Case No. 2:25-cv-220

RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

COMES NOW Counter-Plaintiff Christopher Coopriders (“COOPRIDERS”) who responds to Plaintiff’s Motion for Protective Order as follows.

A. Background.

The history of the struggle to obtain basic information from Liana Davis (“DAVIS”), her repeated efforts to misdirect the Court and Counsel and to stop all efforts to obtain evidence is well documented.

1. DAVIS has repeatedly made false statements to this Court that evidence did not exist, when it did.
2. DAVIS refused to cooperate in providing her phones and all of her devices to secure the ESI evidence leading to a May 14, 2026 emergency ESI order for immediate ESI discovery.
3. DAVIS has not complied with the May 14, 2026 ESI Order because she is withholding a key second phone used to record COOPRIDERS on the night of April 5, 2025 and her iCloud remains only accessible to her.

4. In following the May 14, 2026 ESI protocols and Orders exactly, COOPRIDER has confirmed that DAVIS scrubbed communications between DAVIS and key witnesses from her phone up to the time George Vasiliou created a mirror image.

B. Two False Declarations of Liana Davis regarding Yvonne Yakopovich and withholding of responsive documents until May 11, 2026.

1. The Declaration of Liana Davis (Exhibit A) dated March 30, 2026 Docket No. 42 -2, paragraphs 13 and 14 falsely states:

13. On March 26, 2026, I learned that Ms. Klein was accusing me of withholding communications that I had with Kyle and Yvonne Yakopovich. But I never texted or communicated with Kyle Yakopovich in my entire life. And I deleted my text messages with Yvonne Yakopovich before this litigation started.

14. On Sunday, March 29, 2026, I discovered that my Decipher app could recover my previously deleted text messages with Yvonne Yakopovich. I immediately extracted those messages and forwarded the responsive texts to my attorney.

2. On April 8, 2026, DAVIS disclosed more responsive texts. (Exhibit B.)

3. Continuing to obstruct the turnover of critical discovery, Davis filed a second declaration dated April 9 2026, Docket No. 50-2 Paragraphs 6, 7, 8, and 12 (Exhibit C) which falsely states:

6. I have produced all responsive text messages between myself and Yvonne Yakopovich that are in my possession, custody, or control. The only text messages that I exchanged with Ms. Yakopovich that discuss Mr. Coopriider or my pregnancies took place between April 1, 2025, and April 7, 2025. The remaining text messages that I exchanged with Ms. Yakopovich are non-responsive and non-discoverable.

7. I have produced all other responsive communications requested by Mr. Coopriider's attorneys in Request for Production No. 2.

8. I have never destroyed or spoliated evidence on Christopher Coopriider's phone.

12. I have produced all text messages that I exchanged with Ms. Yakopovich between April 1, 2025, and April 7, 2025, and those are the only responsive and relevant text messages that I have ever exchanged with Ms. Yakopovich.

4. On April 14, 2026, DAVIS extracted even more damning responsive texts that are outside her April 1 and April 7, 2025 time limitation. (Exhibit D). Mr. Mitchell withheld these documents for nearly a month and finally disclosed them on May 11, 2026 as the transmittal bate stamp indicates.

5. DAVIS falsely swore to this Court that additional texts were “non-responsive” in response to the very request, Coopriider has been working with this Court to obtain:

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 2: ALL COMMUNICATIONS between YOU and the following individuals between November 1, 2024 and the present:

- (a) Ami Amoroso;
- (b) CHRIS COOPRIDER;
- (c) Devan Davis;
- (d) Melisa Madrigal;
- (e) Your present or past boyfriend named “Marshall;”
- (f) Casey Pyle;
- (g) Jackie Samuelson;

(h) Kyle Yakopovich;
(i) Yvonne Yakopovich; and
(j) Anna Ziarko;
concerning YOU, YOUR pregnancy(ies), the termination thereof—whether real or suspected, and/or CHRIS COOPRIDER.

6. These texts, DAVIS said to not exist, are on point and were intentionally withheld since October 2025. These texts clearly include information about her pregnancies and Chris Coopriders. DAVIS has obstructed discovery throughout these proceedings.

C. Refusal to Cooperate in Securing Electronic Evidence.

7. DAVIS refused to produce her phone without a written court order; her attorney finally convinced her to produce it. Stating that she was “reluctant” is an understatement. DAVIS also refused to produce her computers, access to her iCloud, and the second phone without a Court Order. To date, DAVIS has not produced her second phone that she hid in her purse on April 5, 2025 recording COOPRIDER. Her deposition testimony Rough draft Page 10, lines 20 to page 11, line 20 and Page 112, line 23 to Page 113, line 17 (Exhibit E):

7. The original recording from April 5, 2025 should be date and time stamped so that the timeline of the night of the alleged incident can be determined. Instead, DAVIS decided to transfer recordings to new devices, and the time stamps have changed.

8. The May 14, 2026 Order indicates that DAVIS was Ordered to produce and/or provide access to her phone, computer(s), iCloud account, and any other personal device or account that may contain text messages or emails (e.g., an iPad, any external hard drives containing backups) no later than May 15, 2026, at 3 p.m. CST. She did not; and will not.

