I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. CHRISTOPHER COOPRIDER is a Captain in the United States Marine Corps, having proudly served his country for almost five years. He presently is stationed at Naval Air Station – Corpus Christi while training to fly the V-22 Osprey tilt-rotor aircraft. Before DAVIS filed this suit, COOPRIDER was to continue his service in New River, North Carolina, to complete his training on the Osprey. COOPRIDER is a Marine, a son, a brother, and a proud American.

2. DAVIS initiated a criminal investigation of COOPRIDER for the events alleged. After thoroughly investigating her charges, the Corpus Christi Police Department (“CCPD”) closed its file and declined to recommend prosecution. Her lethal lies in the malicious allegations now embedded in her made-up Complaint read like the screenplay written for Glenn Close in the movie Fatal Attraction. But being falsely accused of murder in a false Complaint distributed to newspapers across America is not a Hollywood move; it is a real-life cataclysm, one that is ruinously damaging. The lies in this civil complaint were already considered and rejected as such by criminal investigators. Why? Because they are fabricated, and scientifically implausible.

3. After seeing criminal authorities reject her fantastical story, why has she recycled it here in a federal court complaint filed on August 11, 2025? So it could be immediately and widely disseminated to national and Texas media outlets that morning prior to a Senate State Affairs Committee hearing set to begin at 10:00 a.m. that same day. So Texas Senators considering S.B. 6, legislation to create civil liability for the manufacture and provision of abortion-inducing drugs could be told: “just this morning, a lawsuit was filed for wrongful death where a military guy got a next-door neighbor pregnant...”² The story was parroted again before the State Affairs Committee of the Texas House of Representatives on August 22³, and the bill is set to become law.

4. COOPRIDER files this Answer to vehemently deny the scurrilous lies contained in DAVIS’ lawsuit filed against him, and to set forth the truth about what happened concerning the events that made the basis of this lawsuit.

5. While right-to-life advocacy is commendable and perhaps justified under the Sixth Commandment that “Thou Shalt not Kill,” one may not capriciously cross the Rubicon from the elevated light of righteousness brought by sincere religious advocacy into a pit of darkness and lies by purposefully ignoring the Ninth Commandment – “Thou Shalt Not Give False Testimony against Thy Neighbor.” That is what DAVIS has done here with this suit, and she must be punished for it.

6. To deter and punish mendacious Plaintiffs like DAVIS from bringing false claims in the future against innocent individuals in the midst of the ongoing cultural warfare concerning “access to reproductive health” vs. “right-to-life” advocacy, Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff

COOPRIDER brings countersuit against Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant DAVIS for $100 million in actual damages and $1 billion in exemplary damages.

II. RULE 8(c) AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

7. Pursuant to Rule 8(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant COOPRIDER pleads the following affirmative defenses.

A. FEDERAL PREEMPTION

8. Defendant COOPRIDER pleads the affirmative defense of federal preemption as to the following of Plaintiffs' allegations concerning the distribution and provision of abortion-inducing drugs, by:

1. Suing under the Texas Wrongful Death Act, Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code, §71.001, et seq., and claiming “wrongful conduct” by securing abortion-inducing drugs via the mails in violation of the Comstock Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 1461–1462 (Complaint, ¶80);
2. doing so while not a physician, Section 171.063(a)(1), THSC (Complaint, ¶74);
3. doing so without complying with the required protocols, Section 171.063(a)(2), THSC (Complaint, ¶75);
4. doing so without satisfying the applicable informed consent requirements Section 171.0631, THSC (Complaint, ¶76).

1. Conflict Preemption

5. These Texas statutes prohibiting conduct concerning mifepristone explicitly permitted by FDA is conflict preempted as it is physically impossible to comply with these Texas statutes in a manner consistent with that permitted by federal law. Forcing a party to avoid that conflict by not doing what FDA permits renders the Supreme Court's conflict preemption jurisprudence meaningless. Conflict preemption exists with Texas' bans, akin to the Supreme Court's holdings in Mutual Pharmaceutical Co., Inc. v. Bartlett, 570 U.S. 472 (2013) and PLIVA, Inc v. Mensing, 564 U.S. 604 (2011) and the Fifth Circuit’s holding in Johnson v. Teva Pharmaceuticals USA, Inc., 758 F.3d 605 (5th Cir. 2014), rejecting the stop-selling arguments.

2. Obstacle Preemption

6. Because DAVIS’s cause of action invoking Texas’ statutes banning mifepristone “prevents or frustrates the accomplishment of a federal objective” permitting its lawful use, it is impliedly preempted by the “obstacle” preemption doctrine as well.

3. Field Preemption

7. Given the three-decade-long history of FDA carefully regulating mifepristone, while repeatedly and specifically sanctioned by Congress to do so, field preemption exists as well.

B. DUE PROCESS VIOLATION ABSENT APPLICATION OF THE DOCTRINE OF DESUETUDE

8. Defendant COOPRIDER pleads the affirmative defense that Plaintiff’s invocation of the Comstock Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 1461–1462, as an example of “wrongful conduct” violates his due process rights, because enforcement of a long-dormant statute, one long not-enforced, results in a judicial abrogation of the statute under the doctrine of desuetude.

9. Defendant COOPRIDER invokes the doctrine of desuetude as an affirmative defense to Paragraph 80 of Plaintiff’s complaint.

10. To enforce the Comstock Act now - despite its long-dormant, long not-enforced, status - would violate Defendant COOPRIDER’s due process rights.

C. FRAUD

11. Defendant COOPRIDER pleads the affirmative defense of fraud.

12. Specifically, Defendant COOPRIDER alleges at least two instances of fraud by Plaintiff DAVIS, as follows:

13. First, Defendant COOPRIDER pleads that

- (a) Plaintiff DAVIS made a material representation to Defendant COOPRIDER on February 3, 2025, that she was pregnant;
- (b) at a time when she knew she was not pregnant, so that Plaintiff DAVIS' statement to Defendant COOPRIDER that she was pregnant was false when made;
- (c) When Plaintiff DAVIS told Defendant COOPRIDER on February 3, 2025, that she was pregnant, she either knew it was false or asserted it without knowledge of its truth;
- (d) Plaintiff DAVIS intended that it be acted upon by Defendant COOPRIDER, as she asked him to order abortion-inducing drugs for her;
- (e) Defendant COOPRIDER acted in reliance upon Plaintiff DAVIS's statement, and ordered such drugs at a time she turned out not to be pregnant at all; and
- (f) Defendant COOPRIDER was injured as a result.

14. Second, Defendant COOPRIDER pleads that

- 3. Plaintiff DAVIS made a material representation to Defendant COOPRIDER, that he should come over to her home for a "night of trust" over hot cocoa and alcohol, when she intended to frame him with false allegations that he poisoned her;
- 4. at a time when she knew that she had no intention of engaging in a "night of trust," rendering her statement to Defendant COOPRIDER false when made;
- (g) in her attempt to lure Defendant COOPRIDER into her home, she knew her statement to him was false when made;

- (h) she made this false statement with the intention that it would be acted upon by Defendant COOPRIDER, i.e., that he would come into her home;
- (i) Defendant COOPRIDER relied upon this statement that he should come over for a “night of trust,” and thereafter acted in reliance on it by coming to her home on April 5, 2025; and
- (j) Defendant COOPRIDER was injured as a result, as Plaintiff DAVIS conjured the story of her being poisoned via abortion-inducing pills slipped into her hot chocolate, instigated a criminal investigation, and instituted this suit.

15. Pursuant to the requirements of Rule 9(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant COOPRIDER pleads in particular, the circumstances constituting fraud by DAVIS are set forth as follows:

1. Intent - Her Modus Operandi - The Prior Poisoning.

16. In December 2024, DAVIS was a married woman with three children in the midst of a contentious child custody battle. Her ex-husband had moved out of their marital home because, unknown to COOPRIDER, DAVIS’s husband claimed that DAVIS had tried to poison him. Her husband made a police report for aggravated assault, alleging that she had poisoned him. DAVIS, of course had her own version of events:⁴

DAVIS:

(16:57) ... there somewhere on some sergeant's desk, there is a police report for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon, and I'm facing twenty years in prison? (17:09) If I never told you that, that is how fucked my situation is. (17:12) Fortunately, he tried to claim that I poisoned him and he went and filed a police report on me saying I drugged him.

(17:20) And then he stole pills from me, overdosed himself, drove to work, went to the hospital by ambulance from work, made sure a lot of people saw him before he did this. (17:31) He did it. (17:31) Right? (17:32) And then filed a police report saying that I poisoned him, and I could get charged I could like, literally, right now, someone could come to my door and Mirandize me, and I could get charged for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon.

17. DAVIS’S fantasy in this case -- that she was poisoned -- originated with poisoning within her own failed marriage.

2. DAVIS’s Poor Behavior Leads to a Failing Marriage

18. DAVIS’s neighbor reported seeing DAVIS drink around her kids, being “drunk” while “taking care of the kids,” talking “to strange men on the internet,” and being “late to pick up kids every day from school.” She observed DAVIS as “not a capable mother – can’t handle things.”

19. The neighbor reported DAVIS telling her that she had chlamydia, asked for pain medications and was taking ADHD medicines like Vyvanse

3. DAVIS’s & COOPRIDER’s Brief Sexual Relationship.

20. While DAVIS was still legally married to another man, DAVIS and COOPRIDER began a casual sexual relationship in December 2024, ending in early-March, 2025.

21. DAVIS became emotionally infatuated with COOPRIDER. When COOPRIDER did not agree to stay in a relationship with her, DAVIS began an escalating destructive, obsessive and compulsive, pattern of behavior which included: destruction of evidence, multiple faked miscarriages, demands for gifts and attention, blackmail, threats of court martial, and now, a false accusation of murder against COOPRIDER.

4. DAVIS’s False Claim Concerning a “First” Pregnancy

22. On or about February 3, 2025, DAVIS told COOPRIDER that she was pregnant, but this was false.

23. DAVIS was not pregnant on February 3, 2025.

24. DAVIS knew she was not pregnant on February 3, 2025, when she said she was.

25. There was never a positive pregnancy test prior to February 3, 2025; DAVIS made it all up.

26. The week before Valentine's Day, DAVIS asked her neighbor about the Plan B Morning-After drug, and her neighbor offered to help her get them, but DAVIS never followed through. Rather, DAVIS was instead suggesting to others that she was pregnant, when she was not.

27. COOPRIDER ordered abortion pills at DAVIS's request under the false impression that DAVIS was pregnant, when she was not.

28. Over time, and contrary to the statements made in her claim here, DAVIS considered aborting this baby herself.

29. DAVIS suggested to others that she wanted COOPRIDER to order the pills.

30. On February 10, 2025, knowing that she was not pregnant, and to cover up her lie, DAVIS ordered ovulation testing strips from Amazon so that she would know when she was at peak fertility and could dupe COOPRIDER into actually impregnating her.

31. Davis alleges that "[o]n February 18, 2025, COOPRIDER brought the abortion pills to DAVIS's house," see Doc. 1, p. 7, ¶ 21, and DAVIS photographed in February the tablet container for Mifepristone. see Doc. 1, p. 8, ¶22, Exhibits 9 and 10 thereto, and the bottle of misoprostol, see Doc. 1, p. 8, ¶23, Exhibits 11 and 12 thereto. On February 18, 2025, COOPRIDER left three abortion pills with DAVIS - one pill, Mifepristone was in a box in a blister package, and two Misoprostol pills were in a small Ziploc bag delivered to DAVIS, with the remainder later being discarded by COOPRIDER.

32. On February 20, 2025, DAVIS still had possession of these three pills and asked her neighbor to see if she could break into COOPRIDER'S car so DAVIS could throw these three pills in the car.

33. DAVIS maintained possession of the three pills.

34. Knowing that she was not pregnant, on February 21, 2025, DAVIS faked taking the first of the three pills, and on February 23, 2025, DAVIS faked taking the two other pills.

35. DAVIS demanded that COOPRIDER stay with her the nights of February 21 and 23, 2025 if there was any "medical emergency."

36. COOPRIDER stayed with Davis.

37. Because she was not pregnant, DAVIS pretended to be in excruciating pain and faked that she was cramping and experiencing an abortion.

38. No tissue was expelled the nights of February 21 and February 23, 2025.

39. No abortion happened because DAVIS was not pregnant, and she did not take the pills then.

40. DAVIS later concocted another ridiculous lie - that she might have been pregnant "twice":⁵

⁵ Exhibit 2 - Texts from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, March 22, 2025, Bates Stamp CR000065.

5. DAVIS's Efforts to End Her "Second"⁶ Pregnancy with COOPRIDER

41. On February 25, 2025, DAVIS got pregnant.

a. Her Declarations Concerning Wanting a Natural Abortion

42. Plaintiff said she wanted to expel her dead tissue by getting drunk and having rough sex to "help nature take its course" via a miscarriage.⁷ This is a screen shot of earlier text sent prior to February 24 2025 that was deleted by DAVIS, then re-sent on March 21, 2025, at 5:50:48 PM.⁸ DAVIS then berates COOPRIDER on March 21, 2025 5:51:25 PM: "First of all, I did not manipulate anyone, second of all, we just deleted those texts for the second time today. Not sure where you are getting them from, so you can go ahead and explain?"

43. This unprotected rough sex was to "ensure that the fake pregnancy was ended" occurred on February 24, 2025:⁹

⁷ Exhibit 3, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, dated February 24, 2025, Bates Stamp CR 000036 (referencing a "royal railing" or rough sex).

⁸ See Exhibit 4, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, dated April 4, 2025, Bates Stamp CR 000037, documenting the spoliation.

⁹ Exhibit 3, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, February 24, 2025, Bates Stamp CR 000036.

b. DAVIS's Erratic Behavior Towards COOPRIDER Becomes Stalking

44. By early-March, COOPRIDER became concerned about DAVIS's erratic behavior.

45. After announcing to COOPRIDER a "second" pregnancy, she began communicating to him her intention to follow him from his flight training in Corpus Christi to his next military post in North Carolina.

46. DAVIS spoke with her neighbor at the time concerning her intention to abandon her three children with her husband in Texas and to move to North Carolina with COOPRIDER.

47. DAVIS began calling and texting COOPRIDER constantly, confiding with her neighbor that she had called him fifty-three (53) times in a single day.

48. DAVIS's rage against COOPRIDER grew, and during the late night of March 5, 2025, DAVIS stood outside COOPRIDER'S doorstep loudly screaming at him, threatening that she would charge COOPRIDER with sexual assault if he didn't speak to her.¹⁰

49. COOPRIDER told her that he didn't want to speak with her and that she was not welcome on his property. DAVIS then called COOPRIDER over 40 times, and sent multiple texts.

50. When the calls and the texts did not cause DAVIS to get her way, DAVIS again faked that she was suffering a miscarriage and was sitting in the bathtub in a pool of blood.

c. COOPRIDER Calls The Corpus Christi Police Department ("CCPD")

51. Worried for DAVIS's mental and physical health now that she was yet again claiming that she was bleeding, COOPRIDER called 911 and asked the Corpus Christi Police Department ("CCPD") to conduct a wellness check on DAVIS.

52. COOPRIDER recorded his conversation with the CCCPD on March 5, 2025.¹¹ Speaker 2 is COOPRIDER. The other speakers are law enforcement officers with the CCPD:

Audio #11

Speaker 1
(0:08) Hi, sir. (0:08) Are you Chris?

Speaker 2
(0:09) Yes, sir.

Speaker 2
(0:14) So my neighbor, she lives right over there.

Speaker 1

¹⁰ See Exhibit 5 - Video of DAVIS March 5, 2025 uploaded, and Transcript of that Video.

¹¹ Exhibit 15 - Audio Recording, March 25, 2025, Bates Stamp CR 000847-859).

(0:18) The next steps?

Speaker 2

(0:19) Yeah. (0:20) Okay. (0:20) She's been harassing me....

Speaker 2

(0:27) But tonight was an escalation, and I told her I didn't wanna talk with her and pretty much just told her I just couldn't ignore her and not talk to her. (0:40) Okay. (0:40) And it really upset her. (0:43) And she started throwing out all kinds of threats. (0:46) And I've got a video of her.

Speaker 2

(0:48) I can show you guys of her. (0:49) She's like, I'm gonna come over there, and I'm not gonna leave until we resolve this. (0:54) And I've got a video. (0:55) I've walked both my front and back doors, and she comes up to the door and just on the door calling me and like, for six, six and a half minutes.

Speaker 1

(1:06) What was she wanting to talk to you about?

Speaker 2

(1:09) She just wants to talk. (1:10) So right now, what's going on with us is so we made a mistake and accidentally got pregnant. (1:19) And she took abortion pills and is, like, on the fence. (1:26) And she took them, but didn't have it didn't actually fully come out. (1:31) But it's still maybe inside of her, but dead, but doesn't know for sure.

Speaker 2

(1:50) So that's going on, and she's going through a divorce right now with her husband. (1:55) Mhmm. (1:56) And she has three kids right now, so she's going through a lot. (2:01) And, yeah, she's kind of a messy, stressful situation to begin with. (2:05) And she wanted me to talk with her, but she was saying a bunch of, like, threatening stuff.

Speaker 2

(2:13) And the main reason I wanted to talk with you guys tonight

Speaker 1

(2:17) Mhmm.

Speaker 2

(2:17) Was because she was implying that she's going to call the CCPD, and she implied that she's going to tell them that I, like, raped or did something sexually abusive to her. (2:31) Mhmm. (2:31) And that is absolutely not the case.

Speaker 1

(2:33) Yeah.

Speaker 2

(2:34) And I just wanna do everything I can right now to protect myself from her lying and doing stuff like that.

Speaker 2

(3:16) If this helps at all. (3:17) So her name is Liana Davis. (3:19) Mhmm. (3:20) So this is just tonight. (3:22) So it started at 06:12, and there's, what, one.

Speaker 2

(3:29) That's twenty. (3:31) That's another 10, so that's 31. (3:34) That's, like, it's, like, more than 40 calls from her within just a couple hours. (3:40) And I told her, I don't wanna talk, so I just ignored all the calls. (3:46) And she's it pissed her off, and she's insistent on it.

Speaker 2

(3:50) She's insisting. (3:51) And then, yeah, it's the 911 calls, but that, and then I can show you the quick video. (3:57) I don't know if you guys care.

Speaker 1

(3:59) No. (3:59) No. (3:59) You can show us that. (4:00) Was she threatening to how; was she threatening you? (4:02) To physically harm you?

Speaker 2

(4:03) No. (4:04) Not physically. (4:05) She's threatening to...

Speaker 1

(4:07) Make those allegations?

Speaker 2

(4:08) To that. (4:09) Uh-huh. (4:09) And she's also threatening she's saying that I coerced her into taking the abortion pills against her will, and that's illegal in Texas, which I don't think it is. (4:22) Like, you she's an adult. (4:25) She's older than I am.

Speaker 2

(8:30) I mean, for me, I literally just want as little to do with her as possible. (8:35) I mean, maybe I, in the future, will get, like, a restraining order or I don't know. (8:41) Was it a gag order to, like, not call me or text me?

Speaker 3

(8:45) Restraining order.

Speaker 1

(8:46) Yeah. (8:46) The restraining orders are the ones. (8:48) But you would also have to apply for that on your own. (8:50) We can only pretty much enforce I mean, we can enforce restraining orders, but it's pretty much just to report it at that time.

Speaker 2

(8:59) Yeah. (8:59) I'm not looking to do anything. (9:00) I just wanna protect myself, and I just wanna make a note of this. (9:05) And, like, I mean, if I'm not trying to, like, add more shit to the shit policy's already got going on. (9:13) So I just I mean, anytime a woman makes, like even she didn't come out and just say, like, I'm gonna call and tell them that you raped me.

Speaker 2

(9:22) She was implying it, and that's something very serious. (9:27) And Yeah. (9:29) I've never called 911 or the cops before, but that's something that I just wanna protect myself.

Speaker 3

(9:35) So what so my recommendation is like, how you didn't answer the door? (9:41) Don't. (9:42) So everything you've done is right. (9:45) You're recording her coming over here, ringing the doorbell, which doesn't make sense that you're harassing her to come over. (9:51) Anyway, that's beside the point.

Speaker 3

(9:54) So if she comes over and starts ringing the doorbell, record it. (10:00) If you're getting, like, a bunch of phone calls like she had been

Speaker 2

(10:03) She's calling me right now.

Speaker 3

(10:05) I would either block it or I don't know if you have a way to, like, put her specifically on silence.

Speaker 2

(10:13) So there's now there's an ex, I don't know how to say, extraneous circumstance right now. (10:24) So now she's saying, and she's been saying this for, like, the last thirty minutes that she's so because of the nature of the abortion, it was a missed abortion, meaning that the stuff is dead inside of her, but it didn't come out Mhmm. (10:45) When, like, it was supposed to. (10:47) And so for, like, the last two weeks, she's been waiting for it to just kinda pass naturally. (10:54) And she's texting me now saying that all this stress has caused her to actually, like, do that.

Speaker 2

(11:02) So now she's telling me that she needs my help, and I need to come over to her house right now because she's actually, like, in a pile of her blood in the bathtub, and she's, like, expelling the aborted baby right now. (11:18) And now I'm texting her. (11:20) I'm like, look. (11:20) Like, you you're threatening legal allegations. (11:22) Like, I need an invite.

Speaker 2

(11:31) If she actually is, like, aborting this fetus right now and she's in a tub with, like, blood, it's safe. (11:40) Everything, like, the pills and stuff, everything I've said like, seen online is says that it's safe, but there is always a chance of complications.

Speaker 2

(13:36) I'm not looking to press charges or do anything to her

Speaker 1

(14:00) Alright? (14:01) So I'm gonna give you this as the event number. (14:02) Everything you're telling me, I'm gonna put it down in the comments for the call. (14:05) Okay? (14:05) Okay.

Speaker 1

(14:05) And this is gonna be my information. (14:07) I'm officer Orsak. (14:08) My ID number is 18936.

Speaker 2

(14:25) Sounds good. (14:26) Thank you, guys.

Speaker 3

(14:26) Yes, sir.

53. Law enforcement checked on DAVIS and she was not sitting in blood. She said that she was fine.

54. This was the second time that DAVIS faked that she was having a miscarriage, bleeding and having a medical emergency.

55. To determine if she was “still” pregnant after pretending to be miscarrying and gushing blood, DAVIS scheduled an ultrasound on March 21, 2025.

56. The ultrasound conducted on March 21, 2025 concluded that the date of conception was approximately February 25, 2025.

57. DAVIS insisted that she was 10-11 weeks pregnant, but the physician told her she was wrong.

d. COOPRIDER Tries to Slow Down the Sexual Relationship

58. DAVIS's behavior became more and more erratic and unsafe to COOPRIDER.

59. DAVIS informed COOPRIDER that she probably had a dead baby inside of her that had not yet "dislodged."

60. She insisted that having sex with him would be an effective method to "shake things" loose. DAVIS stated that having sex is the method used by "EVERY other female" she knows to induce a miscarriage. DAVIS told COOPRIDER that she has been doing this for 20 years. She told Cooprider that he should have sex with her to help her expel the dead baby. Specifically, she wanted to have unprotected sex because she claimed that his sperm contained prostaglandin, a chemical that would help initiate a miscarriage that she wanted to have.¹²

¹² See, Exhibit 6, Screen Shots of texts from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, sent on February 24, 2025, and re-sent on March 21, 2025, Bates Stamp CR 000034 and 35 reproduced here.

61. DAVIS continued sending unwanted sexual messages to COOPRIDER expressing her desire to have boudoir photos taken, complaining about how long she had gone without sex with him and wanting more sex.

62. For example, on March 22, 2025, DAVIS reminded COOPRIDER to call her “a loaf” for the reason that “all I want is to be bred.”¹³:

¹³ Exhibit 7, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, March 22, 2025, Bates Stamp CR000058.

63. As to this unintended pregnancy, she constantly wrote “if I want”¹⁴ or “if the pregnancy continues in her messages.”¹⁵

¹⁴ Exhibit 8, DAVIS texts with “Nick,” March 22, 2025, Bates Stamp CR 000249 and 250.

¹⁵ Exhibit 9, Bates Stamp CR000194 March 25, 2025 (“I’m talking about IF the pregnancy progresses”).

64. Also on March 25, 2025, DAVIS continues to pursue COOPRIDER with promises of boudoir photos:¹⁶

¹⁶ Exhibit 10 Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, March 25, 2025, Bates Stamp CR000192 (“I’m considering hurrying up and getting that boudoir photo shoot done as a bday gift to myself..”).

65. Again, on March 25, 2025, DAVIS sent COOPRIDER a seductive photo of a woman on a bed, demonstrating that she could “lay on belly and slide leg up”¹⁷:

¹⁷ Exhibit 11 Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, March 25, 2025, Bates Stamp CR 000199.

67. Next, on March 25, 2024, DAVIS texted COOPRIDER a seductive photo of another woman lying on a bed, with her crossed legs and high heels barely covering her buttocks, with the message, “another forgiving pose that doesn’t show stomach, etc.”¹⁹:

68. Finally, DAVIS lamented to COOPRIDER that they had refrained from sex for as long as they ever had²⁰:

¹⁹ Exhibit 13, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, March 25, 2025, Bates Stamp CR000201.

²⁰ Exhibit 14, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, March 25, 2025, Bates Stamp CR 000203, (“We are about to surpass the longest time we’ve gone without banging since we started banging.”).

69. Then, on March 26, 2025, DAVIS communicated to COOPRIDER that she had chosen abortion previously. DAVIS had gotten pregnant when she was in grad school with a guy named Nick J. She had no problem aborting that unintended pregnancy²¹:

²¹ Exhibit 16 – Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, forwarding DAVIS texts with “Nick,” March 26, 2025, 12:21:28 PM, Bates Stamp CR 000249 and 250.

70. A week later, on March 31, 2025, DAVIS told COOPRIDER “goodbye” in her own oblique way, pictographically suggesting sex just one more time²²:

	Mar 31, 2025 8:43:51		And here I thought there was a 1% chance we might be turning a corner and could actually enjoy each other again.  Like how it all started.

e. DAVIS invites COOPRIDER to her Home for “A Night of Trust”

71. On April 5, 2025, DAVIS invited COOPRIDER to her home for “a night of trust.”²³

72. DAVIS insisted that the night had to be a “no phone or gadget zone” so that trust could be re-established²⁴:

Bate Stamp	Speaker	Date and Time	Communication
708	DAVIS	Apr 4, 2025 10:12:59 PM	Why is a buildup required
708	COOPRIDER	Apr 4, 2025 10:15:22 PM	As in maybe after a couple of relaxing nights. Trust building nights, then maybe
708	COOPRIDER	Apr 4, 2025 10:16:25 PM	I'm telling you right now; I don't want sex tomorrow, no sex, I'm uncomfortable with that right now. Got it

73. DAVIS frisked COOPRIDER when he came into her house.

74. DAVIS and COOPRIDER placed their two phones on the dining room table, and turned them off. But, DAVIS had secretly set up a recording device near her purse in the living room to record the evening. This is consistent with DAVIS’s prior surreptitious actions of deleting

²³ The “trust” was for Davis to prove SHE could be trusted AFTER she had threatened Christopher with false rape charges on March 5, had on March 10 sent to her neighbor “Trophy Pics” of COOPRIDER after sex with him, and on March 29 had used the “box of pills” still in her possession to threaten problems with the “judge advocates.”

material from COOPRIDER's phone, and in preparation for initiating a criminal complaint that will be described later, DAVIS also then secretly photographed COOPRIDER's driver's license and social security card.

75. DAVIS and COOPRIDER prepared hot chocolate in the kitchen together.

76. With her children sleeping upstairs, DAVIS put alcohol in her drink, again in violation of the family court Orders.

77. COOPRIDER did not put alcohol in his drink as DAVIS had because he was scheduled for his final flight test to pass the Marine Pilot Training. COOPRIDER could not have any alcohol withing 12 hours of a training event.

78. COOPRIDER followed DAVIS from the kitchen to her living room.

79. DAVIS's secret recording device²⁵ had been placed by DAVIS to supposedly record the sound of a spoon mixing the "remaining ten pills" of an original twelve-pill package, but

- (a) those pills had long been discarded weeks earlier;
- (b) water solubility data exhibits poor solubility, and its clinical form (Form M) is even worse, demonstrating that ten fictional pills of mifepristone could not possibly have dissolved into an unnoticeable residue in just seconds; noticeably large clumps of undissolved particle would have remained;
- (c) those noticeably large clumps of the fictional mifepristone would have been immediately detected by DAVIS's sense of taste as well, with an unmistakably bitter taste having alerted her.

²⁵ Exhibit 19 – Audio Recording dated April 5, 2025, sent by DAVIS to COOPRIDER, Bates Stamp CR000004.

80. COOPRIDER did not drug DAVIS's drink.

81. DAVIS was getting ready in the bathroom, and stuck her finger in her vagina.

82. DAVIS was not gushing blood or hemorrhaging.

83. DAVIS later called this "gushing blood," but no gushing blood was visible. Of course, mifepristone does not result in vaginal bleeding in mere second or minutes, as alleged by DAVIS. Instead, the mean lapsed time between ingestion and vaginal bleed is between one and four hours.

84. COOPRIDER later went home to get sleep before he had to take a military flight early in the morning.

85. DAVIS had kept the pills from February for another purpose. DAVIS maintained the three pills, and these are likely the three pills she gave to the Corpus Christi Police Department on April 5, 2025.

86. After the "night of trust" ended, DAVIS's neighbor drove her to the hospital. During the drive, she wasn't crying.

87. When they arrived at Bay Area Medical Center, DAVIS immediately began crying performatively.

88. According to the neighbor who drove her, DAVIS immediately announced to Bay Area Medical Staff, "he drugged me." She told everyone in the emergency room ("ER"), including the registrar.

89. As soon as the hospital staff left the room, she stopped crying.

90. The ultrasound conducted earlier on March 21, 2025 concluded that the date of conception was approximately February 25, 2025, which could cause those present to wonder,

“why do you have abortion pills that arrived on February 18, 2025, when you didn’t get pregnant until after that?”

91. When police officers arrived at the ER, they asked who had drugged her, and DAVIS responded, “I have a picture of his license, ss card.”

92. When the officer asked if she wanted “to press charges,” she energetically “lit up” answering in the affirmative.

93. Before the neighbor and DAVIS left the hospital, DAVIS asked her neighbor, “do you think with these charges, Chris will have to stay?”

