Re: Doe, et al. v. Carelon Behavioral Health, Inc.; No. 1:25-cv-03489-ER
Consent Request for Extension to Respond to Complaint

Dear Judge Ramos:

This firm represents Defendant Carelon Behavioral Health, Inc. (“Carelon”) in the above-referenced action. With Plaintiff’s consent, Carelon respectfully requests a brief two-week extension of its deadline to respond to the Complaint to April 28, 2026. In support of this request, and in compliance with Your Honor’s Individual Practices, Carelon states the following:

1. Per Your Honor’s Opinion and Order [Dkt. No. 21], Carelon’s current deadline to respond to the Complaint is April 14, 2026;
2. Counsel for Plaintiff has agreed to a two-week extension of this deadline;
3. Carelon requests this extension because it requires additional time to evaluate the impact of the partial dismissal of the Complaint on Carelon’s defenses in this matter and response to the remaining allegations;
4. This is Carelon’s first request for an extension of this deadline;
5. This request is made with the consent of Plaintiff; and
6. The extension, if granted, will not prejudice any party.

We thank Your Honor for your consideration of this matter.

The request is granted. Carelon is directed to respond to the complaint by April 28, 2026.

SO ORDERED.