9. DAVIS does not believe that Court orders apply to her.

D. When DAVIS refused to produce her devices, COOPRIDER sought and was GRANTED and ESI Order for preservation imaging and extracting of the ESI from the mirror image of DAVIS's phone as requested.

10. On May 13, 2026, COOPRIDER served an ESI request pursuant to Rule 24 and notified DAVIS that a shortened time to respond would be sought.

11. To date DAVIS has not indicated that any of the time parameters, limitations, or requests are objectionable in the ESI request.

12. This ESI request, a copy of the draft stipulation that DAVIS refused to sign, and a Motion requesting immediate production of all devices and extraction was filed with this Court on May 14, 2026. The draft stipulation was written before COOPRIDER obtained the May 14, 2026 Court Order.

13. The Court granted the Motion. The Order was provided to George Vasiliou who has signed the Protective Order Exhibit F. Mr. Vasiliou followed the ESI order. After being accused of a criminal, Mr. Vasiliou ceased all work.

14. Mr. Vasiliou using phone numbers for the list of witnesses in the ESI protocol learned that DAVIS has wiped her communications with witnesses. This artifact shows that DAVIS altered the contact information for Ami

Amoroso, her sister and changed the name to a letter A. This was done to make searches for text messages more difficult. This artifact shows that DAVIS texted Ms. Amoroso right before Mr. Vasiliou took possession of her phone to notify Ms. Amoroso that she had a burner phone with a new number. ALL other communications between Ms. Amoroso and DAVIS have been destroyed up to the time that Ms. Vasiliou took possession of DAVIS'S phone.

15. These communications requested in ESI 2 – 10 are not on the mirror image of the DAVIS phone.

Request No. 2 Produce all DEVICES for extraction of all COMMUNICATIONS in native format between YOU and YVONNE YAKOPOVICH Cell phone number 724-858-7419 from 4/1/2025 to the present.

Request No. 3 Produce all DEVICES for extraction of all COMMUNICATIONS in native format between YOU and AMI AMOROSO from 1/1/2025 to the present.

Request No. 4 Produce all DEVICES for extraction of all COMMUNICATIONS in native format between YOU and ANNA ZIARO from 1/1/2025 to the present.

Request No. 5 Produce all DEVICES for extraction of all COMMUNICATIONS in native format between YOU and JANA PINSON from 1/1/2025 to the present.

Request No. 6 Produce all DEVICES for extraction of all COMMUNICATIONS and in native format between YOU and THE PREGNANCY CENTER OF COASTAL BEND from 1/1/2025 to the present.

Request No. 7 Produce all DEVICES for extraction of all COMMUNICATIONS between YOU and MARK LEE DICKSON from 1/1/2025 to the present.

Request No. 8 Produce all DEVICES for extraction of all COMMUNICATIONS between YOU and KRISTY LOESEL (814) 823-4615 from 1/1/2025 to the present.

Request No. 9 Produce all DEVICES for extraction of all COMMUNICATIONS between YOU and ROMY SATERY FROM 1/1/2025 to the present.

Request No. 10 Produce all DEVICES for retrieval and extraction of all COMMUNICATIONS between YOU and any person between 5:00 am on 4/4/2025 and midnight 4/7/2025.

16. In deposition, DAVIS confirmed that when she began answering discovery she had communications on her phone with some, if not all of these witnesses as she testified Exhibit E Pages 52, line 21 to 53, line 22:

Q. Ma'am, I'm just -- we're focusing on your
21 sister, Amy Amoroso. And I'm asking you if you had on
22 your phone text messages dating from November 1st, 2024
23 to the present when you started answering these
24 questions.
25 MR. MITCHELL: Regardless of whether they

53

1 were relevant or responsive. Any kind of text messages
2 is what she's asking.

3 A. My recollection is that -- I don't know how to
4 answer that without getting into attorney-client
5 privilege, but the task ultimately ended up not being to
6 turn over all text messages, including those that have
7 nothing to do with the case. The task was to turn over
8 those that were relevant.

9 MR. MITCHELL: What she wants to know is
10 do you have any text messages with your sister, relevant
11 or not. That's all she's asking.

12 A. I do have text messages with my sister, yes.

13 Q. Where are they?

14 A. Where I text from, on my phone or I might have
15 various copies from this program called Decipher on my
16 laptop.

17 Q. Dr. Davis, can you explain why every single
18 text message between you and Amy Amoroso has been
19 scrubbed from your phone that you turned over to the
20 defense under court order?

21 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

22 A. I don't know what you mean by scrubbed.

17. COOPRIDER had to and obtained a Court Order with the ESI protocol incorporated which have been followed. DAVIS apparently takes the position that a second court order or a stipulation was required. Additionally, DAVIS takes the position that the verbal communications during negotiations to resolve this dispute bind the Court and parties and supersede this Court's Order. The May 14, 2026 Order supersedes the negotiations and was necessitated because DAVIS was uncooperative. The Order does not read that COOPRIDER needed to obtain another ESI Order. This would have only delayed the discovery of the spoliation, and additional spoliation would not have been stopped.

18. Every single lawyer for COOPRIDER read the May 14, 2026 Court order as an order to conduct the ESI extraction in light of the false statements, refusal to cooperate in producing devices, and movement of massive quantities of text messages to the iCloud which COOPRIDER cannot access.

