ORDER

KATHARINE H. PARKER, United States Magistrate Judge:

On August 18, 2026, the parties filed a joint letter requesting an extension of the deadlines for fact discovery and related discovery deadlines in the above-entitled action. (ECF No. 566) In light of the parties' representation that they anticipate raising additional discovery disputes requiring briefing and Court resolution at the September 15, 2026 Case Management Conference, the Court finds good cause to extend the discovery schedule. Accordingly, the amended discovery schedule is set forth as follows:

- All fact discovery due: November 20, 2026;
- Affirmative expert disclosures and reports due: March 1, 2027;
- Rebuttal expert disclosures and reports due: June 1, 2027;
- All expert discovery due: August 2, 2027.

The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to terminate the motion at ECF No. 566.

SO ORDERED.