94. DAVIS was taken to the ER and back home from it by her neighbor.

95. The neighbor then told COOPRIDER not to go to DAVIS’s house again, because “she will accuse you of something.”

f. After DAVIS Presses Charges, the CCPD Investigates and Declines to Pursue Her Allegations against COOPRIDER

96. After DAVIS pressed charges against COOPRIDER at the hospital, the CCPD began its investigation.

97. Officer Michael Manzano interviewed DAVIS’s neighbors and others, reviewed the evidence available, and declined to act on her allegations.

98. Eventually, DAVIS’s children were removed from her care as well.

99. At the ER, DAVIS had already been sending her “evidence” to LCDR Knott and the Corpus Christi Police Department.

100. DAVIS sent a 29 second audio tape recording that she claimed was the evidence that she had been drugged.²⁶

²⁶ Exhibit 19, 29-second audio tape recorded by DAVIS on April 5, 2025.

101. DAVIS began making poisoning allegations – just like her ex-husband did when he accused her of poisoning him²⁷:

102. There also is a video DAVIS coming to her neighbor's door later on April 5, 2025,²⁸ appearing healthy and then after the doorbell rang, pretending to be writhing in pain. And because the neighbor no longer trusted her, there is an audio of that neighbor driving DAVIS to the ER.

²⁸ Exhibit 21 – Video of DAVIS approaching Neighbor’s Door on two occasions. April 5, 2025 (CR000794).

103. DAVIS did not tell COOPRIDER about the status of the pregnancy. Here are excerpts of the text exchanges DAVIS sent after April 5, 2025 to COOPRIDER on April 6-7²⁹:

752	COOPRIDER	Apr 6, 2025 8:47:34 AM	You took photo of my SSN and driver's license and shared that with the cop
752	COOPRIDER	Apr 6, 2025 8:48:14 AM	How did you get access to my SSN? It's buried inside of my wallet Chris, why did you abandon me in the middle of a medical emergency? You left me waiting on you when you had no intention of returning and it delayed me getting care. You intentionally stopped responding.
752	DAVIS	Apr 6, 2025 8:58:24 AM	I told you I needed to get ready for my flight. Told you that
753	COOPRIDER	Apr 6, 2025 8:59:38 AM	Why are you not acknowledging my questions No, the plan was for you to go get my mother and bring her back to my house, then for you to take me to the ER. You agreed to that and understood the urgency. Instead, you pretended to go get my mother, and then stopped responding to calls and texts while I was bleeding at my house. I had to walk bent over at a 90° angle and bang on Jackie's door for her to help me.
753	DAVIS	Apr 6, 2025 9:02:54 AM	I told you that twice Why are you not acknowledging mine? I am in shock and disbelief that you intentionally abandoned me in the middle of a real medical emergency. It's like you did not want me to make it to the hospital. You left an elderly woman outside in the cold waiting on you for 40 minutes in the middle of the night. This is the same older lady who you were so intent on helping while I was away at my conference earlier this week.
753	COOPRIDER	Apr 6, 2025 9:04:56 AM	I told you that twice Why are you not acknowledging mine? You left an elderly woman outside in the cold waiting on you for 40 minutes in the middle of the night. ²⁹ Exhibit 22 – Excerpts of Text Messages from DAVIS to COOPRIDER from nights of April 6-7, 2025 (CR000752-789).

754 COOPRIDER Apr 6, 2025 9:06:39 AM Why did you go through my wallet? And when did you do that? And take photos!!

754 COOPRIDER Apr 6, 2025 9:06:52 AM And you did record everything last night....

754 COOPRIDER Apr 6, 2025 9:12:33 AM I just wanted to have a relaxing night... and you end up freaking out and pressing charges on me??!!

769 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 9:04:37 AM I never slipped anything into your drinks

769 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 9:04:54 AM Now your current plan: "if he has criminal charges, he'll have to stay and won't be able to move to NC right?"

770 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 9:05:39 AM I don't have a plan other than taking care of my health and getting justice for what was done to me and our baby.

771 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 9:43:30 AM My Marine friend with 17 years' experience says what you did is premeditated murder and a felony under the UCMJ.

771 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 9:48:10 AM I never put anything in your drinks Liana

771 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 9:49:44 AM And I would never do something like what you are accusing me of 771 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 10:08:44 AM Much of everything you've ever told me is a lie. This is me briefly stepping out the back door to call the dog inside, and while I'm doing that you can hear YOU quickly stirring my drink a few times with a spoon and then closing what sounds like a cap to a container. It had to have been my drink because you can hear how close you are to my purse (where the phone was inside recording). I think you actually brush/bump against it.

772 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 10:08:47 AM Audio Tape of spoon

772 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 10:09:56 AM You know what doesn't lie? Spoons. 🍴 This audio has already been COOPRIDER to LCDR Knott, along with the pictures of the abortion pills you ordered (CCPD's CID has some of them in evidence including the box of mifepristone with your name on it + 2 misoprostol that you left behind at my house after drugging me), the case # for the open police investigation, and more.

773 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 10:13:17 AM You've lied and manipulated me every step of this. Not sure why you are so obsessed with me..

773 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 10:13:18 AM So, you don't deny that you left behind abortion pills at my house that you had used to drug me.

774 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 10:13:29 AM This lying on your part needs to stop

775 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 10:16:06 AM You shouldn't touch those pills that you still have. It would be tampering with evidence.

775 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 10:16:12 AM Destroying evidence

775 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 10:16:34 AM Left pills at your house???

775 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 10:17:08 AM You mean the pills you didn't take in February? You held onto them

775 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 10:17:55 AM Everything good with the ultrasound? 👍
I have never knowingly taken any abortion pills. You know this. You have relentlessly tried pestering, taunting, harassing, and bullying me into taking them, and when that didn't work, you put an unknown amount of the misoprostol into my drink on Saturday, causing me to have to go to the ER.

776 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 10:22:25 AM

776 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 10:23:14 AM Ahh now I get how you're spinning things

		Apr 7, 2025
776	COOPRIDER	10:23:38 AM	You took abortion pills right in front of me You abandoning my mother and me and intentionally delaying my medical care is inexcusable. Right now,
776	DAVIS	Apr 7, 2025 10:23:48 AM	the only thing I need to know from you is how much misoprostol you put in my drink so I can tell my doctor.
777	COOPRIDER	Apr 7, 2025 10:23:51 AM	After you agreed to taking them
777	COOPRIDER	Apr 7, 2025 10:24:08 AM	ZERO
777	COOPRIDER	Apr 7, 2025 10:24:22 AM	I gave you chocolate milk
777	COOPRIDER	Apr 7, 2025 10:24:40 AM	You were the only person with abortion pills in the house
777	COOPRIDER	Apr 7, 2025 10:24:58 AM	Hot cocoa* not chocolate milk I never agreed, and I never took them. You have brought them in and out of my house various times
777	DAVIS	Apr 7, 2025 10:30:09 AM	trying to get me to take them ever since you ordered them. They are in evidence with CCPD.
778	DAVIS	Apr 7, 2025 10:32:14 AM	I missed work today because of what you've done. I should be teaching class right now. I might have to miss more work depending on what my doctor says.
778	COOPRIDER	Apr 7, 2025 10:35:06 AM	Ahh so you did lie to me this whole time... And you knowingly were not pregnant. Yet convinced me that you were AND said it's impossible to get more
778	COOPRIDER	Apr 7, 2025 10:35:47 AM	pregnant. Therefore, you planned to trap me this whole time I never consented to abortion pills, I was never knowingly not pregnant, and I never trapped you. We
778	DAVIS	Apr 7, 2025 10:36:21 AM	cannot discuss this right now bc I'm in the middle of an ongoing medical emergency.

Apr 7, 2025
10:36:21 AM Imagine telling that story to this LO...

779 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025
10:36:32 AM How many pills did you give me, Chris? Was it all 10?

779 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025
10:36:37 AM You consented multiple times

779 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025
10:36:50 AM They already took my weight and blood pressure and I'm gonna get called back soon.

779 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025
10:36:59 AM How many was it? You could have killed me.

780 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025
10:37:24 AM There were 10 missing from the bottle. You only left behind 2.

780 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025
10:37:28 AM Hey Mom, how was I born?? Well junior, I lied and manipulate and cheated some guy into impregnating me...

780 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025
10:37:39 AM Questioned "How many was it? You could have killed me."

780 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025
10:37:49 AM wtf are you talking about
Questioned "I never consented to abortion pills, I was never knowingly not pregnant, and I never trapped you. We cannot discuss this right now because I'm in the middle of an ongoing medical emergency."

780 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025
10:37:59 AM Emphasized "I never consented to abortion pills, I was never knowingly not pregnant, and I never trapped you. We cannot discuss this right now because I'm in the middle of an ongoing medical emergency."

780 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025
10:38:02 AM Emphasized "I never consented to abortion pills, I was never knowingly not pregnant, and I never trapped you. We cannot discuss this right now because I'm in the middle of an ongoing medical emergency."

780 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025
10:39:41 AM I handed over one (what appeared to be) one Mifepristone and 2 Misoprostol to the police.

780 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 10:40:23 AM The nurse in the ER said that the pill that appeared to be a Mifepristone might be a Xanax. Did you give me Xanax? Did you plan to knock me out while I unknowingly and unwillingly aborted our baby??

781 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 10:41:40 AM Omg you have spun the most evil story.. omg...

781 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 10:42:29 AM I don't have a prescription for Xanax. If it was Xanax, where the heck did you get this? Was it while on your trip to Mexico? Did you have your gf get it?

781 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 10:43:15 AM And how many Xanax did you give me? I NEED to know NOW before they call me back so that I can tell my doctor and make sure I am safe. That is all.

782 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 10:43:28 AM Liana, you are knowingly lying about multiple things here...

784 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 11:12:01 AM I did not mix anything

786 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 11:24:49 AM I did not mix anything into your drinks

787 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 11:32:55 AM You have a lot to answer for. I am going to talk to the neighbors whose houses your truck was closest to and ask for their camera footage of you idling instead of going to get my mother so I could get medical care. Your actions are inexcusable.
Do you see where this is going? You planned to murder our baby, and you didn't care what happened to me in the process. It seems that you were surprised by how quickly the pills you drugged me with kicked in (hence why you almost fell asleep) and you didn't want me to get treatment too quickly because you wanted the pills to work. So, then you tried to run out the clock and left me in pain and suffering longer than necessary. I should have gotten to the ER by ~12:35 if you had done what you said you would do (picked up my mom, brought her here, and taken me). I didn't get to the ER until after 1am. All of these things are logged or timestamped.

788 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 11:37:56 AM

789 DAVIS Apr 7, 2025 11:39:03 AM You will be held accountable. 100%. Saturday night was pure evil.

789 COOPRIDER Apr 7, 2025 11:47:56 AM Murder? Are you saying the pregnancy is no longer viable?

104. Defendant COOPRIDER alleges that DAVIS's poisoning story is false, and is a fraud.

D. SPOILIATION

105. Defendant COOPRIDER pleads as an affirmative defense of spoliation. DAVIS has intentionally destroyed evidence key to COOPRIDER's defenses herein. Specifically, COOPRIDER pleads that (1) while DAVIS had control over such evidence, she destroyed it at a time when she had a duty to preserve it; (2) she intentionally destroyed the evidence; (3) the evidence she destroyed was relevant to her claim and to COOPRIDER's defenses thereto.

106. On February 3, 2025, the same day that DAVIS lied to COOPRIDER about being pregnant, DAVIS told COOPRIDER that she had been served with written discovery from her ex-husband asking for evidence.

107. DAVIS received written discovery from her ex-husband that she had to answer under penalty of perjury.

108. DAVIS was under Court Orders not to drink around her children. DAVIS ignored these Court Orders and got inebriated repeatedly with alcohol when she and COOPRIDER had sex.

109. On February 3, 2025, DAVIS decided to destroy evidence of her alcohol abuse, the incriminating photos she sent to COOPRIDER, and the casual sexual relationship she was having with COOPRIDER.

110. DAVIS wanted to make sure the compromising evidence had been destroyed. She took COOPRIDER'S TELEPHONE and deleted evidence of their sexual relationship³⁰:

DAVIS:

(9:41) Like, our little situation, I need you to pretend for the time being that's not even happening at all. (9:48) Like, try to go there and answer everything I'm about to ask you, please, without that being in the picture. (9:55) Is that, like, is that possible? (9:58) Can you, like, conceivably do that?

(10:02) Okay. (10:03) Alright. (10:05) Would you be willing where's your phone?

(10:10) I'm not being nosy showing your phone. (10:12) I wanna make sure you're not recording. (10:13) I'm used to someone following me around recording Like, I'm jade I'm not joking. (10:16) He would follow me around. (10:17) You don't know the shit that's gone down in this house.

(10:19) He'd follow me around like this when I'm, like, crying and begging him to stop, like, recording me. (10:23) Like, it's a one-party state. (10:25) It's a one-party consent state. (10:26) Like, you don't know what I've been through. (10:28) I'm on high alert. (10:31) No. (10:32) Okay. (10:33) Where's your, like...

COOPRIDER:

(10:34) There's all my apps. (10:36) Nothing is on. (10:37) Here's everything I have.

DAVIS:

(10:39) Okay. (10:41) So we only have to do this once. (10:42) Go to your like, I itemized it. (10:44) Go to your text, please. (10:46) I don't wanna sound commanding. (10:51) Okay. (10:52) Where am I? (10:54) Delete me. (10:55) Delete it. (10:55) Delete the whole thing, the whole thread. (10:58) Swipe. (11:01) I don't exist. (11:02) Delete it. (11:03) Delete the whole thing.

(12:13) The pictures I took of myself, go to your photos. (12:16) I wanna see I don't care if you have dick pics in there. (12:18) I'm not here to judge. (12:18) I wanna see from January 9 to January 24. (12:20) I wanna make sure they're not in there.

(16:14) Okay. (16:16) The next one is one sec. (16:20) Let me show you what I was looking for. (16:21) Tell me if any of these ring a bell. (16:23) This this is what I need, wiped off this planet.

(21:40) Less is better. (21:41) Sorry to wipe it clean like that if there was anything you had wanted to save. (21:46) I assume nothing is sentimental. (21:48) Okay. (21:48) Check.

111. Not only did DAVIS physically destroy her compromising photos and texts, but she also bullied COOPRIDER and demanded that he lie for her to cover up her sexual affairs and, more importantly, evidence of her chronic alcohol abuse in violation Court Orders in her divorce case:

(44:57) And I was like, Chris, I just got served with Discovery. (45:04) Like, they could find out about you. (45:06) They could find out what we've done. (45:07) You know, I'm technically still married. (45:10) In that situation, ignore everything that has happened the past few days.

(45:14) Would you be willing to lie under oath? (45:16) You're a good liar. (45:17) That's actually gonna serve us really well. (45:20) But do you think you could do that or no? (45:22) It's fine.

(52:38) And you do know that is a huge ask to ask somebody to purposely lie on your oath.

(52:43) I know. (52:44) That's why I asked you if you'd be willing.

112. DAVIS bragged to COOPRIDER that she had violated Court Orders and had gotten away with it:

(49:27) Does that make sense? (49:30) Like, the fact that I actually broke two standing orders, by the way, which I don't care. (49:35) But I'm not allowed to drink within twelve hours of being in possession of the children, which is stupid for me.

113. In addition to seeking the destruction of information in COOPRIDER's possession, DAVIS also asked her other neighbor to delete digital evidence on "numerous occasions." She asked the neighbor to delete videos, photos and recordings, instructing her “how to delete” this evidence, and telling her “I can help you delete.”

114. Following DAVIS’s tirade at COOPRIDER’s front door on March 5, 2025, DAVIS was furious that COOPRIDER had later called the police and demanded to know what he had told law enforcement.

115. DAVIS claimed that she had audio recorded DAVIS and COOPRIDER having sex, and she threatened to post the audio on Facebook, unless COOPRIDER withdrew his complaint against DAVIS³¹:

116. The ultrasound conducted on March 21, 2025 concluded that the date of conception was February 25, 2025.

117. DAVIS insisted that she was 10-11 weeks pregnant, but the physician told her she was wrong.

118. While waiting for the ultrasound appointment, DAVIS took COOPRIDER’s phone again and destroyed incriminating photographs and texts.

³¹ Exhibit 25 – Screenshot of DAVIS telling her neighbor she had recorded their sex. Bates Stamp CR000795.

119. Specifically, DAVIS deleted all of the texts she sent COOPRIDER where she lied that she was sitting in the bathtub in a pool of blood and having a medical emergency.

E. CONTRIBUTORY NEGLIGENCE

120. Defendant COOPRIDER pleads the affirmative defense of contributory negligence.

121. Defendant COOPRIDER pleads that Plaintiff DAVIS's actions during her pregnancy constituted negligence, and that such negligence was a proximate cause of the death of her unborn baby, and the damages claimed herein.

122. Initially, while in no way negligent in and of itself, the fact is that DAVIS was considered 37 years old at the time of her pregnancy, classified as a "geriatric pregnancy," for which her age alone put her at a higher risk of miscarriage.

123. Additionally, there is indication that DAVIS had been diagnosed with chlamydia, a sexually transmitted disease ("STD") spread through unprotected vaginal, oral and anal sex. Published data reveals a doubling of the risk of miscarriage amongst women generally, though results conflict.

124. While evidently confusing chlamydia (which she had), with gonorrhea or "the clap" (which she did not have), DAVIS nonetheless sarcastically named her unborn baby "Clappy."³²

³² Exhibit 26, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, March 26, 2025, Bates Stamp CR000327.

125. Nonetheless, when a pregnant woman is in a geriatric age bracket and has a chlamydia infection, she is exposed to two independent risk factors for miscarriage. The combined effect of these factors is likely higher than either risk alone.

126. Given the increased risk of miscarriage caused by her age, and her STD, her own volitional conduct during her pregnancy - in at least the eight (8) ways discussed below - constituted negligence, which negligence was a proximate cause of her miscarriage, and the damages she claims therefrom.

127. Specifically, Defendant COOPRIDER alleges that Plaintiff DAVIS negligently:

- (a) Drank Alcohol Heavily While Pregnant;
- (b) Failed to Take Progesterone, as Prescribed;
- (c) Failure to Appropriately Treat her Sexually Transmitted Disease (“STD”) and Other Pathogens in her Body, Which Led to Prolonged Fever During Her Pregnancy;
- (d) Took Medications Contraindicated During Pregnancy;
- (e) Consumed Large Quantities of Red Bull and other Caffeinated Substances;
- (f) Engaged in High-Impact Activities;
- (g) When Heavy Cramping Indicated a Miscarriage Had Begun on April 4, 2025, Refusing to Go to the ER, and Instead Exposed Herself to the Outdoor Heat and Humidity for Four Hours; and
- (h) Generally, Took Repeated Actions to try to Induce a Spontaneous Abortion of her Unborn Child.

Individually, and collectively, these eight (8) acts of negligence were a proximate cause of the loss of her unborn child, and the of the damages she now claims.

1. DAVIS Drank Heavily While Pregnant

128. As stated before, DAVIS was under Court orders not to drink around her children. DAVIS ignored these Court orders and got repeatedly inebriated with alcohol before she and COOPRIDER had sex.

129. In addition to DAVIS’s neighbor reportedly seeing DAVIS drink around her kids and being “drunk” while “taking care of the kids,” (infra., para. 18), DAVIS unfortunately chose to continue her heavy drinking while pregnant.

130. She texted COOPRIDER about wanting to “booze” before we get busy.³³

³³ Exhibit 3. Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, February 24, 2025, Bates Stamp No. CR 000036.

131. On April 5, 2025, with her children sleeping upstairs, DAVIS put alcohol in her drink, again in violation of the family court Orders.

132. Public health guidance is unequivocal that there exists “NO KNOWN SAFE AMOUNT OF ALCOHOL DURING PREGNANCY: ABSTINENCE RECOMMENDED.” Instead, DAVIS engaged in heavy alcohol consumption, behavior that persisted for months prior to April 5, 2025. Studies show that each week of alcohol use in gestational weeks 5-10 increases the prevalence of miscarriage by approximately 8%. If she miscarried around the first week of April of 2025, DAVIS’s miscarriage occurred at gestational week 8. It is reasonable to expect that her alcohol ingestion alone increased DAVIS’s risks of miscarriage by greater than fifty percent.

133. DAVIS’s choice to consume alcohol during her pregnancy, given her other risk factors already present, constituted negligence, which negligence was a proximate cause of the death of her unborn baby.

2. Failing to Take Progesterone, as Prescribed

134. On March 21, 2025, DAVIS received distressing news from her ultrasound.

- (a) The unborn child was five weeks, three days old, revealing a conception date of February 25, 2025.
- (b) The baby’s embryonic heart rate (EHR) was only 98 bpm, and classic first-trimester data indicate the lower limit of normal EHR is ~100 bpm up to 6.2 weeks, and 120 bpm at 6.3–7.0 weeks. Thus, 98 bpm at ~5.3 weeks is borderline low.
- (c) Observed outcomes when the EHR is below 100 bpm up to 6.1 weeks show a survival rate of only 56% through the first trimester. As of March 21, 2025, DAVIS had only a 55–60% chance of an expected ongoing viable pregnancy by the end of her first trimester.

(d) To help the baby survive, her doctor prescribed progesterone.

135. DAVIS was proscribed progesterone because the fetal heartrate was low. The embryonic heartrate at the time of the ultrasound was measured at only 98. Normal heartrate for an embryo at this age should be 160. Progesterone supplementation is intended to improve embryonic viability in women with threatened miscarriage, as in this case.

136. DAVIS picked up her prescription for progesterone on March 21, 2025 after the ultrasound. She began taking the supplements and had blood testing performed on March 24, 2025 and March 26, 2025. The initial progesterone test indicated DAVIS’s levels at 14.7 ng/ml. The test on March 24, 2025 indicated a level of 13.9 ng/ml, and the test on March 26, 2025 indicated a level of 31.9 ng/ml. While supplementation of progesterone appeared to be having the desired effect, Davis mysteriously chose to discontinue the supplements on March 28, 2025.

137. The National Institutes of Health (“NIH”) has published numerous meta-analyses showing the consequence of a pregnant woman’s decision to discontinue progesterone in these circumstances.

138. Just last year, the NIH published an article, Bataa, M., et al, “Exploring Progesterone Deficiency in First-Trimester Miscarriage and the Impact of Hormone Therapy on Foetal Development: A Scoping Review,” CHILDREN (BASEL). 2024 Apr 2; 11(4):422. <https://pmc.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/articles/PMC11049201/>, which revealed that “[f]ourteen [studies] showed that there is an association between progesterone level and pregnancy loss,” and “seven studies showed a clear positive association between progesterone deficiency and first-trimester miscarriage.” Id.

[footnote 33].

140. DAVIS did not take the progesterone as prescribed because she didn't want to insert suppositories to treat her STD and the progesterone at the same time.³⁴

DAVIS also expressed concerned to COOPRIDER that the progesterone made her hungry and would make her fat.

³⁴ See Exhibit 27, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, April 4, 2025, Bates Stamp CR000046 and 47.

141. Much more importantly, however, her failure to continue progesterone supplements while knowing the embryo was suffering low heartrate threatening the pregnancy, produced a high likelihood of causing her eventual miscarriage.

142. On April 4, 2025, at 4:10 p.m., DAVIS admitted to COOPRIDER that “I actually stopped taking the progesterone a week ago” and asked him at 4:12 p.m., “now that you know I haven’t been taking that, do you think I should be worried?”³⁵

³⁵ Exhibit 28, Text Messages from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, dated April 4, 2025, Bates Stamp CR000683.

143. DAVIS’s failure to take progesterone as prescribed and her abrupt discontinuation of progesterone supplements constituted negligence, which negligence was a proximate cause of her miscarriage, the death of her unborn baby, and the damages she seeks herein.

3. Failure to Appropriately Treat Sexually Transmitted Disease (“STD”) and Other Pathogens, Which Led to Prolonged Fever During Her Pregnancy

144. As referenced earlier, DAVIS was pregnant with a sexually transmitted disease or “STD.” Her failure to appropriately treat the same caused repeated and prolonged intervals of fever.

145. Moreover, on March 29, 2025, DAVIS tested positive for salmonella typhi, a bacterial pathogen that causes typhoid fever. DAVIS immediately understood the consequence of this, sending COOPRIDER a text, “I wonder how typhoid affects pregnancy and a developing fetus. Just looked it up. It can definitely lead to fetal death and miscarriage.”³⁶

³⁶ Exhibit 29 – Texts from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, March 29, 2025, Bates Stamp CR000416.

146. Salmonella typhi can cross the placenta causing miscarriage. Ravneet, K., “A Case of Salmonella typhi Infection Leading to Miscarriage,” J. LAB PHYSICIANS. 2011 Jan-Jun; 3(1): 61-62. <https://pmc.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/articles/PMC3118064/>.

147. Typhoid fever in pregnancy was a well-known and dreaded disease, associated with a 60-80% risk of abortion and premature labor and a maternal mortality of 15%. Kaistha N. ,1 Singla N. ,2 Bansal N. ,3 and Chander J .(2013). Salmonella Typhi Isolation in a Pregnant Woman: Determining the Importance. J Clin Diagn. Res. 7(9): 2100 2101. <https://pmc.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/articles/PMC3809696/>.

148. DAVIS was diagnosed with Chlamydia on, or about, March 24, 2025. Later, on March 29, 2025, DAVIS tested positive for Salmonella Typhi, the pathogen causing Typhoid. Davis thereafter reported 100-degree fevers for at least 10 days prior to April 5, 2025. DAVIS took only a single was prescribed “megadose” of azithromycin on March 27, 2025. DAVIS later claimed the antibiotic was taken to treat the STI Chlamydia, but that it was the same antibiotic treatment for Typhoid. Of the pathogens infecting DAVIS, typhoid with sustained fever is the most credible proximate contributor to her miscarriage. Contrary to DAVIS’S belief, for suspected/confirmed typhoid in pregnancy, it is necessary to use multi-day therapy (e.g., azithromycin 5–7 days or ceftriaxone), track defervescence, and ensure microbiologic clearance, per CDC guidance. A single 1-g dose (for chlamydia) does not constitute typhoid treatment. Active Typhoid infection with 10 days of fever is plausibly the principal driver to DAVIS’s miscarriage, given vertical-transmission potential and her untreated/undertreated course, as suggested by her persistent fever.

149. Moreover, the use of azithromycin during early pregnancy causes spontaneous abortion. The seminal study revealed a 65% increase in risk of miscarriage brought by the use of azithromycin during early pregnancy. Muanda FT, Sheehy O, Bérard A. Use of antibiotics during pregnancy and risk of spontaneous abortion. CMAJ. 2017;189:E625–E633. doi: 10.1503/cmaj.161020. <https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/28461374/> (“Use of azithromycin during early pregnancy was associated with a RR of 65% for spontaneous abortion (adjusted odds ratio (OR), 1.65; 95% CI, 1.34–2.02).

150. As a result of her infection, DAVIS had 100+-degree fevers nightly for weeks. For example, on March 21, 2025, DAVIS sent COOPRIDER a text, “I just took my temp and it is 100.1. This is day freaking 4. This poor baby.”³⁷:

³⁷ Exhibit 30, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, March 21, 2025, Bates Stamp CR000033/34.

151. The NIH has published studies for forty years demonstrating that women reporting fevers had a prevalence of spontaneous abortion almost three times higher than women presenting without a history of maternal fever. See Kline, J., et al., “Fever during pregnancy and spontaneous abortion., AM. J. EPIDEMIOL. 1985 Jun; 121(6): 832-42. <https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/4014176/>

152. DAVIS’s prolonged exposure to fever during her pregnancy also was likely a cause of the spontaneous abortion of her unborn child.

153. DAVIS’s prolonged exposure to fever during her pregnancy was the result of healthcare choices and failures by her which collectively constitute negligence, which negligence was a proximate cause of her miscarriage, the death of her unborn baby, and the damages she seeks herein.

4. Taking Medications Contraindicated During Pregnancy

154. In addition to taking medication for her STD, DAVIS also was ingesting pain medications with codeine, benzodiazepines, Zoloft with alcohol, and Red Bulls.

a. Codeine

156. “Codeine use may increase the risk of miscarriage, premature delivery and low birth weight.” https://c2coast.org.au/wp-content/uploads/ADIS_Codeine_Fact_Sheet.pdf.

157. Moreover, one generally should not take Xanax and codeine together. Indeed, the FDA has a Black Box Warning against mixing benzodiazepines like Xanax with opioids like codeine, but that is what DAVIS did during her pregnancy.

158. DAVIS' choice to take both codeine and other medications listed below during her pregnancy, given her other risk factors present, constituted negligence, which negligence was a proximate cause of the death of her unborn baby.

b. Benzodiazepines

159. Benzodiazepines cause miscarriages. Massachusetts General Hospital's MGH Center for Women's Mental Health published a report on June 11, 2019, concerning a study entitled "Benzodiazepine During Early Pregnancy and Risk of Miscarriage," <https://womensmentalhealth.org/posts/benzodiazepine-during-early-pregnancy-and-risk-of-miscarriage-2/>, revealing that maternal use of benzodiazepines was reported more than twice as often amongst women with pregnancies ending in spontaneous abortion than amongst matched control pregnancies which did not end in miscarriage, a statistically significant finding (crude OR, 2.39, 95% CI, 2.10-2.73).

160. For this reason, when benzodiazepines are sold in this country, the United States Food & Drug Administration requires that its product label include the following warning: Benzodiazepines "can potentially cause fetal harm when administered to pregnant women." If benzodiazepines are "used during pregnancy, or if the patient becomes pregnant while taking this drug, the patient should be apprised of the potential hazard to the fetus."

161. DAVIS' choice to take benzodiazepines during her pregnancy, given her other risk factors present, constituted negligence, which negligence was a proximate cause of the death of her unborn baby.

c. Zoloft

162. Zoloft is an antidepressant medication of the selective serotonin reuptake inhibitor (“SSRI”) class.

163. “Antidepressant use in the first trimester is associated with an increased risk of miscarriage when compared with either nondepressed or depressed unexposed women, even after accounting for induced abortions.” Almeida, N., “Risk of Miscarriage in Women Receiving Antidepressants in Early Pregnancy, Correcting for Induced Abortions,” EPIDEMIOLOGY. 2016 Jul; 27(4): 538-46. <https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/27031036/>.

