

ORDER by Judge Edward M. Chen. The Court denies without prejudice 435 Mr. Mazik's motion for a special conference or order granting him access to settlement and share agreements. If the Court agrees with Mr. Mazik that he is entitled to a share, then those agreements may be relevant. However, at this juncture, the question is whether Mr. Mazik is entitled to any share. That issue depends on the scope of his claims and the scope of the U.S.'s claims as well as the other relators' claims. The scope of the respective claims is defined by their complaints which are public. The Court shall give Mr. Mazik an additional week to file his motion addressing whether he is entitled to any share -- i.e., his motion shall be filed by 2/25/2026.
