ORDER OF COURT

Entered: January 12, 2026

Appellants filed a motion to abate the briefing schedule pending mediation, or, alternatively, for a 60-day briefing extension. Following the government's opposition to mediation, appellants modified their request and now ask the court to provide them "with at least thirty (30) days to submit their Appellant Brief." Appellants' request for a 30-day briefing extension is granted.

Appellants also filed a motion to stay the district court proceedings pending this appeal. After careful review of the filings and arguments of the parties, appellants' motion for a stay is denied. See Nken v. Holder, 556 U.S. 418, 434 (2009) (stay standard and factors).
