Appellants, Data Marketing
Partnership, LP and LP Management
Services, LLC*

Interested Parties-Appellants Data Marketing Partnership, LP (“DMP”) and LP Management Services, LLC (“LPMS”) in this matter (collectively, “Appellants”) file this reply in further support of their motion to abate briefing schedule.

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Appellant Procedure 26(b), a party may obtain an extension of their deadline to file a brief by demonstrating good cause for the extension. Although hoping to pursue mediation once the government shutdown ended, the Secretary has now made it known that she does not wish to participate in mediation. With the impending holidays and the focus on briefing the pending motion to stay the district court action pending appeal, Appellants respectfully request that the Court provide Appellants with at least thirty (30) days to submit their Appellant Brief.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Alberto J. Bayouth-Montes