19. In ESI item 18, COOPRIDER specifically requested “Produce all DEVICES for retrieval and extraction of all voice memos, notes, calendar events, and reminders created between 1/1/2025 and 5/1/2025. The time parameter of May 1, 2025 predates the date Mr. Mitchell was retained, and all communications with all of DAVIS’s attorneys were excluded in paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 under exclusions.

20 The confessional memo in Exhibit 40 is confirmed not to be privileged and was obtained pursuant to Item 18 listed in the ESI request. Exhibit 40 was handled above-board, in routine practice and was disclosed to DAVIS on May 17, 2026. In the regular course of the litigation process, it was pre-marked as an exhibit the day before the deposition and provided to DAVIS with the other exhibits.

21. In this memo, Exhibit 40, DAVIS confesses.

22. With further delay to obtain a second Order or try to work out a stipulation (which would likely have been impossible), this evidence would have likely been destroyed by DAVIS.

E. Conclusion

COOPRIDER sought and was granted the May 14, 2026 Order for significant reasons arising from DAVIS’S repeated discovery abuses. DAVIS has been willing to repeatedly bear false witness to this Court. The evidence extracted from DAVIS’s phone pursuant to the Order shows that she has engaged in a pattern of fraud and spoliation. The actual result of the Motion for Protection before the Court is to reward DAVIS's evidence spoliation and frauds.

Further ESI analysis might have been to the benefit of DAVIS because the missing texts might have been found on her laptop or cloud. If the Court wishes to stop ALL ESI discovery at this point, then the record of spoliation is confirmed and clear. COOPRIDER should not have to spend additional resources chasing this evidence. It should have been secured and produced in October 2025.

WHEREFORE, COOPRIDER requests that the Motion for Protective Order be Denied, or in the alternative that no further ESI discovery take place and that the spoliation of evidence is finalized and the record set for trial. COOPRIDER further requests that Exhibit 40, and the screen shots obtained from DAVIS's phone be made public as they do not rise to the standard for any suppression under June Medical Services LLC. v. Phillips. And for further relief as the Court deems just.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
CORPUS CHRISTI DIVISION

Liana Davis,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 2:25-cv-00220

Christopher Coopriders; Aid Access
GmbH; Rebecca Gomperts,

Defendants.

DECLARATION OF LIANA DAVIS

1. My name is Liana Davis. I am over the age of 18 and fully competent in all respects to make this declaration.

2. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this declaration, and all of these facts are true and correct.

3. I am the plaintiff in this litigation, and I submit this declaration in support of the plaintiff's response to defendant Christopher Coopriders' motion to compel.

4. I have produced many responsive documents and communications in response to Mr. Coopriders' requests and have signed releases to allow Mr. Coopriders' attorneys to obtain my medical records.

5. But I have had difficulty with Mr. Coopriders' requests for relevant text messages between me and him, as well as relevant text messages between myself and Jackie Samuelson, as I have exchanged thousands of text messages with these individuals and sorting the responsive text messages from the non-responsive text messages would take a large amount of time.

6. I have been reluctant to produce all of my text messages with Mr. Cooprider and with Ms. Samuelson because some of the non-responsive texts contain material that I would rather not disclose unless required to.

7. But I have also struggled to find time to separate the responsive text messages from the non-responsive ones, as I am an overworked single mom of three who is currently pregnant with twins and in the midst of a lengthy, difficult, and bitterly contested divorce that still has not yet been finalized. I also have a full-time job as a professor at Texas A&M Corpus Christi. I am also dealing with numerous health issues including a factured spine and pregnancy-related sickness. So it took me longer to produce my text messages with Mr. Cooprider and with Ms. Samuelson.

8. When the Court ordered me to extract the requested text messages by March 25, 2026, I attempted to extract those text messages with the Decipher app. But I encountered considerable trouble in doing so. Over the course of two days, from March 24, 2026, through March 25, 2026, I attempted to extract the text messages using the Decipher app, but my Decipher app required entry of a backup password that I did not know.

9. I tried to get around this problem by removing my iPhone's backup password, but that didn't work. Then I reset my encrypted backup password and reinstalled my Decipher app, but the Decipher app refused to accept my new backup password.

10. Finally, I reset my encrypted backup password again but saved the new backup password to my computer rather than iCloud. This time Decipher accepted my new encrypted backup password and I was able to successfully extract my text messages with Mr. Cooprider and with Ms. Samuelson.

11. I completed the extraction of those messages and sent the extracted texts to my lawyer before 3:00 P.M. on Wednesday, March 25, 2026.

12. The text messages that I sent to Mr. Mitchell on March 25, 2026, consisted of: (1) All of my text messages with Jackie Samuelson, which were produced in a format with images and attachments embedded in the document; and (2) All of my text messages with Christopher Coopridier, which were produced in a text-only format. I had used a text-only format for my text messages with Coopridier because they included some non-responsive documents such as pictures of my children that I did not want publicly disclosed.

13. On March 26, 2026, I learned that Ms. Klein was accusing me of withholding communications that I had with Kyle and Yvonne Yakopovich. But I never texted or communicated with Kyle Yakopovich in my entire life. And I deleted my text messages with Yvonne Yakopovich before this litigation started.