164. Women who had a spontaneous abortion filled at least one prescription for an antidepressant more than twice as often than matched controls did, a statistically significant finding. (odds ratio [OR] 2.09, 95% confidence interval [CI] 1.83–2.38). Nakhai-Pour, H., et al., “Use of antidepressants during pregnancy and the risk of spontaneous abortion,” CMAJ. 2010 Jul 13; 182(10): 1031-1037. <https://pmc.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/articles/PMC2900326/>.

165. DAVIS’ choice to take Zoloft during her pregnancy, given her other risk factors present, constituted negligence, which negligence was a proximate cause of the death of her unborn baby.

d. Red Bull

166. DAVIS consumed large amounts of Red Bull each day.

167. Red Bull is an energy drink which contain high levels of caffeine, which can cross the placenta and affect the developing baby.

168. Each 8.4 fluid ounce can of Red Bull Energy Drink contains 80 mg of caffeine. <https://www.redbull.com/us-en/energydrink/products/red-bull-energy-drink-ingredients-list>. Yet drinking Red Bull in the quantities consumed by DAVIS during her pregnancy result dramatically increased her risk of spontaneous abortion. One study by Kaiser Permanente revealed a daily consumption of caffeine of 200 or more mg per day resulted in a statistically significant hazard ratio for miscarriage of 2.23, more than a doubling of the risk.

<https://divisionofresearch.kaiserpermanente.org/publications/maternal-caffeine-consumption-during-pregnancy-and-the-risk-of-miscarriage-a-prospective-cohort-study/>

169. As such, it is standard advice not to drink Red Bull during pregnancy. In fact, it is preferable to avoid consuming Red Bull or other energy drinks during pregnancy due to their high caffeine content.

170. DAVIS' choice to ingest Red Bull during her pregnancy, given her other risk factors present, constituted negligence, which negligence was a proximate cause of the death of her unborn baby.

5. Davis Repeatedly Engaged in High-Impact Activities During Her Pregnancy

171. One night, DAVIS went to an indoor playground with her kids, and was seen jumping on a trampoline, landing on her stomach. On April 4, 2025, DAVIS went to a carnival and was observed riding its attractions.

172. High impact activities for an average of 10-40 minutes a day was associated with an increased risk of miscarriage showing statistically significant hazard ratios of up to 4.7 (95% CI 3.3–5.3). Madsen, M., “Leisure time physical exercise during pregnancy and the risk of miscarriage: a study within the Danish National Birth Cohort,” BJOG. 2007 Sep 18; 114(11): 1419-1426. <https://pmc.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/articles/PMC2366024/>.

173. DAVIS's habit of engaging in high-impact activities while pregnant was negligent, and such negligence was a proximate cause of the death of her unborn child, and of the damages she now claims herein.

6. When Heavy Cramping Indicated a Miscarriage Had Begun on April 4, 2025, Refusing to Go to the ER, and Instead Exposed Herself to the Outdoor Heat and Humidity for Four Hours

174. On April 4, 2025, Davis experienced severe cramping in both her lower back and in the front, and was told to go the emergency room. Instead, she chose to attend an outdoor carnival outside Windsor Park Elementary School, exposing herself to the Corpus Christi outdoor heat and humidity for four hours.

175. DAVIS's cramping is a classic symptom of an imminent miscarriage just hours away. The cramping was so severe she texted COOPRIDER on April 4, 2025, at 3:53 that "I'm having a bad, bad cramping day, both in my lower back and in the front" at 4:05 p.m., "I'm scared from miscarrying public."³⁸

176. When DAVIS described her cramping to her sister, By 4:50 p.m.. on April 4, she texted COOPRIDER, "my sister thinks I need to take the kids and go to the E.R. I'm trying not to panic." Her sister told DAVIS that her kids "will much prefer a baby bro/sis over a carnival. Priorities." Instead, DAVIS ignored her sister's advice, and went to the outdoor carnival – in her own words to COOPRIDER - "on her feet and in the heat for four hours."³⁹

177. One of this nation's finest hospitals, the Mayo Clinic, recommends that in such a circumstance where one is experiencing "cramping in the pelvic area or lower back," a woman should "[c]all [her] pregnancy care team right away..." <https://www.mayoclinic.org/diseases-conditions/pregnancy-loss-miscarriage/symptoms-causes/syc-20354298>.

³⁸ Exhibit 31 – Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, April 4, 2025, 3:53 p.m., Bates Stamp CR000680.

³⁹ Exhibit 31 - Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, April 4, 2025, 4:50 p.m., Bates Stamp CR000680.

178. DAVIS's decision to expose herself to outdoor heat increased her risk of miscarriage even further. Research studies have demonstrated that the prevalence of miscarriage in North America increased by 44 percent in higher heat months than during the colder winter months. Wesselink, A., "A Prospective Cohort Study of Seasonal Variation in Spontaneous Abortion," EPIDEMIOLOGY 33(3), May 2022, pp. 441-48. <https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/35213511/>. Similar studies have reached the same conclusion. Xu, "Association between high ambient temperature and spontaneous abortion: A systematic review and meta-analysis," ECOTOX. & ENV. SAF., Vol. 297, 1 June 2025, 118234. <https://www.sciencedirect.com/science/article/pii/S0147651325005706> ("maternal exposure to ambient high temperature significantly increased the risk of spontaneous abortion."). Finally, risk of miscarriage goes up linearly with the level of heat exposure. Das, S., "The risk of miscarriage is associated with ambient temperature: evidence from coastal Bangladesh," FRONT PUBLIC HEALTH. 2023 Nov 3; 11:1238275. <https://pmc.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/articles/PMC10656765/> ("For women exposed to temperatures between 28°C and 32°C, the risk of miscarriage was 25% greater (adjusted OR 1.25, 95% CI 1.07–1.47) compared to those exposed to temperatures from 16°C to 21°C.").

179. Maternal hyperthermia is chiefly linked to teratogenicity at high temperatures, but here it most likely exacerbated physiologic stress/dehydration in the context of ongoing infection and cramping, rather than acting as a primary cause.

180. Once she knew on April 4, 2025 that she was experiencing severe cramping, DAVIS's choice to not go into an air-conditioned hospital, but instead to expose herself to Corpus Christi's outdoor heat and humidity, was negligence, which negligence was a proximate cause of the death of her unborn baby, and the damages claimed herein.

7. DAVIS Repeatedly Took Actions to Try to Induce a Spontaneous Abortion of Her Unborn Child

181. DAVIS repeatedly told COOPRIDER that she probably had a dead baby inside of her that had not yet “dislodged.”

182. She mistakenly insisted that having sex was an effective method “shake things” loose. DAVIS stated that having sex is the method of “EVERY other female” she knows, to induce a miscarriage. DAVIS told COOPRIDER that she has been doing this for 20 years. She told COOPRIDER that he should have sex with her to help her expel the dead baby. Specifically, DAVIS wanted to have unprotected sex because she claimed that sperm contained prostaglandin, a chemical that would help initiate a miscarriage that she wanted to have.⁴⁰

⁴⁰ See Exhibit 32, Screen Shots of texts on February 24, 2025, at Bates Stamp No. CR 000034 and 35 reproduced here. This is a screen shot of a texts sent in prior to Feb. 25, 2025, and re-sent on March 21, 2025.

183. DAVIS did not follow her physician’s instructions to ensure that she had a viable baby. In fact, she hoped for a miscarriage as her method of spontaneous abortion.^{41 42 43}

⁴¹ See Exhibit 33, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, March 22, 2025, Bates Stamp CR000065 (“If the hcg and progesterone levels don't change by Monday, then it's likely the baby we think we conceived in Jan that may have stopped growing and my body has not let go of it yet.”).

⁴² Exhibit 34, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER dated March 22, 2025, Bates Stamp CR000078 (“What you don't "like" is that I'm undecided as to what to do with our baby.”)

⁴³ Exhibit 35, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER dated March 24, 2025, Bates Stamp CR000135/136 (“If the hcg and progesterone levels don't change by Monday, then it's likely the baby we think we conceived in Jan that may have stopped growing and my body has not let go of it yet. This is all our best guess. We many never know what happened to our baby/babies..”).

184. DAVIS believed that the embryo may have stopped growing or was already dead⁴⁴:

185. Her physicians also were not sure if the pregnancy was still viable⁴⁵:

⁴⁴ See Exhibit 36, Text Message from DAVIS to COOPRIDER dated March 24, 2025, Bates Stamp CR000132 (“Um we went over this yesterday. Either the baby stopped growing at a certain point and I am going to miscarry (hence the low heart rate”).

⁴⁵ See Exhibit 37, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER dated March 25, 2025, Bates Stamp CR000187 (“So I’m trying not to read into the fact that they didn’t have my schedule my next OB appt yet because they aren’t sure this pregnancy is ‘viable.’ ”).

186. DAVIS scheduled another ultrasound to take place in April, 2025. DAVIS believed that she might see a dead baby⁴⁶:

⁴⁶ Exhibit 38, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER dated March 26, 2025, Bates Stamp CR0000328 (“And I do want you there. I do not want to see an unmoving baby by myself. I feel even less optimistic about its chances after what I learned this evening.”).

187. DAVIS continued to express that she was concerned whether the baby would survive, and IF she decided to keep it⁴⁷:

⁴⁷ See Exhibit 39, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER dated March 28, 2025, Bates Stamp CR 000405 (“It’s a big IF. It’s if baby continues to survive and if I decide to keep it.”).

188. On April 4, 2025, DAVIS stated that she was “indifferent to expelling” but stated “I just don’t want to expel in public.”⁴⁸:

⁴⁸ See Exhibit 31, Text from DAVIS to COOPRIDER, April 4, 2025, 5:10 p.m., Bates Stamp CR 000680-685.

189. Starting in early April DAVIS invited COOPRIDER over to watch a movie the night of April 5, 2025.

190. DAVIS took actions that were negligent, if not intentional, that were a proximate cause of the death of her unborn baby, and the damages she now claims herein. As COOPRIDER characterized it on April 7, 2025 after realizing she had set him up: “And you knowingly were not pregnant. Yet convinced me that you were AND said it's impossible to get more pregnant.”⁴⁹

III. RULE 8(b)(1)(A) DEFENSES

Pursuant to Rule 8(b)(1)(A) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant COOPRIDER provides the following defense to each claim asserted against him:

1. Defendant COOPRIDER defends against the cause of action alleged against him under the Texas Wrongful Death Act on the basis that:

- (c) COOPRIDER committed no wrongful act.
- (b) COOPRIDER committed no act that caused the death of DAVIS's unborn child.
- (c) COOPRIDER committed no wrongful act that caused the death of DAVIS's unborn child.

2. COOPRIDER did not violate Section 171.063(a)(1) of the THSC because DAVIS, in fact, was not pregnant on February 19, 2025, when she received abortion-inducing drugs from COOPRIDER.

3. COOPRIDER did not violate Section 171.063(a)(1) of the THSC because COOPRIDER did not thereafter provide her with abortion-inducing drugs on April 5, 2025.

4. COOPRIDER did not violate Section 171.063(a)(2) of the THSC because DAVIS, in fact, was not pregnant on February 19, 2025, when she received abortion-inducing drugs from COOPRIDER.

5. COOPRIDER did not violate Section 171.063(a)(2) of the THSC because COOPRIDER did not thereafter provide her with abortion-inducing drugs on April 5, 2025.

6. COOPRIDER did not violate Section 171.063 of the THSC because DAVIS, in fact, was not pregnant on February 19, 2025, when she received abortion-inducing drugs from COOPRIDER.

7. COOPRIDER did not violate Section 171.061 of the THSC because COOPRIDER did not thereafter provide her with abortion-inducing drugs on April 5, 2025.

8. COOPRIDER did not violate Section 171.003 of the THSC because COOPRIDER did not perform an abortion as a non-physician on April 5, 2025, because he did not lace Ms. Davis's drink with abortion pills.

9. COOPRIDER did not violate Section 171.011 of the THSC because COOPRIDER did not perform an abortion without an ultrasound on April 5, 2025, because he did not lace Ms. Davis's drink with abortion pills.

10. COOPRIDER did not violate Chapter 245 of the THSC because COOPRIDER did not perform an abortion outside an abortion facility on April 5, 2025, because he did not lace Ms. Davis's drink with abortion pills.

11. COOPRIDER did not violate Chapter 245 of the THSC because COOPRIDER did not establish or operate an abortion facility in this state without an appropriate license issued under this chapter.

12. COOPRIDER did not violate 18 U.S.C. §1461 because he did not "deliver[] by mail" any substance "for producing abortion."

13. COOPRIDER did not violate 18 U.S.C. §1462 because DAVIS was not pregnant when he received abortion-producing drugs on February 18, 2025.

14. COOPRIDER did not commit a "wrongful act" under either 18 U.S.C. §1461 or 18 U.S.C. §1462, collectively, the so-called "Comstock Act," because such law has not been enforced for three quarters of a century since its enactment. This wholesale non-enforcement of the Comstock Act means any ostensible violation of it in 2025 cannot be a "wrongful act" under the law.

15. COOPRIDER did not violate Articles 4512.1–4512.6 of the Texas Revised Civil Statutes, as alleged in Paragraph 81 of Plaintiffs’ complaint, because he did not provide her with abortion-inducing drugs on April 5, 2025.

16. COOPRIDER did not violate Article 4512.1 of the Texas Revised Civil Statutes, as alleged in Paragraph 81 of Plaintiffs’ complaint, because he did not “administer to a pregnant woman...any drug... and thereby procure an abortion” on April 5, 2025.

17. COOPRIDER did not violate Article 4512.2 of the Texas Revised Civil Statutes, as alleged in Paragraph 81 of Plaintiffs’ complaint, because he did not “furnish the means for procuring an abortion on April 5, 2025.

18. COOPRIDER did not violate Article 4512.3 of the Texas Revised Civil Statutes, as alleged in Paragraph 81 of Plaintiffs’ complaint, because he did not “furnish the means” that “produced an abortion on April 5, 2025.

19. COOPRIDER did not violate Article 4512.4 of the Texas Revised Civil Statutes, as alleged in Paragraph 81 of Plaintiffs’ complaint, because DAVIS is still alive, so “the death of the mother [was not] occasioned by an abortion.”

20. COOPRIDER did not violate Article 4512.5 of the Texas Revised Civil Statutes, as alleged in Paragraph 81 of Plaintiffs’ complaint, because he did not “destroy the vitality or life in a child in a state of being born and before actual birth.”

21. COOPRIDER did not violate Article 4512.5 of the Texas Revised Civil Statutes, as alleged in Paragraph 81 of Plaintiffs’ complaint, because he did not “destroy the vitality or life in a child in a state of being born and before actual birth” “during parturition of the mother” because DAVIS was never in the act of childbirth in April of 2025.

22. COOPRIDER did not violate Section 170A.002 of the THSC because COOPRIDER did not perform an abortion outside an abortion facility on April 5, 2025, because he did not lace Ms. Davis's drink with abortion pills.

23. COOPRIDER did not commit murder under Section 19.02(b)(1) of the Texas Penal Code because he did intentionally or knowingly causes the death of an individual on April 5, 2025.

24. COOPRIDER did not commit murder under Section 19.02(b)(1) of the Texas Penal Code because by April 5, 2025, it is more likely than not that DAVIS's unborn child was not a human being "who is alive."

25. COOPRIDER did not commit murder under Section 19.02(b)(2) of the Texas Penal Code because he did not commit an act clearly dangerous to human life that caused the death" of DAVIS's unborn child on April 5, 2025.

26. COOPRIDER did not commit murder under Section 19.02(b)(2) of the Texas Penal Code because by April 5, 2025, it is more likely than not that DAVIS's unborn child was not a human being "who is alive."

27. COOPRIDER did not commit felony murder under Section 19.02(b)(3) of the Texas Penal Code, as alleged in Paragraph 84 of Plaintiff's Complaint, because

- i. COOPRIDER did not cause the "shipment and delivery of abortion pills";
- ii. There is nothing about the alleged "shipment and delivery of abortion pills" by COOPRIDER that is "clearly dangerous to human life."
- iii. At the time of the "shipment and delivery of abortion pills," DAVIS was not pregnant.

IV. RULE 8(b)(1)(B) RESPONSES TO ALLEGATIONS

Pursuant to Rule 8(b)(1)(B) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant COOPRIDER provides the following defense to each claim asserted against him:

1. Defendant COOPRIDER admits the allegation in paragraph 1 of the Complaint.
2. With respect to paragraph 2 of the Complaint, Defendant COOPRIDER admits this Court has personal jurisdiction over him, but denies that he murdered DAVIS's unborn child. Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation in paragraph 2 of the Complaint that this Court has personal jurisdiction over Aid Access GmbH ("AID ACCESS") and Rebecca Gomperts ("GOMPERTS"), and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof.

10. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterization of the allegations in paragraph 10.

11. Defendant COOPRIDER admits the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 11 of the Complaint. As to the second sentence of paragraph 11 of the Complaint, Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof

12. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegations in paragraph 12 of the Complaint.

13. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 13 of the Complaint, but admits the allegation in the second sentence of paragraph 13 of the Complaint that the texts referenced in Exhibit 2 were exchanged.

14. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 14 of the Complaint, but admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 3 were exchanged.

15. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 15 of the Complaint, but admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 4 were exchanged.

16. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 16 of the Complaint, specifically COOPRIDER denies that DAVIS was pregnant on February 5, 2025. As to the second sentence of paragraph 16 of the Complaint, Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof. Nonetheless, Defendant COOPRIDER admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 5 were exchanged.

17. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation in the first half of the first sentence of paragraph 17 of the Complaint, admits he ordered the drugs, and admits the texts referenced in Exhibit 6 were exchanged.

18. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 18 of the Complaint, but admits the texts referenced in Exhibit 7 were exchanged.

19. Defendant COOPRIDER admits the allegation in paragraph 19 of the Complaint.

20. Defendant COOPRIDER admits the allegation in the first paragraph 20 of the Complaint, is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation in the second sentence of paragraph 20 of the Complaint, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof. Defendant COOPRIDER admits the allegations in the third, fourth and fifth sentences of paragraph 20 of the Complaint

21. Defendant COOPRIDER admits the allegation in the first half of the first sentence of paragraph 21 of the Complaint, denies the second half of the first sentence of paragraph 21 of the Complaint, denies the allegation in the second sentence of paragraph 21 of the Complaint, denies the allegation in the third sentence of paragraph 21 of the Complaint, denies the allegation in the fourth sentence of paragraph 21 of the Complaint as he brought three pills back once after originally bringing her the containers once she asked for them, denies the allegation in the fifth sentence of paragraph 21 of the Complaint, admits the allegation in the sixth sentence of paragraph 21 of the Complaint as he did so only once, and is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation in the seventh sentence of paragraph 21 of the Complaint, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof.

22. Defendant COOPRIDER admits the allegation in paragraph 22 of the Complaint, and Defendant COOPRIDER admits the photographs referenced as Exhibits 9 and 10 accurately reflect the Mifepristone tablets obtained.

23. Defendant COOPRIDER admits the allegation in paragraph 23 of the Complaint, and Defendant COOPRIDER admits the photographs referenced as Exhibits 11 and 12 accurately reflect the Misoprostol pills obtained.

24. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 24 of the Complaint. As to the second sentence of paragraph 24 of the Complaint, Defendant COOPRIDER admits the texts referenced in Exhibit 13 were exchanged.

25. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in paragraph 25 of the Complaint, but Defendant COOPRIDER admits the texts referenced in Exhibit 14 were exchanged.

26. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 26 of the Complaint, is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation in the second sentence of paragraph 26 of the Complaint, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof, and admits the third sentence of paragraph 26 of the Complaint, and admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 15 were exchanged.

27. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 27 of the Complaint, but admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 16 were exchanged.

28. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 28 of the Complaint, but admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 17 were exchanged.

29. Defendant COOPRIDER admits the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 29 of the Complaint, and admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 18 were exchanged.

30. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 30 of the Complaint, admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 19 were exchanged, but denies the characterizations in the allegation in the second sentence of paragraph 30 of the Complaint which omitted the phrase “of a situation.”

31. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in paragraph 31 of the Complaint, but admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 20 were exchanged.

32. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in paragraph 32 of the Complaint, but admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 21 were exchanged.

33. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in paragraph 33 of the Complaint, but admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 22 were exchanged.

34. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in paragraph 34 of the Complaint, but admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 23 were exchanged.

35. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in paragraph 35 of the Complaint as the text did not call Davis “delusional,” but admits that the texts referenced in in Exhibit 24 were exchanged.

36. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in paragraph 36 of the Complaint, but admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 25 were exchanged.

37. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in paragraph 37 of the Complaint, but admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 26 were exchanged.

38. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in paragraph 38 of the Complaint, but admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 27 were exchanged.

39. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 39 of the Complaint, admits the second sentence of paragraph 39 of the Complaint, and admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 28 and Exhibit 29 were exchanged.

40. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 40 of the Complaint, but admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 30 were exchanged, admits the allegation in the second sentence of paragraph 40 of the Complaint, admits the allegation in the third sentence of paragraph 40 of the Complaint, admits the first half of the fourth sentence of paragraph 40 of the Complaint, but is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation in the second half of the fourth sentence of paragraph 40 of the Complaint, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof.

41. Defendant COOPRIDER admits the first half of the first sentence of paragraph 41 of the Complaint, denies the characterization in the second half of the first sentence of paragraph 41 of the Complaint, but admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 31 were exchanged. 42. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterizations in the allegation in the first half of the sentence of paragraph 42 of the Complaint, denies the characterization in the second half of the first sentence of paragraph 42 of the Complaint, denies the second sentence of paragraph 42 of the Complaint, is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation in the third sentence of paragraph 42 of the Complaint, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof, is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation in the first part of the fourth sentence of paragraph 42 of the Complaint, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof, and denies the allegation in the second part of the fourth sentence of paragraph 42 of the Complaint.

43. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegations in paragraph 43 of the Complaint.

44. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the characterization in the first sentence of paragraph 44 of the Complaint, and admits that the texts referenced in Exhibit 32 were exchanged.

45. Defendant COOPRIDER admits the allegation in the first part of the first sentence of paragraph 45 of the Complaint, denies the characterization as to the second part of the first sentence of paragraph 45 of the Complaint, and is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation in the second sentence of paragraph 45 of the Complaint, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof.

46. While COOPRIDER admits he first coined the phrase “trust-building” several days before April 5, 2025 on April 1, 2025, Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation in the first part of the first sentence of paragraph 46 of the Complaint that he proposed their meeting on April 5, 2025, as DAVIS proposed it, denies the last part of the first sentence of paragraph 46 of the Complaint as he dies that DAVIS knew she was having a daughter. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation in the second sentence of paragraph 46 of the Complaint, and admits the allegation in the third sentence of paragraph 46 of the Complaint.

47. COOPRIDER admits the allegation in the first sentence of Paragraph 47, admits the allegations in the second sentence, except that he denies he came “from his apartment” as he lived in a house, and admits the allegation in the third sentence of paragraph 47 of the Complaint that he made the hot chocolate, but denies that it was his as DAVIS supplied the hot chocolate after requesting that they use her chocolate instead of his.

48. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 48 of the Complaint., Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation in the second sentence of paragraph 48 of the Complaint.

49. Defendant COOPRIDER admits the allegation in paragraph 49 of the Complaint, but denies the allegation in the heading between paragraph 49 and 50 of the Complaint.

50. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation in paragraph 50 of the Complaint.

51. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegations in paragraph 51 of the Complaint.

52. Defendant COOPRIDER without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 52 of the Complaint, yet Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegations in the second sentence of paragraph 52 of the Complaint.

53. Defendant COOPRIDER without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation in the first sentence of paragraph 53 of the Complaint, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof, and admits that Exhibits 33 and 34 purport to show driving times between the two addresses input thereto.

54. Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation in paragraph 54 of the Complaint, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof, and is without sufficient information to admit or deny the authenticity of Exhibit 35 referenced therein, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof.

55. Defendant COOPRIDER admits that he received a text from DAVIS sent at 12:12 p.m., denies that he saw it the, is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation in paragraph 55 of the Complaint, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof, and is without sufficient information to admit or deny the authenticity of Exhibit 36 referenced therein, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof. Moreover, Defendant COOPRIDER denies in the allegation in the heading between paragraph 55 and 56 of the Complaint.

56. Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegations in the first sentence of paragraph 70 of the Complaint, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof, is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegations in the second sentence of paragraph 70 of the Complaint, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof, denies the allegations in the third sentence of paragraph 70 of the Complaint, and denies the allegations in the fourth sentence of paragraph 70 of the Complaint.

71. Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegations in paragraph 71 of the Complaint, and as a result Defendant COOPRIDER denies the same and remits Plaintiff DAVIS to strict proof thereof

72. The allegations in paragraph 72 of the Complain are legal conclusions, so Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegations in paragraph 72 of the Complaint.

73. Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation in paragraph 73 of the Complaint.

74. The allegations in paragraph 74 of the Complain are legal conclusions, so Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the legal allegations in paragraph 74 of the Complaint, but Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation made against him referencing Section 171.063(a)(1) of the Texas Health & Safety Code, contained in paragraph 74 of the Complaint.

75. The allegations in paragraph 75 of the Complain are legal conclusions, so Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the legal allegations in paragraph 75 of the Complaint, but Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation made against him referencing Section 171.063(a)(2) of the Texas Health & Safety Code, contained in paragraph 75 of the Complaint.

76. The allegations in paragraph 76 of the Complain are legal conclusions, so Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the legal allegations in paragraph 76 of the Complaint, but Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation made against him referencing Section 171.0631 of the Texas Health & Safety Code, contained in paragraph 76 of the Complaint.

77. The allegations in paragraph 77 of the Complain are legal conclusions, so Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the legal allegations in paragraph 77 of the Complaint, but Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation made against him referencing Section 171.003 of the Texas Health & Safety Code, contained in paragraph 77 of the Complaint.

78. The allegations in paragraph 78 of the Complain are legal conclusions, so Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the legal allegations in paragraph 78 of the Complaint, but Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation made against him referencing Section 171.011 of the Texas Health & Safety Code, contained in paragraph 78 of the Complaint.

79. The allegations in paragraph 79 of the Complain are legal conclusions, so Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the legal allegations in paragraph 79 of the Complaint, but Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation made against him referencing Chapter 245 of the Texas Health & Safety Code, contained in paragraph 79 of the Complaint.

80. The allegations in paragraph 80 of the Complain are legal conclusions, so Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the legal allegations in paragraph 80 of the Complaint, but Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation made against him referencing 18 U.S.C. §§ 1461-62 contained in paragraph 80 of the Complaint.

81. The allegations in paragraph 81 of the Complain are legal conclusions, so Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the legal allegations in paragraph 81 of the Complaint, but Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation made against him referencing Articles 4512/1-4512.6 of the Texas Revised Civil Statutes contained in paragraph 81 of the Complaint.

82. The allegations in paragraph 82 of the Complain are legal conclusions, so Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the legal allegations in paragraph 82 of the Complaint, but Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation made against him referencing Chapter 170A.002 of the Texas Health & Safety Code and Section 12.32 of the Texas Penal Code, contained in paragraph 82 of the Complaint.

83. The allegations in paragraph 83 of the Complain are legal conclusions, so Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the legal allegations in paragraph 83 of the Complaint, but Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation made against him referencing Sections 1.07, 19.02, and 19.06 of the Texas Penal Code, contained in paragraph 83 of the Complaint.

84. The allegations in paragraph 84 of the Complain are legal conclusions, so Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the legal allegations in paragraph 84 of the Complaint, but Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation made against him referencing Section 19.02(b)(3) of the Texas Penal Code, Sections 171.063(a) and 171.065(a) of the Texas Health & Safety Code, and 18 U.S.C. §§ 1461-62, contained in paragraph 84 of the Complaint.

85. The allegations in paragraph 85 of the Complain are legal conclusions, so Defendant COOPRIDER is without sufficient information to admit or deny the legal allegations in paragraph 85 of the Complaint, but Defendant COOPRIDER denies the allegation made against him referencing Sections 71.003(c)(2) and (c)(4) of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code specifically contained in paragraph 85 of the Complaint, and Defendant COOPRIDER also generally denies the allegations concerning the inapplicability of any statutory protection to which he may otherwise be entitled under the law.

86. Defendant COOPRIDER denies that he is legally responsible “to pay nominal, compensatory, and punitive damages for the wrongful death of Ms. Davis’s unborn child,” nor to pay for any “other relief that the Court may deem just, proper, or equitable.”

V. COUNTERCLAIMS

1. Pursuant to Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, COOPRIDER states the following counterclaims against DAVIS arising out of the occurrence that is the subject matter of DAVIS’ claim.

A. MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

2. Under Texas law, the tort of malicious prosecution is the malicious institution of a civil suit without probable cause, and Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER pleads as follows:

(a) a criminal investigation and a civil lawsuit was commenced against Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER;

(b) the criminal investigation and a civil lawsuit was initiated or procured by Counter-Defendant DAVIS;

(c) the criminal investigation and this civil lawsuit will terminate in favor of Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER⁵⁰;

⁵⁰ Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER files this Malicious Prosecution now to prevent DAVIS from merely voluntarily dismissing her claim, and to preserve his right to bring this Counterclaim under the compulsory counterclaim rule within FRCP 13(a)(1)(A), yet acknowledges that it is premature until the underlying case filed against him is adjudicated in his favor. See Izen v. Catalina, 256 F.3d 324, 328 (5th Cir. 2001) (termination of underlying proceeding required before malicious prosecution case may be brought); Kjellvander v. Citicorp, 156 F.R.D. 138, 143 (S.D. Tex. 1994) (favorable outcome in underlying case required); Stanley v. Sawh, Civ. No. H-13-3284, 2014 WL

(d) Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER was innocent;

(e) Counter-Defendant DAVIS lacked probable cause to bring about the criminal investigation and the civil lawsuit she initiated;

(f) Counter-Defendant DAVIS acted with malice in initiating, procuring and bringing about the criminal investigation and this civil lawsuit; and

(g) Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER suffered damages as a result.

