Re: Case No. 25-5738/25-5739, Rachel Welty, et al v. Bryant Dunaway, et al
Originating Case No. : 3:24-cv-00768

Dear Counsel,

The briefing schedule for this appeal and cross-appeal has been reset and the briefs listed below must be filed electronically with the Clerk's office no later than these dates.

First Brief:

Appellant/Cross-Appellee Brief
Appendix (if required by 6th Cir.
R. 30(a))

Limit 13,000 words
Filed electronically by November 13, 2025

Second Brief:

Appellee/Cross-Appellant Brief
Appendix (if required by 6th Cir.
R. 30(a) and (c)(2))

Limit 15,300 words
Filed electronically by December 15, 2025

Third Brief:

Appellant Reply/Cross-Appellee
Response Brief

Limit 13,000 words
Filed electronically by January 14, 2026

Fourth Brief:

Appellee/Cross-Appellant
Reply Brief (Optional)

Limit 6,500 words
Filed electronically 21 days after 3rd brief
See Fed. R. App. P. 26(c)

When you docket your brief in ECF, the correct entry for a cross-appeal is "First Brief," "Second Brief," and so forth.

A party desiring oral argument must include a statement in the brief setting forth the reason(s) why oral argument should be heard. See 6th Cir. R. 34(a). If the docket entry for your brief indicates that you have requested oral argument but the statement itself is missing, you will be directed to file a corrected brief.

In scheduling appeals for oral argument, the court will make efforts to avoid dates that counsel have previously brought to its attention as presenting a conflict during weeks when the court is scheduled to sit. The court's sitting schedule may be found at <http://www.ca6.uscourts.gov/oral-argument-calendars>. Because cases are set for calendar early in the case, counsel should provide as soon as possible any dates of unavailability during the next nine months, preferably no later than the filing of the appellee's brief. Counsel should use the "Counsel Unavailability Form" located on the court's website. If subsequent conflicts arise, counsel should notify the court as soon as possible.

Counsel are strongly encouraged to read the latest version of the Sixth Circuit Rules at www.ca6.uscourts.gov, in particular Rules 28 and 30. If you still have questions after reviewing the information on the web site, please contact the Clerk's office before you file your brief.

Sincerely,

s/Kelly Stephens

CHECKLIST FOR BRIEFS

- Briefs and filing requirements are found in the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure (FRAP) and the Sixth Circuit Local Rules (6 Cir. R.), located on the court's website. File the correct brief type (e.g. appellant, appellee, petitioner, respondent, 1st, 2d) only in the appropriate case. During filing of the brief, deselect any inapplicable case in CM/ECF by unchecking the inapplicable case numbers. In cross-appeals, file all briefs in all cases, unless you are a party to only one cross-appeal.