14. On Sunday, March 29, 2026, I discovered that my Decipher app could recover my previously deleted text messages with Yvonne Yakopovich. I immediately extracted those messages and forwarded the responsive texts to my attorney.

15. I have produced everything that Mr. Coopridier's attorneys have asked for and in the format that they have requested. Yet they are still insisting on proceeding with their motion to compel, as well as the in-person hearing scheduled for April 1, 2026, at 1:30 P.M., in which I have been ordered to attend in person. My attorney has told them that their motion to compel is moot and has asked them to identify the discovery responses that they are asking this Court to compel from me, but they refuse to do so. Attending the hearing on April 1, 2026, at 1:30 P.M. will impose considerable hardship as I teach class from 1:00 P.M. to 1:50 P.M. and I have a guest speaker scheduled for that day. I cannot afford to cancel another class this semester, as I have already cancelled several classes this semester on account of my contested family-law proceeding and illness. We do not have makeup classes or rescheduled classes at my university and there are only five weeks left in the semester.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the facts stated in this declaration are true and correct.

4/1/2025 2:38 PM

Yvonne (7248587419)

I am not sure what legal implications it would have if you have a custody agreement where you have sole custody of the baby and he waives his parental rights for the child (idk is that a thing?), but, assuming he has some legal responsibility to the child, should he ghost you and not take care of entering the child in the Defense Eligibility Enrollment Reporting System (DEERS) so that the baby can receive medical benefits, then I believe you can court marshal his a$$$. It's military court. And nobody wants to be court marshalled.

In addition to child support, the child should have medical benefits and be acknowledged as a dependent of an active duty service member (and maybe retiree later in life?)

4/1/2025 2:42 PM

Yvonne (7248587419)

Good that he is smart and wouldn't risk his military career over not providing you with the financial (and medical benefits for the child) support you are entitled to

4/1/2025 2:44 PM

Yvonne (7248587419)

That would probably be it. But if for some reason once he moves to NC he doesn't follow through, then you can file with the military legal and they will hunt him down and make sure he pays child support and does whatever else he needs to do for the child, legally

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
CORPUS CHRISTI DIVISION

Liana Davis,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 2:25-cv-00220

Christopher Coopriders; Aid Access
GmbH; Rebecca Gomperts,

Defendants.

DECLARATION OF LIANA DAVIS

1. My name is Liana Davis. I am over the age of 18 and fully competent in all respects to make this declaration.

2. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this declaration, and all of these facts are true and correct.

3. I am the plaintiff in this litigation, and I submit this declaration in support of the plaintiff's status report of April 9, 2026.

4. I have produced all of the text messages between myself and Christopher Coopriders that are in my possession, custody, or control, with the exception of approximately nine irrelevant photographs that my attorney redacted before production.

5. I have produced all of the text messages between myself and Jackie Samuelson that are in my possession, custody, or control.

6. I have produced all responsive text messages between myself and Yvonne Yakopovich that are in my possession, custody, or control. The only text messages that I exchanged with Ms. Yakopovich that discuss Mr. Coopriders or my pregnancies took place between April 1, 2025, and April 7, 2025. The remaining text messages that I exchanged with Ms. Yakopovich are non-responsive and non-discoverable.

7. I have produced all other responsive communications requested by Mr. Coopriders attorneys in Request for Production No. 2.

8. I have never destroyed or spoliated evidence on Christopher Coopriders phone.

9. I have never "blackmailed" Mr. Coopriders by threatening to post intimate audio recordings of him on Facebook.

10. I did not send to Mr. Coopriders the message that appears on page 3 of the status report that Mr. Coopriders attorneys filed on April 7, 2026.

11. I did not "destroy" my text messages with Yvonne Yakopovich, because all of those previously deleted texts have been recovered with Decipher. Nothing has been "destroyed." I have every text message that I have ever exchanged with Ms. Yakopovich in my possession, custody, and control.

12. I have produced all text messages that I exchanged with Ms. Yakopovich between April 1, 2025, and April 7, 2025, and those are the only responsive and relevant text messages that I have ever exchanged with Ms. Yakopovich.

13. Mr. Coopriders attorneys claim that I was "offended" when they pointed out an alleged "discrepancy" in the production of my text messages with Ms. Yakopovich. I have never communicated with Mr. Coopriders attorneys, and their claim that I was "offended" is false and fabricated. I was not "offended" by their reaction to my document production, and I never expressed sentiments of offense to them or to anyone else.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the facts stated in this declaration are true and correct.

I have two people reaching out to the district attorney (DA) to put a fire under this case. The DA is calling the police chief. Attorney general can't do anything unless the DA gives it to him. Just got a response from the DA: "On it"

To catch you up, this is from earlier today. So the amicus attorney called CPS on me after talking to Chris and Jackie on Thursday (and apparently it wasn't her first time with Chris), and then went with decision number 1 before even getting their report. She didn't actually care about the condition of the children, the house, or about me. Her mind was already made up.