3. With respect to malice as alleged in Paragraph 2(f) above, Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER specifically pleads the follows:

(a) The March 21, 2025 ultrasound shows a conception of February 25, 2025, after the date when DAVIS alleges the abortion-inducing pills were first delivered to her on February 18, 2025, Doc. 1, ¶ 18, a date on which she was not pregnant;

(b) Science tells us that Counter-Defendant DAVIS could not have taken the abortion-inducing pills delivered to her on February 18, 2025, prior to her conception date of February 25, 2025, because after taking an abortion-inducing medication, Counter-Defendant DAVIS could not have begun to ovulate until 8-36 days had lapsed after mifepristone and misoprostol administration. Schreiber, C., et al., “Ovulation resumption after medical absorption with mifepristone and misoprostol, CONTRACEPTION. 2011 Sep; 84(3); 230-3. This is because eight (8) days prior to February 25, 2025 – her date of conception – would be February 17, 2025, a day before the abortion-inducing medications were alleged to have been first delivered to her at her home.

4659476, at *2 (S.D. Tex. Sept. 17, 2014) (“Defendant cannot show he is entitled to relief for malicious prosecution because this case is still pending.”). For this reason, Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER will not oppose an abatement of this Counterclaim until the underlying lawsuit against him is finalized.

(c) Moreover, Counter-Defendant DAVIS caused her own spontaneous abortion via her contributorily neglect conduct described above, causing the front and back cramping and bleeding she experienced on April 4, 2025, which are tell-tale symptoms of a miscarriage during a time when she was not even with Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER.

(d) Having already miscarried on April 4, 2025, Counter-Defendant DAVIS set up Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER by inviting him to her home – “the scene of the crime that wasn’t” – for a daily later on April 5, 2025, the day after she had already likely miscarried her unborn child.

(e) The charade orchestrated by DAVIS on April 5, 2025 – and sloppily recorded by her in a manner that demonstrates its impossibility - was all done so she could initiate this travesty of a lawsuit with malice deep in her heart.

3. The damages suffered by Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER from DAVIS’ malicious prosecution include monetary damages, mental anguish and reputational damage.

4. For the reasons outlined in the previous footnote, Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER agrees his counterclaim should be abated until this proceeding terminates in his favor.

B. INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTION DISTRESS

5. Under Texas law, the tort of intentional infliction of emotion distress is actionable.

6. In this regard, Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER pleads as follows:

- (a) Counter-Defendant DAVIS acted intentionally or recklessly,
- (b) the conduct of Counter-Defendant DAVIS was extreme and outrageous,
- (c) the outrageous conduct caused the Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER emotional distress, and

(d) the emotional distress suffered by Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER was severe.

7. The damages suffered by Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER from DAVIS' intentional infliction of emotional distress include monetary damages, mental anguish and reputational damage.

C. FRAUD

8. Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER incorporates by reference herein the specifically allegations of fraud pleaded herein against Counter-Defendant DAVIS, see infra, §II(C) - "Fraud.", ¶¶ 11-105, and hereby counter-sues Counter-Defendant DAVIS for fraud.

9. The damages suffered by Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER from DAVIS' fraud include monetary damages, mental anguish and reputational damage.

D. MALICE

9. Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER incorporates by reference herein the specifically allegations of fraud pleaded herein against Counter-Defendant DAVIS, see infra, §II(C) - "Fraud.", ¶¶ 11-105, and hereby counter-sues Counter-Defendant DAVIS for malice as well.

E. PUNITIVE DAMAGES

10. Pursuant to Sections 41.003(1)(1 & 2), Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER sues Counter-Defendant DAVIS for punitive damages, as the evidence herein concerning fraud and malice will be proven by clear and convincing evidence.

F. EXCEPTIONS TO TEXAS' LIMITATIONS ON EXEMPLARY DAMAGES

11. Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER alleges that Counter-Defendant DAVIS, through her incredibly malicious and mendacious behavior during her pregnancy, knowingly and intentionally committed injury to a child – her unborn baby - in violation of Section 22.04 of the Texas Penal Code. As such, under Section 41.008(c)(7) of the Texas Civil Practice & Remedies Code, Texas' normal limitations on the amount of exemplary damages that may be assessed do not apply.

12. Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER further alleges that Counter-Defendant DAVIS knowingly and intentionally violated Section 32.347 of the Texas Penal Code by fraudulently destroying, removing or concealing writings that would have revealed her scheme. As such, under Section 41.008(c)(12) of the Texas Civil Practice & Remedies Code, Texas' normal limitations on the amount of exemplary damages that may be assessed do not apply.

F. AMOUNT OF DAMAGES SOUGHT

13. Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER has suffered in excess of $100,000,000 in actual damages, and seeks recovery thereof from Counter-Defendant DAVIS.

14. Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER alleges Counter-Defendant DAVIS should have exemplary damages assessed against her in the amount of $1,000,000,000.

15. The undersigned counsel is working free of charge on a pro bono basis on behalf of a Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER, an honorable United States Marine who did not deserve the reputational flaying resulting from the actions of Counter-Defendant DAVIS distributed by her political collaborators.

16. Counter-Plaintiff COOPRIDER hereby pledges to and hereby assigns to the Wounded Warrior Project, any and all recoveries

- (a) in this case for his counterclaim damages recovered from against Counter-Defendant DAVIS; and
- (b) later in his subsequent malicious prosecution case, against Counter-Defendant DAVIS.

17. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 523(a)(4) any debt incurred under this counterclaim is not dischargeable in bankruptcy because it arose out of fraud.

PRAYER

Based upon the foregoing, Defendant COOPRIDER requests entry of judgment providing the following relief:

1. Dismissing with prejudice DAVIS's cause of action under the Texas Wrongful Death Act, which alleges wrongful acts by COOPRIDER;
2. Awarding COOPRIDER his actual damages as sought in COOPRIDER's Counterclaim;
3. Assessing exemplary damages against DAVIS as sought in COOPRIDER's Counterclaim
4. Granting Defendant COOPRIDER his costs and disbursements; and
5. Awarding Defendant COOPRIDER all other relief deemed just and equitable by the Court.

Dated this 3rd day of September, 2025.

Speaker 1

(0:00) For the second time this week? (0:08) Oh, I wanna answer. (0:10) I don't know if it's, like, a moot point at this point, but, like, you had asked, so I'm gonna answer, like, what I think best case scenario was or, like, if you were just saying that because you were pissed. (0:25) And

Speaker 2

(0:26) I was asking what you want to do.

Speaker 1

(0:33) Okay. (0:33) My my attention had completely, hopefully, you understand, shifted. (0:39) So I'm gonna get back to thinking of that.

Speaker 2

(0:44) Yeah. (0:44) It wasn't

Speaker 1

(0:45) It was go ahead.

Speaker 2

(0:46) I'm asking, like, best case, worst case. (0:48) I was just asking what you want to do.

Speaker 1

(0:51) Yeah. (0:52) Best case is, like, what I think should happen or what based on, like, what I imagine someone else would want. (1:03) Like, I I don't how do I put this? (1:05) This isn't judgment. (1:06) I don't understand.

Speaker 1

(1:10) And I know it's different because I would be carrying it for nine, eight more months. (1:16) And then you know? (1:17) But, like, the closest equivalent I can think of would be, like, putting it up for adoption. (1:22) Right? (1:22) I would think every single day I'd be wondering about them.

Speaker 1

(1:25) I would wanna know are they okay? (1:27) Are they healthy? (1:28) Are they being taken care of? (1:29) Are they happy? (1:30) Are they loved?

Speaker 1

(1:30) You know what I mean? (1:31) I'd be thinking all of those things. (1:32) So I can't imagine, like, not wanting even the occasional update or, you know, some kind of you know, I would be wondering day and night, so I can't I can't put myself there. (1:53) That's what I like, when I say best case scenario, like, that like, that's what I imagine should happen. (2:04) But, anyway okay.

Speaker 1

(2:05) So do you want me to tell my girlfriend about you? (2:07) Do you want me to break up with her? (2:08) Sounds like you're using that. (2:09) When you get me to be more. (2:11) Maybe you want to sleep tonight for, like, having a relationship.

Speaker 1

(2:14) Yes. (2:14) I really want to know what you want. (2:15) I can't force you to do anything, so

Speaker 2

(2:17) I'd like to know what you're

Speaker 1

(2:17) talking about. (2:18) Okay. (2:20) Short term, like, immediate term, what I would want is that you support whatever I wanna do even if you're not thrilled about it because know that I'm not thrilled either. (2:36) I don't know what's gonna happen to me in any regard in two months from now, three months from now, five months from now. (2:43) You know what I mean?

Speaker 1

(2:44) Like, my other situation, like, with custody, and I'm just getting fucking humbled here. (2:58) That could change and evolve and, like so just assuming that's all stable and nothing drastic happens, like, You know, you don't have to be excited. (3:13) You don't have to be stoked for it, but just like, you can't hate your way out of it. (3:24) Does that make sense? (3:24) Like, you can't just I'm not saying that what's that's what you've been doing.

Speaker 1

(3:33) I think anything what we found out, like, not even seventy two hours ago, I think, you know, just get in touch with your feels. (3:41) Do it. (3:41) Get it all out of your system now. (3:43) But, you know, being making me a scapegoat, not saying you did, but I have a lot on my shoulders already. (3:58) Like, a lot.

Speaker 1

(4:01) It's a miracle I'm still standing after everything that I juggle. (4:09) Like, it's a shit windmill, and I'm trying my best. (4:16) So, anyway, I told you possible outcome number one. (4:23) So both of it starts with telling this other person what's going on because there's no way not to. (4:29) That's not me giving an order.

Speaker 1

(4:31) That's not, like, me that I'm not saying break up with anybody. (4:36) I'm saying it, like, it would just need to happen because otherwise, it would be way worse. (4:41) So I told you possible outcome one where it would be like, okay. (4:45) So I assume this would be best case for you, which would be that she stays, which is possible. (4:53) Okay?

Speaker 1

(4:54) Some people I don't know. (4:55) I don't claim to know her personality or anything, But I assume that would be good for you. (5:06) I mean because I'm assuming that's what you want. (5:11) Right?

Speaker 2

(5:12) Uh-huh. (5:12) Okay.

Speaker 1

(5:17) In that case, like, it's it's what I said. (5:20) Just I know you're gonna be in North Carolina for x number of years and then either in, what, Japan, Hawaii, California, Dallas, something like that. (5:30) Did I get it right? (5:30) Holy crap. (5:32) Nailed it.

Speaker 1

(5:35) So doesn't matter where you are. (5:37) It would still be just like pictures, video chat, you know, or whatever. (5:47) Possible outcome too. (5:48) So here's what I didn't get to because, you know, things just escalated, and then it was trailed off. (5:57) The two of you end up going your separate ways or taking a break or holding off on her moving to The States or something of that nature.

Speaker 1

(6:04) You know? (6:05) Like, I'm I'm trying to think of a very nice way of saying she's not okay with it. (6:10) Right? (6:12) I'm trying not to use those words because I don't wanna immediately put you, like, on defensive mode. (6:21) You know what I mean?

Speaker 1

(6:21) Like Mhmm. (6:23) Because I know it's all too easy to get mad at me right now. (6:26) I don't want you to do that, but you tell her and shoebox. (6:31) Whatever. (6:32) Not my fault.

Speaker 1

(6:33) It's not it's not yours entirely. (6:37) It's but the best case scenario then, you ask what I would want. (6:43) Pretty much the same in terms of the baby. (6:48) You would still be long distance. (6:50) Right?

Speaker 1

(6:51) I would say because and I'm going based on my colleagues. (6:55) Like, I have a colleague who I think I told you about him. (6:58) He he's from South Korea. (7:00) He has kids with two different women. (7:03) He's an older kid.

Speaker 1

(7:04) I think I can't remember if they live in Dallas or Houston. (7:08) He has, like, a teenager, and then he has twins with his new wife who are, like, one year old. (7:16) But, anyway, he could be at a much better there's a point to this. (7:21) Much better institution. (7:22) Like, he is a powerhouse researcher.

Speaker 1

(7:24) He produces, like, 16 articles a year. (7:26) I'm lucky if I do, like, one pub a year, like, one publication a year. (7:31) And the reason he's here is because his first wife lives in Texas. (7:37) And they don't even live in the same city, but he wants to be closer, you know, for his kids' sake. (7:42) So that's why he stayed even though he could probably be at a research one institution, not a research two institution.

Speaker 1

(7:49) Research one would be like Penn State. (7:52) You know, a big school, like Ivy League or major, you know, main campus of a state school is, you know, to be with his kids.

(8:01) So he's also, side note, stuck in a situation where his second wife and mother of his twins can't get a visa, so he only sees his twin six months a year. (8:13) But, anyway, I would say, and I don't know how this works. (8:19) I don't claim to have a clue about military life because I married a veteran.

Speaker 1

(8:23) I did not marry active duty anybody. (8:26) Right? (8:26) He was already discharged and on disability and stuff. (8:33) So that is a life I don't understand or know any I can learn, but I would say at least, however that works, make an effort to request to end up closer to Texas than, say, Japan in that situation. (8:53) Again, we're talking about, like, if she walks.

Speaker 1

(9:01) To answer like, I'm trying to hit on all your questions. (9:05) There are, like, six of them. (9:06) I'd honestly never considered the possibility of us trying for a relationship because I'd always known that you wouldn't be here for long. (9:18) You know, you were just gonna be here for a few months like everybody who is military who passes through here. (9:25) Like, so I never even entertained that.

Speaker 1

(9:32) Since you brought it up, I would not do that. (9:38) Like, I'd be willing to give it a go, not just for the baby's sake to be able to tell them I tried, but, like, I'm just I'm out of the game. (9:46) Like, I have not dated in forever. (9:49) Thirteen years. (9:49) I'm pretty sure you check the boxes of things I look for in a guy.

Speaker 1

(9:52) Like, I mean, I know we're already compatible in at least one regard. (9:55) Tongue in cheek. (9:56) But, like, it's it's so many like, I just think of it as this massive flowchart, and the title of the flowchart's called fuck. (10:09) Right? (10:10) Like and it's just because it's none of it is clean-cut.

Speaker 1

(10:18) It's so dependent on so many things that we don't know about. (10:23) But

Speaker 2

(10:23) I think it starts with do you want to keep it or not? (10:28) Yes or no? (10:30) Sounds like yes. (10:32) So you go down the path of yes, and then you go into the different scenarios like what you're talking about.

Speaker 1

(10:42) Yeah. (10:42) But I guess you could say that. (10:43) Like, I mean, when I say want to keep it, it's based on what the options are. (10:49) Do I want to be in this situation? (10:53) No.

Speaker 1

(10:53) But I am, so I have to pick a street. (10:56) Okay? (10:57) And, traditionally, there are three streets. (10:58) Keep, adopt, what you wanna do. (11:03) I am like, no.

Speaker 1

(11:05) No to a if I am carrying a child to term, I'm not no. (11:09) Just no.

Speaker 2

(11:10) That's adopting it out?

Speaker 1

(11:12) No. (11:12) Like, then my

Speaker 2

(11:14) kids would like that either.

Speaker 1

(11:16) Yeah. (11:17) That would be no. (11:19) That's a that's a hard 100% no just because, like, why would I do that when I have the ability and means to raise it? (11:29) Like, I'm not gonna risk my life and my body and, you know, not to mention, like, my kids would they're old enough to know they have a sibling, then it would be like, why why didn't you keep why don't they get to live with us? (11:45) You know, that would be crazy.

Speaker 1

(11:50) So, like, there's a huge difference between what I want and, like, I have to pick something. (11:57) Right? (12:00) I'm having a really hard like, I'm struggling with this idea of you not wanting anything to do with it because, like, I I need you to know, like, I'm not a guru, but I have eight years of experience as a parent, and here's how little kids operate. (12:18) Okay? (12:20) If you want nothing to do with it, nothing.

Speaker 1

(12:22) I mean, you realize they're gonna look at my ex as their dad because they're not gonna know any better. (12:31) Okay? (12:31) They're gonna see my three older kids who I have going with their dad, and they're gonna wanna go too. (12:38) Right? (12:39) They're not gonna understand I'm different from them or I didn't come from this person.

Speaker 1

(12:43) They don't understand that. (12:45) So your kid would want to go and tag along with my abusive ex. (12:51) Do you understand what I'm telling you? (12:53) Mhmm. (12:53) Like, also and these are the choices of generations of people who you have never even met and don't know.

Speaker 1

(13:04) Right? (13:05) I've never even met some of them. (13:07) But my this child would have no there'd be no substitute. (13:12) Right? (13:12) So they would have no male role model or figure in their lives because at risk of repeating myself

Speaker 2

(13:21) a huge reason why I don't wanna have it.

Speaker 1

(13:24) Listen. (13:25) You asked me, so I'm answering. (13:27) Okay? (13:28) Here, listen. (13:30) I have a brother.

Speaker 1

(13:31) He doesn't wanna meet me. (13:32) Okay. (13:32) So they have no uncles. (13:33) Okay? (13:34) They wouldn't have a dad.

Speaker 1

(13:35) They'd have no uncles. (13:36) Okay? (13:37) They would have no grandfather because my dad doesn't wanna meet me. (13:42) He knows I exist. (13:43) He knows I'm alive.

Speaker 1

(13:44) He knows what's up, and he doesn't wanna meet me. (13:46) They would have no dad, no uncles, no grandfather. (13:49) They would be raised by women just like I was, except I had I at least had uncles. (13:56) Okay? (13:57) They wouldn't even have that.

Speaker 1

(13:58) So, basically and I know you don't need a man. (14:05) I mean, it doesn't feel like it right now, but maybe a year ago, I would have said, I turned out okay just being raised by one parent and just being raised by, you know, a woman. (14:18) But I didn't want that for my kids. (14:20) Like, I did better than that. (14:22) Like, my mom made totally different choices than me, and I don't want that for them.

Speaker 1

(14:29) I don't want them to, you know, have to ask those questions, like What? (14:34) That I asked my entire life. (14:35) I've I've lived this. (14:37) Like, I know exactly how they're gonna think because people would ask me. (14:41) Even if I wasn't thinking about it, my friends would ask me, like, where's your dad?

Speaker 1

(14:44) And I'd be like, I don't have one. (14:46) You know what I mean? (14:47) I thought it was the the immaculate conception till I was 14. (14:50) True story. (14:51) Like, I thought, like, my mom was the only person in the world who could have, like, a kid without a dad.

Speaker 1

(15:00) It was and then I figured it out. (15:02) I was like, oh, she's a okay. (15:05) I get it. (15:06) And I it was the funniest day of my life when I found it out. (15:08) But, you know, it it's just like a generational pattern that I did not wanna repeat.

Speaker 1

(15:14) Like, I've worked so hard for to not only upward mobility, but to break that pattern. (15:26) You know? (15:29) That that would be so fucked up if the exact same thing that happened to me happened to my child, but I did all the right things. (15:36) Like, my mom didn't do all the right things. (15:38) Right?

Speaker 1

(15:38) Like, she was I did all the things. (15:40) Like, I I got I made sure my education was finished. (15:42) I made sure I had a house because I refused to, like, raise kids in an apartment. (15:48) I made sure I was married. (15:50) Like, I had all my ducks in a row.

Speaker 1

(15:52) And I had a husband, and I had then I had kids. (15:55) Right? (15:57) Okay. (15:57) Well That's

Speaker 2

(15:59) the way to do it.

Speaker 1

(16:00) Yeah. (16:00) That's what I believe in. (16:02) I believe in that you know, I know the nuclear family

Speaker 2

(16:06) I think you did it ex exactly the way I wanna do it, and it's, like, it's amazing. (16:13) What? (16:14) It was amazing. (16:15) I mean, it's amazing that you got to do that with your three kids, and you had everything set up the way you wanted to.

Speaker 1

(16:22) Yeah. (16:23) And it all got ripped away in an instant. (16:27) And a very small part of me, very small if we're being honest with each other, is I'm worried about me. (16:37) I'm I mean, I worry about everyone else all the time. (16:41) Let's say worst case scenario, for whatever reason, a technicality, something that comes up in discovery, I'm framed.

Speaker 1

(16:50) Did you know that you need to know this. (16:52) This is important because this could affect me and choices I make. (16:57) Did you know that he lied to the police about me and that there somewhere on some sergeant's desk, there is a police report for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon, and I'm facing twenty years in prison? (17:09) If I never told you that, that is how fucked my situation is. (17:12) Fortunately, he he tried to claim that I poisoned him because he's and he went and filed a police report on me saying I drugged him.

Speaker 1

(17:20) And then he he stole pills from me, overdosed himself, drove to work, went to the hospital by ambulance from work, made sure a lot of people saw him before he did this. (17:31) He did it. (17:31) Right? (17:32) And then filed a police report saying that I poisoned him, and I could get charged I could like, literally, right now, someone could come to my door and Mirandize me, and I could get charged for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon. (17:44) And then I'm doing, like, I'm doing my my nickel.

Speaker 1

(17:50) Okay. (17:51) So, anyway I'm sorry. (17:58) My my attorney is he's the biggest fucking dick. (18:01) You could never outdick him no matter how much of a dick you are. (18:04) He was he told me before our last hearing, he was like, for all we know, he's gonna tell the police that you're gonna be at this hearing, and, you know, they're gonna be there waiting to arrest you.

Speaker 1

(18:12) And I was like, oh, that didn't happen. (18:15) That could happen at any time. (18:16) I could lose my kids, my house, my income, and my freedom at any time. (18:23) A very small part of me is, like, I need something to live for. (18:29) Like, if everything that I've worked hard to build and I had it.

Speaker 1

(18:33) Like, I had it, and I earned it. (18:35) Like, I fucking earned it all. (18:37) None of this was handed to me. (18:39) I paid for my own wedding. (18:40) I did everything.

Speaker 1

(18:42) My do you know how much my mom contributed to my college education? (18:45) Zero. (18:46) Not 1p. (18:47) I went to school 100% on financial aid for eight years, which is why it was a huge fucking deal when I just got a 100 k, like, 100 g's forgiven on Christmas Day, except not because the Department of Education is in the process of getting dismantled, but it will be. (19:03) I have faith.

Speaker 1

(19:05) I clawed my way out of, you know, being raised by a an elderly disabled single mother and built a life for myself. (19:16) And it's it could come down tomorrow. (19:19) It could come down in a few months. (19:23) And it's like, I don't know if this is like I often question my how I've survived this long. (19:31) Like, if I went through an abortion, let me just say that word out loud, and lost my kids and lost my house and lost my like, what is there to live for?

Speaker 1

(19:43) Do you get what I mean? (19:44) Like, I can only handle so much as a human being. (19:47) You're not starting with a human being who is living a normal life. (19:50) Like, I am living through traumas that most people will not have as part of the human experience.

(19:58) Okay?

Speaker 2

(19:59) I agree.

Speaker 1

(20:01) Thank you. (20:02) I understand. (20:03) So it's not like a clean slate where it's like, oh, this is just one little bump in the road, and you'll be fine eventually. (20:09) Like, this this is like adding to a mountain of unsurvivable trauma. (20:13) Like, and here's where I'm gonna tell you something.

Speaker 1

(20:19) Like, I'm sorry. (20:20) You're gonna think I'm I'm nuts. (20:21) Like, you're not recording, are you? (20:23) No. (20:24) I've done this before.

Speaker 2

(20:25) Getting ready for bed.

Speaker 1

(20:26) I understand. (20:26) I understand, but I can't bring you here every night, and you can't I'm gonna be on the phone with my paralegal. (20:32) And okay. (20:33) I've done this

Speaker 2

(20:34) I'm not trying to rush you or, like, be insensitive. (20:37) I just have to be up and on base at 8AM.

Speaker 1

(20:39) I fucking get it. (20:41) Okay? (20:41) And you're asking me to do something really, really, really serious serious and and that that you can't take back once you've done it. (20:47) And it can affect mental health, which is already precarious at best. (20:52) Like, you know, you don't see me when like, during dark days, but I have a lot of dark days.

Speaker 1

(21:01) Like, you see me when I'm happy go lucky. (21:03) Right? (21:04) And just

Speaker 2

(21:05) Or angry at me.

Speaker 1

(21:10) Yeah. (21:10) You don't see me when I'm, like, bad. (21:16) Okay. (21:20) I'm how do I put this? (21:22) I'm worried this is gonna be the straw that broke the camel's back, like, in the coffin.

Speaker 1

(21:25) You get what I'm saying? (21:27) Like, I have PTSD diagnosed. (21:31) I have anxiety. (21:32) I have depression. (21:33) I have acute stress disorder.

Speaker 1

(21:35) No. (21:36) No. (21:36) No. (21:37) I had that, then it lasted longer than a month. (21:39) Acute stress disorder is PTSD that's less than one month.

Speaker 1

(21:42) It lasted more than one month. (21:43) It's PTSD. (21:44) An adjustment disorder, which is, like, basically what everyone gets when they go through a major trauma, like a war or a divorce or being a domestic violence victim. (21:55) Like, I've got shit that apparently I'm gonna need to turn over to opposing counsel. (22:02) And I don't know if I can take this.

Speaker 1

(22:05) Right? (22:05) Like and I know there are risks either way. (22:08) Like, just the hormonal changes that come with being pregnant, like, that could send you into all kinds of shit. (22:15) Right? (22:15) Like, your mental health can suffer just because of the drastic chemical changes that go on in your body.

Speaker 1

(22:22) But I have a hard time thinking, you know, that didn't really happen the first however many times. (22:27) Four. (22:29) Four times. (22:31) I've also never been pregnant under these, like, circumstances. (22:35) Does that make sense?

Speaker 1

(22:37) You know? (22:38) So everything I'm going through now, doing it alone without a partner, okay, that's new. (22:47) With three kids, that's new. (22:49) I mean, even my last pregnancy, had a partner, and there were only two kids. (22:51) Right?

Speaker 1

(22:52) Totally different. (22:54) Oh, and I'm doing that and, you know, might have to show up to court next week. (22:59) You know?

Speaker 2

(23:00) Those all seem like reasons why you wouldn't want it.

Speaker 1

(23:05) I'm talking about the act of terminating itself. (23:09) Like, that wrecks havoc on your it can. (23:12) I mean, some people are

Speaker 2

(23:14) I mean

Speaker 1

(23:15) relieved. (23:15) You know what

Speaker 2

(23:16) I mean? (23:16) I have a

Speaker 1

(23:18) question. (23:18) Yeah.

Speaker 2

(23:20) So, I mean, you're saying that, I mean, you had a bad upbringing, and you want to Not

Speaker 1

(23:29) a bad upbringing. (23:30) Just a single parent upbringing, and I never knew my dad. (23:32) I still don't.

Speaker 2

(23:33) So you had those issues. (23:35) Because everybody has issues, but you have those issues. (23:38) And you don't wanna continue that. (23:44) That's that's

Speaker 1

(23:44) Ideally not.

Speaker 2

(23:47) And so by bringing in another kid, it would be doing the same thing. (23:56) But at the same time, you're saying that having the baby, it's almost gives you, like, something to look forward to and, like, a reason

Speaker 1

(24:08) forward to. (24:09) That that's that was the wrong way of putting it.

Speaker 2

(24:11) I think you also said, like, this sound like or, like, a reason to live, like, something to look forward to.

Speaker 1

(24:17) Not look forward to. (24:18) Like, right now, it it's it's hard to not fall into, like, woe is me, and everything is being taken away. (24:31) Like or people are trying to. (24:33) Like, it hasn't been yet, but it could any second, and that's what people are trying to do actively and on paper. (24:39) They're trying to take away my kids, my house, my stability, everything.

Speaker 1

(24:43) Like

Speaker 2

(24:44) Everything you've worked

Speaker 1

(24:45) Yes.

Speaker 2

(24:45) And built for.

Speaker 1

(24:46) And you're trying to take this away. (24:48) Do you get it? (24:50) Okay. (24:52) I am only human. (24:54) I have been a super strong human.

Speaker 1

(24:57) I have been, like, just pillar of strength for my kids because I needed to be because I knew they needed me. (25:03) But this is like, how much more would you be able to take all that? (25:09) You know? (25:09) Like

Speaker 2

(25:10) I see it as you already have three huge, amazing reasons to continue fighting, and you said that continuing this could potentially jeopardize, like, a serious way, like, your court case, which could jeopardize you with those three. (25:36) And that's that's a guarantee. (25:38) Like, you have those kids already. (25:41) That's and it's almost guaranteed to possibly jeopardize that. (25:47) And he's talking about the cycle.

Speaker 2

(25:50) Yeah. (25:50) Go ahead.

Speaker 1

(25:54) Don't forget the piece about okay. (26:02) On the spectrum, having it and not having it are not

Speaker 2

(26:08) Mutually exclusive? (26:10) Like, mutually exclusive?

Speaker 1

(26:11) Like, it's a matter of finding out that I did that act. (26:18) It's not the presence or absence of a kid. (26:21) Does that make sense? (26:22) Like, the thing I'm gonna get in trouble for isn't the presence or absence of a fourth child. (26:27) It's having done that, what led to that with someone else.

Speaker 1

(26:31) So, like, let me put it this way. (26:35) If I did what you want me to do, I could be in just as much trouble. (26:39) I will be. (26:39) In fact, I might be in more if this goes to a jury trial, which holy make it rain.

Speaker 2

(26:47) But

Speaker 1

(26:48) That could be way worse. (26:50) Way worse, actually, if I did what you want me to do because now for the, conservative crowd, okay, it doesn't matter, like, all those things I've done right or the fact that I have protected my children. (27:07) I have done everything else right on paper and in reality. (27:11) Like, all anyone will hear is, oh, shit. (27:14) Do you get what I'm saying?

Speaker 2

(27:15) Okay.

Speaker 1

(27:16) And immediately vote in his favor. (27:18) Like, he gets the kids. (27:20) Do you get what I'm saying? (27:22) Having it is not the opposite of not having it. (27:26) Yeah.

Speaker 1

(27:27) Or it's

Speaker 2

(27:27) I mean, I see what you're saying. (27:29) I just feel like that's a little bit of a stretch, but I'm sure there's some very far right leaning people out there.

Speaker 1

(27:38) Did you hear me say I have gone through this before? (27:40) Like, I didn't tell you how that, like, number one ended, but I have done this before. (27:45) I don't think I can fucking do that again. (27:48) I can't do it. (27:49) And I don't want you to hear that and go, oh, she's done it once.

