs make a general allegation that Hartford HealthCare has not provided an adequate basis for asserting privilege over 69 attachments on its privilege log. However, Plaintiffs' allegations that Hartford HealthCare's privilege entries are insufficient and themselves conclusory. They include, for example, a blanket challenge to 32 entries solely on the basis that the privilege description for each entry contains the phrase "in connection." Plaintiffs also object to another seven entries by engaging in a strained exercise to read something nefarious into the fact that Hartford HealthCare clarified the language in its privilege log (as requested by Plaintiffs) to reflect the fact that some attachments to privileged emails are, themselves, emails.

Critically, despite alleging deficiencies in Hartford HealthCare's log, at no point do Plaintiffs reference Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or Rule 26 of the District of Connecticut Local Rules of Civil Procedure, which govern privilege log requirements in this district. Wanzer, 2016 WL 1258456, at *2. Rather than cite to law governing the sufficiency of privilege logs in the District of Connecticut, Plaintiffs rely heavily on a case from the District of Delaware: ldenix Pharms, Inc. v. Gilead Scis., Inc., 195 F. Supp. 3d 639 (D. Del. 2016). Plaintiffs have not even applied the proper legal standard and, on this basis alone, Plaintiffs' allegations that Hartford HealthCare's privilege log is deficient should be rejected.

As a review of Caseria Ex. 1 demonstrates, Hartford HealthCare's privilege log entries for the remaining 177 challenged documents, including documents attached to privileged communications involving attorneys, are more than sufficient to meet the specific requirements of Local Rule 26, including by providing a "general subject matter" of the documents in question (in addition to the filename and other context). See NovaFund Advisors, LLC, 2021 WL 2109112, at *4 (denying relief when "each of the documents in [an exhibit providing examples of alleged privilege log deficiencies] is supported by a privilege log entry that contains the information required by D. Conn. L. Civ. R. 26(e)").

D. In Camera Review is Unnecessary

As explained above, Plaintiffs support their motion solely with speculation and conclusory statements. And, but for a handful of examples, it is difficult if not impossible to determine which arguments Plaintiffs may apply to which of the 177 remaining documents they are challenging. At the threshold, Hartford HealthCare's privilege log satisfies both Local Rule 26 and Federal Rule 26, and in camera review is, therefore, not necessary to determine whether documents on its privilege log are privileged. Plaintiffs' Motion may be denied on that basis alone. See In re Delphi Corp., 276 F.R.D. 81, 87 (S.D.N.Y. 2011) (declining to conduct in camera review of documents where privilege log descriptions provided enough information to show basis for claim of privilege); In re Copper Mkt. Antitrust Litig., 200 F.R.D. 213, 224 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) ("[T]he Court finds that the information provided by [the party asserting privilege] in the Privilege Log and its factual submissions in response to this motion is sufficient to warrant denial of Plaintiffs' motion to compel. In light of the foregoing, no in camera review of the documents listed in the Privilege Log is necessary."). That notwithstanding, Hartford HealthCare has no objection to the Court conducting in camera review of any or all of the remaining 177 documents challenged by Plaintiffs.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, HHC respectfully requests the Court to deny Plaintiffs' Motion.

The privilege log identification numbers corresponding to the emails Hartford HealthCare downgraded and produced are PLHHC-BROWN-0009797, PLHHC-BROWN-0011149, PLHHC-BROWN-0018174, PLHHC-BROWN-0022376, and PLHHC-BROWN-0022663. The newly produced documents' Bates numbers are, respectively, HHC-BROWN-06665172, HHC-BROWN-06665174, HHC-BROWN-06662868, HHC-BROWN-06665199, and HHC-BROWN-06665213.

5. Despite references to an "Appendix A" in their Memorandum of Law in Support of their Motion to Compel that supposedly identifies the 182 privilege log entries that Plaintiffs are challenging, Hartford HealthCare is unable to find a copy of Appendix A in the documents filed by Plaintiffs, nor did Plaintiffs separately provide Hartford HealthCare with a copy of Appendix A. As such, Hartford HealthCare can only assume that the 182 documents Plaintiffs are seeking to compel production of are those listed in Exhibit C of Plaintiffs' April 16, 2026 letter. Aff. of Matthew W. Ruan ISO Mot. to Compel Prod. of 182 Documents Withheld for Privilege ("Ruan. Aff.") Ex. 31.

6. To facilitate the Court's resolution of this dispute, in Exhibit 1 to this Declaration, Hartford HealthCare provides a chart that consolidates the privilege log entries for only those 177 entries that Hartford HealthCare understands are still the subject of Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel (the 182 documents referenced in ¶ 5 minus the five documents referenced in ¶ 4), along with any parent emails or attachments, whether or not those emails or attachments are the subject of Plaintiffs' Motion. The 177 entries that Hartford HealthCare believes Plaintiffs are still challenging are highlighted in light blue.

7. Exhibit 2 of this Declaration is a true and correct copy of an October 20, 2025 cover letter from myself to Plaintiffs' counsel relating to a document production in which Hartford HealthCare downgraded and produced 9,470 documents from its privilege log.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 18th day of May, 2026, in Washington, D.C.

Re: Estuary Transit District, et al. v. Hartford Healthcare Corporation, D. Conn., Case No. 3:24-cv-01051-SFR

Dear Counsel:

Please find the attached documents in volumes HHC-BROWN-VOL-47 and HHC-BROWN-REPROD-17. Both volumes contain documents produced or reproduced by Defendants in response to Plaintiffs' Requests for the Production of Documents in the above-entitled action, subject to and without waiving Defendants' objections and responses to these requests.

In response to your September 25, 2025 letter, these are documents that Defendants have rereviewed and downgraded. The Bates ranges and privilege log IDs for this volume are provided in Attachment 1. Volume 47 contains documents that were previously withheld on the basis of privilege. Volume HHC-BROWN-REPROD-17 contains re-produced documents replacing certain privilege slipsheets and redacted documents from prior production sets. The Bates ranges and privilege log IDs for the reproduction are in Attachment 2. These documents are designated "CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" pursuant to the protective order in this case.

Along with the attached documents, please find an updated privilege log for documents dated on or after October 1, 2018 in connection with this production.