It's just insanity. Whatever I've done or whatever Chris is presenting to the Amicus Attorney, it's in bad faith and it's not enough for me to lose my children. I definitely haven't told him to lie to her.

iPhone (14122957136)

Omg I just thought of something! I don't know how to bring this up to the detective, but now that I know that Devin and Chris have teamed up, I sincerely wonder if Devin had anything to do with Chris abandoning me in the middle of the night on 4/5/25 instead of picking up my mom and taking me to the ER. This was the exact same weekend that Devin had suddenly decided he did not want to pick up the children at any times other than what our temporary orders say from now on (in other words, zero bonus time with the children), and it would also explain why Chris became unresponsive after he left my house when he initially agreed to help me. It would make perfect sense if Chris had left my house, called Devin, and Devin told him not to go pick up my mom and to just let this play out to see how I would handle it. Devin was probably hoping I would leave the children or make some other mistake so that he could crack down on me and say I left them unsupervised. What do you think?

I received this email from the detective assigned to the criminal investigation with Chris as the offender. My thoughts in no particular order: 1) Chris has attorNEYS? (plural?!). Dang. He's not playing. 2) Nothing about this email suggests what my family law attorney told me on Monday about how the detective is more concerned with me at this point and how I should consult with a criminal defense attorney myself ASAP or risk doing time in prison. My attorney got that info secondhand from the amicus attorney who clearly hates me, but still, why would he scare the crap out of me like that? I know detectives routinely lie to people as part of their job and would never let on if they were in fact about to prosecute me, but what do you think? I do not think I am at risk of getting arrested based on this.

This just in from my attorney. He replied back with this after I sent him an email essentially begging him to provide me with some kind of reassurance that he is on my side and that there will be any justice in this madness, because it just wasn't coming through from him. He is thinking I will lose the kids temporarily, and he goes on to say it will take 10s of thousands to get this straightened out properly. So it's official: BEST case scenario, Chris's retaliation is literally costing me 10s of thousands of dollars and trauma that I will never get over. More than I have spent on this family law case this far in the past year. Worst case, all that, plus I lose my children and my home, because I won't be able to afford my home without child support or WORSE- if I have to start paying Devin child support. I just desperately want my happy life with my children back. I had that just two weeks ago. And now it's being taken away after I experienced so much loss. I need a GoFundMe, or a massive donation from a benefactor.

Well, well, well. A former colleagues of mine who is an avid tennis player came across this Facebook post and sent it to me: Look who apparently got himself a 2nd job just days after finding out he's on a legal hold and will be in Corpus Christi indefinitely? I wonder if it was to stay busy and do something productive in the wake of his ruined career, or to fund that expensive criminal defense attorney of his...maybe both.

Yes, but I didn't need to literally start every day with a ginger ale and Nutrigrain bar or risk puking. It was more of a random thing with the other pregnancies. Something would trigger me maybe every few weeks, I would puke, and then it would be over.

And by God, so much is about to change. It's only been a few hours and already I'm thinking of how 1) not only am I having double the babies, but they are likely coming at least a month sooner. Twins don't go to 40 weeks- 36 is considered full term for twins, and they frequently come at 35 weeks or earlier. 2)

I'm likely going to have a major abdominal surgery for the first time instead of a normal birth since I'm pretty sure C-section is the standard for multiples. So I will have a longer, more painful, unprecedented recovery period with twice the babies depending on me. 3) The pumping. 🍼 OHhh the pumping and feeding. 4) I'm going to have far less help. My mom is 78 now and walks with a cane, and she can't even carry or stand up with one baby any more, so she won't be able to watch them long on her own. She is a lap grandma now. Devin is obviously not going to be here to help with the older 3. 5) I'm going to have to find a daycare that has room for TWO infants. It's a miracle these days to find a spot for one.

Aside from all of that, I swear I am super excited! 😊

Apparently the chromosomal test I had done doesn't say what type of twins they are, and we can't tell from the ultrasound because it's still a little early. So now we have to find out if my insurance company will cover a different brand's chromosomal test (those things run in the thousands) so we can find out what type of twins they are. Otherwise, I have to go to an MFM to find out.

1 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Today's date is
2 Thursday, May 28, 2026. The time is 9:07 a.m., we're on 3 the record. Would the attorneys please identify 4 themselves for the record, please.

5 MR. MITCHELL: Jonathan Mitchell for
6 plaintiff Liana Davis.

7 MS. KLEIN: Beth Klein for defendant
8 Coopriders.

9 MR. MOSCOWITZ: Barry Moscowitz on behalf
10 of defendant Coopriders.

11 LIANA DAVIS,
12 having been first duly sworn, testified as follows:

13 EXAMINATION

14 BY MS. KLEIN:

15 Q. Please state your name.

16 A. Liana Davis.

17 Q. Liana, you've had a lot of different last
18 names. Can you tell us the names that you've used
19 through your lifetime.

20 A. I disagree that I've had a lot of last names.
21 I've had one last name, Webster.

22 Q. And can you tell us, was that your father's 23 last name?

24 A. Long story, but it turns out it's not my
25 father's last name but that's what my mother believed it

1 Q. Great.

2 A. It's (412) 316-7257.

3 Q. And does she have an email address?

4 A. I would have to dig for it. I don't email her.

5 Q. Do you tend to text people rather than email

6 them?

7 A. It depends on who it is.

8 Q. Okay. Do you tend to text with your mother?

9 A. Sometimes.

10 Q. Do you call her?

11 A. Sometimes.

12 Q. Do you Facebook with her?

13 A. I don't know what you mean by Facebook.

14 Q. Do you message her on Facebook?

15 A. Not really. She sends me things, but I don't

16 reply.