Speaker 1

(27:52) I can I can get her to do it again? (27:53) No. (27:54) Like, you are much less likely going to be able to get me to do that again because that was fucking horrific. (27:59) You don't need to sit here and tell me, sorry. (28:02) I don't wanna sound mad.

Speaker 1

(28:04) I'm not mad. (28:04) But, like, here's where I need you to not rush me because this is big shit. (28:08) Okay? (28:10) You don't need to tell me what's gonna happen or what you know, you're gonna experience this for one day or, like, the worst that's gonna happen is you're gonna get a stomach ache or whatever. (28:18) I know what happens because I've done it before.

Speaker 1

(28:20) Okay?

Speaker 2

(28:20) I thought you reading off. (28:22) I was just reading off online. (28:24) No. (28:25) Done it before.

Speaker 1

(28:26) A what?

Speaker 2

(28:27) I've never done it before.

Speaker 1

(28:28) Okay. (28:28) But you're you were explaining to me because I don't know what happened.

Speaker 2

(28:33) Being kind of dickish. (28:33) What? (28:35) I was being kind of dickish away in the way I did it. (28:38) Thank you. (28:39) I

Speaker 1

(28:40) appreciate that. (28:42) Like, how what did you think when I told you, like, these are not my first, second, and third disease or my second, third, and fourth? (28:49) Like, how did you think that story ended? (28:51) Like, out of curiosity.

Speaker 2

(28:52) I mean, you told me it ended with an abortion.

Speaker 1

(28:54) I didn't tell you that. (28:55) I'm telling you that now. (28:57) I did not tell you that. (28:59) Like and that doesn't even make sense because then why would you be telling me, like, here's what's gonna happen. (29:04) If you take these pills, it's like, if you thought I did that, then, oh, are you talking about you thought I got the a surgical, like, what what did you think happened?

Speaker 1

(29:14) I'm confused. (29:15) Like, this isn't adding up yet.

Speaker 2

(29:16) Really think of, like, how you got it. (29:19) I literally just was looking through. (29:22) I was reading about the pills and, like, the effects and everything and, like

Speaker 1

(29:25) So you

Speaker 2

(29:25) trying to be prepared for it and what to expect. (29:29) And I didn't I'm not it's not even crossing into my mind, like, oh, yeah. (29:33) She's already done it. (29:34) I'm just literally reading

Speaker 1

(29:36) So you know

Speaker 2

(29:37) and regurgitating.

Speaker 1

(29:39) It's the it's fucking horrifying. (29:42) It's not as simple as you think.

Speaker 2

(29:47) It sounds like the earlier you get it, the, like, easier it is.

Speaker 1

(29:52) I think I did it

Speaker 2

(29:53) at You would know. (29:55) Alright?

Speaker 1

(29:56) I did it at maybe nine weeks. (29:59) Seven weeks. (30:00) It was seven weeks, but they go by the date of your last period, so it's nine. (30:04) Like, whatever date it gets two weeks gets added. (30:08) Okay.

Speaker 2

(30:08) That's almost like the very end of

Speaker 1

(30:10) the No. (30:11) So it was seven. (30:12) Okay. (30:12) The way you're thinking, it it was seven, and it was the sketchiest shit. (30:18) Keep in mind, this was before anything was overturned.

Speaker 1

(30:22) It was when I went into Planned Parenthood Columbia. (30:25) Okay? (30:26) No protesters outside. (30:27) Thank the fuck Christ. (30:29) And it was just, like, a fucking HIPAA nightmare.

Speaker 1

(30:33) They're literally like, okay. (30:35) Like, you know, any doctor's office you go into, like, you need to know this. (30:39) You need to know realistically what this is gonna look like. (30:41) Like, say I were to travel out of state. (30:44) It's these places are fucking they know people are desperate, and they treat you like you're desperate.

Speaker 1

(30:49) So any other doctor's office you went into, you know, they might call your last name or call you one at a time. (30:54) You know what they did? (30:55) They huddle you into a room. (30:57) Okay? (30:58) And they're like, raise your hand if you're here for the medication abortion.

Speaker 1

(31:01) Everyone's like, okay. (31:03) Raise your hand if okay. (31:04) Medication abortion, go here. (31:06) Surgical abortion, and that they line you up assembly line style, and you pee in a cup just one bitch after another. (31:12) Okay?

Speaker 1

(31:13) And then the attending physician, who I assume has had his license, suspended several times, I cannot make this up, cut off scrubs. (31:29) Like, cut off made his white coat into a tank top. (31:33) Can't make this up. (31:34) Okay? (31:35) Is the one who hands you a cup because legally, it has to be a doctor.

Speaker 1

(31:38) Right? (31:39) So fucking looks like he rides a motorcycle in his scrubs. (31:44) And then they give you a second set just in case the first set doesn't work, and they duct tape it. (31:49) I can't make this up. (31:50) This is it's this is a Planned Parenthood.

Speaker 1

(31:52) This isn't, like, some person who does this out of their basement. (31:56) Like, these Okay. (31:58) And then oh, when they give you the RhoGAM shot, they don't wear gloves. (32:03) I've I've

Speaker 2

(32:05) They give you a what? (32:06) RhoGAM. (32:08) Like Shot in your butt? (32:09) Yeah.

Speaker 1

(32:10) They give you shot in your ass.

Speaker 2

(32:11) Before you take pills?

Speaker 1

(32:13) Yeah. (32:14) Because if like, most people don't know the father's blood type. (32:18) So if you are O negative like I am or sorry. (32:22) Anything that

Speaker 2

(32:22) You're negative with a positive?

Speaker 1

(32:24) Yes. (32:24) So they just like, it won't hurt you if you're like, if the father is negative as well, but it will hurt you if the father's positive and you didn't know about it. (32:36) Like, it could affect, well, through trying to get rid of that pregnancy, so it doesn't matter. (32:41) But, like, you know, future pregnancies so, anyway, it it's just the sketchiest shit I've ever done in my life. (32:48) Like, seriously, no one's wearing gloves, and they they are doing invasive procedures.

Speaker 1

(32:54) Like, anything with a needle is an invasive procedure. (32:57) Just ultrasound one after another, put a condom over it, right at the twat, spray it off. (33:06) Next person, it's still warm from some other girl in front of me. (33:09) It's nasty. (33:10) It is so nasty.

Speaker 1

(33:12) And these places are so I can't even this was 02/2011. (33:15) I can't even imagine how overrun and overcrowded are they are now that, like, three quarters of them have been shut down around the country. (33:22) But, anyway

Speaker 2

(33:23) Can do you mind if I just kinda tell you how I envisioned it?

Speaker 1

(33:29) How do you envision it?

Speaker 2

(33:32) So it's in the mail. (33:35) You get the pills that are required to do it.

Speaker 1

(33:37) Why is it in the mail? (33:38) I didn't say okay to that.

Speaker 2

(33:40) And you don't have to report it to anybody. (33:45) You take it in the safety, comfort of your home. (33:50) And what I pictured happening is I would prep for it. (33:56) I would get some ginger ales, some painkillers, some chocolates, whatever goodies you like, you enjoy. (34:05) Like, actually, like, try to pamper you, take care of you, make sure it's, like I don't know what candy or food you like besides Cheez Its.

Speaker 2

(34:18) But the first day, you take it.

Speaker 1

(34:24) I have food in my house other than Cheez Its. (34:27) Like

Speaker 2

(34:28) know. (34:28) But you get up

Speaker 1

(34:29) fridge. (34:30) You've seen my pantry. (34:31) I have a I have a second fridge in the garage. (34:34) You know that. (34:34) Right?

Speaker 2

(34:35) I would get you stuff that you like. (34:37) Yeah.

Speaker 1

(34:38) Okay. (34:38) Cheez Its. (34:39) Let's go with that.

Speaker 2

(34:39) And then you take the pill, the first one, and it's you just take a pill. (34:46) There's no shot in your butt or anything. (34:48) You just swallow. (34:51) And then it starts to be painful. (34:56) I I have to re I mean, it's like the symptoms vary.

Speaker 2

(35:00) Right? (35:00) But then the next day, twenty four hours later

Speaker 1

(35:04) I've done this before. (35:05) Like, you're explaining something I've done before.

Speaker 2

(35:07) Okay. (35:07) And then and then the next day, you take the the next four, and then it's done, and then you deal with the pain for, like, two days.

Speaker 1

(35:18) You you don't know. (35:19) You just don't know.

Speaker 2

(35:20) I mean, that's what I've read. (35:22) That's yeah.

Speaker 1

(35:23) Can I finish what it's really like?

Speaker 2

(35:25) Yeah. (35:26) I mean, that's that's just how I envisioned it going. (35:28) So Okay.

Speaker 1

(35:32) I wish it was like that. (35:33) Okay. (35:36) Because these facilities are so at risk at getting shut down, and I know this is, like, in the mail, but I don't know how there you realize that it's not just these pills. (35:50) Like, there are at least three other prescription meds you need that go with this. (35:54) Like, you need antibiotics.

Speaker 1

(35:56) You need antibiotics. (35:57) So, yes, it's the like, I call it M and M. (35:59) It's whatever.

Speaker 2

(36:00) Yeah. (36:01) Yeah. (36:01) It's two in names.

Speaker 1

(36:02) I don't know. (36:05) M and M. (36:05) Okay. (36:06) You got your M and M's. (36:08) Right?

Speaker 1

(36:08) That's the real deal.

Speaker 2

(36:09) Day one, day two.

Speaker 1

(36:11) I I know. (36:12) I've done it before. (36:13) I never wanted to okay. (36:15) You need antibiotics. (36:16) Okay?

Speaker 1

(36:16) Because

Speaker 2

(36:17) Like what? (36:18) For what?

Speaker 1

(36:19) To prevent infection. (36:20) It's your essentially, like, not having a, obviously, full term date, but you're, like, dilating and things that normally remain closed are now opening up and making you prone to infection. (36:34) They prescribe okay. (36:35) So if this were done in a clinic setting, can I tell you what they take give you? (36:38) Alright.

Speaker 1

(36:40) This is where I left off. (36:41) First of all, they give you a second set of pills. (36:44) Okay? (36:44) They give you a second set of what you have apparently ordered, which I goosebump. (36:53) Okay.

Speaker 1

(36:54) Without asking. (36:56) Because sometimes it doesn't work the first time. (36:59) It doesn't fucking work the first time. (37:01) They literally send every woman who they hoarded into a room and said, who's here for I forgot this part. (37:07) You have to know this because you need to know what I've fucking gone through and why I don't wanna do this shit.

Speaker 1

(37:11) They then they come around with a vanilla envelope and collect your $500. (37:16) Everybody. (37:17) Like, literally, you waive it like a stripper, and they collect it. (37:20) Okay. (37:20) You get to go to the back.

Speaker 1

(37:21) You get to go like, it's sketchy. (37:23) This is happening in plantations. (37:25) Anyway

Speaker 2

(37:27) But this wouldn't?

Speaker 1

(37:28) Okay. (37:28) But a lot is missing here. (37:31) So so they send you home with a second set, which they duct tape. (37:35) And I don't know what they're afraid of. (37:36) They tell you, you're probably gonna throw this in the trash.

Speaker 1

(37:39) They won't tell you what it is, but because I'm inquisitive and I'm not just gonna like, you can't give me prescription that's wrapped in not duct tape. (37:46) Electrical tape. (37:47) It was wrapped in electrical tape. (37:50) And then be like, don't take this. (37:53) And they were acting like I was like, they were like, why do you wanna know?

Speaker 1

(37:56) I was like, you're giving me this. (37:57) You're not you you don't need to know what it's for. (37:59) I was like, but then why are you giving it to me? (38:01) Like, I was actually asking. (38:02) Like, I'm like, I'm telling you now.

Speaker 1

(38:05) Girl, I'm worried about you. (38:07) This is South Carolina. (38:08) You know? (38:09) What do I do with this? (38:10) Like, you know anyway, I looked it up later.

Speaker 1

(38:14) It it's around two in case it doesn't come out the first time. (38:18) So that's a problem. (38:19) Okay. (38:19) And the the antibiotics, this is important. (38:22) This is probably I should have started with this one.

Speaker 1

(38:24) There's a prescription anti nausea medication because this will make you puke within an inch of your life. (38:32) Okay? (38:32) It is like, the idea is it triggers contractions, so you're like, but not just down there. (38:41) I mean, everything. (38:42) You will empty the contents of your stomach in both directions.

Speaker 1

(38:47) I took the I don't know what it was. (38:49) I took I could probably I think I destroyed all evidence of that. (38:55) But, anyway, I think I kept the ultrasound photos, and that was it. (39:01) Dark times. (39:03) Anyway and then you need painkillers, is what you said.

Speaker 1

(39:07) So you thought of that, but, like, I would say

Speaker 2

(39:11) There's nothing you can do about the vomiting or the puke or pooping.

Speaker 1

(39:16) You would puke out the pills. (39:17) Do you understand the problem? (39:19) Okay.

(39:20) So the first one, the day one of the M and M's, that just stops the fetus from growing.

(39:28) It it just

Speaker 2

(39:29) Stops the whatever the hormone is that gets tested on the PEE test?

Speaker 1

(39:35) It just no. (39:36) It just stops it from growing. (39:38) So what a lot of people do is they panic, not me, but, like and they or they have regrets, and they don't take the second pill.

(39:47) And what would happen is, like, you you have a kid who's born like this, like, have no arms and legs, because it it's it's fucking horrific. (39:57) Okay.

Speaker 1

(39:57) So, yeah, it stops the growth. (39:59) That's what the first one does. (40:01) I'm rusty.

(40:02) I haven't looked this up in a while. (40:03) The second one is what activates contractions and makes it all come out.

Speaker 1

(40:08) So it's the second one, not the the first one is like taking a sugar pill. (40:13) Like, it's nothing. (40:14) Right? (40:15) It's the second one.

Speaker 2

(40:16) It's obviously something if it fucks up the fetus.

Speaker 1

(40:18) Right? (40:19) Yeah. (40:19) It's it's it's Frankenstein. (40:22) Like, I it's something that really shouldn't happen to a living thing, and I I a thousand feminists just fainted. (40:30) But, anyway, it's the second one makes you violently ill.

Speaker 1

(40:36) Okay? (40:36) And if you don't the problem with that is if you don't have whatever the nausea drug is, you're gonna puke it up. (40:44) And if you puke it up, the contractions are gonna stop. (40:46) It's not gonna come out. (40:47) Now you're just stuck pregnant, and you have to go in for a C round two or a D and C, which I've had a D and C, not for this.

Speaker 1

(40:55) Do you know what that is?

Speaker 2

(40:56) What's a D and C?

Speaker 1

(40:58) Dilation and They scrape you out from the inside. (41:04) Hold on.

Speaker 2

(41:06) I I get the idea.

Speaker 1

(41:08) Yeah. (41:08) I had that after when I you know, how I almost died with my two born children. (41:13) I had to have an emergency D and C when I had a piece of retained placenta after I had Cali, and that's when I had the blood transfusion. (41:22) But, yeah, they vigorously scrape you out with a fucking that's what would happen if you or what could happen. (41:31) It's one of the I mean, there are a thousand complications.

Speaker 1

(41:33) You know? (41:34) It could just not work, which is why, like, a clinic would give you two sets of pills. (41:41) You could puke it up, and then you don't get the full dose. (41:44) Okay? (41:45) And then you just you're you're pregnant with a child that's gonna have birth defects, or you have to go to a hospital, and now there's a paper trail.

Speaker 1

(41:55) And I have kids now. (41:58) This is when I was, like, I was 23, free as a bird.
(42:01) Like, I just pretended I was sick and didn't go into I was a graduate assistant. (42:07)
I was, sorry. (42:07) I can't help with fitness testing today.

Speaker 1

(42:09) I have a fever.

Speaker 2

(42:11) And how how bad do you feel like, for how long after the second day stuff? (42:17)
So you take the second day pills, and you feel like and you're throwing up and just

Speaker 1

(42:23) I'm not done. (42:24) So I I could go on about my experience with the offender.
(42:32) The guy who said he would be there said all the same things as you, by the way.
(42:36) I know this is a different person, but all the same things as you. (42:41) Said, I'm here if you need me.

Speaker 1

(42:42) Just, like, say code red. (42:44) Just text me code red. (42:45) Right?

Speaker 2

(42:46) We can't really text

Speaker 1

(42:49) Okay. (42:49) So it kicked in right on time, right when it should. (42:54) I'm in my on campus apartment at USC. (42:59) Code fucking red. (43:01) I'm at the state fair with my girlfriend.

Speaker 1

(43:03) Great. (43:03) Bring me a funnel cake. (43:04) Like okay. (43:05) So I'm like, I'm about to die. (43:08) Oh my god.

Speaker 1

(43:09) I cannot ride this out on land. (43:11) Like, I'm getting in the shower. (43:12) So I get in the shower. (43:15) I'm half in the shower, half on a toilet bowl. (43:18) Like and I do not like puking into toilets, just so you know.

Speaker 1

(43:22) I am too bougie. (43:23) I I puke into six. (43:24) But just bodily functions, don't even need to know. (43:31) And he's like, I'm we're at, like, Foot Locker. (43:34) They were shoe shopping at this point.

Speaker 1

(43:36) I'm like, code fucking red. (43:38) I am dying. (43:39) Okay? (43:39) I am fucking dying. (43:41) And, I started to panic.

Speaker 1

(43:44) So I managed to get out of the shower and take an Ativan, which I have a prescription for, which was really fucking risky. (43:52) I could have fucked the whole thing up, but I was panicking and alone. (43:55) Like, alone

Speaker 2

(43:55) doing What is an Ativan?

Speaker 1

(43:58) It's a benzodiazepine. (43:59) It it's okay. (44:01) Sorry. (44:01) Sorry.

Speaker 2

(44:02) Painkiller?

Speaker 1

(44:03) No. (44:03) It's for anxiety.

Speaker 2

(44:05) Like, it

Speaker 1

(44:05) it dwarfs panic attacks. (44:07) But

Speaker 2

(44:07) Okay.

Speaker 1

(44:08) It also it kind of works as a muscle relaxant, which I didn't think about until after I took it. (44:14) I must have been far enough along in the process because what could have happened by taking that and I fucked up the whole bottle because I was soaking wet in the shower. (44:24) And I reached into it with a wet hand and dissolved the other 30, so I ended up having to throw out the whole thing. (44:29) But, anyway, it was a shit show. (44:32) I took an Ativan because I'm panicking.

Speaker 1

(44:34) Like, I'm panicking. (44:36) I think I'm gonna die, and, he is the only person in the world who knows this is happening, and he's with his girlfriend. (44:44) I had a boyfriend. (44:45) He didn't know it was happening. (44:47) And, I take it.

Speaker 1

(44:49) And Ativan, because it it's a it's a depressant. (44:53) It's a central nervous system depressant. (44:56) It puts you to sleep. (44:58) So I guess I don't remember. (45:01) I don't know how, but, you know, it's an apartment, so you there's endless hot water.

Speaker 1

(45:05) You never run out of hot water. (45:08) But I passed out in the shower or or fell asleep. (45:12) One of the two. (45:12) I laid down. (45:13) I woke up two hours later, and it was over.

Speaker 1

(45:16) And I lived, I guess, and I was kind of out of it. (45:23) And I then went to my lifeguarding shift and almost passed out.

Speaker 2

(45:30) And my to work after?

Speaker 1

(45:32) Yes. (45:35) Because I was 23 and alone out of state for the first time in my life. (45:42) This was, like, two months after I moved to South Carolina. (45:45) Like, I'd never lived I'd gone away for school, but I'd never gone that far from home before. (45:51) Like, I live in Pittsburgh.

Speaker 1

(45:52) I went to Penn State for my undergrad. (45:53) That was, like, three hours away. (45:55) Right? (45:56) And then yeah. (45:57) So I was, like, really, like, for real, for real, away from home.

Speaker 1

(46:01) I don't know anybody except for a couple people. (46:05) Like, I'm not gonna tell my fellow grad assistants. (46:07) I've only known them for two months. (46:09) Like, I can't tell anybody. (46:11) Got knocked up by a guy, by a girlfriend, learned nothing thirteen years later.

Speaker 1

(46:16) I digress. (46:17) And, yeah, I this happened alone, which is so dangerous. (46:24) Like, imagine if I hadn't, like, woken up from that. (46:27) If something had happened, like, they would have found me, what, done some kind of wellness check, found me in the shower three days later. (46:35) Like, how fucked would that have been?

Speaker 1

(46:37) Right? (46:37) Yeah. (46:37) So, anyway, went to my lifeguarding shift. (46:41) At this point, I'm like I think I was in shock, like, because I went out that night. (46:46) I'm I can't make this up.

Speaker 1

(46:47) I went it was, like, Halloween weekend. (46:49) It was 10/28/2011. (46:51) I will never forget it.

Speaker 2

(46:53) Dude, you're kind of a degenerate back then.

Speaker 1

(46:55) What?

Speaker 2

(46:56) I said you're kind of a degenerate back then. (46:58) Jesus.

Speaker 1

(47:00) I was in shock. (47:01) Like, I was you realize I I was like it was traumatic. (47:06) It was so every part of it.

Speaker 2

(47:07) You were in shock, so let's go out and party.

Speaker 1

(47:11) I was in a like, maybe not in a daze. (47:14) Like, I'm I I felt like I had nothing to lose. (47:19) Like, I had just had a self managed abortion with no support alone in a strange still strange to me state. (47:30) Ended up living there for three years, but I was still alone. (47:33) I was like, I was a kid.

Speaker 1

(47:35) And, yeah, I went out that night, drank heavily on top of Ativan, and ended up puking again by I didn't puke during the thing. (47:46) I almost did, but I ended up puking within an inch of my life in a sonic bathroom that night. (47:52) And then here's the here's one thing that you do need to know because I I know some of these things I'm describing are awfully specific to the circumstances, but, like, you don't just bleed for, like, two days. (48:05) This was October 28. (48:06) I so Halloween.

Speaker 1

(48:07) Let's round. (48:08) Halloween. (48:09) I bled till Christmas. (48:10) Like, I was bleeding out for two months. (48:16) I think I stopped Christmas Eve.

Speaker 1

(48:18) Like, it it's so fucked up. (48:20) All of it. (48:21) All of it. (48:22) Even if you do it the so called right way and you go to

Speaker 2

(48:27) a

Speaker 1

(48:27) clinic, like, they get away with stuff because they're I'm sure people way more desperate than me. (48:36) It's not like they're gonna complain or report it or anything. (48:44) But, yeah, I got ghosted mid abortion. (48:47) And it was fucking horrific. (48:55) And I cannot go through that again.

Speaker 1

(48:57) I just I can't fucking do that again because I I did that because I had to because I was being blackmailed and because I was

Speaker 2

(49:08) That sets the bar pretty low.

Speaker 1

(49:12) For what?

Speaker 2

(49:14) I mean, that's literally, like, the worst case scenario.

Speaker 1

(49:18) I've been through the ringer. (49:20) Like, seriously, I should write a book. (49:26) So, like, all the shit that's happened to me, you know, no dad and, you know, what I just talked to you about and the

Speaker 2

(49:41) family that I made

Speaker 1

(49:41) for myself, made I got it. (49:43) I didn't have a nuclear family. (49:44) I made myself one. (49:45) It was perfect, great, wonderful, and then I lost it for no reason. (49:51) And now I'm about to lose everything else.

Speaker 1

(49:55) Oh, and I could get charged with, you know, like

Speaker 2

(49:59) What we said earlier.

Speaker 1

(50:01) Yes. (50:03) Do you understand, like, why an abortion is the last fucking thing I need right now? (50:08) It's, like, fucking shoot me. (50:10) What? (50:11) You know what I mean?

Speaker 2

(50:11) I mean, I'm obviously biased in the other direction. (50:16) But I I see it as I see it as the opposite of you see it as the last thing you need is an abortion. (50:24) I see it as the last thing you need is a pregnancy right now.

Speaker 1

(50:32) It's not just the physical. (50:33) Like, sure. (50:34) I'd probably survive.

Speaker 2

(50:35) And and I I completely get where you're coming from of, like, knowing what you're doing to an unborn kid and plus all this shit that you're gonna have to deal with afterwards. (50:47) It's not, like, just a two day thing.

Speaker 1

(50:51) Yeah. (50:52) Like, it would I'm I'm trying to imagine. (50:55) Best case scenario, I'd probably I can't even do it in the shower because now I live in a house with limited hot water. (51:05) Best case scenario, I'm mind willing this to be over with by the time I have to do after school pickup. (51:10) Do you realize how fucked up this is?

Speaker 2

(51:13) Wait. (51:13) I don't get it.

Speaker 1

(51:15) Like I pick up my kids every day after school.

Speaker 2

(51:17) Right?

Speaker 1

(51:19) The first time I did this, I didn't have anything to worry about except me, myself, and I. (51:24) Right? (51:25) Okay. (51:26) Okay. (51:27) Let's say I did I timed this.

Speaker 1

(51:29) Right? (51:29) Because one of the features, right, one of the things that makes, you know, the at home, much more to empowering or whatever is the fact that you get to choose the time. (51:38) Okay. (51:39) So best case scenario, I start right after they leave. (51:42) It could take some time.

Speaker 1

(51:45) If it takes too long, what the fuck are am I gonna do if 03:00 rolls around? (51:52) What am I gonna do?

Speaker 2

(51:56) Ask me for help since I don't know how I mean, if I have to pick them up from places, if I'm allowed to pick them up.

Speaker 1

(52:06) That's the thing. (52:08) You you would be if I told the the school in advance. (52:11) Like, I was like, if I emailed the attendance clerk and their teachers, and I was like, hey. (52:18) My neighbor's picking them up, and I'd probably have to send a picture because they've asked me for that before, like, a pic whenever I'm having a rando pick up my kids for some reason, which hasn't happened much, but, like, I had to arrange that the day of the hearing. (52:33) You know, they I sent them a picture.

Speaker 1

(52:35) And

Speaker 2

(52:38) oh my god. (52:46) I'm sure that I could get at least a day off, and then I could be here and do whatever needs to be done, like, logistically.

Speaker 1

(53:04) It's so nerve wracking, though. (53:07) Like, being on a timeline to do such a thing, like

Speaker 2

(53:12) Well and that's once like, if I could be available the whole time to help with those things, to reduce stress, to reduce what issues would pop up. (53:24) There's an issue that pops up. (53:26) Alright. (53:27) I'm there.

Speaker 1

(53:30) And if it doesn't if it doesn't work, then what?

Speaker 2

(53:42) I mean, at that point, I feel like I've given my best shot. (53:49) And at that point, the I don't have anything else.

Speaker 1

(53:54) Surgery. (53:55) Surgery is the answer. (53:57) I have to take my ass down to the ER.

Speaker 2

(54:00) I don't think that's even an option because you can't do that in Texas.

Speaker 1

(54:08) Thank you for reminding me of that. (54:09) That's fucking scary as shit.

Speaker 2

(54:11) You can't get C sections. (54:13) And the people, when it comes to

Speaker 1

(54:17) Not a C section. (54:18) C section is

Speaker 2

(54:19) Just a just snortions in general. (54:23) But So when it's

Speaker 1

(54:25) Oh my god.

Speaker 2

(54:25) Oh

Speaker 1

(54:25) my Oh my god. (54:26) I'm so glad you said that because I I forgot about that.
(54:30) It has to be, like, my life is at stake. (54:32) So just simply, hey. (54:33) I did a self managed thing at home.

Speaker 1

(54:35) That would be good. (54:36) They would have to I've heard horror stories about this.
(54:39) I would literally have to wait until I'm septic before they did something. (54:44) I would have to wait

Speaker 2

(54:44) until what? (54:45) Like, emergency people came to help?

Speaker 1

(54:49) In order to finish the job. (54:51) Like, it I'm telling you it might not work. (54:53)
Like so you know how I said they like, if you did this at a clinic, they give you, like, they give you an extra number two pill.

Speaker 2

(55:02) That's also what I'm getting. (55:05) It just came with it.

Speaker 1

(55:07) Oh, it comes with

Speaker 2

(55:09) So you get so you get

Speaker 1

(55:11) Can you show me what your

Speaker 2

(55:14) It's one pill.

Speaker 1

(55:16) And from where? (55:17) Because that was part of what you were gonna tell me.
(55:19) You were gonna show me from where because I have no way of knowing him just do what you said yet.

Speaker 2

(55:25) Yeah. (55:25) I'll send it to you.

Speaker 1

(55:27) No. (55:27) Don't send it to me. (55:29) Don't fucking send it to me. (55:30) That's why you're here right now.

Speaker 2

(55:31) Alright. (55:32) Yeah. (55:33) I'll pull it up.

Speaker 1

(55:34) Trail ends. (55:35) It fucking ends now.

Speaker 2

(55:37) But it's one pill, eight hundred milligrams of the first m, and then it's eight pills, two hundred micrograms of the other m, and one dose

Speaker 1

(55:53) in your mouth and you let it dissolve.

Speaker 2

(55:55) And and one dose of the second m, you need eight hundred milligrams. (56:01) That's why one dose is four of those, but getting eight pills. (56:06) So that's why

Speaker 1

(56:07) So you only take four to start?

Speaker 2

(56:10) That's that's the whole thing. (56:12) It's not start. (56:13) A dosage is the four of the second, and that's supposed to be to finish. (56:18) But I guess you they give you another round of the second day in case yeah.

Speaker 1

(56:26) So they give you the I call it, like, the throw out pills. (56:28) Like, they give you

Speaker 2

(56:31) An an insurance in case you throw it up, I guess.

Speaker 1

(56:38) Okay. (56:38) And what about that? (56:41) Because you're basically, like, throwing up You're it's

Speaker 2

(56:47) You're emptying your whole system?

Speaker 1

(56:49) Yes. (56:50) It's

Speaker 2

(56:52) So I go and get

Speaker 1

(56:53) colonoscopy prep.

Speaker 2

(56:54) Like, the best nausea pills that I can find to prep with and then take that And then do everything. (57:06) Do you like ginger ale?

Speaker 1

(57:08) I fucking love ginger ale. (57:09) I like ginger ale. (57:10) I always ask for it on airplanes.

Speaker 2

(57:14) Yeah. (57:15) I

Speaker 1

(57:15) just went through a case of it last month. (57:17) Was

Speaker 2

(57:18) Yeah. (57:18) We're going through a case right now. (57:20) But, yeah, ginger ale would be a necessity. (57:23) But, yeah, would take me? (57:27) Me and Alex.

