Re: United States of America v. Anthem, Inc., 1:20-cv-02593-ALC-KHP

Dear Judge Parker:

We represent Defendant Anthem, Inc. (“Anthem”). We write to respectfully request that the Court advance the next case management conference, currently scheduled for July 21, 2026, to July 6, 7, or 8, or, if those dates are not convenient for the Court, then July 15 or 16, 2026. Plaintiff does not oppose this request and has confirmed its availability on those dates.

Anthem seeks to advance the upcoming case management conference because the parties anticipate seeking the Court’s intervention with respect to several disputes and Anthem is concerned that delaying resolution of these disputes until late July may lead to corresponding delays in the parties’ discovery. Additionally, the Anthem counsel most familiar with these anticipated disputes have conflicts on the currently scheduled date.

Both parties anticipate raising issues at the next conference and agree that the conference should go forward promptly. For that reason, the Government respectfully requests that, if the Court does not grant Anthem’s request to advance the conference, it proceed as currently scheduled. Anthem respectfully notes that the counsel most familiar with the anticipated disputes are unavailable on July 21 and their participation would allow for a more productive conference. Anthem therefore respectfully requests that, if none of the proposed dates are convenient for the Court, the Court consider identifying alternative dates for the conference in lieu of retaining the current date. Anthem thanks the Court for its consideration of this request.

Dated: June 18, 2026

Respectfully submitted,

By: /s/ James A. Bowman