17 Q. Are you her only friend on Facebook?

18 A. Yes. That's her choice.

19 Q. And do you have siblings?

20 A. It's a complicated answer. I have a half

21 sibling, Amy.

22 Q. Amoroso?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. What's Amy's full name?

25 A. Amy Amoroso.

1 MR. MITCHELL: She signed the engagement
2 letter on May 28, 2025, but the attorney-client
3 relationship predates that.

4 MS. KLEIN: That's what I'm trying to make
5 sure that I'm clear about.

6 MR. MITCHELL: Why don't I find out when
7 she first communicated with me.

8 MS. KLEIN: All right. Do you want to 9 just check in with me later?

10 MR. MITCHELL: I can do that. I've got to 11 check my phone records, depending on records, but it was 12 a few days before that, I'm sure. Because I know we 13 talked before she signed the engagement letter.

14 MS. KLEIN: Okay. Great. Thank you. I
15 appreciate that.

16 Q. (By Ms. Klein) Ms. Davis, how many telephones
17 do you have?

18 A. I have this cell phone.

19 Q. Do you have another phone?

20 A. Not one that's functioning or useful as a cell
21 phone.

22 Q. Where is the phone that's not functioning?

23 A. I might have a few old cell phones at my house.

24 Q. Where are they in your house?

25 A. What was that?

1 Q. Where are they in your house?

2 A. Currently, probably in a drawer somewhere in 3 the master suite.

4 Q. All right. One of these phones, did you use it
5 in 2025?

6 A. Possibly.

7 Q. What have you done to preserve the evidence on 8 this phone?

9 A. Anything that was of importance on there, I've 10 probably forwarded it to this phone or it's been 11 transferred, handed over in discovery.

12 Q. What kind of phone is it?

13 A. I don't know. An iPhone, but I'm not sure
14 which model.

15 Q. Okay. Do you know when you got this iPhone?

16 A. No, because there are a few of them. I upgrade
17 every few years.

18 Q. Have you connected that phone to the
19 Internet --

20 A. I have no idea.

21 Q. -- in the past year? You don't know? One of 22 the things about depositions is it's a little different
23 than normal conversation because our court reporter is 24 taking down everything we say. So when we talk over one
25 another, it gets messed up. She can't take two people

1 it.

2 Q. Because there was a lot of stuff, right?

3 A. And it was just a matter of hours before this
4 began.

5 Q. Got it. When you were going through
6 Mr. Coopriider's phone on the two occasions and deleting
7 text messages, what were you hoping to accomplish?

8 A. I believe I already answered that, but I
9 believe it signified some kind of fresh start or trust
10 building between us. And I'm not sure if it was --
11 exactly how many of those sessions there were. I'm 12 guessing about two.

13 Q. Was one at a doctor's office?

14 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

15 A. I don't recall.

16 Q. Just so I understand your testimony today,
17 you're saying that there's no way that you were trying to 18 hide text messages from being discovered in your family
19 law matter; is that right?

20 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

21 A. Could you rephrase that or repeat it?

22 Q. Sure. I want to make sure that I understand
23 your testimony completely that when during these sessions
24 when you were deleting text messages from Mr. Coopriider's
25 phone, you did not intend to hide that evidence from the

1 THE REPORTER: Question: "Why would you
2 ask somebody in a hypothetical to lie for you in a
3 divorce proceeding?"

4 A. I've asked him many hypothetical questions,
5 he's asked me many hypothetical questions over the course
6 of dozens of hours of conversation.

7 Q. But my question is why?

8 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

9 Q. (By Ms. Klein) Why would you do that?

10 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

11 A. I couldn't tell you why that specific topic
12 came up.

13 Q. Did you ask Mr. Cooprider to lie for you
14 because you wanted to gain the upper hand in your child
15 custody dispute?

16 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

17 A. No.

18 Q. Were you just playing a game with him?

19 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

20 A. I disagree that I was playing a game.

21 Q. What were you doing?

22 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

23 A. As I said before, it was just part of an hours
24 long conversation. Many various topics came up. We 25 talked about a wide variety of things.

1 Q. So with other people, does the topic of lying
2 for you in court proceedings, is that something normal
3 that you do in your life?

4 A. No.

5 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

6 A. No.

7 Q. Was this an unusual circumstance to ask
8 Mr. Coopriider to lie for you?

9 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

10 A. I wouldn't describe it as unusual. It's just 11 something that happened to come up. And I don't
12 attribute any specific meaning to it. I never intended
13 for anyone to lie for me at any point.

14 Q. Do you want me to call you Professor Davis?
15 Ms. Davis? What would you prefer how I address you?

16 A. I don't really go by my married name. I'm used
17 to either Liana or Dr. Davis. You don't have to call me
18 Professor Davis.

19 Q. What do you prefer?

20 A. I can't recall what you've been calling me, but 21 whatever it is is fine.

22 Q. Dr. Davis?

23 A. Sure.

24 Q. Dr. Davis, have you asked the United States
25 military to prosecute Chris Coopriider for agreeing to lie

1 racking.

2 MR. MITCHELL: Exhibit 3, I got it.

3 Q. (By Ms. Klein) Do you recognize this, ma'am?

4 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form. Would you
5 say that again?