Speaker 1

(57:28) Are you guys sick?

Speaker 2

(57:30) No. (57:31) Just like ginger

Speaker 1

(57:31) ale. (57:32) That's awesome. (57:33) Because I I

Speaker 2

(57:34) It's just good.

Speaker 1

(57:34) People who don't like, they associate ginger ale with being sick, so they don't like it because it reminds me

Speaker 2

(57:40) I also eat saltines for fun. (57:41) So I'm an old man. (57:45) I told you I'm an old fart at heart.

Speaker 1

(57:48) Do you do you eat popcorn with a spoon?

Speaker 2

(57:51) No. (57:51) I do other gross things to popcorn.

Speaker 1

(57:55) Just tell me. (57:57) Lighten the mood for

Speaker 2

(57:57) a second. (57:58) So I really like the best part of buttered popcorn is the butter flavor. (58:03) Right?

Speaker 1

(58:04) Do you lick the bag? (58:06) Oh, I fucking molestered bag.

Speaker 2

(58:09) Oh, I I rip it. (58:10) Rip it just so that I can get it there.

Speaker 1

(58:12) Blah.

Speaker 2

(58:13) All access.

Speaker 1

(58:14) Rub it on my face. (58:15) I'm kidding. (58:17) Oh my god.

Speaker 2

(58:17) Improve my tongue skills.

Speaker 1

(58:20) Yes. (58:21) Nice. (58:22) Very nice. (58:24) I used to, like you know, at family gatherings when multiple bags of popcorn were being made.

Speaker 2

(58:31) Oh, I have to hide it. (58:33) Can't do that. (58:34) I don't do that with anybody seeing. (58:36) I literally have to, like, disappear in another room, check, rip it, do it really quick, and then toss it before anybody can see.

Speaker 1

(58:45) I would just be like, can I have that back? (58:49) And, you know, let's say I was at, like

Speaker 2

(58:51) I don't even do that. (58:52) I just sneak the bag when no one's looking.

Speaker 1

(58:54) Oh, no. (58:55) It it was save the bag for Leanna. (58:57) Oh my gosh. (58:57) I would just like a salt lake. (58:59) Like a fucking deer on a salt lake just anyway oh my god.

Speaker 1

(59:05) I am sorry. (59:06) I get, like, tearing my

Speaker 2

(59:07) ass off. (59:08) Do have to get going.

Speaker 1

(59:09) I don't wanna do this.

Speaker 2

(59:11) I don't

Speaker 1

(59:12) because starting with the fact that you had your dad get that without asking, but we hadn't even talked yet. (59:21) I don't know where it came from. (59:22) You're not showing me. (59:23) I'm saying, give me the opportunity right now. (59:26) Like, you can show me.

Speaker 1

(59:27) I'm still here or you're still here rather. (59:30) You're not doing it. (59:31) You're not telling me where it's from. (59:33) You're not telling me anything except, like so this is as good as got it from some. (59:41) You know what I mean?

Speaker 2

(59:42) I'll show you proof of where I got it. (59:45) Well, I don't have all of it right now. (59:48) I don't think they finished sending me all the emails.

Speaker 1

(59:52) Can you please tell me, like, how this went down with your dad? (59:58) Because when I said confide in somebody, it was because I was worried about you. (1:00:02) And I

Speaker 2

(1:00:02) thought I talked to him before you even sent me that.

Speaker 1

(1:00:05) You did? (1:00:05) Yeah. (1:00:07) Can you please elaborate?

Speaker 2

(1:00:08) Because But don't know. (1:00:10) Here's let's

Speaker 1

(1:00:12) see. (1:00:12) Here's one. (1:00:15) I need to go through

Speaker 2

(1:00:18) You received an email?

Speaker 1

(1:00:19) I slept like crap last night.

Speaker 2

(1:00:23) And so this is just the first one that says, like, thanks for your So blind. (1:00:28) Email.

Speaker 1

(1:00:32) No reply at what? (1:00:33) What like, aid access?

Speaker 2

(1:00:36) I have to pull up the website. (1:00:37) Oh, when I get and then the next one is this is where it actually gives helpful info.

Speaker 1

(1:00:52) Is is this it? (1:00:58) No. (1:01:00) How is that not

Speaker 2

(1:01:03) Here. (1:01:03) I'll I'll pull it up. (1:01:05) I'll show you more of it tomorrow.
(1:01:08) That's all the emails I've gotten today since it's been ordered.

Speaker 1

(1:01:15) And why did you do this before we even talked about it? (1:01:21) I have to know.
(1:01:22) I'm reading. (1:01:25) Make sure nothing's changed because it's been a while.
(1:01:28) Like, can you please just answer that?

Speaker 1

(1:01:31) Because I've asked.

Speaker 2

(1:01:32) Because I wanted to have it. (1:01:34) I wanted to have it and have it available just in case.

Speaker 1

(1:01:40) How much was this? (1:01:42) What? (1:01:43) Because I wanna know. (1:01:44)
Because I get to know. (1:01:45) I get to know everything.

Speaker 2

(1:01:48) It was $200. (1:01:51) What?

Speaker 1

(1:01:55) Are you serious? (1:01:58) How? (1:01:59) I'm I'm a little worried.

Speaker 2

(1:02:01) I know. (1:02:01) That price is amazing. (1:02:03) You know what I what I think?
(1:02:06) When

Speaker 1

(1:02:10) when I hear that, I'm really worried that it is what it's supposed to be because it's normally, like, $550 or adjusted for inflation, 650.

Speaker 2

(1:02:25) Where people get abortion?

Speaker 1

(1:02:29) Down here. (1:02:30) Maybe we live in America right now.

Speaker 2

(1:02:32) I mean, now I you're bitching and complaining that it was too hard to get this before. (1:02:37) This is the first one. (1:02:39) Cambridge reproductive health consult consultants. (1:02:43) Got approval for there. (1:02:44) Didn't order it.

Speaker 2

(1:02:45) Aid access. (1:02:46) Got it. (1:02:46) Yeah.

Speaker 1

(1:02:47) Wait. (1:02:47) Hold on. (1:02:48) You I'm I'm lost. (1:02:49) You got approval? (1:02:50) What does that mean?

Speaker 2

(1:02:53) You said eight access. (1:02:54) Yeah. (1:02:54) It was eight access.

Speaker 1

(1:03:01) So that's a 150 or less. (1:03:03) How how did you end up spending $200?

Speaker 2

(1:03:09) But, yeah, that's the route I went.

Speaker 1

(1:03:11) So you you went ahead with this. (1:03:16) This is not my fault, but don't because I never said

Speaker 2

(1:03:19) I'm not I'm not blaming you. (1:03:21) I'm not saying, like, you owe me anything. (1:03:25) I got it on my own volition, and you don't owe me anything.

Speaker 1

(1:03:30) So if

Speaker 2

(1:03:30) I don't

Speaker 1

(1:03:30) take that, you're not gonna be pissed at

Speaker 2

(1:03:32) I mean, I'll be pissed at you for other reasons, but not because I'm out $200.

Speaker 1

(1:03:38) Like okay. (1:03:40) So you're No.

Speaker 2

(1:03:43) You don't owe me money.

Speaker 1

(1:03:45) I'm not worried about that. (1:03:46) That is a dude. (1:03:48) That's

Speaker 2

(1:03:49) Well, you keep saying, like, oh, like, don't worry. (1:03:51) Don't buy stuff.

Speaker 1

(1:03:52) Don't buy Yeah. (1:03:52) Well, I did think it was, like, $650, which is a little bit worse. (1:03:56) But, no, $200 is half an hour on the phone with my attorney. (1:03:58) Do you get what I'm saying? (1:03:59) Like, that's nothing.

Speaker 1

(1:04:00) It's not that. (1:04:01) I mean, I don't know. (1:04:02) I don't claim that $200 is nothing to other people, but, like, I don't want you to be I don't want one more reason why you're pissed at me. (1:04:10) Like, oh, like,

Speaker 2

(1:04:12) what am I supposed to do

Speaker 1

(1:04:13) with this? (1:04:13) Now wasted it or some shit. (1:04:14) I don't know.

Speaker 2

(1:04:15) Pretty sure the potential to get subpoenaed at any time in the future takes the cake for any reason to be upset.

Speaker 1

(1:04:26) But it's potential. (1:04:29) I've had a really, really messed up experience, and I don't know. (1:04:38) It was

Speaker 2

(1:04:38) I I mean, everything being said, I at least feel like tonight was good to just get here, talk. (1:04:52) It definitely lowers any tensions.

Speaker 1

(1:04:55) Mhmm.

Speaker 2

(1:04:56) I feel like we're back to neutral, which is right where I like to be.

Speaker 1

(1:05:02) That's where I like to be too. (1:05:03) I don't need enemies. (1:05:05) I don't need anyone else on my shit list because I don't want a shit list at all at all. (1:05:14) I don't like drama. (1:05:16) I don't like

Speaker 2

(1:05:18) It just likes you. (1:05:19) It just likes you.

Speaker 1

(1:05:23) I Anyway, I I get it. (1:05:25) I know. (1:05:27) I I don't know what to do. (1:05:29) I really I have to get up at 06:30. (1:05:33) I really don't know what to do.

Speaker 1

(1:05:35) I'm sorry.

Speaker 2

(1:05:36) I can leave this in the sink?

Speaker 1

(1:05:39) Yeah. (1:06:03) I'm not even mad at her after pooping in the room. (1:06:06) That was something else. (1:06:09) That was the worst time in the world. (1:06:12) If it's been more in recent months, by the way, it's because, like, that's not my dog.

Speaker 1

(1:06:18) I mean, it's

Speaker 2

(1:06:19) not my dog, but it's

Speaker 1

(1:06:20) that's just no. (1:06:21) It's it's his dog. (1:06:22) Like, that's he's master. (1:06:25) You get what I mean? (1:06:25) Like, she doesn't so when he would let her out all these years, including, like, the first few months you lived in your house, he would well,

Speaker 2

(1:06:36) fine. (1:06:36) You you coming

Speaker 1

(1:06:37) out? (1:06:37) Yeah. (1:06:38) Yeah. (1:06:44) So, anyway, yeah, she barks for me because I'm the omega. (1:06:48) Alright.

Speaker 2

(1:06:50) I'll see you later.

Stop playing dumb. This is what YOU explained to ME: If my hcg and progesterone levels go up by my repeat bloodwork on Monday, then it's a baby conceived in February. We may have conceived twice in that case (one in Jan, once in Feb).

If the hcg and progesterone levels don't change by Monday, then it's likely the baby we think we conceived in Jan that may have stopped growing and my body has not let go of it yet.

This is all our best guess. We may never know what happened to our baby/babies.

First of all, I did not manipulate anyone, second of all, we just deleted those texts for the second time today. Not sure where you are getting them from, so you can go ahead and explain? Third of all, I'm going on a walk with Alex with a fever, so you can knock it off. We had a good day.

I took these today before you told me to

Even if I fell in love with this pregnancy and 100% wanted to keep the baby, it would not change the fact that getting pregnant was an accident.

What I choose to do not has nothing to do with how I got here.

Question now that I'm having another unintended pregnancy...the details are fuzzy since it's been 13 years:

What is your recollection of how that happened to us? I mean, we were in our mid-20s with Masters degrees, we are both smart people. We knew where babies come from. How did we manage to get me pregnant?

Kind of being hard on myself about the thing as how history is repeating itself.

I said pulling out sucks, you said "i know my cycle, cum inside me" and i did

Just once?

I asked BD#1 how this happened the first time around (bc I am in such disbelief that this is happening again).

You and I on the other hand, definitely DIDN'T talk about my cycle and I did not say it's okay to cum inside me.

If I miss the window now, I might not be able to do it again for a few years. 😞

What window?

I'm talking about IF the pregnancy progresses. I can hurry up and get boudoir photos done now and maybe pull off something halfway decent with modified poses and editing.

I'm considering hurrying up and getting that boudoir photo shoot done as a bday gift to myself like I had been planning to before finding out I'm 🤰

Be honest- do I look too pregnant already? Let's say I manage to get it done in the next few weeks.

Yeah dude, way too much stomach for a sexy classy boudoir that you would be proud of

It doesn't help that you're just a small person. Gaining any kind of weight on your frame really sticks out and is obvious

Thanks for your honesty. That was a nice way of putting it.

Speaker 1

(0:08) Hi, sir. (0:08) Are you Chris?

Speaker 2

(0:09) Yes, sir.

Speaker 1

(0:10) Oh, no. (0:10) I'm not the police department.

Speaker 2

(0:12) How's it going?

Speaker 1

(0:12) So what's going on today?

Speaker 2

(0:14) So my neighbor, she lives right over there.

Speaker 1

(0:18) The next steps?

Speaker 2

(0:19) Yeah. (0:20) Okay. (0:20) She's been harassing me. (0:22) Like, it it's it's it's a it's a long story. (0:27) Mhmm.

Speaker 2

(0:27) But tonight was an escalation, and I told her I didn't wanna talk with her and pretty much just told her I just couldn't ignore her and not talk to her. (0:40) Okay. (0:40) And it really upset her. (0:43) And she started throwing out all kinds of threats. (0:46) And I've got a video of her.

Speaker 2

(0:48) I can show you guys of her. (0:49) She's like, I'm gonna come over there, and I'm not gonna leave until we resolve this. (0:54) And I've got a video. (0:55) I've walked both my front and back doors, and she comes up to the door and just on the door calling me and like, for six six and a half minutes.

Speaker 1

(1:06) What was she wanting to talk to you about?

Speaker 2

(1:09) She just wants to talk. (1:10) So right now, what's going on with us is so we made a mistake and accidentally got pregnant. (1:19) And she took abortion pills and is, like, on the fence. (1:26) And she she took them, but didn't have it didn't actually fully come out. (1:31) But it's still maybe inside of her, but dead, but doesn't know for sure.

Speaker 2

(1:37) And it's just causing a lot of stress, and it's super, super messy situation. (1:44) Yeah. (1:44) Sorry for sharing all this. (1:46) I know you guys had a long night. (1:49) But yeah.

Speaker 2

(1:50) So that's going on, and she's going through a divorce right now with her husband. (1:55) Mhmm. (1:56) And she has three kids right now, so she's going through a lot. (2:01) And, yeah, she's kind of a messy, stressful situation to begin with. (2:05) And she wanted me to talk with her, but she was saying a bunch of, like, threatening stuff.

Speaker 2

(2:13) And the main reason I I wanted to talk with you guys tonight

Speaker 1

(2:17) Mhmm.

Speaker 2

(2:17) Was because she was implying that she's going to call the CCPD, and she implied that she's going to tell them that I, like, raped or did something sexually abusive to her. (2:31) Mhmm. (2:31) And that is absolutely not the case.

Speaker 1

(2:33) Yeah.

Speaker 2

(2:34) And I just wanna do everything I can right now to protect myself from her lying and doing stuff like that.

Speaker 1

(2:41) Yeah.

Speaker 2

(2:41) So I don't know if you guys can, like, open a profile for for me or whatever, but I just like that to be documented.

Speaker 1

(2:50) Yeah. (2:51) So, yeah, so on this call, I can divert you from you. (2:53) I can document that talking to you. (2:55) I can give you an event number too, and I'll put a bunch of comments in everything she's telling me. (3:01) So as in the future, she does try to make allegations against you or whatever it may be, you can give them that event number.

Speaker 3

(3:10) They

Speaker 1

(3:11) can go back and pretty much look it up, and they'll see all the comments that I'm that I'm putting in there.

Speaker 2

(3:16) If if this helps at all. (3:17) So her her name is Leanna Davis. (3:19) Mhmm. (3:20) So this is just just tonight. (3:22) So it started at 06:12, and there's, what, one.

Speaker 2

(3:29) That's twenty. (3:31) That's another 10, so that's 31. (3:34) That's, like, it's, like, more than 40 calls from her within just a couple hours. (3:40) And I told her, I I don't wanna talk, so I just ignored all the calls. (3:46) And she's it pissed her off, and she's insistent on it.

Speaker 2

(3:50) She's insisting. (3:51) And then, yeah, it's the 911 calls, but that, and then I can show you the the quick video. (3:57) I don't know if you guys care.

Speaker 1

(3:59) No. (3:59) No. (3:59) You can show us that. (4:00) Was she threatening to how was she threatening you? (4:02) To physically harm you?

Speaker 2

(4:03) No. (4:04) Not physically. (4:05) She's threatening to

Speaker 1

(4:07) Make those allegations?

Speaker 2

(4:08) To that. (4:09) Uh-huh. (4:09) And she's also threatening she's saying that I coerced her into taking the abortion pills against her will, and that's illegal in Texas, which I don't think it is. (4:22) Like, you she's an adult. (4:25) She's older than I am.

Speaker 2

(4:26) She's, like, 36, 37. (4:28) You're an adult. (4:29) I can't force her to do anything. (4:31) She took pills and is not happy with it, This is it it's a long video, but I was sitting down, so I

Speaker 1

(4:40) walk up. (4:42) And in that video, is she saying that she's gonna make a little bit an

Speaker 2

(4:45) issue? (4:46) I don't think she says she's gonna call the CCPD, like, once or twice here. (4:53) This is a really long video. (4:55) Six minutes.

Speaker 3

(4:56) Yeah. (4:56) No. (4:56) You're fine.

Speaker 2

(4:57) But you can see I start talking to her in just a moment.

Speaker 4

(5:09) I told you I'm not talking to you.

Speaker 5

(5:31) That

Speaker 4

(5:41) she I'm not talking to you. (5:43) Kids

Speaker 2

(5:44) in the

Speaker 5

(5:44) back. (5:44) I don't believe you're

Speaker 2

(5:45) And she's the only one at the house, so there's three unattended kids. (5:48) Fall.

Speaker 5

(5:49) I'm the back. (5:49) Straight from the

Speaker 1

(5:50) c c

Speaker 2

(5:50) And the oldest one there is, what, and seven, and then three your mom. (5:55) So she

Speaker 4

(5:57) I'm not talking to you.

Speaker 2

(5:58) Left her three kids unattended in a Nope. (6:01) Bath for bad. (6:06) This is this is pretty much the gist of it. (6:09) No.

Speaker 5

(6:09) You are turning into someone I don't recognize. (6:12) You are becoming an abuser. (6:13) You need to knock it off. (6:14) You need to go back to how we were earlier. (6:16) I'm not gonna stop.

Speaker 5

(6:17) This can go all night. (6:19) Trust me. (6:19) You know I said it. (6:20) This can go all night. (6:23) All night.

Speaker 5

(6:24) Easy. (6:25) Call me now. (6:27) Yeah.

Speaker 4

(6:27) She's I'm not talking to you.

Speaker 2

(6:29) I thought I'm not gonna talk to her. (6:30) She makes a thread about let's see. (6:32) Here's another one. (6:34) Makes a thread about how she's got, like, some picture she needs to show show me. (6:38) So I say, alright.

Speaker 2

(6:39) Talk to me about it. (6:40) Tell me what it is. (6:40) You do. (6:41) I'm not opening the door. (6:42) Okay?

Speaker 2

(6:42) She's like, no.

Speaker 5

(6:43) Fucking enough. (6:44) I can see your father.

Speaker 2

(6:46) Towards the end, I told her she's not welcome on my property.

Speaker 5

(6:59) Yeah.

Speaker 2

(7:05) Yeah. (7:06) You're not welcome to be in front of my house right now. (7:08) You can leave.

Speaker 5

(7:09) Will you answer so we can talk productively? (7:12) We need to talk. (7:13) This isn't okay.

Speaker 4

(7:14) I'm not

Speaker 2

(7:14) talking to you right now.

Speaker 5

(7:16) Nothing you've said is okay.

Speaker 2

(7:18) You need to leave my property.

Speaker 5

(7:19) I'm gonna leave. (7:21) Answer your phone so we can work this out, or CCP will be here in five minutes.

Speaker 1

(7:29) Do do you have an idea on me to see what's that

Speaker 2

(7:31) going for? (7:31) Yeah. (7:31) I'm gonna get that idea. (7:32) Okay. (7:33) Fine.

Speaker 1

(7:54) Yeah. (7:55) So the best advice I can I can give to you about that one then is pretty much just keep that video?

Speaker 2

(8:01) Yeah. (8:02) And I've got a bunch of texts that she sent. (8:04) I mean, if you thought the the 40 phone calls was bad, like, the text messages is just, like, insane.

Speaker 3

(8:10) Do you want a harassment report, or you just want to document, like, on here that, What's the difference? (8:17) So for the harassment report, it'd actually be a criminal offense, and then there'd be a whole case for it because he's calling you, like, the 40 times. (8:27) That's why I'm asking.

Speaker 2

(8:28) Yeah. (8:28) I don't think not right

Speaker 1

(8:29) now. (8:29) Mhmm.

Speaker 2

(8:30) I mean, for me, I I literally just want as little to do with her as possible. (8:35) I mean, maybe I, in the future, will get, like, a restraining order or I don't know. (8:41) Was it a gag order to, like, not call me or text me?

Speaker 3

(8:45) Restraining order.

Speaker 1

(8:46) Yeah. (8:46) The restraining orders are the ones. (8:48) But you would also have to apply for that on your own. (8:50) We we can only pretty much enforce I mean, we can enforce restraining orders, but it's pretty much just to report it at that time.

Speaker 2

(8:59) Yeah. (8:59) I'm not looking to do anything. (9:00) I I just wanna protect myself, and I just wanna make a note of this. (9:05) And, like, I mean, if I'm not trying to, like, add more shit to the shit policy's already got going on. (9:13) So I just I mean, anytime a woman makes, like even she didn't come out and just say, like, I'm gonna call and tell them that you raped me.

Speaker 2

(9:22) She was implying it, and that's something very serious. (9:27) And Yeah. (9:29) I've never called 911 or the cops before, but that's something that I just wanna protect myself.

Speaker 3

(9:35) So what so my recommendation is like, how you didn't answer the door? (9:41) Don't. (9:42) So everything you've done is right. (9:45) You're recording her coming over here, ringing the doorbell, which doesn't make sense that you're harassing her to come over. (9:51) Anyway, that's beside the point.

Speaker 3

(9:54) So if she comes over and starts ringing the doorbell, record it. (10:00) If you're getting, like, a bunch of phone calls like she had been

Speaker 2

(10:03) She's calling me right now.

Speaker 3

(10:05) I would either block it or I don't know if you have a way to, like, put her specifically on silence.

Speaker 2

(10:13) So there's now there's an ex, I don't know how to say, extraneous circumstance right now. (10:24) So now she's saying, and she's been saying this for, like, the last thirty minutes that she's so because of the nature of the abortion, it was a missed abortion, meaning that the stuff is dead inside of her, but it didn't come out Mhmm. (10:45) When, like, it was supposed to. (10:47) And so for, like, the last two weeks, she's been waiting for it to just kinda pass naturally. (10:54) And she's texting me now saying that all this stress has caused her to actually, like, do that.

Speaker 2

(11:02) So now she's telling me that she needs my help, and I need to come over to her house right now because she's actually, like, in a pile of her blood in the bathtub, and she's, like, expelling the aborted baby right now. (11:18) And now I I'm texting her. (11:20) I'm like, look. (11:20) Like, you you're threatening legal allegations. (11:22) Like, I need an invite.

Speaker 2

(11:24) Like, it's it's I don't want anything to do with her, but at the same time, I want her to be safe. (11:31) If she actually is, like, aborting this fetus right now and she's in a tub with, like, blood, it's it's safe. (11:40) Everything, like, the pills and stuff, everything I've said like, seen online is says that it's safe, but there is always a chance of complications.

Speaker 3

(11:48) Yeah. (11:48) So here's here's my thing. (11:51) Don't don't even put yourself in that. (11:54) If she actually needs us, you can tell her to call 911, and then that appropriate route can be taken. (12:01) If she's behaving like this, you're especially threatening sexual assault, your best bet would be keep as much distance as possible.

Speaker 2

(12:10) I mean, like like

Speaker 1

(12:11) I get

Speaker 2

(12:11) it. (12:11) It makes sense. (12:12) It's like she's like she's like, please, I need help right now. (12:21) Like, come right now.

Speaker 3

(12:26) Okay. (12:26) So she's for the past three minutes, she's been texting me that she needs help, but it hasn't

Speaker 2

(12:31) She hasn't called emergency services.

Speaker 1

(12:34) Yeah. (12:34) I mean, she may just be trying to get you to go over there. (12:37) We're go over there and talk to her too, and we're gonna see everything on her end. (12:42) What I mean if it's going to this extent, I would say in the future, if she doesn't stop and you tell her, you're gonna call us back, and we can go with a harassment charge. (12:54) Or we can at least write it up, and there'd be an investigation and get something in mind as far as a restraining order, things like that.

Speaker 1

(13:02) Okay.

Speaker 3

(13:02) And for the record, for the harassment to go through as, you know, these guys prefer it, there can't be, like, two way communication. (13:10) So her calling you 40 times, you can't answer or

Speaker 2

(13:13) Just keep it her

Speaker 3

(13:14) back. (13:15) Yeah.

Speaker 2

(13:16) Well, I I've been texting a few times, but it's it's like a 20 or 30 to one ratio of, like, text that's Yeah. (13:23) Kind of sort of back and forth that would, like I mean, I'm not looking again, I I want her to be safe. (13:28) If she's fucked up right now, I would very much appreciate it if you guys could

Speaker 3

(13:32) talk to her and make

Speaker 1

(13:33) sure she's Yeah. (13:34) We'll talk to her.

Speaker 3

(13:34) Okay. (13:35) Yeah.

Speaker 2

(13:36) I I I'm not looking to to press charges or do anything to her

Speaker 1

(13:38) right now. (13:39) In in future reference, if if, like, let's say, you decide, look. (13:43) I'm gonna block you or whatever, and she starts texting you through the numbers, tech like, those text apps, you can text whoever from some random number. (13:52) You can always save all those messages, save the videos, and call us back here, and you can you can go that route if you want to. (13:59) Okay.

Speaker 1

(14:00) Alright? (14:01) So I'm gonna give you this as the event number. (14:02) Everything you're telling me, I'm gonna put it down in the comments for the call. (14:05) Okay? (14:05) Okay.

Speaker 1

(14:05) And this is gonna be my information. (14:07) I'm officer Orsak. (14:08) My ID number is 18936.

Speaker 2

(14:09) Sounds good. (14:10) Thank you. (14:10) Her name is Liana Davis. (14:13) She has three kids right now that are asleep.

Speaker 1

(14:17) We're gonna go ahead and talk to her if she's if she's been been doing this, see what the her problem is. (14:22) Okay? (14:22) So

Speaker 2

(14:23) Sounds good. (14:23) Alright.

Speaker 1

(14:24) You need you need to just call us back. (14:25) Alright?

Speaker 2

(14:25) Sounds good. (14:26) Thank you, guys.

Speaker 3

(14:26) Yes, sir.

Even if I fell in love with this pregnancy and 100% wanted to keep the baby, it would not change the fact that getting pregnant was an accident.

What I choose to do not has nothing to do with how I got here.

Question now that I'm having another unintended pregnancy...the details are fuzzy since it's been 13 years:

What is your recollection of how that happened to us? I mean, we were in our mid-20s with Masters degrees, we are both smart people. We knew where babies come from. How did we manage to get me pregnant?

Kind of being hard on myself about the thing as how history is repeating itself.

I said pulling out sucks, you said "i know my cycle, cum inside me" and i did

Just once?

I asked BD#1 how this happened the first time around (bc I am in such disbelief that this is happening again).

You and I on the other hand, definitely DIDN'T talk about my cycle and I did not say it's okay to cum inside me.

I can't be annoyed by this. I'm right and pissed. There's nothing playful about this to me. You know we can't afford to have poor communication. I am asking you to shoot straight with me and you won't.

The next time you ask me about how I'm doing or about the pregnancy or what I plan to do with it, this is exactly how I'm going to treat you. The exact same treatment. Dick around for hours and never answer. See how you like it.

You don't get to know dick about dick if you can't even communicate. I'll talk to you when you are ready to answer a question directly without deflecting, making some comment, or returning my question with a question. Good night.

And here I thought there was a 1% chance we might be turning a corner and could actually enjoy each other again.  Like how it all started.

Would've been nice to see the epic goodbye before parting ways forever..

Why is a buildup required

As in maybe after a couple of relaxing nights. Trust building nights, then maybe

I'm telling you right now; i don't want sex tomorrow, no sex, I'm uncomfortable with that right now. Got it

I got it. I never questioned that. I was only questioning what was up with this buildup. That was a first.

I get it.

Like I already told YOU, we can't do it until we have those last two results. Got it?

Why are you not acknowledging my questions

No, the plan was for you to go get my mother and bring her back to my house, then for you to take me to the ER. You agreed to that and understood the urgency. Instead, you pretended to go get my mother, and then stopped responding to calls and texts while I was bleeding at my house. I had to walk bent over at a 90° angle and bang on Jackie's door for her to help me.

You left an elderly woman outside in the cold waiting on you for 40 minutes in the middle of the night. This is the same older lady who you were so intent on helping while I was away at my conference earlier this week.

Why did you go through my wallet? And when did you do that? And take photos!!

All of the Sunday flights were return cross country flights. None of them were outbound. You lied.

Oh his Command would know if that flight schedule changed "last minute". Kyle said "unless things have changed since I was in flight school" they typically don't have outbound flights on Sunday. He never had a Sunday flight unless he was returning to Corpus. So the fact that Chris was in Corpus on Saturday says there was likely no chance he would have had a flight on Sunday regardless of a "last minute" schedule change. Any last minute change may have moved his Monday flight up to an early briefing time but other than that there was like next to zero probably he would have needed to report for a flight on Sunday.

But none of that should have precluded him from helping you get medical care

Reasons Why I'm Feeling This Way:

- First and foremost, you are in an incredibly vulnerable position right now. You are in the middle of a contentious divorce and custody case following your life being upended, and you have experienced a lot of trauma. You lost your husband and life as you know it without reason, and more recently, something completely unexpected and unfair happened at work. You rightfully have PTSD and adjustment disorder w/ depression & anxiety. It is NOT YOUR FAULT.
- You have not dated or spent time with another man in this way for many years. Arguably ever! You have continuously been in one monogamous relationship after another since you were a teen, with the exception of a short break at age 21. You are 36 now. You have little- if any- frame of reference for having an adult relationship like this when you are not already in a relationship. You're not used to being burned.