6 Q. (By Ms. Klein) Sure. Do you recognize
7 Exhibit 3, Dr. Davis?

8 A. It looks familiar. I've seen many documents
9 that look similar.

10 Q. Do you know when you received a copy of this?

11 A. I can't recall the exact date I received a copy
12 of it.

13 Q. I'm going to just put -- to be clear on the 14 record, this was served on your counsel on September 8th,
15 2025. And this is Defendant Christopher Coopriider's
16 First Set of Request for Production to Plaintiff Liana
17 Davis. Do you see where that says that?

18 A. That's what it says.

19 Q. All right. When you received a copy of this,
20 did you start gathering all of the information that was 21 responsive?

22 A. I can't recall exactly when I started gathering
23 the information, but I'm sure I consulted with 24 Mr. Mitchell on what to do and responded with the correct
25 timeline.

1 B, C, D. What did you do to go out and find all of the
2 communications between you and a third-party, third
3 person on all of those topics?

4 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

5 A. I can't recall what my exact process was, but I
6 probably went by type of documents. So for instance, I
7 might have started with all emails that I felt were 8 relevant or all paper copies of things, which are 9 relatively few. Or I might have gone by person. It just 10 depends on what was being asked for.

11 Q. Okay. Let's go on to the next page, number 8
12 in Exhibit 3. And there's a request for production
13 number 2. Can you see that? And it says, "All
14 communications between you and the following individuals
15 between November 1st, 2024 and the present." Do you see 16 that?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Did you find any texts between you and Amy
19 Amoroso between November 1st, 2024 and the present?

20 A. I did not --

21 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

22 A. I'm not a professional, I'm not an attorney,
23 but based on my understanding of the task, I did my best
24 to include all relevant communications with each of those 25 people, if I had any, in my possession and control.

1 Q. Did you find any communications between you and
2 Amy Amoroso between November 1st, 2024 and the present?

3 MR. MITCHELL: Objection to form.

4 A. I believe we've handed over all of the 5 discovery we have in our possession or control, so that
6 would include Amy Amoroso.

7 Q. Dr. Davis, did you find communications between 8 you and Amy Amoroso between the time frame of 9 November 1st, 2024 and the present? Did you find those?

10 A. There are volumes of documents and text
11 messages, emails between a lot of people. I can't recall 12 what exactly was found for each person. I know that I've 13 turned over everything that I believe is relevant and 14 that I had.

15 MR. MITCHELL: She's asked -- ask the 16 question one more time.

17 MS. KLEIN: Why don't you help her.

18 MR. MITCHELL: She's not asking you --
19 she's asking whether you have any text messages with your 20 sister, not just whether they're responsive. Is that 21 right, that's your question?

22 MS. KLEIN: That's right. Thank you for 23 helping.

24 MR. MITCHELL: Yeah.

25 A. I didn't think I was supposed to turn over all

1 communications.

2 MR. MITCHELL: You weren't, but she's just
3 asking whether you had any texts at all with your sister.

4 That's what she's asking.

5 A. Oh, yes, I did have text messages with my
6 sister, but they weren't relative -- relevant, I don't 7 believe.

8 MS. KLEIN: Thank you. I appreciate this.

9 Q. (By Ms. Klein) Ms. Davis, when you were
10 answering this question, did you find texts with Amy
11 Amoroso between November 1st, 2024 and the present?

12 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form. You mean
13 2025, right?

14 MS. KLEIN: No, November 2024 and the 15 present.

16 MR. MITCHELL: I'm sorry, you're right.

17 A. So I think this is what I was thinking you were 18 asking before for any of those individuals, including 19 Amy.

20 Q. Ma'am, I'm just -- we're focusing on your
21 sister, Amy Amoroso. And I'm asking you if you had on
22 your phone text messages dating from November 1st, 2024
23 to the present when you started answering these
24 questions.

25 MR. MITCHELL: Regardless of whether they

1 were relevant or responsive. Any kind of text messages
2 is what she's asking.

3 A. My recollection is that -- I don't know how to
4 answer that without getting into attorney-client
5 privilege, but the task ultimately ended up not being to
6 turn over all text messages, including those that have
7 nothing to do with the case. The task was to turn over
8 those that were relevant.

9 MR. MITCHELL: What she wants to know is
10 do you have any text messages with your sister, relevant
11 or not. That's all she's asking.

12 A. I do have text messages with my sister, yes.

13 Q. Where are they?

14 A. Where I text from, on my phone or I might have
15 various copies from this program called Decipher on my
16 laptop.

17 Q. Dr. Davis, can you explain why every single
18 text message between you and Amy Amoroso has been
19 scrubbed from your phone that you turned over to the
20 defense under court order?

21 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

22 A. I don't know what you mean by scrubbed.

23 Q. Where are they on your phone?

24 A. Text messages with my sister?

25 Q. Yes.

1 be on lookout for an email, and any emails that I

2 received I passed them along.

3 Q. Why did you change your sister's name from Amy

4 Amoroso to the letter A in your contacts on your phone

5 the night before Mr. Vasiliou took your phone?

6 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

7 A. I'm not familiar with what you're talking

8 about.