- He seemed like an incredibly nice, respectful, and rare guy. Surprisingly so. Educated, a former pro tennis player, has a great career (in the Marines training to be a pilot), attractive, articulate, and single on top of that. Plus the convenience of him living right next door! It seemed perfect.
- You enjoyed your time together! No doubt. The experience made you feel alive for the first time in a long time. You had things in common (fit, former dual sport athletes, etc.) and you seemed compatible. You didn't know that the two times you hung out were going to be it- you expected there to be more fun times. It was a great distraction from your current situation. You badly want to do it again!
- You're confused, because the feelings seemed mutual. He's the one who initiated the idea of hanging out! He clearly enjoyed your times together too, or he wouldn't have finished, come back a second time, slept over both times, or exchanged food on Xmas Eve. Omitting the fact that he's Omitting the fact that he's been talking to someone for months and bending the truth about why he was going on his trip was a crappy thing to do, but you still don't want to think of him as a typical guy who only wants one thing (you might have done the same thing in his position!). But how could he do this? He knows you have kids, he knows you're going through a divorce- why would he mess with you like this?

- You're mourning what could have been. It stings even more because this happened over winter break when you have a ton of time to think and fantasize. You're not at work, your Mom isn't living here/visiting, and importantly, for the first time ever your husband and children have not been around to occupy your time. For Christ's sakes, you went jogging (Jogging!!! TWICE.) for the first time in 9 years, walked Maggie alone for the first time in 8 years, and have been reorganizing your house! You've had a TON of unprecedented spare time to let your imagination run wild, even in just this short week and a half.

Reasons Not to Be Upset:

- This could have gotten you in big trouble in terms of your divorce/ custody case and caused you to lose what matters most. It could make you lose favor with the court, resulting in the loss of primary custody/time with your children and/or assets when it comes to the division of property.

Things I'm Stressing Over

- Was it something I said/did? Was it Maggie?
- Is this a preview of what dating as a divorcee with 3 kids is going to be like? At BEST, because this was a really good guy?
- Are all men the same, even the seemingly nicest and most respectful ones?

Reasons to Feel Optimistic

- If he does indeed have a gf in Mexico now, there is a high probability of that not working out. It's literally over 4.5 hours away by plane/14 hours away by car and an international relationship. How often would they realistically see each other? Plus you have the advantage of living next door. He's going to miss her. You're convenient, and he sees you every day.

- If he does indeed have a gf in Mexico now, that indicates that he is willing to do (very) long distance, improbable relationships. So if things don't work out with this girl, in theory, having a long distance relationship from NC or elsewhere should be nothing.
- He's technically not a cheater. If he was indeed talking to a girl in Mexico for months and they weren't technically dating, he was honest with you about it right away once they were dating. So if you want to fantasize: IF she exists, IF they were to break up, and IF you were to start dating, in theory he wouldn't cheat on you while you're in different states.

That was from like January 2nd. It was in the immediate aftermath of finding out that you were a liar and a cheater. I was processing my feelings. Much has changed since then. And what you are showing me has nothing to do with you slipping abortion pills into my drink and then abandoning me and leaving me for dead.

Much of everything you've ever told me is a lie. This is me briefly stepping out the back door to call the dog inside, and while I'm doing that you can hear YOU quickly stirring my drink a few times with a spoon and then closing what sounds like a cap to a container. It had to have been my drink because you can hear how close you are to my purse (where the phone was inside recording). I think you actually brush/bump against it.

Do you see where this is going? You planned to murder our baby, and you didn't care what happened to me in the process. It seems that you were surprised by how quickly the pills you drugged me with kicked in (hence why you almost fell asleep) and you didn't want me to get treatment too quickly because you wanted the pills to work. So then you tried to run out the clock and left me in pain and suffering longer than necessary. (10:34) There's all my apps. (10:36) Nothing is on. (10:37) Here's everything I have.

Liana

(10:39) Okay. (10:41) So we only have to do this once. (10:42) Go to your like, I itemized it. (10:44) Go to your text, please. (10:46) I don't wanna sound commanding.

Liana

(10:51) Okay. (10:52) Where am I? (10:54) Delete me. (10:55) Delete it. (10:55) Delete the whole thing, the whole thread.

Liana

(10:58) Swipe. (11:01) I don't exist. (11:02) Delete it. (11:03) Delete the whole thing.

Chris

(11:04) Can't be undone.

Liana

(11:06) Do it. (11:07) Okay. (11:07) Go to calls. (11:12) Same thing.

Chris

(11:14) Alright. (11:15) Do I just look you up?

Liana

(11:17) Yep. (11:18) Delete it. (11:19) These calls never happen.

Chris

(11:24) So how do I do you know how to delete calls, like, call records on here? (11:30) Because, like

Liana

(11:31) I'm a visual person. (11:32) Can I may I?

Chris

(11:40) Delete. (11:41) Delete what? (11:42) I mean

Liana

(11:43) Just it's been, like All? (11:47) Ah, hold on. (11:48) Or delete, like, unless there's a super important number you need. (11:52) Could you do by date? (11:52) Like, just delete two, three days worth of calls, like, for everybody.

Liana

(11:57) You know what I'm saying?

Chris

(12:00) Put in your name. (12:00) Fancy. (12:02) That's, like, every call.

Liana

(12:03) 26. (12:04) 20 When the hell was that?

Chris

(12:06) I don't know. (12:07) Didn't happen.

Liana

(12:08) Didn't happen. (12:09) Next. (12:10) Photos. (12:10) I won't judge. (12:12) I would do the same thing.

Liana

(12:13) The pictures I took of myself, go to your photos. (12:16) I wanna see I don't care if you have dick pics in there. (12:18) I'm not here to judge. (12:18) I wanna see from January 9 to January 24. (12:20) I wanna make sure they're not in there.

Chris

(12:23) So this is your profile. (12:24) I don't have any

Liana

(12:26) What do mean profile?

Chris

(12:27) Like, your profile. (12:29) Everybody has a profile on your phone.

Liana

(12:31) I don't have a pro maybe it's for you, not for me.

Chris

(12:35) Like like, that has a profile. (12:37) My dad has, like, a profile, and we have, like, all the images.

Liana

(12:42) Yeah. (12:42) That's under text. (12:43) So how do you still have that? (12:44) That's my dad. (12:45) Right.

Liana

(12:46) So, like okay. (12:47) Let me show you.

Chris

(12:48) So I go to you.

Liana

(12:49) Yeah. (12:49) I went to you. (12:50) All deleted. (12:51) Yeah. (12:51) But, like, if you deleted the text, then the profile shouldn't be there.

Liana

(12:54) You see what I'm saying?

Chris

(12:55) Well, it's because I still have your phone number saved. (12:58) Okay. (12:58) So I went into my contacts and pulled you up like that. (13:03) You still exist.

Liana

(13:04) Okay.

Chris

(13:05) I pull up your profile.

Liana

(13:07) I didn't know I had a profile. (13:08) Okay.

Chris

(13:09) Yeah. (13:09) Everybody. (13:10) If you have a contact, it's

Liana

(13:11) Yeah. (13:11) It's not

Chris

(13:12) contact. (13:12) Bad

Liana

(13:14) For me, it's under text. (13:15) Like, so this is your contact. (13:17) Right? (13:17) Like, from

Chris

(13:18) my phone? (13:19) Gallery. (13:23) Reset.

Liana

(13:24) Just go to, like, the ninth. (13:27) January 9. (13:28) Sorry.

Chris

(13:29) I don't know how it's sorted. (13:34) I mean, this was I don't know what date.

Liana

(13:38) How does it not say dates?

Chris

(13:40) I think it's just by dates. (13:45) But, I mean There's

Liana

(13:51) not a single date on a single thingy?

Chris

(13:54) It goes by recent.

Liana

(13:57) Just tap on the chair. (14:03) Okay.

Chris

(14:04) Details. (14:06) I got that. (14:06) This was February 5.

Liana

(14:08) Like, says just at the top of every picture, it says what date or the time and the date.

Chris

(14:13) Yeah. (14:14) Not for me. (14:16) It's

Liana

(14:17) how do you ever find anything if you're looking for it?

Chris

(14:20) I I mean, it's just chronological. (14:22) This is most recent and then more in the past.
(14:25) Just looking for stuff from you.

Liana

(14:35) Okay. (14:35) I don't know how, like, how far to go. (14:38) Just tap on anything.
(14:39) The USA shirt. (14:41) Tap on that.

Liana

(14:45) January 14. (14:47) Okay. (14:48) Keep going. (14:49) We're gonna take it back to the ninth.

Chris

(14:51) Of January?

Liana

(14:52) Yeah. (14:53) I think that's where I first sent you anything compromising.

Chris

(15:02) There's the third.

Liana

(15:04) Okay. (15:04) Alright. (15:05) Now we know where to start. (15:06) So now scroll slowly. (15:07) I trust you.

Liana

(15:08) I just like, today is fucked up. (15:14) Is that you? (15:15) Sorry.

Chris

(15:16) That's me.

Liana

(15:17) Nice.

Chris

(15:18) That's also me.

Liana

(15:20) Happy MLK Day. (15:23) Car selfie. (15:26) Slow scroll. (15:27) There you go. (15:31) You're good at the slow scroll.

Liana

(15:33) Most people aren't.

Chris

(15:36) I mean, yeah, I guess you're being slower than I am on purpose.

Liana

(15:43) You could go faster. (15:45) I can I can scan?

Chris

(15:53) I don't think he really sent me anything compromising anyway.

Liana

(15:57) Are you joking?

Chris

(15:58) I mean, you sent me photos of another person, like, in scantily clothes.

Liana

(16:05) I sent you. (16:07) Okay. (16:07) You're being a gentleman.

Chris

(16:12) But, yeah, that's all my photos.

Liana

(16:14) Okay. (16:16) The next one is one sec. (16:20) Let me show you what I was looking for. (16:21) Tell me if any of these ring a bell. (16:23) This this is what I need, wiped off this planet.

Liana

(16:29) Not because I don't want you to have it, just because my life changed today again. (16:40) But thanks for mentioning what you just mentioned because that is just one of many things that isn't gonna happen now.

Chris

(16:46) What?

Liana

(16:47) I mean, it's a absolutely minute thing compared to everything else looking big picture, but Not doing my photoshoot anymore. (17:05) It's number 1,000. (17:07) Okay. (17:08) I think it starts with that. (17:10) That cannot exist.

Liana

(17:13) So if you have it anywhere else, because, like, I know in my phone, I can save stuff in a note, and I sometimes do. (17:18) Definitely, that can exist. (17:23) I won't judge. (17:24) I won't go, why did you save that in a note? (17:26) I I just wanted

Chris

(17:27) So this is

Liana

(17:28) this planet.

Chris

(17:28) All the photos I have and so albums. (17:34) This is every album on my phone. (17:37) We just went through recents. (17:39) Mhmm. (17:41) This is one photo I have in favorites.

Liana

(17:44) This needs to be off this planet.

Chris

(17:47) This is my camera, things that I took. (17:53) I

Liana

(17:55) I'm I I already saw your pictures. (17:57) I'm like there are, like, four or five in particular. (18:00) That needs to be off this planet. (18:05) Definitely that. (18:07) Yeah.

Liana

(18:07) Pretty much those five. (18:09) Look. (18:09) My face isn't in any of them, but it's like, nothing can be transmitted because I am really, really lucky that the 13 pages of crap that I have to pull out of my ass, doesn't say text because this is round one, my understanding.

(18:26) Like, round one of discovery, They could go back and do a deeper dive for a second round. (18:31) They could ask for all my social media, all my texts, all my calls, every purchase history.

Liana

(18:36) Like, they could know everything that I buy when I go to a gas station. (18:40) Do you get what I'm saying? (18:41) Okay. (18:41) Last thing is go to your recordings. (18:43) I'm not gonna judge.

Liana

(18:44) I know people do it. (18:45) Recordings?

Chris

(18:46) Yeah. (18:47) Like, video?

Liana

(18:48) Or audio, like, voice recordings. (18:51) I have to be thorough. (18:52) I'm sorry. (18:52) This is like

Chris

(18:53) What do you mean voice recordings? (18:54) I don't have, like

Liana

(18:55) Okay.

Chris

(18:56) Like What's a

Liana

(18:57) Voice memos like like that.

Chris

(19:02) I don't think we I have any voice. (19:06) I I mean, I don't know. (19:07) I don't have anything that's a voice recording. (19:10) You have videos? (19:11) Memos?

Chris

(19:12) No. (19:14) So Plus we never sent each other a voice memo.

Liana

(19:17) That's either you're really, really polite or really, really that's endearing. (19:26) Okay. (19:26) I record stuff. (19:27) Like, not not I wouldn't record us, but some people do that. (19:32) You know what I mean?

Liana

(19:33) Some people do that and listen to it later. (19:36) I don't know what you're into. (19:38) So, like, for instance, I made it a habit just because I knew he was doing it of recording him, and I wanna make sure you didn't record us doing anything compromising. (19:53) That's what I'm getting at.

Chris

(19:55) I don't have a tool for recording. (19:57) We have videos to record.

Liana

(19:59) You don't have a voice memo thingy.

Chris

(20:01) Like Voice memo.

Liana

(20:04) Or it might be called okay.

Chris

(20:05) Let me look up voice

Liana

(20:08) Hey, Siri. (20:09) What is the Android equivalent of voice memos? (20:16) Voice recorder app. (20:17) Yours is called voice recorder app. (20:21) So sound or sound recorder.

Liana

(20:24) It might be called sound recorder.

Chris

(20:29) Sound. (20:31) No?

Liana

(20:34) Okay.

Chris

(20:35) I think I would have had to, like, get it, like, pay for it.

Liana

(20:38) Or You know what I'm talking about. (20:39) Right? (20:40) There like, it's just voices. (20:41) Like

Chris

(20:43) I have stuff that, like, I send on WhatsApp, like or you can send a a voice message. (20:55) Like

Liana

(20:57) I know.

Chris

(20:58) I know

Liana

(20:59) what just don't.

Chris

(21:00) Like those things. (21:02) But I have that on WhatsApp, but I don't have it on anything else, and we've never done anything on WhatsApp. (21:12) So that's the only voice thing I can think of.

Liana

(21:16) Okay. (21:17) Because alright. (21:19) Just making sure. (21:20) I can't believe so this is the shit that was going down in September. (21:24) Like, I would record stuff.

Chris

(21:26) Yeah. (21:27) I don't record anything.

Liana

(21:28) Nope. (21:29) Mike. (21:30) Yeah. (21:31) Please stop.

Chris

(21:31) That's weird.

Liana

(21:33) Yep. (21:34) I would record a lot of shit. (21:35) Okay. (21:36) Anyway, just making sure. (21:40) Good.

Liana

(21:40) Less is better. (21:41) Sorry to wipe it clean like that if there was anything you had wanted to save. (21:46) I assume nothing is sentimental. (21:48) Okay. (21:48) Check.

Liana

(21:50) You wiped your phone clean. (21:51) Do you have another phone on you? (21:53) I I know that, Chris, I know this sounds bizarre. (21:56) Like, this is I'm trying to save my liking. (21:58) I'm trying to save everything, like, control.

Liana

(22:01) Just I'm trying to stop the bleed. (22:02) Like, stop the bleed.

Chris

(22:05) I don't have a second phone.

Liana

(22:07) Okay. (22:09) I have not been able to live like a sane person for a long time. (22:13) This isn't your fault. (22:14) This is, like, as a result of my situation. (22:16) When you live with an abusive person, you do all kinds of like, I have a second phone.

Liana

(22:20) Not it's it doesn't work. (22:22) It's like my basically, whenever I upgraded to that, this was my last phone. (22:28) Does that make sense? (22:29) So sometimes I would sleep with it on recording to pick up on anything that you fucked with me in my sleep because that was a thing.

Chris

(22:38) Yeah. (22:39) I just traded my phone in when I got a new phone.

Liana

(22:42) When did you get your new phone?

Chris

(22:46) Like, two years ago.

Liana

(22:47) Okay. (22:48) Well, I keep my old phones just because, like, we use them as get a ratchet iPhones for like, go out to a restaurant. (22:57) It's like, Oprah. (22:58) Like, you get a phone. (22:59) You get a phone.

Liana

(23:00) You get a phone, and the kids just they sit, and they So Anyway, I

Chris

(23:05) Sorry. (23:05) I don't even so I don't even get it. (23:07) Like, so you you're worried that, like, stuff that we sent could, like, jeopardize your legal case?

Liana

(23:13) It is this not clear? (23:14) Should I I'm not trying to be mean.

Chris

(23:16) Like I mean, guess I don't I mean, I know you're going through, like, a divorce. (23:20) I guess I don't, like, appreciate.

Liana

(23:22) Okay.

Chris

(23:23) How serious or what's at stake.

Liana

(23:26) Let me back up 20 steps. (23:29) All those things that you had planned have planned with your girlfriend, like, you know, you wanna do this, then you wanna do this, then you do this. (23:37) Right? (23:37) I had all those things.

Chris

(23:38) I had

Liana

(23:38) an eight. (23:39) We were the Joneses. (23:40) Right? (23:41) The Joneses. (23:42) We we still were.

Liana

(23:43) Like, when you moved in, when it was like, oh, hey. (23:46) Are you the new neighbor? (23:47) Oh, when he called Albert and get you the garage code? (23:49) Like, biggest problem at that point was it's hot outside. (23:54) Like, that was my life was completely different a year ago today.

Liana

(23:59) Everything changed in an instant. (24:01) Just husband went off the deep end. (24:04) Okay? (24:04) And I found myself thrust. (24:06) Like, it's be careful who you marry, Chris.

Liana

(24:09) I'm serious. (24:10) Like, he was the love of my life. (24:11) He was my best friend. (24:12) I lost my best friend. (24:13) I lost the person who knows everything about me, all my secrets, all, like, good, bad, ugly, everything in between, all my dirt, and my life partner who I share three kids with, gone.

Liana

(24:27) With and the worst part is no explanation. (24:30) Like, none because he's like we don't know what's going on him. (24:35) I've had three to four doctors say they think he's bipolar with psychotic features. (24:38) Like, I we don't know. (24:39) But my life just ended one day, ended with and with no explanation.

Liana

(24:45) It's like, I haven't even grieved it because it's so it's like, how does that happen? (24:52) That that should be punishment for murder. (24:53) Like, for your life to end, for to loo like, essentially lose your spouse, yet he's still alive and he hates you for no reason. (25:00) Like, just something went off in his brain. (25:04) And and to you know, I've already been told, like, you're probably never gonna get a a why at this point.

Liana

(25:11) So he thinks I'm, like, out to he thinks he's a victim. (25:15) Like, he won't step foot in this house because he thinks I'm out to get him. (25:19) Like, he's not well. (25:20) Okay? (25:21) This isn't I'm not describing a like, you're of sound mind.

Liana

(25:26) Okay? (25:27) What I'm if I tried to explain this to him, it wouldn't like, it's not the same. (25:33) I don't know how to explain it.

Chris

(25:35) Like,

Liana

(25:35) he's high functioning, but not anyway, so I'm dealing with a crazy person to be politically incorrect. (25:42) Like and I don't just mean, oh, crazy. (25:44) Yes. (25:44) No. (25:44) Like, actually, I got an emergency detention warrant and had him committed to Bayview for two two days.

Liana

(25:51) Do know what that is?

Chris

(25:52) No.

Liana

(25:53) Mental health hospital. (25:54) Okay.

Chris

(25:55) You got him committed?

Liana

(25:57) Yeah. (25:58) From oh my god. (26:01) You don't even know what was going down. (26:02) Like, that's why

Chris

(26:03) I'm sorry. (26:03) I don't need to know.

Liana

(26:04) No. (26:04) It's in this

Chris

(26:08) no. (26:08) Don't want to? (26:09) Don't need to.

Liana

(26:09) Okay. (26:10) Well, I thought you kind of knew what was going on and what's at stake here, but, like, if you don't, I feel the need to impress upon like, he abandoned the family for six weeks in the summer. (26:21) Just fucked off to South Carolina, didn't talk to his children, which was the scariest part for three weeks. (26:26) Like, I I'm used to being demonized by it, but, like, the fact that he didn't talk to his kids, like, everyone thought he was gonna kill himself. (26:32) And then he comes back all of a sudden, like, wants to live in the house only because his attorney, who he had obtained at this point, told him to, obviously, because, you know, she's like, you can't make it look like you abandoned the kids.

Liana

(26:46) So he moved back in. (26:48) He was like, I am moving back. (26:50) Like, I read this in an AI voice because it's so robotic and so scripted. (26:54) You can tell it's not him. (26:55) I am moving back in to contribute to the children's well-being.

Liana

(26:59) Like so I had my cousin come, my 50 year old cousin who's my oldest godfather. (27:05) I think he might have met him, maybe, this was in August, to be a bodyguard in this house for a week because husband who fucked off for six weeks is suddenly coming back, and there's nothing I can do because I don't have a an order of protection. (27:20) And he basically my cousin, who has his own family in Maryland, lived with us for a week to make sure Devin didn't try to do something crazy. (27:29) And then he eventually had to leave, and Devin and I are living as roommates for six weeks in this house from mid August to October. (27:39) And for the first month, you know, he's he's beyond reason.

Liana

(27:43) Can't talk to him. (27:44) Like, he doesn't if I even tried and using and I don't talk to him like I talk to you. (27:49) I mean, I talk to him in what I call the meditation app voice. (27:52) Like, you know, just super non confrontational. (27:55) Like, he would run to the guest room and lock himself in the room, and then eventually he changed the door and changed it to a a room that locks so that no one could get in.

Liana

(28:06) And

Chris

(28:07) So you're worried that

Liana

(28:08) He's fucking crazy. (28:10) He's a crazy person.

Chris

(28:11) That if he got photos from me that I could jeopardize things?

Liana

(28:16) In essence. (28:17) But not only is this what I'm trying to tell you, let me just take that to its end really quick because we're we're, like, at the finish line. (28:25) For four weeks, I tolerated that living as roommates, and, you know, it's like imagine someone wearing a skin suit of your spouse that looks like them, but it's not them. (28:35) Like, the lights are on, but no one's home. (28:38) I ended up calling the police five times in twelve days.

Liana

(28:42) And the sixth time was like, Jackie and I went down to the courthouse, and I got a judge to sign like, I I spoke to her for thirty seconds. (28:53) She literally paused, like, a Zoom meeting with another person who's in the middle of a case. (28:57) And as I'm talk she signed it right away based on what I was describing. (29:02) I was like, he's gone mute. (29:03) He won't speak.

Liana

(29:04) He's like, he won't even talk about the children. (29:08) Like, she signed it. (29:09) I was like, thank you, ma'am. (29:11) Served it on him. (29:12) Two of the their biggest motherfuckers at Corpus Christi police department because I told them like, they they're like, okay.

Liana

(29:18) Who are we dealing with? (29:19) I'm like, you're dealing with a disabled Iraqi war vet with PTSD. (29:22) He is five ten and two hundred and sixty pounds. (29:24) You might wanna send your bigons. (29:26) Okay.

Liana

(29:26) The two biggest motherfuckers I've ever seen, I didn't even know they had the stock at at CCPD, come and haul him off. (29:36) I pack his slippers. (29:38) I'm gonna consume contact lens solution. (29:40) Like, I don't know how to do this. (29:41) I don't know how to commit my spouse to a lunatic asylum, for lack of a better word.

Liana

(29:49) So, literally, I'm not even joking. (29:51) Like, that's what happened. (29:53) And then, of course, he never returned after that, which I wasn't expecting him to. (29:57) He got his own three bedroom apartment that cost more than the mortgage escrow and taxes on this house, which he absolutely cannot afford. (30:07) So I have no I have no clue who is who is funding this.

Liana

(30:12) But and then he never came back. (30:14) That was October 2. (30:16) Check this out. (30:16) This is what and then ever since, of course, he thinks he's a victim. (30:21) This was CCPD hauling his ass off.

Liana

(30:24) And then my favorite part's happening in a second here where I just turn off the porch light. (30:29) It's it's very, like, poetic. (30:31) Like, yep. (30:32) Let's end that chapter of my life. (30:34) And wait for it.

Liana

(30:38) I am done with crazy now, and he never came back. (30:44) So, I took possession of the house. (30:47) I took possession of the kids. (30:48) We had a temporary orders hearing on November 20 where we got this much custody. (30:54) So now not only is he crazy, like, as crazy as he was for just abandoning the family for no reason one day in July.

Liana

(31:02) Right? (31:03) Now he's scorned. (31:04) He's mad, like, raging mad. (31:08) So whatever he had going on before that would cause him to up and abandon his family for no reason and I don't I like, I would take accountability if there was accountability to take I had the flu when he left. (31:19) Me and Alex have a flu.

Liana

(31:20) I was in urgent care all evening finding out I had inflammation in my lungs, and then he just like, anyway, he's mad as shit and wanting like, it absolutely drives him bonkers that I am I have been kinda untouchable because I do everything right. (31:39) I mean, I'm not saying I'm a perfect person, far from it, but throughout this whole situation I have been, like, I've been doing everything. (31:48) You know, every text I send him, I do what I've been told, which is assume it will be read aloud in court by a judge out of context. (31:56) Okay? (31:57) Basically, I treat him as, like, I assume everything is being read by my worst language.

Liana

(32:03) So, anyway, they have been scrounging scrounging for anything they can use against me. (32:10) And for How many months has it been? (32:14) August, September, October, November, December, January. (32:16) Seven months, they have not been able to find it because I've been doing everything right. (32:20) I have been little miss on fleek.

Liana

(32:22) Like, nothing. (32:25) You're about to fuck that up. (32:28) You're wonderful. (32:29) I like you a lot. (32:32) I had to wipe you out wipe myself out of your phone.

Liana

(32:34) I'm gonna wipe you out of all my devices. (32:36) I have you like, evidence of you in at least two devices because, again, what, like, those screen oh my god. (32:42) Put it in the head. (32:43) The screenshots I sent you, this is round one. (32:45) They're gonna dig deeper.

Liana

(32:48) I've already had to turn over alt text. (32:50) This is, like, old news months ago. (32:51) I had to turn over alt text between me and him for the past two years. (32:55) Like, I had to go back to 2023 no. (32:58) 2022 at the time.

Liana

(33:00) Every single text I've ever sent him. (33:03) And you sent a lot of stuff to your spouse, like a lot of bathroom talk. (33:06) You know what I mean? (33:06) Like, just humiliating stuff. (33:11) So I knew this day could come in theory.

Liana

(33:16) I didn't know how this case was gonna go because getting a divorce is really expensive. (33:19) This is a what's known as a high conflict or contentious, contested divorce involving children. (33:27) That is about the most complicated you can get. (33:29) In Texas, the average divorce involving children is twenty three thousand or twenty six thousand dollars per side. (33:36) That's not if it's high conflict.

Liana

(33:38) This is likely to last their entire childhoods. (33:41) Like, this is, like, bankrupting. (33:44) He has already said to me that he will gladly go bankrupt, and he is trying hold on.

(33:55) He is trying to, like like, you need to know what we're dealing with because this involves you. (34:05) Okay?

Liana

(34:06) This was for no reason. (34:07) This was a few weeks after he left for no reason. (34:10) Like, this is this is crazy. (34:13) Like, I was, like, just back in Texas raising his kids while he was in South Carolina living in his childhood home for three weeks hiding out. (34:22) Like, he was mad at me because I was scared because he would beat the shit out of the children.

Liana

(34:29) Like, I've watched CL, our redhead. (34:31) He has picked her up by her head and thrown her, like, into a pile of toys. (34:36) And there was nothing I could do because he's twice my size. (34:39) Like, no other body weight supported by her head, head, and she's had a seizure before and thrown her for not moving, like, on command or not moving fast enough. (34:55) He I've watched him like, I've watched Callie.

Liana

(34:58) I I'm not even gonna go there. (35:00) I never wanna hear from this right now. (35:04) Why did you hit me on my birthday? (35:06) Yeah. (35:06) That was Callie on her sixth birthday.

Liana

(35:08) He didn't like the way she was using the faucet in that bathroom, and he hit her on her birthday. (35:13) Like, so he was mad at me for, like, being worried that he was gonna kill the children or internally decapitate them. (35:24) Okay. (35:25) And, yeah, I called the VA hotline, not the suicide line. (35:29) Press 1 for veterans.

Liana

(35:31) So he is like, he doesn't care. (35:33) At this point, he's out to prove a point. (35:35) He's not out to be reasonable or to, like, have some semblance of a livable life. (35:42) Like, he wants to be damaged. (35:44) Okay?

Liana

(35:45) And for seven months, they haven't been able to find dick on me, and now they can. (35:49) Do you do you kinda get what's going on now?

Chris

(35:51) Alright. (35:52) No bad pics to your ex. (35:54) No nothing.

Liana

(35:57) I have to look like the the patron saint of morality and just keep on doing what I've been doing. (36:07) I've gotten really good at it. (36:08) I can't make one mis step. (36:09) Not one. (36:10) I have to keep it here and here where he has to prove himself, and I'm Jesus.

Liana

(36:14) Okay? (36:15) Because that's what they think right now.

Chris

(36:17) I mean, it's not like the stuff you even sent was that bad. (36:20) I mean, it's not like it's gonna it's not gonna be sent anywhere.

Liana

(36:26) It's not gonna be what?

Chris

(36:27) Sent anywhere because it doesn't exist anymore. (36:31) Well, you have it.

Liana

(36:35) I don't know. (36:35) See, this is where, like, I'm limited by my knowledge of the legal system because I don't know if they make you, like, call Verizon and get that stuff because anyone could delete anything. (36:47) Right? (36:47) Yeah. (36:47) Might make me do that.

Liana

(36:49) Right? (36:49) So even if I even if I delete it, it's not gone. (36:54) I mean, nothing's ever gone. (36:55) It can be retrieved. (36:57) So I'm shitting myself a little over that.

Liana

(37:01) What I'm most concerned about okay. (37:04) Because we could delete this stuff all day. (37:07) I'm most concerned about is if you're approached, and this can look like a few things. (37:11) And I am so sorry if this happens. (37:14) Again, like, when I met you, it was still like, we weren't at this point.

Liana

(37:19) We were like, you know, he's not rich. (37:22) His parents were school teachers. (37:24) Even if his parents are helping him out, which they probably are, I can't imagine how else he's funding this new life with this. (37:29) Mhmm. (37:31) Like, I've heard from my attorney that his attorney drops clients the time because they run out of money.