9 Q. Did you change the contact information for Amy

10 Amoroso on your phone?

11 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

12 A. It appears as Amy Amoroso to me.

13 Q. Did you change the contact information for Amy

14 Amoroso on your phone?

15 MR. MITCHELL: Objection to form.

16 A. It appears as Amy Amoroso to me, so I would

17 have to say no.

18 Q. Okay. Did you find any communications between

19 you and Marshall Boling on your cell phone dated between

20 November 1st, 2024 and the present? Did you find any

21 communications between you and Marshall Boling on your

22 phone?

23 A. Yes, we text each other and call each other.

24 Q. Did you delete all those text messages before

25 you turned the phone over to our expert?

1 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

2 A. No, I did not.

3 Q. So all of your text messages with Mr. Boling
4 should be on that phone, correct?

5 A. Or retrievable through the Decipher app. No
6 evidence, nothing of relevance has been destroyed or 7 scrubbed, as you've said.

8 Q. Do you have access to your text messages on the 9 cloud at this time?

10 A. I don't know. I never log into the cloud
11 really. I just use my phone on a daily basis.

12 Q. Do you move text messages from your phone to 13 the cloud?

14 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

15 A. I don't know how to do that, so I would have to 16 say no. I don't do it by hand. I don't know if my phone
17 automatically does such a thing.

18 Q. Did you access the cloud at any time to answer
19 and provide documents responsive to request for 20 production number 2?

21 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

22 A. I don't know what counts as accessing the 23 cloud. I went by mostly the contents of my phone. I
24 know my phone does some routine automatic updates
25 perhaps.

1 health and how that would affect her at her age.

2 Q. Did you turn over all of your text messages
3 between you and your mom the night of April 5th to the 4 morning of April 6th?

5 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form. Can we go
6 off the record for a minute?

7 MS. KLEIN: Sure.

8 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 10:42 a.m.,
9 we're off the record.

10 (A recess was taken.)

11 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 10:44 a.m.,
12 we are back on the record.

13 Q. (By Ms. Klein) Dr. Davis, the texts between 14 you and your mother the night of January 5th to the 15 morning of January 6th, they would all deal with you
16 going to the emergency room, correct?

17 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

18 A. No, not all of them had to do with me going to 19 the emergency room.

20 Q. Some of them?

21 A. Some of them, but she was not aware of why I
22 was going.

23 Q. Do you still have those texts?

24 A. I don't know if I still have those texts
25 because they weren't -- they did not seem to me to be

1 responsive documents because she knows nothing of the 2 pregnancy, Coopriider, the murder, none of it.

3 Q. So when you determine something is not
4 relevant, what do you do?

5 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

6 A. I simply don't produce it.

7 Q. Do you delete it?

8 A. No, not necessarily.

9 Q. So I asked you the question: Do you still have 10 your text communications between you and your mother the 11 night of April 5th through the morning of April 6th? Do
12 you still have those?

13 A. I don't know whether I still have those.

14 MS. KLEIN: Let's scroll down to -- so we 15 can see number 3. Thank you.

16 Q. (By Ms. Klein) Janet Pinson, she became a
17 friend of yours, correct?

18 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

19 A. I never thought of that, but yes, I guess you
20 could say she's been something of a friend. She's been 21 very kind to me.

22 Q. When did you first meet Jana Pinson?

23 A. Define meet.

24 Q. Meet, m-e-e-t.

25 A. I know how to spell it. Do you mean in person

1 A. I don't recall whether I personally put it on 2 the dining room table or if he did, but it was on the
3 dining room table at one point.

4 Q. For the whole night, that phone was on the 5 dining room table, correct?

6 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

7 A. I can't tell you one way or another whether it
8 was on the table for the whole night or what counts as 9 the whole night.

10 Q. Do you have a second recording device, didn't
11 you?

12 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

13 A. There are various pieces of technology in a
14 home that have recording capability.

15 Q. What recording capability do you have in your 16 home?

17 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

18 A. I couldn't fully itemize it because I'm sure
19 some of my children's toys are even capable of recording,
20 some stuffed animals are. But I have some old cell
21 phones that aren't in use that I used in years prior and 22 then I would upgrade and keep the old one.

23 Q. Did you -- did you use one of your old cell
24 phones to record the evening with Mr. Coopriker on 25 April 5th, 2025 to the morning of April 6th, 2025?

1 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

2 A. Not the morning of April 6th. I recorded
3 portions of our get-together on the evening of April 5th,
4 not the entire thing.

5 Q. How did you -- how did you do that, Liana? How 6 did you record that night?

7 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

8 Q. (By Ms. Klein) I'm sorry. Dr. Davis, how did
9 you set up the recording devices in your home to record
10 the evening?

11 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

12 A. I didn't set up recording devices, plural. I
13 had an old phone that had recording capability, and it
14 was in my purse, which I kept next to me on my left,
15 either on the floor or on the bottom shelf of a -- did I
16 have a side table? I think it was on the floor next to 17 me, to my left.

18 Q. Did you take your phone that you were recording
19 on into the kitchen?

20 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.

21 A. I can't recall taking my phone into the 22 kitchen. I'm not sure.

23 Q. Did you tell Mr. Coopridger that you were 24 recording the evening?

25 MR. MITCHELL: Objection, form.