Liana

(37:37) So I've been like, come on. (37:39) Come on. (37:39) Run out. (37:40) Like because I've been getting a lot of help, like, 5,000 from my uncle, 5,000 from my cousin, 2,000 from my former sugar daddy. (37:46) Don't judge me.

Liana

(37:48) Previous life. (37:50) Anyway, he is that that comes up in discovery. (37:54) Oh my fucking god. (37:56) But, anyway, I I don't know how deep they're gonna dig. (38:01) I'm hoping it goes no farther than this.

Liana

(38:03) Like but, like, you know, I tried to warn you. (38:07) Like, I tried to kinda drop hints. (38:09) Like, yeah, we we have a you know, there's an amicus attorney who could theoretically knock on your door and ask you questions. (38:15) Like, you you remember something like that.

Chris

(38:17) Right? (38:17) You told me about that.

Liana

(38:18) I am pissed, attorney. (38:19) You get it? (38:19) That might fucking happen. (38:21) So I'm not so much worried about, like because okay. (38:24) Now I can see everything they're asking of me, which but I am worried someone's gonna come to your door, or they're gonna call you.

Liana

(38:33) Or you're gonna have to show up to some court case either by the way, fun fact, Nueces County does not do Zoom. (38:41) Okay? (38:43) Harris County, Bexar County, all the major you know, they're on board with it. (38:49) People who live out of state, how do I know this? (38:51) Because I tried to call character witnesses at our last court case.

Liana

(38:54) No. (38:54) They have to be in town. (38:55) So if you're not from here like me, oh, shit. (39:00) Hope your friends of six months have, you know, good things to say. (39:04) You know what I'm saying?

Liana

(39:05) Mhmm. (39:07) So, yeah, you could easily get like, if this goes any farther, if they ask for texts, and I'm like, oh, there are no and they're like, uh-uh. (39:15) We we found something out from somebody. (39:18) Okay?

Chris

(39:18) So, like, I could get subpoenaed to come back here even though I'm living in another state?

Liana

(39:23) Yes. (39:24) Is what I'm saying. (39:25) Yes.

Chris

(39:26) Just the gift that keeps on giving.

Liana

(39:28) Do you see why I was like, you gotta come over here. (39:31) You have to talk. (39:32) Because the that's worst case scenario. (39:35) That has not happened yet. (39:36) So far, it's just a big effing inconvenience.

Liana

(39:40) It's just like, okay. (39:43) Now I have to take a leave of absence for two weeks while I make a thousand phone calls and find all that shit they're asking me for? (39:51) Because he doesn't, like, I I don't know if they're asking him for this. (39:53) I have no idea. (39:54) I don't know if it's like they ask him the same questions and cross compare it.

Liana

(39:58) I don't know. (39:59) But I'm the one who has the house, so I have all the records. (40:01) Like, I have all the tax records and the, you know, all that stuff. (40:09) But it's round one. (40:11) The fact that they're doing this so early kinda scares me because mediation's May 29, so I'm kinda scared they're gonna do a second sweep and ask for more detail.

Liana

(40:21) So, again, this could look like a few things if it happens. (40:24) It's it. (40:24) Here we go with shoulda, coulda, woulda. (40:26) But I've I've gotta, like we have got to get I you need an alibi because I'm not losing my kids. (40:34) Okay.

Liana

(40:34) I'm not doing it. (40:35) I'm not doing it. (40:36) Like, I

Chris

(40:39) I mean, you would never lose them. (40:41) You're just worried that you would, like, get less than a 100% custody.

Liana

(40:47) His original divorce petition, he is asking that I see my children every first, third, and fifth weekend of the month, that I give him the house, that I give him all of the contents of the house, that I pay him child support, that I pay him spousal support, and that I pay all of his legal fees. (41:07) That would be the legal let's forget, you know, being homeless with no children. (41:12) The legal fees alone, if I paid mine and his, that would be 6 figures. (41:16) Do you get what could happen and why I'm like, this is fucking bad. (41:25) This is it's getting worse.

Liana

(41:28) I've been happily coasting as untouchable Jesus for months now. (41:34) And, yeah, that all comes crashing down. (41:37) I don't know if

Chris

(41:41) the

Liana

(41:41) fact that I've already filed counts for anything. (41:44) According to my cousin who, granted, doesn't live in this state but has a lot of experience because his ex spouse was in way worse shape and that he, like, she would, like, take off in the middle of the night, and no one would know where she was and stuff. (41:57) I at least knew where he was when he in his car and drove to South Carolina in an agitated state even though he had a plane ticket. (42:06) You know? (42:07) Like, he told me, like, don't even don't even do it.

Liana

(42:10) Don't even go there. (42:11) Like, don't have relations with anybody. (42:15) And I didn't tell him about you, but he's been, like, my advisee. (42:19) Just the person I know who is who has gone through a situation that's the closest to mine. (42:28) And everything he said so far has been true.

Liana

(42:31) So, I mean, I do believe him to an extent. (42:36) Anyway what, Jackie? (42:45) There's a huge I sent her the same thing I sent you. (42:47) There's a huge red flag of a question that you need to explicitly ask your paralegal about. (42:52) She's talking about you.

Liana

(42:53) We're we've been the second I got that today, I was like, go back to talking in tone because I did for a while, just so you know. (43:02) Like, I didn't give any inkling in writing, and then I got sloppy because it seemed like, okay. (43:10) This is just about the kids, and I've already gained the upper hand. (43:13) Like, nothing's gonna happen unless I just, like, started keeping them home from school and, you know, they missed, like, half the school days. (43:20) You know, stuff that stuff like that.

Liana

(43:23) Like, I don't know. (43:24) He got a second wind is what it seems like because where the hell did this come from? (43:29) I don't even have the paperwork from the hearing in November. (43:31) We have nothing on paper. (43:32) I don't know who my kids are spending spring break with next month.

Liana

(43:35) No clue. (43:36) Like, I don't have basic answers to questions, and all of a sudden, it's like, bam. (43:42) So if that happens, a thousand policies have to reimburse you for having to come out here because, no, the court would not. (43:49) I have no idea at what point in your life that would be, you know, personal personally, your relationship wise. (43:59) I did not think that was gonna happen.

Liana

(44:01) I obviously wouldn't have put anybody else in that situation if I really thought that could happen. (44:08) Like, this is like turning into a rich people's divorce. (44:12) You get what I'm saying? (44:12) Not like a Mhmm. (44:13) Like, I don't know how he's managing this.

Liana

(44:16) This is this is, like, not what your average middle class person does. (44:21) This is like, did he start a fucking GoFundMe? (44:24) And if he did, I'm entitled to half of it. (44:26) I wanna find out about it. (44:27) Mhmm.

Liana

(44:30) Anyway alright. (44:31) So back to that was just background. (44:33) I'm sorry. (44:33) Like, it you needed debriefing. (44:37) I need you to forget about the little situation that has, I'm sure, occupied your thoughts for the past three days.

Liana

(44:45) Pretend that's not even happening because that's a whole different subject. (44:49) Let's pretend this is a week ago or two weeks ago or last month. (44:53) If I had come to you okay? (44:55) Pretend pick a date, January 19. (44:56) I don't fucking know.

Liana

(44:57) And I was like, Chris, I I just got served with Discovery. (45:04) Like, they could find out about you. (45:06) They could find out what we've done. (45:07) You know, I'm technically still married. (45:10) In that situation, ignore everything that has happened the past few days.

Liana

(45:14) Would you be willing to lie under oath? (45:16) You're a good liar. (45:17) That's actually gonna serve us really well. (45:20) But do you think you could do that or no? (45:22) It's fine.

Liana

(45:23) If not, I wouldn't ask you to if you don't think you can.

Chris

(45:36) Never had to do anything like that or be under oath for anything.

Liana

(45:42) Me either. (45:44) I'm not good at this. (45:46) Like, I shouldn't be in this situation either. (45:48) I'm I'm the same I'm in the same place as you. (45:51) I know I could do it if it meant if I could do it for them.

Liana

(45:54) Like, if I had to for them. (45:57) Yeah. (45:58) I mean, it's not like I'm gonna have to lie about a lot of things. (46:01) It's not like I've been hiding in comfort with him or, you know, doing things wrong in all these different areas. (46:07) It's literally this one thing.

Liana

(46:09) It's literally like, okay. (46:14) How did they phrase it? (46:16) Being intimate with somebody during the marriage. (46:19) Like, we're not even we've been separated for seven months, and he hasn't even lived here in five months. (46:27) You know what I mean?

Liana

(46:28) Like, we we filed on each other five, six months ago at the same time. (46:33) Like, it got filed into one another because we like, I filed and he filed, like, counterfile just to be salty. (46:44) Mhmm.

Chris

(46:48) I could be okay with it.

Liana

(46:50) Okay. (46:51) Thank you. (46:52) Thank you. (46:54) Okay. (46:56) It might not be in a courtroom.

Liana

(46:57) Remember, this might be like she is a magistrate judge, but it wouldn't be in that context. (47:03) It would just look like a lady in a suit. (47:07) It could be at your house. (47:08) It could be over the phone. (47:10) Like, she called Jackie.

Liana

(47:12) She has talked to Jackie. (47:13) She's talked to my victim's advocate, Kristen, over at Purple Door. (47:18) Do you even know what that is? (47:19) I don't even know

Chris

(47:19) I no idea.

Liana

(47:20) It's the women's

Chris

(47:21) So if they were to call me and be like they'd probably ask questions like, what do you what's your opinion of your neighbor? (47:32) What's your relationship with her? (47:34) Has she ever asked you for help? (47:36) Have you ever done anything? (47:38) Have you ever given gifts?

Chris

(47:40) Like, along those lines, I would imagine.

Liana

(47:44) I don't know if there would be that slow wind up. (47:46) Good thinking. (47:47) There might be. (47:48) What you just said would be more along the lines of what they would ask one of my friends, like, what they'd ask Jackie or, like, the other people I listed. (47:57) I had a whole list of witnesses for the temporary orders hearing.

Liana

(48:03) I think they would ask you, like, have they would cut to it, if you know what I mean. (48:08) Like, do I need to be more explicit?

Chris

(48:13) Have you ever had intimate relations with your neighbor? (48:16) Yes.

Liana

(48:17) And where did they take place? (48:18) This is a huge one. (48:19) This is that, if I had to guess and this is all guesswork

Chris

(48:24) I would just say no.

Liana

(48:26) You would say no. (48:27) Okay. (48:27) Alright. (48:37) Okay. (48:38) Now let's bring the situation into it.

Liana

(48:52) Again, that would be they get the phone records. (48:57) There is ample written evidence of what is going on right now. (49:05) I don't even know how we would manage to act like this that didn't take place here. (49:10) That that's a problem. (49:12) That's I they're gonna be more I'm gonna be in more trouble for the fact that it happened here when I was in possession of the kids than I am for the fact that it's adultery.

Liana

(49:27) Does that make sense? (49:30) Like, the fact that I actually broke two standing orders, by the way, which I don't care. (49:35) But I'm not allowed to drink within twelve hours of being in possession of the children, which is stupid for me because that means I just can't drink at all ever because he only has them for nine hours at a time every other weekend.

Chris

(49:50) Yeah.

Liana

(49:51) Does that make sense? (49:52) So I like, what I'm

Chris

(49:55) Mathematically impossible.

Liana

(49:56) Right. (49:57) And I but I was. (49:58) I can't even tell you. (49:59) I was, like, Jesus. (50:02) I was Jesus.

Liana

(50:03) Okay. (50:03) From July until we hung out, I didn't have a drink at all. (50:07) No. (50:08) I was just please make this situation stop. (50:11) Somebody help me.

Liana

(50:12) Like, just perfect mom. (50:15) Like

Chris

(50:15) And then you got super drunk. (50:17) Mhmm.

Liana

(50:20) Four times. (50:21) So here we are. (50:23) And all of that everything I've been through, all the trauma, all the abuse, all the stuff I will never be able to forget as long as I live, and then handling it like a boss for many months, just squashing all of my feelings. (50:41) I've not cried once over the situation with him, just so you know. (50:46) Husband walked out.

Liana

(50:47) Life as I knew it ended. (50:48) Imagine right now if your girlfriend and it's not the same because I've been with him for thirteen years. (50:53) Okay? (50:54) Ghosted you. (50:55) You never heard from her again, or you did, but she refused to tell you why.

Liana

(50:59) Just refused. (51:01) Now imagine you've been with her thirteen years. (51:03) You share a house, a life, and three kids. (51:05) That's what happens. (51:06) Okay?

Liana

(51:07) I have not shed one tear over this because I've just been in adrenaline mode the whole time. (51:12) I've not had time to feel bad for myself. (51:15) Okay? (51:16) And, like, I don't want all of that, like, all that having to be brave and having to be this, like, pillar of freaking strength and, you know, poker face for my kids. (51:32) I don't want that to be flushed down the toilet basically from this one thing that in the court's eyes I did wrong.

Liana

(51:39) Even though I did so many measures. (51:42) Like, the kids have no idea you were here. (51:43) You know what I mean? (51:44) Yeah. (51:44) Like, yes, you were here, but it didn't affect them.

Liana

(51:47) Like, if you pass them on the street, they probably wouldn't know who you are. (51:50) You know? (51:51) Or if they did, they'd go, is Kai here? (51:53) You know what I mean? (51:54) Like, they didn't they don't know.

Liana

(51:58) But no one is gonna care about anything. (52:01) When I say no, I mean, like, all they're gonna care about is the fact that I had a man here when I was using that for the children, and I was under the influence of alcohol. (52:11) Like, it's gonna get twisted. (52:12) It's gonna be made to look like What? (52:15) Deep.

Liana

(52:16) You know what I mean? (52:18) So

Chris

(52:21) no.

Liana

(52:24) We didn't drink. (52:26) It was a joke. (52:27) We didn't drink. (52:28) Okay? (52:29) No.

Liana

(52:30) We we're gonna have to do damage control. (52:36) Okay. (52:36) If

Chris

(52:38) And you do know that is a huge ask to ask somebody to purposely lie on your oath.

Liana

(52:43) I know. (52:44) That's why I asked you if you'd be willing.

Chris

(52:45) Huge. (52:46) Yeah.

Liana

(52:46) I know. (52:47) I know. (52:48) I know. (52:48) That's why I was like, we cannot text about this. (52:50) Like, just bring your happy ass over here, because I cannot text about this.

Liana

(52:54) This is too Yeah. (52:57) This is heavy shit. (52:58) Also, I the last thing I would want is a written record of asking you to run your oath. (53:03) Does that make sense? (53:04) Like so that's why I was like, are you recording me?

Liana

(53:09) Are you was that what that was just now? (53:11) Like

Chris

(53:12) It's like some you reminded me to say goodnight.

Liana

(53:25) So I'm thinking damage control here. (53:30) If there is damning evidence that we did stuff.

Chris

(53:35) I mean, you wouldn't know until after the fact if they had something that is a 100% certainty that they have. (53:43) If they're coming and asking us questions, then they don't have the proof yet.

Liana

(53:50) Or they're asking multiple people, and they're seeing if we're lying. (53:54) They wouldn't ask us together. (53:55) They would, like, they would ask you. (53:56) I'd have no idea what you said.

Chris

(53:58) So you'd have to say the same things.

Liana

(54:00) That's what I'm that's why you're here because I can't have this in writing. (54:04) I can't.

Chris

(54:05) Yeah.

Liana

(54:05) Jackie and I are meeting tomorrow, and I'm gonna drill her on what we are and are not going to say because she has this isn't hyped up. (54:12) She has literally been contacted, like, by the amicus attorney. (54:15) It it played a very small factor in custody decisions that were made because there was a morning, fun fact, where I had to flee to her house in the dark because Devin was going off on me. (54:29) And even though the kids were here asleep, I had to make a an agonizing decision. (54:34) Okay.

Liana

(54:35) Do I wake them up and get them out of the house too? (54:37) Or no. (54:38) They're asleep. (54:38) They're probably safe. (54:39) They're not in his warpath.

Liana

(54:40) And I left, and I had to hide out in Jackie's house for half an hour. (54:44) So that's why, yeah, they they called her. (54:47) It's it's fucked. (54:49) It's so fucked. (54:50) It's crazy.

Liana

(54:51) It's crazy.

Chris

(54:51) I would just the only things I would talk about would be the only interactions we've had, which would be back when when the dog was here. (55:00) Your girls would play with the dog. (55:03) I would see you and the girls playing outside. (55:08) Sometimes you would wave and say hi, but that was about the extent of our interactions.

Liana

(55:16) So this is assuming that they do not ask for text. (55:19) This is what you're talking about? (55:20) Okay. (55:21) Assuming they don't ask for text, yeah, we are just

Chris

(55:24) We're neighbors. (55:25) I know you're you have three daughter well, two daughters, one kid, one boy with long hair. (55:31) And That's the third gender.

Liana

(55:34) That's the third gender, the boys with long hair.

Chris

(55:36) I know that because they'd come over and play with the dog when I had it, and I see them, like, playing in the front sometimes. (55:44) And I hear your dog barking at night, and that's about it.

Liana

(55:47) I am so sorry. (55:48) I didn't know you could hear her barking at night. (55:50) She's up. (55:52) You never told me that. (55:53) I would've

Chris

(55:54) But that's

Liana

(55:55) done something about it.

Chris

(55:57) I can't really think of any other interactions. (56:01) That's about it.

Liana

(56:02) Like, I because I care. (56:06) I know this is not a big thing right now, but what, like, what time? (56:09) Does it wake you up or you can just hear it when you're already awake?

Chris

(56:13) I mean, it seems I would imagine it's you just let her out before putting her to bed at night, so I feel like it varies. (56:20) It changes.

Liana

(56:22) Has it ever woken you or your roommates up? (56:24) I feel really bad if it has.

Chris

(56:26) That's fine.

Liana

(56:28) I'm sorry. (56:30) I'm really sorry.

Chris

(56:33) This is worse than that.

Liana

(56:35) Yeah. (56:36) Alright. (56:36) There's a point to this. (56:40) Say exactly what you said one more time. (56:42) I wanna make sure it's the same.

Liana

(56:43) Okay? (56:44) So pretend

Chris

(56:45) All of the interactions that I've had with my next door neighbor who I think is 40 years old, about

Liana

(56:53) Shut up. (56:56) Did you throw that in there on purpose?

Chris

(56:59) But that could be a nice little detail if they ask me how old I think you are.

Liana

(57:04) You no. (57:04) You're gonna you're gonna drop that little detail. (57:08) They wouldn't ask you that. (57:10) That's weird.

Chris

(57:11) But I wouldn't add that. (57:12) Yeah. (57:13) But, yeah, my next year neighbor, the only times I've really interacted with her is when I'm coming home, we wave, we say, hey. (57:23) I know she has kids because they would come and play with the dog back when I had a dog or my roommate had a dog, and I see them playing in the front yard sometimes. (57:34) Besides that, can't think of any other interactions I've really had with

Liana

(57:39) her. (57:41) Okay.

Chris

(57:42) I know she has three kids. (57:43) She has a dog that barks at night. (57:46) And

Liana

(57:46) Just at night. (57:47) She barks during the day too. (57:49) Anyway

Chris

(57:49) That's about all I know. (57:51) Okay.

Liana

(57:53) My version would have been, like, yeah, there's, like, somewhere between three and four guys who live next door. (58:00) I think he's the one who owns the house. (58:03)

Sometimes helps out ever since Devin walked out, does odd jobs, does, like, man chores.
(58:08) Like

Chris

(58:08) Well, if you're gonna say that, then I need to say that.

Liana

(58:12) It's it's still jives. (58:14) Like, it's still no. (58:15) No. (58:16) No. (58:16) Like, this is this is, like, a healthy amount of we kinda know about the other person.

Liana

(58:22) But

Chris

(58:23) Well, I'm saying that I've never been over to your house. (58:25) You're saying that I have. (58:28) That makes a big difference.

Liana

(58:29) I didn't say you came in. (58:32) I mean, like, until very recently, were are

Chris

(58:35) you talking about? (58:36) What are man jobs?

Liana

(58:37) Like, building bikes in the garage. (58:40) And

Chris

(58:42) Still, that's on your property in your residence.

Liana

(58:45) That's no problem. (58:46) Okay.

Chris

(58:48) But if you say that and I don't say that, that looks weird.

Liana

(58:51) Okay. (58:52) Say that because that like, even the

Chris

(58:55) I helped you asked me to help put together a bike once, twice for your Like,

Liana

(59:01) actually, make it a point to include that. (59:04) The fact that, you've gone, like, gone no further than the garage. (59:08) Because even my ex knows that. (59:09) Like, the times you were doing that, because in on at least one occasion, it was sorry. (59:15) Put pins and needles in this one.

Liana

(59:18) It was supposed to be a surprise. (59:21) I even told him I was like, let me know before you come over. (59:24) Our next door neighbor Chris is in the garage building CL's bike, and he'd be like, okay. (59:28) Like, so even he knows you were in the garage because that was the tour he refused to do, which is why you were doing it. (59:34) Okay.

Liana

(59:34) So that's fine. (59:36) Like, you doing

Chris

(59:37) something with a bike building a bike two times.

Liana

(59:41) And it doesn't have to be this exact. (59:43) Like, I like the way you put it where it sounds like

Chris

(59:47) I know a little bit about you. (59:49) I have eyes, but that's about it.

Liana

(59:52) You have what?

Chris

(59:53) I have eyes. (59:54) I can see, like, you have kids that play in the front.

Liana

(1:00:00) Yeah. (1:00:02) If if you no. (1:00:03) That's good. (1:00:04) Like, if you if you don't know too much, like, that's a good thing. (1:00:07) But I think the whole, like, the fact that you've done outdoor or I don't know how to put it.

Liana

(1:00:15) Like, not in living spaces. (1:00:18) How's

Chris

(1:00:21) Sure.

Liana

(1:00:21) There we go.

Chris

(1:00:22) We'll go with that.

Liana

(1:00:23) You've never been and you and never been here when the kids were home because that was that was very true until recently. (1:00:31) Okay. (1:00:33) Now that's perfect. (1:00:36) Well done. (1:00:37) Now we move on to if it gets found out one of two ways that you have absolutely been here and we've been poorly behaved.

Liana

(1:00:51) I have a few ideas. (1:00:55) One is

Chris

(1:00:57) I plead the fifth.

Liana

(1:00:59) There you go. (1:01:11) Yeah. (1:01:12) If it comes up, like, if they get texts or even if they don't get texts, if you know what gets found out, I can't even think about it right now, that is, I think, harm reduction. (1:01:29) Right? (1:01:29) Like, I think, okay.

Liana

(1:01:32) If they don't have the text, but that gets found out, say you were here once.
(1:01:37) Once is better than four. (1:01:38) Right? (1:01:39) Yeah. (1:01:40) One time.

Liana

(1:01:42) Or say, yeah. (1:01:45) We did that. (1:01:46) It was at your place. (1:01:48) Which brings me to go by your text for times where I don't know. (1:01:55) Who is it?

Liana

(1:01:55) Your I don't know. (1:01:58) I call it my boss. (1:02:00) Who's your boss?
(1:02:01) When they call you in, Like, check really quick and see where you were. (1:02:06) Like, did you have to work at all or go in anywhere at all on the morning?

Liana

(1:02:19) Anytime before 3PM on January 17. (1:02:23) Can you actually look that up really quick? (1:02:25) Like, did you have to be anywhere?

Chris

(1:02:27) Could I? (1:02:28) I could find it pretty easily. (1:02:30) We keep a record of that on base. (1:02:34) I know I mean,

Liana

(1:02:35) do you happen to remember off the top of your head that you don't?

Chris

(1:02:39) If I could find it, I just need my military ID and a CAC reader and a laptop.
(1:02:46) I can pull it up. (1:02:46) I can go home right now and find it out in about five minutes.

Liana

(1:02:50) Okay. (1:02:51) Put a pin in that. (1:02:52) You can't find that out just by, like, looking I thought you said they text you the night before or something.

Chris

(1:03:01) There's a schedule. (1:03:03) And I guess I don't know if you can go back far on that.

Liana

(1:03:10) Like, this isn't I don't the less complex, the better. (1:03:16) Like, I don't want you to have to jump through hoops to find this stuff out just like if it could have been at seven in the morning or anytime

Chris

(1:03:26) Yeah. (1:03:26) The schedule doesn't go back more than a month.

Liana

(1:03:30) That was within a month. (1:03:31) It's only February.

Chris

(1:03:33) So the furthest the schedule goes back is the January 31 right now. (1:03:38) That's the furthest. (1:03:40) And it goes until well, it's not even available yet, but it would go until the fourteenth of Feb. (1:03:47) So it auto deletes every two weeks.

Liana

(1:03:52) Alright. (1:03:53) I still have my text with you. (1:03:54) I'm really gonna quick.

Chris

(1:03:58) What are you getting at?

Liana

(1:04:02) Harm reduction. (1:04:03) If something gets found out, we did it one time at your place, and I just need to make sure you were act actually at your place for at least an hour on January 17.

Chris

(1:04:13) I was there every night.

Liana

(1:04:15) What? (1:04:16) I

Chris

(1:04:16) was there every night.

Liana

(1:04:17) During the day. (1:04:19) Oh. (1:04:20) Because after school, I would have been with my kids. (1:04:22) Does that make sense? (1:04:24) Got it.

Liana

(1:04:25) Alibi. (1:04:25) It's called an alibi. (1:04:27) We're doing some really sketchy shit right now to try to save my life because someone is trying to ruin my life. (1:04:33) You think I'm trying to ruin your life? (1:04:35) Someone is actually trying to ruin my life.

Liana

(1:04:37) Like, I have the legal paperwork to prove it. (1:04:41) It got emailed to me today. (1:04:42) You get it? (1:04:42) Like, I'm not trying to be snarky, but holy shit. (1:04:47) Like, someone is aggressively trying to bring me down, and they're about they're gonna get a treasure trove depending on what they do here.

Liana

(1:05:02) Like, some some, not all the stuff he's ever done is gonna pale in comparison.

(1:05:10) Okay.

Just got the results of all those blood tests I had done at urgent care last week (CBC, CMP, febrile panel).

Everything was more or less normal. I'm slightly anemic (what else is new? I don't eat meat).

The one thing I tested positive for on the febrile panel was for antibodies for salmonella typhi, the bacteria that causes typhoid fever. 😬 However, the treatment for that is a azithromycin, which I just had two rounds of.

Ok thanks for letting me know

Sounds like pretty normal

I don't know if you heard me say this, but my first baby (the real first baby who was never born) also had a slower heart rate at 5 weeks. The OB/GYN in SC told me it could be a sign of an impending miscarriage. Exact same info as this time. And that baby went on to develop just fine for several more weeks with no intervention or medications.

Great, then you have your happy healthy 4th baby

Stop playing dumb. This is what YOU explained to ME: If my hcg and progesterone levels go up by my repeat bloodwork on Monday, then it's a baby conceived in February. We may have conceived twice in that case (one in Jan, once in Feb).

If the hcg and progesterone levels don't change by Monday, then it's likely the baby we think we conceived in Jan that may have stopped growing and my body has not let go of it yet.

Idk then

Wait now I'M confused:

what YOU explained to ME: If my hcg and progesterone levels go up by my repeat bloodwork on Monday, then it's a baby conceived in February. We may have conceived twice in that case (one in Jan, once in Feb).

If the hcg and progesterone levels don't change by Monday then it's like the

If the hcg and progesterone levels don't change by Monday, then it's likely the baby we think we conceived in Jan that may have stopped growing and my body has not let go of it yet.

This is all our best guess. We may never know what happened to our baby/babies.

This is also what I said to you on Saturday. We might never know exactly what Should I be worried about you?

Um we went over this yesterday. Either the baby stopped growing at a certain point and I am going to miscarry (hence the low heart rate), or you got me pregnant one of those nights when you stayed over 4 nights in a row. We don't know for sure.

We had sex, you came inside of me without protection. That's how I got pregnant regardless of when. We have never once used protection.

Do you seriously not recall our entire DAY's worth of conversations (in person, phone, and via text) about this yesterday? You were literally the one who explained it to me when I was asking you the same question.

viable pregnancy.

Cindy

So I'm trying not to read into the fact that they didn't have me schedule my next OB appt yet because they aren't sure this pregnancy is "viable."

I mean you were there...it felt like she just emphasized that the heart rate could be low because it's so early, right? I'm pretty sure I even point-blank asked if they're expecting a miscarriage and they didn't suggest anything like that.

RCS chat with Liana Davis

Not enough info for them to say for sure yet

Plus now there is somehow a possibility that this was conceived after taking pills..... it's fking crazy situation

I just want it to end

whatever you say, since I'm pregnant.

That is the only thing I will ever think of you as from now on. 😭

Wednesday, Mar 26 • 10:43 PM

Will you be coming to my next ultrasound?

Can you request off from like 11am-1pm on Thursday, 4/10? That's two weeks out from tomorrow. You said you had to give two weeks notice.

Just because my hCG and progesterone went up, doesn't mean baby's heart rate is any better.

And I do want you there. I do not want to see an unmoving baby by myself. I feel even less optimistic about its chances after what I learned this evening.

So, two things in the morning: 1) Get tested for the 🍌 and 2) ask for time away for this ultrasound. I ↓ ould* be recovered from your wretchedness by

I know. I'm telling you now since the timing seems right with you saying you wouldn't mind me meeting your dad.

Whether or not that happens, I'd like you to meet my mother before you leave Corpus permanently.

You should know who would be helping me raise your child, and she should have the opportunity to meet the father of her grandchild.

But i don't want to

It's a big IF. It's if baby continues to survive and if I decide to keep it.

It would be a small ask, considering you are planning on abandoning it its whole life.

But we don't have to talk about it now. I'd rather not.

Alex and I are about to go on a walk.

They are in evidence with CCPD.

I missed work today because of what you've done. I should be teaching class right now. I might have to miss more work depending on what my doctor says.

Ahh so you did lie to me this whole time...

And you knowingly were not pregnant. Yet convinced me that you were AND said it's impossible to get more pregnant. Therefore you planned to trap me this whole time

Imagine telling that story to this LO...

I never consented to abortion pills, I was never knowingly not pregnant, and I never trapped you. We cannot discuss this right now bc I'm in the middle of an ongoing
